But the main fact in the business is that the robbery which took place in connection with the construction of the Curran bridge is the direct result of the weakness shown by the Government in dealing with proven boodlers in 1891 and subsequently. Had Sir John Thompson carried out his pledge given three years ago, to let no guilty man escape, the people of Canada would not to-day be mourning the loss of $143,000 in one contract. Had Perley, Burgess, and every other suspended official been dismissed; had Arnoldi, McGreevy and Connolly been allowed to spend their full time in jail; and had Caron been dismissed in disgrace from the House, the Government boodlers would have taken warning, and as a result for every dollar spent in the last two years the people would to-day have a dollar's worth of work to show for it.

The open confession in this latest case will avail the Government nothing as a means of evading sentence. It is an admission of guilt that but constitutes an additional reason for dismissal from office.

Indigestion is stubborn but K. D. C. overcomes it.

THE BRIDGE SCANDAL.

The text of Sir Richard Cartwright's motion of censure: That it appears from the commissioner's report and from evidence taken before the Public Accounts Committee, with reference to the Wellington and Grand Trunk bridges.

1. That the said bridges were constructed during the first four months of 1893 by the Department of Railways and Canals;

2. That the department decided to have the work done on substructures by day labour, under a contract entered into by the department, to carry out the work as laid out by the department, and under departmental superintendence and direction;

3. That the original estimate by the department of the cost was $122,000 for the substructure, that the commissioners report that any reliable contractor would have executed the same amount of work, in the same time, for $160,000, whereas the amount charged to the department was $430,325, whereof $394,000 has been paid;

4. That the supply of timber and lumber certified to by the officers in charge of the work for the department was over 1,000,000 feet board measure more than could have been used;

5. That the cost of stone-cutting on the Wellington street bridge, by piece work, would have been $3,000, whereas the amount charged to the Government is $16,715, and the cost of stone cutting on the Grand Trunk bridge was still more excessive;

6. That the prices paid by the department to the contractor for labour were greatly beyond current price, in some instances being as high as $12 for work for which contractors only paid $4.50, and $9.20 for other work, for which contractors only paid $3.75;

7. That in many other respects the construction of the bridges was conducted in a wasteful and improper manner, and that in the opinion of this House, the Department of Railways and Canals is deserving of the severest censure for the inefficiency, neglect of duty, extravagance and gross mismanagement in connection with the said work.

"I was prostrated with a severe bilious complaint," writes Erastus Southworth, of Bath, Me. "After vainly trying a number of remedies, I was finally induced to take Ayer's Pills. I had scarcely taken two boxes when I was completely cured."

PEOPLE SAY IT IS MIRACULOUS.

Wonderful, Certainly, But the Same Work is Being Done Every Day by Paine's Celery Compound.

'Tis Folly to Spend Money for Medicines That Cannot Cure.

G. J. McDONALD, CORNWALL, ONT.

A well-known politician and business man quite recently expressed his sentiments very strongly to a small circle of friends. He said: "Our laws should prohibit the sales of all medicines—liquids and pills—that are made to sell only for the benefit of the manufacturers. Thousands of our people are daily deceived; they seek for health by using these nostrums, and the result in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred is failure and loss of money. I have myself been deceived many times.

"For the benefit of sufferers and society generally, I am pleased to say that there is one grand medicine in our midst that all can rely on—one that is worthy of a place in every home where suffering exists—I refer to Paine's Celery Compound; it cured me, and I know of several others who owe their lives to its use."

Yes, reader, this Paine's Celery Compound is certainly a triumph of modern medical science. People often assert that it effects miraculous cures. We know the cures are wonderful and marvellous, and wrought frequently after other medicines failed to even give relief. What utter folly then to spend money for nostrums that cannot cure.

For the benefit of the sick and afflicted, we give the experience of Mr. G. J. McDonald, merchant tailor, Cornwall, Ont.; his portrait appears above. Mr. McDonald writes as follows:

"After having given your Paine's Celery Compound a thorough testing, I am pleased to say a few words in its favour. For three years I suffered terribly from rheumatism. It seemed to me that I was forced to endure all the agonies and pains that a mortal could possibly experience from the dreadful disease.

"While suffering I tried many of the advertised medicines and also doctor's prescriptions, but never found a cure until I procured a supply of Paine's Celery Compound from MacHaffie & Elvidge, druggists, of this town. Paine's Celery Compound worked like a charm—it seemed to strike at the very root of my trouble. I am now cured; every pain is banished and in every respect I am a new man.

"I shall always consider it a pleasure and duty to strongly recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all who are afflicted with rheumatism."

Fraudulent Sweetbreads.

"A true sweetbread is perhaps the most wholesome meat that can be eaten," said a doctor yesterday, "but you are never able to get it. The sweetbread proper is the pancreas, which is one of the most effective agents in promoting digestion, but the sweatbrerd of trade is usually obtained from the throats of cattle and is what is called the thyroid gland. This gland rests against the windpipe, and while its texture is similar to that of the real sweetbread, it has not the same beneficial qualities. But some butchers, in order to make money, pass off the salivary gland, that which furnishes the saliva located in the cheeks, for a sweetbread. This is the most inferior substitute for all. The pancreas or real sweetbread is a most dainty morsel. It is of triangular form, while the sweetbreads obtained from the throat are of an oval form. But what is the use of making people dissatisfied? They have been eating thyroid and salivary glands for sweetbreads for years and have been satisfied. But then they have never tasted the real thing."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Household Hints.

When milk is used in tumblers, wash them first in cold water; afterward rinse in hot water.

A little flour dredged over a cake before icing it will keep the icing from spreading and running off.

Onions, turnips and carrots should be cut across the fibre, as it makes them more tender when cooked.

A couple of wintergreen creams or clove candies eaten before leaving the table will remove the taste of food from the mouth and neutralize the smell of wine.

But few trials will be needed to convince you that an ottoman made of a covered wooden box upholstered with denim or some other strong, washable fabric is an indispensable kitchen comfort.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., July 9.—Allan Stewart, of Springtou, near here, says that Dodd's Kidney Pills saved his life and he wants the fact to be known. For thirty years he has had kidney disease and gravel. Hundreds of dollars spent on doctors and medicine failed to do any good. On July 14 last, Mr. Stewart had to take to his bed and everybody considered his case a hopeless one. He heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and began using them. He says he noticed an improvement from the first and ten boxes cured him. He is now free from all pain and enjoys excellent health.

Killed in a Gravel Pit.

WOODVILLE, Ont., July 21.—While loading gravel on the farm of W. J. Moore, near this place, Henry Silverthorn, a young man about 20 years of age, was killed by the earth caving in on him. When a doctor reached him it was found that death had been instantaneous, his neck being broken. Deceased was a respectable and industrious young man. His parents, who live in the Township of Thorah, have the sympathy of the whole community.

Bradstreet's Review of Trade.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Bradstreet's says the disappearance of the great railway strike of 1894, the revival of regular freight schedules and the customary movement of produce and merchandise by water and rail, have done much to restore something like the preceding volume of trade. The most encouraging statement is merely that general business is only approaching the usual mid-summer proportions. The return to work of potters at Trenton and Wheeling, employes at Pullman, tube works at McKeesport, Pa., a further return of coke operatives in the Connellsville region and of coal miners in western and southern states, together with nearly all the recently striking employes, will furnish more industrial employment within a fortnight than at any previous date since April 1.

An Old Couple Foully Murdered.

SENECA, Mo., July 21.—C. L. Moore and his wife, an aged couple living near Tiff City, Mo., were found dead in their home, both having been shot through the head. There is no clue to the murderers, but the object must have been robbery as Mr. Moore was reputed to have considerable money in his house.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please," an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

A superior programme of games and sports will be run off and a baseball match between Peterborough and Auburn will be played. Make no other arrangements for July 24th, but take in the Auburn excursion to Jacob's Island.

The Foresters' Excursion to Buffalo.

Mr. Cooke, of Court Littlejohn, C. O. F., who was deputed to go to Niagara Falls and negotiatate for a cheap rate from that point to Buffalo, returned yesterday after having made very satisfactory arrangements. The excursion leaves Peterborough on the Civic Holiday via C.P.R. to Toronto, and thence by steamer across the lake to Queenston. At this point the Niagara Falls Park and River Railway, the finest electric railway in the world, have kindly undertaken to carry the excursionists over their line and across the river by steamer to Buffalo for an exceptionally low rate, further particulars of which will be announced on Monday. By this new route—which is popularly known as the "whirlpool route"—the Foresters excursion will this year be landed at the steamboat wharf at Queenston instead of on the American side at Lewiston as heretofore. At Queenston the double tracked electric car line is taken and the excursionists are carried along the edge of the Niagara river in full view of the Falls. All the wonderful points of interest for eleven or twelve miles will be in full view, until the steamer dock is reached, where the "Columbian," which plies between that point and Buffalo will be in waiting to convey the party into Uncle Sam's territory.

The horses ran as far as M. Halpin's grocery where their mad career was suddenly checked by coming into collision with another post. The runaway caused great excitement for a time, as it was feared Mr. Kenneally was seriously injured, but happily he was not.

VACCINATION.

The local hospitals have been notified by Dr. Chamberlain, inspector of hospitals, prisons and asylums, that all the staffs and employees must be vaccinated in order, in this respect, to make these institutions eligible for receiving the Provincal grant. The Medical Health Officer, Dr. Clarke, has procured for the purposes of these institutions, a supply of vaccine points from the vaccine farm, Palmerston, Ont. General vaccination is something that should be insisted upon, and is in some countries urgently insisted upon. In England the regulations as to vaccination are very stringent, vaccination being compulsory under penalties for neglect, and in some parts of this Province the authorities are insisting upon general vaccination. Considering the inexpensiveness of the process, and the immunity it gives from that loathsome disease, small-pox, there is no excuse for neglect of a certain preventive. The local authorities are not taking the active interest in the subject which it seems their duty to take. It appears to be thought that, because there is no outbreak of small-pox within a short radius, there is no danger, but in these days of rapid transit and easy communication the most distant points on the continent may furnish a source of local danger. Vaccination is a duty that should not be neglected. Vaccinated persons are safe so far as regards small pox; even under peculiarly prolonged and direct exposure to contagion, if the disease should be contracted by a vaccinated person, the attack would be of so mild a form as to be comparatively insignificant. It is to be hoped that the health authorities, which are looked upon to lead in such matters, will do their duty, which they do not seem to be doing at present. The Medical Health Officer has received repeated and urgent communications from the Provincial Board of Health as to the advisability of taking action. These were submitted to the Board at its last meeting but the subject was cavalierly disposed of by deferring consideration till the Board of Health should confer with the Health Committee of the Town Council to ascertain whether it was advisable for the former body to do its duty. There is no excuse for deferring action on the ground that there are no cases near at hand. There is small pox in Michigan, our western border, and there is a possibility of as much danger from contagion from that quarter as there would be from a case in Ashburnham; and perhaps more, for in the latter case the strictest precaution would be taken, but not so in the other case. As mentioned the other day in the EXAMINER, there are workmen from the Michigan lumber camps, in one of which at least there was small pox, passing through Peterborough on their way to Fenelon Falls, and such parties are frequently passing through town. Is there not danger from this source alone? And while the danger exists the necessity for prompt action in the direction of vaccination also exists. It is ten years since a general vaccination took place in Peterborough, and supposing that all the rest of our population were protected, every child under ten years of age would be liable to take small pox. Then why delay? Vaccination is safety; absence of it is a perpetual danger and menace. This is written in no alarmist mood. Prevention is better than cure and prevention is a duty. Any simpleton will make an effort to escape an imminent danger; it is only a wise man that provides against possible danger. The action of the local health authorities in postponing the matter for two or three months is not wise and their idea of there being no necessity for action till there is small pox at our doors, suggests the action of a man who would wait till he is on his death bed before applying for a life assurance policy. There may be no immediate cause of alarm from small pox; but without general vaccination there is always danger; with general vaccination there is always safety. Will our health authorities keep to the path of danger or take the path of safety?

THE ODDFELLOWS DECORATE THE GRAVES OF THEIR DEPARTED BRETHREN.

They are Assisted by Hundreds of Citizens—A Very Solemn and Impressive Ceremony—Many Beautiful Floral Tributes—Nature Dressed in Her Loveliest Garb—Addresses by Local Clergymen—A Downfall of Rain Shortens the Ceremony.

The Oddfellows of Peterborough decorated the graves of their departed brethren yesterday afternoon, and the ceremony was carried out with the same solemnity and success that characterized their observance of the occasion in former years. At three o'clock yesterday afternoon the members of the order formed in procession at Central Park, and headed by the Fire Brigade Band, Oddfellows' Drum Corps and Peterborough Canton, No. 10, Patriarchs Militant, marched down George street to the cemetery, Bros. A. McIntosh P.G., and Wesley Millar, J.W., being marshalls of the day. The sidewalks along the route were crowded with spectators, and as the Oddfellows marched past, all bearing in their hands emblematic floral tributes to be placed on the graves of the brethren who had gone before them, they were greatly admired.

On arriving at the cemetery the brethren formed a circle in front of the chapel, where Bro. Dr. Bell, P. G. M., welcomed the gathering and announced that before proceeding with the ceremony of decorating the graves, they would implore the blessing of a Divine Providence on the work.

Bro. Alf Kingscotte, chaplain, Peterborough lodge, read the prayer, after which the members sang "Nearer my God to Thee," the band leading the singing.

The members then separated into four sections, each led by a Noble and Past Grand and commenced the beautiful ceremony of decorating the graves of those who "sleep the sleep that knows no waking." The members of the order then stepped from grave to grave, affectionately placing two or more floral tributes on the last resting place of each deceased member, the Noble Grands pronouncing these words, "Here lies our Brother ——, let us emulate his virtues and remember not his faults." The ceremony was very solemn and impressive, and it seemed to illustrate to the spectators present that spirit of brotherly love and friendship, practised by the Oddfellows the world over. Others too could be noticed gathered around the graves of their deceased relatives and friends, who although dead to this world, still lived in the memories and hearts of those who were adorning their beds of clay with the floral tributes of nature. Small children seemed to enter into the ceremony with earnestness and could be seen placing tiny bouquets on the graves of perhaps a father or mother who had left them when quite young, or a brother or playmate who rested beneath the spot where they had gathered. One could not help, when witnessing the ceremony, but recall the words of the immortal Longfellow:—

"There is no fireside how so e'er defended,
But has one vacant chair.

This interesting ceremony occupied about forty-five minutes, during which time the band, which was stationed near the chapel, rendered a number of sacred selections suitable for the occasion. After the ceremony of decorating the graves had been concluded the members gathered around the platform in front of the chapel to hear the speeches.

Bro. Dr. Bell, P.G.M., occupied the chair, and in his opening remarks he welcomed them on behalf of the order, to assist in the ceremony of decorating the graves of those who had gone before them. It was a ceremony in which all could join heartily to carry out the family idea of friendship and love and to recall virtues of those whose graves they were strewing with floral tributes that day. The Oddfellows of Canada take a pride in this ceremony, the speaker said, and wherever Oddfellows were found the practice had taken root. In the United States the day was known as Memorial Day, when the Oddfellows met at some suitable place and where a meeting was held, addresses being delivered by prominent members of the Order. The idea of Canadian Oddfellows, was, he said, in advance of their practice, and our sister town of Port Hope could lay claim to the honour of first instituting this practice in Canada. At the close of his remarks, he introduced Rev. Mr. Rae, pastor of Charlotte street Methodist church, who, he said, was a member of the Order, and who would prove to the world that the principles of Oddfellowship were not in conflict with the church.

Rev. Mr. Rae, in coming forward, stated that on account of the threatening aspect of the weather, his remarks would be brief. It gave him great pleasure to be present, as an Oddfellow, to assist the brethren and his other friends in this solemn ceremony. He was proud of an opportunity to stand on a platform associated with Oddfellowship,—outside the church of Christ no order, he said, claimed from him such hearty sympathy as the one to which the members he was addressing belonged. He was further pleased to meet the friends in the bond of friendship, as it is recognized by the Oddfellows, and of fostering bonds that link us in the great friendship of earth. It was further proved by the ceremony just carried out, that the bonds of brotherly love had not been snapped by death. The reverend gentlemen stated that the Order did not claim to have a monopoly of the things that are good, but they carried out and inculcated the principles of Oddfellowship. We all lived as friends, and he hoped that the ties of life eternal would be the bonds that fetter us forever.

Rev. Mr. Young, of the George street church, was next introduced. He said he had spoken to gatherings in all kinds of weather, but never yet attempted it in a rain storm, and in doing so on this occasion he feared he would be violating the rules of propriety. He was pleased to be present on this occasion, as it brought back happy recollections of a year ago, which still lingered with him, as on that occasion the noble words of Rev. Mr. Joliffe, P. G. M., found place in his memory. He was anxious to show his sympathy with the Order and hoped they would meet oftener in the bonds of friendship.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of St. John's, was to have addressed the gathering, but owing to a slight misunderstanding he did not arrive until the proceedings were about over.

At this juncture the rain began to fall and the chairman announced that the proceedings would close with prayer by the chaplain. He desired, however, to thank the clergymen and others on behalf of the Order for their kindness in assisting at the ceremony.

Bro. A. Kingscotte, chaplain of Peterborough Lodge, then offered up a prayer and the band played the hymn, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," after which the lodges re-formed and marched back to their lodge room where resolutions of thanks were passed to the clergymen and to all friends who had contributed flowers, and among others, Messrs. Nelson and Garlick, of Lakefield for their choice supply of water lillies; also to the Canton and marshalls, Bros. A. McIntosh and Wesley Miller.

NOTES

Over the main entrance to the cemetery was a pretty triple link worked in evergreens.

Caretaker Foord kindly placed a pitcher of lemonade at the disposal of the speakers and the representatives of the press on the platform, and a barrel of the same placed at the disposal of the members of the order at his house.

The street cars did a rushing business yesterday in bringing the crowds to the cemetery.

Caretaker Foord has the cemetery in first-class condition at this season of the year. The walks and lawns are being looked after in good style.

NIGH TO DEATH'S DOOR.

How a Young Lady was Cured of a Terrible Malady When Near the Brink of the Grave.

The large pretentious brick residence at 86 Miami avenue, in this city, is the home of the heroine of this interesting story. She is Miss Margaret Stenbaugh, and her interesting experiences during the past four years are published here for the first time.

"Four years ago," she said, "I was a sufferer in all that the term implies, and never thought of being as healthy as I am to-day. Why, at that time, I was such a scrawny, puny little midget, pale and emaciated by an ailment peculiar to us women, that my father and mother gave me up to die. The local practitioner (I was at that time living at Scotland, Brant Co., Ont.,) said it was only a matter of days when I should be laid away in the church yard, and as I was such a sufferer I cared not whether I lived or died; in fact, think I would have preferred the latter. I could not walk, and regularly every night my father used to carry me up stairs to my room. I remember my telling him that he wouldn't have to carry me about much longer, and how he said with tears in his eyes, that he would be willing to do it always, if he could only have me with him. It was evidently foreordained that I should not die at that particular time, as a miraculous transformation in my condition was the talk of the neighborhood. I read of the wonderful cures that were being wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and my father went to Brantford, where he purchased a couple of boxes from Jas. A. Wallace. I commenced taking them, and I thought for a time that they did me no good, as they made me sick at first, but very shortly I noticed a great change. They began to act on my trouble, and in the short space of six months I was able to walk. I continued taking the pills and in six months I was in the condition you see me now. I fully believe that they alone saved me from the grave, and you will always find myself and balance of our family ready to talk about the good Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me."

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 15th day of December, 1893.

B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION.

The Salutation of Flags Creates Much Enthusiasm—Officers for '95.

TORONTO, July 21.—The great Baptist convention assembled here presented a magnificent spectacle yesterday at the salutation of flags. Secretary Dr. Wilkins was in command. Ladies were chosen as standard-bearers of the state flags and under the escort of the speakers for the respective states they marched to the platform, where one minute speeches were given by the representatives of the various delegations. The great audience rose and greeted the marching standard bearers with the hymn "Onward, Christian Soldiers." The reception given the banners of Ontario and Quebec when they were raised was magnificent, the audience rising en masse and singing "God Save the Queen," followed by cheers for the Queen and the President of the United States.

The following officers have been elected for the ensuing year of 1895, the election being recommended by a committee and received with applause and general acclamation:

President—John H. Chapman, Chicago.

Vice-Presidents—Frank Harvey Field, New York; J. N. Shenstone, Toronto; Rev. Geo. R. Taylor, Georgia.

Recording Secretary—A. M. Brinckle, Philadelphia.

Treasurer—Frank Moody, Milwaukee.

Sir William's View of the Floods.

MONTREAL, July 21.—Sir William Van Horne, President of the Canadian Pacific, and party, including Lord Monntstephen, Field Marshal Sir Donald Stewart, Sir John McNeil and Major J. W. Sterling have returned from their trip to British Columbia. They left here for the Pacific coast on July 6. Sir William was asked to state his opinion of the damage done by the recent floods along the Fraser river. "The injury to the country amounts to nothing at all," said the president. "The reports sent out were wildly exaggerated A few people may have got their feet wet in consequence of the flood, but no lives were lost in the country. Two of our men, however, lost their lives. No houses were carried away except perhaps a few hen houses, and as to the damage to crops, they grow very quickly in that country, and, in short, the whole damage to the country is not worth mentioning."

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, July 21, 1894.

The local cattle market was weak, with only a limited demand for exporters, which sold at 3½ to 4c per pound.

There were offered at the London wool sales 7,800 bales, which were of poor quality. The attendance was good and the competition was active.

Buffalo—Cattle—Not enough on sale to make a market. Sheep and Lambs—Fifteen cars, quiet, steady. Hogs—Fifteen cars on sale. The weak feeling was more marked.

The decline in wheat continued in Chicago. Corn was firm and unchanged. Oats were firm, closing a shade lower; receipts to-day: Wheat 225 cars, corn 220 cars, oats 25 cars, hogs 15,000 head.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—This market is quiet. One load of red wheat sold at 61c. White is quoted at 62c and goose at 58c. Two loads of oats sold at 40c. Peas are quoted at 65c and barley at 43 to 44c.

Following are the weekly cotton statistics at Liverpool, Eng.: Total sales of the week, 44,000; American, 37,000; trade takings, including forwarded from ship's side, 51,000; actual export, 8,000; total import, 15,000; American, 5,000; total stock, 1,287,000; American, 1,083,000; total afloat, 42,000; American, 26,000; speculators took 500; exporters took 2,100.

The engagement of $2,500,000 additional gold for export to Europe, making the total for the week $3,300,000, created a more bearish feeling in stock circles during the early hours of business and prices declined ¼ to ⅜ per cent. In the afternoon a firmer feeling prevailed and the general railway list rallied ¼ to ⅜ per cent. Speculation left off tolerably firm, notwithstanding the drop in both cotton and wheat to record-breaking figures.

THE STEWART CASE.

Mr. Stewart Pays a Visit to Pictou—Congratulated by His Many Friends on His Restoration to Health.

PICTOU, N.S., July 16.—Good news sometimes travels as fast as bad news, which is proverbially fast. Many people here knew that Mr. Allan Stewart, of Springton, P.E.I., had been for many years afflicted with kidney disease and gravel. It was known, too, that last year he was so bad that public opinion put him down as likely to die soon. Mr. Stewart fooled public opinion though, for he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills and ten boxes of them completely cured him. When he paid a flying visit to this city a few days ago, he received many hearty congratulations on restoration to health and improved appearance. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to cure in this part of the Dominion.

PRINCE OF WALES'S SKIPPER.

Stands in the Foremost Rank of Yachtsmen and Loves His Craft.

The skipper of Britannia, Capt. Carter, is esteemed one of the best professional yachtsmen in Europe.

He is 44 years old, and, as becomes a prince's skipper, is exceedingly reserved. He unbosomed himself lately to some extent, though, to an interviewer of the Yachting World, to whom he declared that no one could be prouder of the Prince's yacht than he or have greater faith in her.

CAPT. CARTER, BRITANNIA'S SKIPPER.

Still, he by no means underestimated the magnificent capabilities of Vigilant. He could not (or would not) give definite opinion as to whether the American would romp away with any of the chief prizes of the season, but he said in a general way that he believed in cases where she would have a good, long reach she would be more successful than in more confined waters. He thought she would give a better account of herself on the Clyde than in the Solent.

Capt. Carter was very enthusiastic about the Prince of Wales. He said that on several occasions his services have been recognized in the most liberal, delicate manner possible. In this the Prince is like his royal mother. Whenever they get capable, trustworthy persons they never part with them, attaching them to their service by many pleasant attentions and kindnesses.

Oriental Armies.

In view of the possible unpleasantness between China and Japan over Corea, the following account of the military strength of the two powers is not without interest: The military force of China consists of the army of Manchonia, 70,000 men, many of them armed with the Mauser rifle, with a liberal supply of Krupp field cannon; the army of the center, 50,000 men, which can be doubled in case of war; the army of Turkestan, of uncertain strength, employed to maintain order in the extreme western territories, and the territorial army, something like the Canadian militia, of 200,000 men in time of peace, but which is capable of being raised to 600,000. Her navy comprises 1 first class battleship, 1 second-class, 3 third-class, 9 port defense vessels, 9 second-class cruisers, 47 third-class, 2 first-class torpedo boats, 26 second-class, 13 third-class and 2 smaller boats. Japan's army on a peace footing is about 66,000, but she has a reserve strength of nearly 200,000. Her fleet is a purely defensive force. It comprises 5 armored cruisers and 22 third-class cruisers.

The Home of Hapsburg.

Rudolph von Hapsburg, riding to his Swiss home from hunting, came upon a priest carrying the sacrament to a sick man. The priest on foot was stopped by a river. Rudolph immediately dismounted, set the priest and sacrament on horseback and led the steed by the rein to the sick man's house. He declined to take the horse again to daily use, but gave it to the priest for the service of the church.

Remembering this deed, Werner, archbishop of Mainz, in 1273, procured the election of Rudolph as king of the Romans and Kaiser. Hence we have the source and fount of the proud imperial house of Hapsburg. Schiller enhances the legend in one of the best of his ballads, "Der Graf von Hapsburg." It may be mentioned that the late heir to the imperial throne of Austria was named after his illustrious ancestor, Rudolph.

Holes in the Legs.

A scientist tells us that the hog's legs perform a function not known to any other animal, and that is an escape pipe or pipes for the discharge of waste water or sweat not used in the economy of the body. These escape pipes are situated upon the inside of the legs above and below the knee in the forelegs and above the gambrel joints in the hind legs, but in the latter they are very small and functions light; upon the inside of the foreleg they are in the healthy hog always active, so that moisture is always there from about and below these orifices or ducts in the healthy hog. The holes in the leg and breathing in the hog are his principal and only means of ejecting an excess of heat above normal, and when very warm the hog will open the mouth and breathe through that channel as well as the nostrils.

How Thermometers are Made.

A small glass tube blown into a bulb at one end, is partly filled with mercury; the mercury is boiled to expel air and fill the tube with mercury vapor, and then the tube is hermetically sealed and allowed to cool. The gradations are found as follows: The instrument is immersed in ice water, and the freezing point is found and is marked; then it is placed in water which is allowed to reach the boiling point, and so 212 degrees is found. The spans between are marked by mathematical calculations.

Whether Pasteur and Koch's peculiar modes of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood-contamination is the correct one, though not original. It was on this theory that Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass., nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Having suffered over two years with constipation, and the doctors not having helped me, I concluded to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and before I used one bottle I was cured. I can also recommend it for sick headache. Ethel D. Haines, Lakeview, Ont.

THE HOUSEHOLD

SAUCES FOR VEGETABLES.

New and Appetizing Ways of Serving Cauliflower, Carrots, Turnips, Etc.

There is a horrible monotony about the way cauliflower, asparagus, and celery are always served. An invariable white sauce is poured over them and they are sent to the table with tiresome regularity. They may be varied by being covered with quite a thick white sauce, sprinkled with Parmesan cheese and colored delicate brown before the fire. Or any of them, after being cooked, may be stewed in brown gravy.

Even the despised cabbage is capable of being made appetizing. After it is boiled and pressed dry it should be chopped fine and dried again by being put on the fire in the saucepan. Add a lump of butter, season with pepper and salt and a little grated nutmeg. When hot serve on squares of hot toast.

Mashed carrots are quite as palatable as mashed turnips. They should be cooked, passed through a sieve and put into a stewpan with a piece of butter, a spoonful of cream, a drop or two of tarragon vinegar, whisked up and seasoned with pepper and salt, arranged in the form of a mound and sprinkled with a little chopped parsley.

Cucumbers are seldom used except raw, and yet they are both delicious and digestible when cooked. The peel should be removed and the cucumbers should be boiled until tender, the drained and sliced, and simmered in good brown gravy, to which a very little Chili vinegar has been added, for seven or eight minutes. Radishes, like cucumbers, can be served hot as well as in salads. They should be tied in bunches and boiled for eighteen or twenty minutes, then placed on toast and covered with white sauce. Peas, French beans and sprouts are greatly improved by being tossed for a few minutes previous to sending to table in a saucepan containing a lump of fresh butter, a tablespoonful of cream, a pinch of castor sugar, and seasoning of pepper and salt. A rather more simple way of treating French beans is a la Francaise; they are put into a pan with a piece of butter, the juice of half a lemon and a little pepper and salt.

A ragout of peas needs but to be eaten to be appreciated. Put three ounces of butter into a saucepan with a teaspoon of minced onion, a few leaves of fresh mint, pepper and salt. When these ingredients have simmered for a few minutes—take care that they do not acquire the least color—add a quart of green peas, and shake the pan to prevent their burning; after five minutes add half a pint of water, a very little borax and half a teaspoon of powdered sugar. Cover the pan closely, and draw it to the side of the fire, and let the contents cook slowly for about three-quarters of an hour; if allowed to boil the water will soon be absorbed, and unless more is added at once, the peas, instead of being large and tender, will be shrivelled and hard.

NEWSPAPER WAIFS.

"Do you admire Prof. Svengali's playing?" Oh, immensely! He plays such good accompaniments for conversation, you know."—Puck.

"Too much self-esteem," said Uncle Eben, "gits ter be comical. Er man is boun' ter 'pear ridic'lous ef he tries ter pat hisse'f on de back."—Washington Star.

"Is Snyder what you would call a modest man?" "He is that. Why, he is so modest that he always goes to sleep before beginning to snore."—Boston Transcript.

"You don't have monarchs in this country?" said a visitor to the United States, musingly. "Not by that name," replied the native. "We have servant girls, however."—Tid-Bits.

They were discussing woman suffrage, and most of them appear to be against it. "Are you an anti?" was asked of one, a comparative stranger. "No; I am a mother," she answered.—Harper's Bazar.

THE MUSICIAN.

The song of the nightingale can be heard a mile distant.

Lady Mildred Jessup, the youngest daughter of Lord Strathmore, has written the music of an opera, of which her husband wrote the libretto. The opera is called "Ethelinda," and has been produced in Florence, Italy, with great success.

Buff, the celebrated singer, who is creating the title role of Massenet's new opera, "Werther," is the grand nephew of the original Charlotte, in Goethe's story, and on the first night of the opera in Vienna one of her grandchildren committed suicide.

The citizens of Frederick, Ind., are trying to erect a monument to Francis Scott Key, author of the "Star Spangled Banner." With the exception of the statue of Key in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, erected by the testamentary bounty of James Lick, the California millionaire, no memorial worthy of the name has yet been raised.

How to Cure a Corn.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your boot. It is simply to apply Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, and in three days the corn can be removed without pain. Sure, safe, painless. Take only Putnam's Corn Extractor.

I was attacked severely last winter with diarrhœa, cramps, and colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I can thank this excellent remedy for saving my life. Mrs. S. Kellett, Minden, Ont.

Nothing Impossible.

Just now a mite of money is worth a mountain of stock.

Just now, nothing seems impossible in the line of economy. But the TRUTH about low values is hard to comprehend. Anything less than ALL the facts concerning OUR goods and their present values would be unjust to the public.

You cannot always buy so many kinds of goods at and below cost as we offer you now. Your best economy is to invest your money in wisely selected goods at present prices at this store. Listen:

DRESS GOODS
AT COST.

Just to liven things up these hot days we offer all our summer Dress Goods at about cost. This will help to clear out our stock and save carrying anything over to another season.

WASH GOODS
AT COST.

Chambrays, Krinkles and Muslins all at cost. This is the chance of the season as the stock is all right and well bought.

PARASOLS
AT COST.

Not a fraction of a fib, fabrication or falsehood gets into our store talk. Truth is the best salesman. Parasols at cost just means what it says.

ALL TRIMMED MILLINERY
AT HALF PRICE.

That's a sweeping reduction. Surely cost plays no part in this case. Half price takes everything we have in Trimmed Millinery.

MANTLES AND CAPES

At interesting figures.

DELAINES
AT ABOUT COST.

We can accommodate these beautiful goods to those who come for them. Their bargain story has new life to-day.

BLOUSES, SHIRT WAISTS
AT COST.

Don't be skeptical. Prudence says buy freely.

General Trade in the Dominion.

TORONTO, July 21.—A good demand for Manitoba flour at Montreal is reported and stocks are ample. General trade is quiet. Inactivity characterizes wholesale lines of business at Toronto. Farmers throughout Ontario are busy harvesting and country dealers find trade dull. The usual mid-summer quiet characterizes business at Halifax. The weather is favorable for crops throughout Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick. Bank clearings at Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax amount to $20,287,000 this week, an increase of about four per cent. over last week, as well as over the total of the corresponding week last year. There are 49 business failures reported from the Dominion of Canada this week against 34 last week, 40 in the corresponding week of 1893 and 23 in 1892.

Masons Elect Grand Officers.

HAMILTON, July 21.—The convocation of the Grand Chapter of Canada of the Royal Arch Masons met in Masonic hall yesterday. J. E. Harding, Stratford, Grand Z., presided and about two hundred members were present. The most important business transacted was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: J. Ross Robertson, Toronto, Grand Z.; Mr. Walsh, Ingersoll, Grand H.; W. G. Reid, Hamilton, Grand J.; Hugh Murray, Hamilton, Grand Treasurer; T. Sargant, Toronto, Grand Scribe; E. J. W. Hickson, Toronto, Grand Scribe, N.; F. F. Manley, Toronto, Grand Principal Sojourner; J. A. Morton, Walkerton, Grand Registrar.

Drowning at Midland.

MIDLAND, Ont., July 21.—Mrs. John S. Melville, of this place, was found drowned in the bay here yesterday. Before daybreak she left her house. The other members of the family did not miss her until 8 a.m. She had been ailing for several months and her sister, Mrs. Gregory, arranged a search party at once. The body was found about half a mile from the house in three feet of water with the face downwards. Mr. Melville is in Muskoka in a shingle mill. Deceased was about 50 years of age and leaves one child, a boy.

The Accident in the Tay Canal.

OTTAWA, July 21.—The accident to the Rideau Belle in the Tay canal is even worse than was at first supposed. A letter from the Ottawa Forwarding Company's agent says that the Belle is lying in eleven feet of water, with two feet of the lock gate sticking into her bow and one set of the gates completely paralyzed. It will take at least a week before traffic on that branch can be resumed.

Accident to a Bridgeman.

MERRITON, Ont., July 21.—A serious accident occurred at the Grand Trunk bridge over the old Welland Canal here. John Coulter, bridgeman, was closing the draw when the boat passing through struck the bridge and the crank revolving backward struck Coulter on the head and side inflicting severe cuts about the head and smashing in several ribs, leaving him in a critical condition.

Prisons Filled With Anarchists.

ROME, July 21.—In consequence of the continued arrests of anarchists the governors of the prisons in Milan, Turin, Bologna and elsewhere have telegraphed the government that they are unable to receive more prisoners. The police claim that all the dangerous anarchists who have not fled have been arrested.

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for such a condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25 cents.

THE STORY OF THE ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.

Revealing Results in Teaching in the Several Schools—The Names of Successful Candidates to be Published on Departmental Approval of the Provisional Pass—Who Won Scholarships and Prizes—Not Quite 80 per cent Successful in the Examinations.

The Examining Board finished reading the answers of candidates on Thursday and sent the lists to the Department of those provisionally passed or recommended. The names of those who were successful will be published as soon as they have been accepted and returned by the Department.

142 pupils wrote at the Entrance Examination—71 from the Central School, 15 from Ashburnham, 14 from Murray street Separate School, 13 from the Convent Congregation de Notre Dame, 27 from the rural sections, and one from Toronto. There were also three Public School Leaving candidates, one of whom was granted a Leaving certificate, and the other two Entrance certificates.

Of the 142 Entrance candidates 67, or 47 per cent. have been provisionally passed or recommended; 46, or 65 per cent. of those sent up from the Central; 3, or 20 per cent., from Ashburnham; 5, or 36 per cent. from the Murray Street Separate School; 5, or 38 per cent. from the Convent Congregation de Notre Dame; 8, or 30 per cent. from the rural sections.

The marked success of the six candidates from the Keene Public School deserves special mention. Four of the six wrote at the entrance examination and three were successful; two wrote at the leaving examination, of which one was granted a leaving and the other an entrance certificate.

WINNERS OF SCHOLARSHIPS.

The highest marks obtained, 617, were taken by Frank H. Lewis, and the second highest, 590, by May Alexander. Both are pupils of the Central School.

WINNERS OF HONOUR CERTIFICATES.

Frank H. Lewis, May Alexander, Lizzie Borland, Helen Burnham, George Butler, and Jack Fessenden; all pupils of the Central School but one. George Butler is a pupil of the Murray street Separate school. To obtain honours 65 per cent. or more of the maximum marks was required. Of the eleven pupils who ranked first, ten were from the Central School.

WINNERS OF W. C. T. U. PRIZES.

1st prize, May Alexander, who obtained 73 marks out of 80; 2nd prize, Mary Goldsmith, 67 marks; 3rd prize, William A. Allison, 62 marks. All three are pupils of the Central School. Last year the 1st prize was won by a rural pupil and the 3rd prize by one from the Convent Congregation de Notre Dame.

READING PRIZE.

This prize, presented by the presiding examiner, was won by Addie Doris of the Convent Congregation de Notre Dame, who obtained 47 marks out of 50. The reading of the Convent pupils as a whole merits special mention, as it was much superior to that of the other candidates.

Generally speaking the reading was not satisfactory.

The average total marks of provisionally admitted candidates were 400, and of the 142 who wrote, 410. The marks required to obtain a pass were 422.

Of the 81 girls who wrote at the entrance examination, 34, or 42 per cent. were successful; of the 61 boys, 33, or 54 per cent. succeeded.

50 failed in history, 43 in arithmetic, 30 in literature, 27 in Grammer, 27 in memory object drawing, 19 in geography, 12 in temperance and hygiene, 7 in spelling, 6 in reading, 4 in drawing (book), 2 in composition, and 1 in writing.

With the exception of the history and writing papers, the tests were considered fair.

The average age of the candidates was 14½ years.

In conclusion let me say that the Examining Board strongly advises the teachers of the district to adopt vertical writing, and to give increased attention (a) to the mechanical work in arithmetic, (b) to object drawing, (c) to distinctness of utterance, and to proper emphasis in reading, and (d) to the similarities and dissimilarities of past and present history.

Chairman of Examining Board.

WELL NUTURED.

Raised From Weakness to Strength.

Lactated Food the only Life Giving Diet for Babies.

BABY BARNHART.

Babies, like men and women, must receive pure, healthy and nourishing food every day, or they cannot thrive and become strong. The ideal food for all babies who are deprived of mother's milk, is Lactated Food. Scores of mothers, every week, send in the glad tidings, that after failures with other forms of prepared foods they have tried the Lactated, and find that in every way it agrees with the delicate stomach, improves digestive vigor and increases the growth of flesh, bone and muscle. Lactated Food is the best preventive of those dreadful summer complaints, cholera infantum, dysentery and diarrhœa.

Mrs. S. Barnhart, of Fort Erie, Ont., says:—"My baby was raised entirely on Lactated Food; it never fed from the breast. Your Lactated Food was always used, prepared according to directions; and now, at nine months old, baby weighs 20 pounds, and he is strong, healthy, fat and good natured. His picture was taken when he was four and a half months old. We would not be without Lactated Food, and intend feeding baby with it until he is through teething."

FRANTIC WITH BOILS.

And Itching, Would Scratch Until Blood Ran Down His Limbs. Forced to Take to His Bed. Whole System Affected. Doctor after Doctor Without Cure. Instant Relief, Speedy Cure by Using Cuticura Remedies.

My sufferings might have been stopped if I had only known of your CUTICURA REMEDIES eighteen years ago. I contracted the fever and ague, and it affected my kidneys so badly that I had to have an operation, from which resulted blood poison, and I suffered untold agonies. To make my sufferings more, my left leg below the knee broke out in large blood boils, and commenced a scaly, itching irritation, so that at times I was almost frantic, and would scratch until the blood would trickle down my leg. In the summer these large boils would commence, during which time I would have three or four which were so painful that at times I was forced to take to my bed. Every winter a dry, loathsome scale would gather on my leg, which with the boils, seemed to affect my whole system. During all this time, a period of three to nine months, I had doctor after doctor, but they gave me only temporary relief. This last fall I commenced using your CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and now the scales have all gone, the itching all gone, I have not felt sick, and have worked all Winter. I could not suffer again as I have for the past eighteen years for anything. I had doctors from the west to the east, all to no purpose. I have not felt so well or been so long without a sick spell since taking your remedies. Thanks to them and to you, and the great healer of mankind for my returning health.

DANIEL P. WOODWARD,
Warren, Washington County, Vt.

BRITISH CABLE GOSSIP

Already There is a Delay in the Government's Programme.

ROSEBERY'S LOSSES BY LADAS

Made the Subject of Quiet Sarcasm by Sir William Vernon Harcourt — Discrimination in Favor of Foreign Vessels—The Massage Scandals.

LONDON, July 23.—The debate on the evicted tenants' bill in the House of Commons on Friday night would have been closured but for the intervention of the Speaker, who has rarely so exercised his prerogative. The fact was not generally known at the time, but the Speaker privately informed Sir William Harcourt that he would not give his assent to closure in view of the important issues raised by the measure which merited full and free discussion. The leaders of the Opposition have assented to an early division and an understanding has been arrived at whereby a division will be taken to-day. Upon entering the committee stage the bill will be fought line by line and this process will occupy a month, notwithstanding the fact that Sir William Harcourt has allowed only a few days to carry the measure through to its final passage. All expectation that the programme of the Government will be carried into effect by the end of August has already vanished.

When the evicted tenants' bill is passed the other measures mentioned by the Chancellor of the Exchequer in his speech outlining the Government's programme must either be thrown overboard or else the House must continue to sit indefinitely. Several of the most prominent members of the ministry are exceedingly wroth over the prospect and declare that they will sit until Christmas if necessary to carry out the Government's policy.

The Parnellites' Programme.

The Parnellites will seek to score a political point over the evicted tenants' bill by moving amendments, the acceptance of which is very probable, yet which are calculated to strengthen the position of that faction of the Irish party in Ireland. The bill in its present shape provides for the reinstatement of an evicted tenant only when the farm which he was evicted is occupied and the landlord or sitting tenant is willing to move if compensated for vacating. The Parnellites propose the appointment of arbitrators which shall be empowered to reinstate evicted tenants under any circumstances, including the compulsory removal of sitting tenants.

The Lords Will Reject the Bill.

Mr. John Morley's tact is evinced by his selection of the three arbitrators who, all agree, will form a thoroughly impartial tribunal. Judging from the tone of the Tory press the rejection of the bill by the House of Lords, despite its generally admitted merits, remain assured. Lord Salisbury's specific denial that he as the Opposition leader in the House of Lords intends to secure the rejection of the budget bill by that body has not had the effect to remove general expectation that the House of Lords will make some demonstration in support of the rights of the peers to deal with bills appropriating money. The Duke of Rutland has written a letter in which he declares that the peers can reject or alter any financial projects they may see fit, and the matter summed up, all that can be said is that if the peers insist upon altering the bill an immediate dissolution is inevitable, and a general election pivoting upon the principle of the abolition of the House of Lords equally certain.

Sir William Harcourt's Sarcasm.

Lord Rosebery's losses through the two successive defeats of his Derby-winning horse Ladas are reported to aggregate something like £30,000. Sir William Harcourt, in closing his speech on the financial clause of the budget bill last night, made a grim and decidedly unfriendly allusion to this fact, by innuendo, in response to Mr. Walter Long. The latter gentleman in the course of his argument asserted that the increased taxation would cause wealthy landlords, with a view of saving a couple of thousand pounds annually, to shut up their castles and dismiss their laborers.

"Why," said Sir William, amid the delighted cheers of the Opposition, "that is an extravagant statement. Don't we know the case of a man of large fortune losing more than that in a single afternoon on the race course? Why, that sum is merely the price of a moderate two-year-old. This remark greatly pleased the Opposition members, but no signs of approval were apparent among the Liberals whatever they may have thought.

Foreign Vessel Owners Favored.

Sir George Baden-Powell has signified his intention to raise in the House of Commons the question as to whether exceptional facilities are not given to foreign steamers in competition with British vessels in the carriage of British passengers. In the matter of loadline and the manning of ships the British ship owners are subject to restrictions that are not imposed upon foreign vessels. This has resulted in the transfer of many British vessels to the protection of foreign flags. One firm of ship owners in Liverpool has already sold twenty-nine sailing vessels to foreigners this year on that account.

The Wesleyan Conference.

The leading question before the Wesleyan conference is that of the admission of women as delegates, which will be decided at the sitting to-day. The question is raised by the application for admission of Miss Dawson who has been elected to represent the Birmingham synod in the conference. Upon the question there is a serious division of opinion. The elders and more conservative delegates oppose the admission of women, holding that the innovation is illegal and against all precedent here or in the United States, but a very considerable section of the delegates favor the immediate recognition of the work and influence of women by their admission. The case of Miss Dawson will probably be referred to a committee.

The Massage Scandals.

In consequence of the massage scandals detectives have visited and warned the owners and managers of a number of places in the west end to close up their houses on the ground that they were employing assistants who were not in possession of proper certificates. The result was that many of these houses were summarily closed up. Officials of the home office state that out of scores of the so-called massage establishments visited by the detectives only about half a dozen were legitimate. The others were gorgeously furnished houses which charged enormous fees and employed double staffs, half male and half female.

Marquis of Headfort Dead.

LONDON, July 23. — Thomas Taylor, third Marquis of Headfort, died here yesterday aged 72 years.

DEBS' LINE OF DEFENCE.

He Denies the Authorship of the Telegram Sent to Butte.

CHICAGO, July 23.—The line of the defence of Debs, Howard, Keliher and Rogers at the hearing in the contempt proceedings which began in Judge Grosscup's court this morning was decided upon yesterday. Messrs. Erwin and Gregory opened their side with an attack upon the injunction which the defendants are charged with wilfully disobeying. Charges will also be made that the federal court has been deceived by corporation lawyers employed by the Michigan Central. It is claimed that the attorney for the company mentioned drew the injunction granted by Judges Grosscup and Woods and that Mr. Milchrist adopted it as the bill for the federal government. Debs claims that when the injunction was served on him he took legal counsel before proceeding further and was advised that there was nothing illegal in the way the strike was being conducted by the A. R. U. He denies the authorship of the despatch signed by him and sent to Butte, Mont., ending with the words "Save your money and buy a gun." It is claimed that the message was sent by Deb's stenographer, who is a western man and used a harmless slang phrase peculiar to the locality whence he came.

Labor Unions Will Amalgamate.

It is reported that arrangements are being made for a conference to be held here next winter for the purpose of forming a labor union to take place of all existing organizations. The societies to be represented are said to be the American Railway Union, the United Mine Workers of North America, the Knights of Labor and the new American Labor Union. The American Federation of Labor and the Railway Brotherhoods are not to be recognized At this convention all branches of labor represented will be called on to present a report as to the existing wage scales and how much they had been cut in 1892, 1893 and 1894.

A general demand upon employers of all classes for restoration of former wages will then be made, and in the event of their refusal to comply a general strike will be ordered. It is claimed by the promoters of this scheme that the old labor organizations have outlived their usefulness, and they allege that the railroad men of the country will all flock to the standard of the A. R. U., while the recently organized American Labor Union is expected to take in the men of all other occupations. General Master Workman Sovereign of the Knights of Labor is said to be willing to wreck his organization in the interest of the new movement, while General Secretary John W. Hayes is reported to be decidedly adverse to sacrificing the identity of the Knights.

Debs for President.

CHICAGO, July 23.—At a mass meeting of 1,500 men held at Ogden's Grove Debs was nominated for President of the United States amid great enthusiasm. The speakers were local labor men and their remarks were all of one tenor. They eulogized Debs and denounced President Cleveland.

Disastrous Fire in Birmingham, Ala.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 23.—The particulars of the most disastrous conflagration Birmingham has ever witnessed are these: The fire started Saturday morning in a four story brick occupied by the Stowers Furniture Company on 22nd street and First avenue. The entire interior of the building was ablaze before the fire was discovered. It soon communicated to the Caldwell Hotel across the street, which was a six story building and the largest hotel in Alabama. The guests were brought out as rapidly as possible down the fire escapes and stairways by the police and hotel employes. All the guests were rescued alive, but barely escaped in time and saved comparatively nothing of their personal effects. The hotel is a total loss. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Kingston Boy Arrested in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, July 23.—William Allen, who says his home is in Kingston, Ont., is under arrest here. He has confessed to the theft of several articles at Erie and Cleveland. When searched a large quantity of jewelry, a pawn ticket for a gold watch, a billy pair of nippers and a number of skeleton keys were found on him.

Suicided in His Cell.

DETROIT, July 23.—Oliver M. Dix committed suicide in the county jail in a fit of remorse. Dix was one of the most wealthy and respected citizens in the suburb of Greenville. Several days ago he brutally whipped a young son in a fit of anger. Neighbors made complaint and Dix was arrested and placed in jail.

Poisoned by Birch Beer.

PATERSON, N.J., July 23.—Rene Baker, aged 6 years, and Cornelia Baker, aged 3 years, children of Mrs. Marinus, have died by being poisoned from drinking birch beer manufactured the night before. Mrs. Isabella Slangenburg and the mother of the dead children, who also partook of the beverage, are not expected to live.

Killed by Lightning.

BEDFORD, Pa., July 23.—The barn of J. B. Graybill, in Woodbury township, was struck by lightning on Sunday night and burned. Thomas Neal and William Barkman, who were in the barn, were killed by the lightning and their bodies cremated. Another man was also seriously stunned and badly burned.

SITUATION IN COREA

Outbreak of War Between Japan and China Hourly Expected.

BOTH COUNTRIES PREPARING

The Rumor That War Has Actually Been Declared is Not Credited—British and American Marines Landed in Corea — China Massing Troops.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—The intense excitement which has prevailed in China and Japan over the situation in Corea had not abated when the steamer Rio de Janeiro left Yokohama and actual commencement of hostilities was momentarily expected. Both countries were engaged day and night in warlike preparations and the Japanese in the little kingdom at the latest advices numbered 8,000 and China had just sent 6,000 soldiers to join the 2,000 already there. When they enter Seoul, their reported destination, the Chinese Minister will probably once more demand the evacuation of the Japanese troops. Viceroy Li is said to have sent also 500 torpedoes and mines to Corea. The Russian Minister at Seoul is reported to have sent to the Corean foreign office a dispatch in which he advises the Government to send back the Chinese troops at once or else complications between Japan and China are sure to arise when Russia, he threatens, will not remain an idle spectator.

A Russian man-of-war is on her way to Corea from Yokohama. In addition to the Chinese and Japanese warships at Jinsen, the United States, Great Britain and France are represented by one man-of-war each. The rebels are remaining passive. It is generally given out that they have been entirely suppressed, but this report it is thought is given currency to expedite the evacuation of the Japanese troops. Chinese troops are entering the capital disguised as tradesmen and they have also brought in carloads of arms and ammunition under Corean escort, making it appear that they belong to the Corean army. The Chinese residents of Japan are in a great state of alarm over the strained relations between the two countries and are preparing to leave the Mikado's realm in the event of the declaration of war.

LONDON, July 23.—A Yokohoma despatch says Corea has consented to Japan's reform proposals. American and British marines have been landed to protect their respective legations in Corea. China requested Japan not to permit Japanese war ships to enter the treaty ports. Japan replied that she would maintain her right to enter treaty ports at any time. A warlike feeling prevails in Yokohoma.

SHANGHAI, July 23.—An unconfirmed rumor is current here that war has been declared between China and Japan. The Chinese are blocking the northern passage of the Yang Tse Kiang. Incoming vessels are compelled to pass the Joo Sung forts. It is reported that Japan has forbidden the Yuzen-Kaisha Companies steamers to leave Japanese waters. Japan has chartered all of the Mitsui-Bussan Company's ships in addition to those of the Yusen-Kaisha Company.

YOKOHAMA, July 23.—It has been learned here that 12,000 Chinese troops have received orders to proceed with all possible despatch to Corea.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Gen. Satsuo, the Japanese Minister, places no credence in the report that war has been declared between China and Japan. He says recent experience abundantly confirms his statement that Shanghai is the birthplace of many groundless rumors sent out for speculative purposes and he thinks that he would have heard of a declaration of hostilities if it had been made.

OKLAHOMA JUSTICE.

A Newspaper Correspondent Badly Maltreated and His Driver Hanged.

PERRY, Ok., July 23.—D. H. Nourse, editor and proprietor of the Wellington, Kas., Evening Mail, who had been sent to Round Pond and Enid, the seats of the railroad and government townsite war, by a Kansas City paper, arrived here in a terrible plight. Nourse says the tone of his despatches did not suit either the railroad or the townsite people. Accordingly he was arrested Wednesday morning and put in jail and his driver was taken out and hanged. Nourse was liberated next morning on his promise to leave town immediately. He went to a restaurant to get his breakfast and while waiting for the meal to be prepared was engaged in writing despatches to his paper when he was attacked by two railroad officials and badly beaten.

Unearthed a Sugar Scandal.

NEW YORK, July 23.—There were some sensational developments the Senate sugar investigating comm Saturday which the members of the committee are guarding with great care. It is understood that copies and originals of orders for the purchase of sugar stock made out in the names of certain Democratic Senators were furnished the committee. Rumors of the existence of these orders have been in circulation for some time past, but the committee was unable to trace the holders of the orders and they were disposed to treat the matter as a mere fancy on the part of certain sensation managers.

Mr. De Barry's Immigration Bill.

BUFFALO, July 23.—A Washington despatch says that the new immigration bill was favorably reported from the sub-committee of the House on immigration. To Government Inspector De Barry and other Canadian haters here, who were instrumental in preparing and pushing the bill, this intelligence has features of triumph and glee. De Barry says: "It is a great triumph for the American laborer." The bill is aimed solely at Canadians and is particularly designed to prevent the employment of Canadian seamen on American vessels.

The Fate of a Jumper.

ROCKVILLE, Conn., July 23.—Collie Richardson, 26 years old, was killed at Pine Grove, Shaker Station. He jumped from a temporary tower 120 feet high into twelve feet of water. He struck on his breast, the body lodging in the mud at the bottom of the pond. Richardson jumped into the same pond on July 4 from a tower 100 feet high with success, the highest jump he had ever made in such shallow water. He began his career as a jumper soon after Steve Brodie's Brooklyn bridge jump.

VACCINATION.

Business Meant at Fenelon Falls—Proof That Vaccination Protects.

(Fenelon Falls Gazette.)

Owing to the possibility of an outbreak of small pox, which has made its appearance at different points in the United States, the village Board of Health have issued a large number of circulars requiring every person who has not been successfully vaccinated to have the operation performed within twenty days of the service of the notice and reminding adults that they will be held responsible if children and minors under their guardianship are not properly and promptly vaccinated. Doctors Wilson and Graham have been appointed public vaccinators and will perform the operation for the small charge of 25 cents; but persons too poor to pay can get an order for free vaccination from Mr. Wm. Campbell, the chairman of the Board of Health. The doctors have already received a supply of "points," which are small, flat pieces of ivory, each of which has a sharp end that has been dipped in vaccine, enough of which dries on to vaccinate one person. Slips made of quill will answer the purpose, but the advantage of ivory is that it is so hard that it can be made sharp enough to perform the operation, if necessary, without using a lancet. Notwithstanding the length of time that has elapsed since vaccination was discovered, and the certainty that by its general use small pox would be exterminated, there are still a few who, either from ignorance or prejudice, are opposed to it, and for their enlightment we publish the following, which appeared a short time ago in the Philadelphia Press:

"It may be of interest to the opponents of vaccination to learn the following facts from the epidemic of small pox in Pennsylvania. There resided in Danville a family consisting of father mother, three sons and four daughters. The parents were protected by vaccination when the epidemic broke out; none of the children had ever been vaccinated. One of the local physicians, in whose store one of the daughters was employed, becoming aware of the fact, advised the girl to be vaccinated and to send her brothers and sisters to him for the same purpose. The sisters all came and were vaccinated. The brothers all refused. All seven children contracted the disease within a short while. All four girls had mild attacks of the disease and recovered without any bad effects. All three of the boys died. It is to be hoped that those who publicly talk against vaccination may be able to reconcile such facts with their consciences."

THE GREAT BAPTIST GATHERING IN TOROMTO.

(Toronto Empire.)

It is [illegible] in human nature to withhold admi[illegible] from the enlivening scenes w[illegible]e marked the proceedings of the [illegible]nvention which has met during [illegible]w days. It is always, of course, [illegible]e when an opportunity is afforded [illegible] the discussions and doings of a g[illegible]at, well disciplined and enthusiastic religious army. This army, five thousand strong, of young Baptists, on review in our city, has distinguished itself in a manner that must leave a strong and lasting impression on the public mind here. That impression is not only favourable to the denomination of the delegates, coming as they do from so many different parts of the United States, but it must naturally go out to their common country. Therefore we need not say that the local influence of the convention, particularly at the present time, has been felt by all classes of citizens and this we believe to be the source of the extraordinary amount of public interest manifested in the members and various state battalions of the convention as well as in their general proceedings.

Regarded as an international meeting of one of the religious denominations of the Christian world, the holding of the convention in Canada may likewise be fairly considered a matter of peculiar congratulation to all members of the connection. The mutual help and constant interrelation of the Baptist churches in the United States and Cauada cannot be otherwise than a subject fertile in historical research for the young Baptists of both countries. In the Maritime Provinces, by the St. Lawrence river, and in the New England States of the union, the Baptists have a history distinctly their own, which is shared in alike on both sides of the international boundary. That history may be described in a word as a pact of peace, and it is no wonder that it has ever been an important factor in the calm social life of these people. And what is perhaps more important still is the fact that the denomination is growing like the proverbial bay tree. Nor is this growth at all to be confounded with, but rather to be carefully distinguished from, any aggressive policy in the denomination.

They come here with songs of loyalty to their church, to their homes and their countries, and, as we said at the start, it is not in human nature to withhold admiration from them.

YOUNG'S POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

A week ago Thursday Miss Mary Fanning and Miss Maggie and Hattie Fitzgerald, daughters of Mr. Ed. Fitzgerald, of Smith, met with a severe accident near Selwyn. They were on their way to Scott's Mills on a berry expedition and stopped at Mr. Coleman Blewitt's house to call for the Misses Blewitt's to accompany them. They drove the rig into the yard and while waiting they adjusted the seats, which frightened the horses who immediately bolted out of the yard and were crossing the road, but by this time one of the girls had secured the lines and turned the horses into a tree which was close to the road to stop them. The pole of the wagon struck the tree with such force as to turn it completely over, throwing the girls out on a pile of stones. Miss Fanning was rendered unconscious and the Misses Fitzgerald's were badly bruised and shaken up. Medical aid was immediately summoned and we are glad to say at present all are rapidly recovering.

During the past week Messrs. C. H. Chase, and R. R. Bennett, of Rochester, N.Y., have been rusticating in our village and on Tuesday evening last they invited a large number of their friends to join them in a moonlight excursion. The company consisted of about sixty ladies and gentlemen among whom we noticed many from Peterborough and neighbouring places. The night was simply perfect and every one was loud in praise of the generous gentlemen who had so thoughtfully provided for their pleasure. Messrs. Chase and Bennett are well known in this neighbourhood, having spent their summer vacations with us for several years. They engaged the trim and comfortable steamer Mary Ellen, and at nine o'clock she steamed out of the dock. It was a merry crowd in a joyous mood, and as we ran up Clear Lake not a ripple disturbed the surface of the lake, and the soft silver radiance of the moon added beauty to the scene and the melodious voices of our party made the air resound with song, while others were tripping the light fantastic to the excellent music furnished by the orchestra. Thus we cruised among the picturesque islands of Stony Lake until we reached Burleigh Falls, and Mine Host John Holmes with his smiling face cordially received us, and placed his dancing pavillion at the disposal of his visitors. Two hours were little enough at this delightful spot and pastime, and it was with regret that we tore ourselves away, but time was on the wing, and to complete our trip our course was directed towards Mount Julian, thence homeward. At this stage all were invited to an excellent repast which was provided by the ladies, and then came speeches from Messrs. Chase, Bennett, W. J. and P. P. Young, A. Smith, W. McIlmoyle, and others, until our arrival at the dock, when the air rang with hearty cheers for the ladies and our American friends. Thus a happy crowd dispersed to seek the rest and repose of their own homes after such an evening of thorough enjoyment.

Mr. J. E. Kearney is building a bath house in front of his hotel for the accommodation of his guests. Jim is a universal provider and what with a bath before breakfast, and with a noble black bass (which Jim catches when he likes) for breakfast, his guests are always in good trim for any course they wish to pursue.

The annual excursion of Court Warsaw, No. 220 C.O.F., will take place on Wednesday, July 25th. The steamer Mary Ellen and palace scow will leave Lakefield at 9 a.m., calling here at [illegible] m., and proceed to Stony Lake. A first-class orchestra will be in attendance and furnish music. A good time is expected.

Mr. Deeks, commercial traveller, of Toronto, spent Saturday at the Lake View House, and had a great stroke of luck fishing. He caught ten fine bass in about twenty-five minutes before breakfast. This speaks well for Young's Point fishing grounds, as Mr. D. is far from being a professional fisherman. What he is in his own line we leave his customers to judge.

Miss Lizzie Costello, of Rochester, formerly of Peterborough, spent a few days visiting her cousins here, last week.

Miss M. Daley, of Rochester, spent a few days, the guest of Miss Maggie Young.

Mr. George Leonard, Toronto, is visiting his sister, Mrs. P. A. Kearney.

Mrs. George Hall, of Peterborough, is visiting Mrs. George Chalmers.

Miss Martha Phelan, of Lakefield, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Kearney.

Master Rufus Phelan, of Peterborough, spent a few days with his aunt.

The farmers are busily engaged, as harvesting has begun. Seemingly fall wheat is a splendid crop this year.

The Columbian passed through here today with an excursion from Bobcaygeon to Lakefield, returning next day.

Bye the bye, a curious story is going the rounds about an adventure with bears close to our village. I wonder what species they were. We know of a variety of "bottled beers," but have not heard recently of any other kind. Can Walter tell us, and if he secured any?

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

DEAR SIRS,—I was suffering very much from diarrhœa, and could get nothing to cure me. A friend told me of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and a few doses completely cured me. Thos. L. Graham, Melita, Man.

Broken in Health

That Tired Feeling, Constipation and Pain in the Back

Appetite and Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Chas. Steele
St. Catherine's, Ont.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"For a number of years I have been troubled with a general tired feeling, shortness of breath, pain in the back, and constipation. I could get only little rest at night on account of the pain and had no appetite whatever. I was that tired in my limbs that I gave out before half the day was gone. I tried a great number of medicines but did not get any permanent relief from any source until, upon recommendation of a friend, I purchased a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which made me feel better at once. I have continued its use, having taken three bottles, and I Feel Like a New Man.

I have a good appetite, feel as strong as ever I did, and enjoy perfect rest at night. I have much pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla." CHARLES STEELE, with Erie Preserving Co., St. Catherine's, Ontario.

A Mother's Beautiful Child

Dragged Nearly to Death's Door by Severe Nervous Disease—Suffered Extreme Pain in the Head—Doctors Could Do Nothing—South American Nervine Called in at the Eleventh Hour and Restores to Health Little Annie Joy, of West Toronto Junction—The Great Remedy is Reducing the Death Rate of All Canadian Cities.

MISS ANNIE JOY, WEST TORONTO JUNCTION.

A bright little lad, or golden-haired girl, is the delight of your home. Whether you revel in riches, or know something of the privations of poverty, that child is all the world to you. It is no wonder that mother and father become anxious when sickness overtakes the little one.

The remedy, fathers and mothers, is near by. South American Nervine has been the means of giving back the bloom of youth to thousands of suffering little ones. It is not a medicine that buoys up the parents' hopes, only to have them in a short time dashed down again lower than ever. Whether with child or adult, it promptly gets at the seat of all disease, which is the nerve centres. From this fact it is peculiarly efficacious in the treatment of nervous diseases of man, woman or child.

A recent case is that as told by Mrs. M. A. Joy, of West Toronto Junction, whose little daughter Annie, aged 15 years, had been a sufferer from severe nervous depression for about two years. As with all mothers, no trouble and expense was spared in the effort to bring relief to the child. The little one suffered extreme pains in the head, so distressing at times as to render her completely helpless, sapping all her strength. The best skill of the most skilled physicians was called into request, but little Annie steadily grew worse. Becoming more hopeless and discouraged as the weeks went by, Mrs. Joy decided on trying South American Nervine as almost a last resort. Employing her own words she said: "I determined to give it a trial, although I felt it was useless."

To-day it is all happiness around that home, for before one bottle of the medicine had been taken, the mother tells us Annie commenced to show decided signs of improvement. The child has taken three bottles and has practically regained her natural health and vigor. There is nothing surprising in the fact that Mrs. Joy cannot speak too highly of South American Nervine.

Much was at stake, but this wonderful discovery proved equal to the emergency, and so it does in every case. Thousands of letters on file from well-known citizens prove this. For nervous diseases of young or old, from whatever cause, it is an absolutely infallible cure.

Modern!

Featherbone Corsets must not be confounded with those which were made five or six years ago. The Featherbone Corset of to-day is as far removed from the old style, as black is from white.

TERROR ON A TORPEDO

French Sailors Struggle Desperately With Flame and Wave.

FIRE CREPT FOR THE MAGAZINE

After a Hard Fight the Men Come Out Ahead in an Exciting Race for Life —A Recruit Who Attempted to Escape Placed in Irons.

PARIS, July 21.—The new torpedo boat Le Grondeur ran into the harbor at Boulogne yesterday at a high rate of speed, and was at once abandoned by her crew. She had been partly burned and was filling with water.

Le Grondeur was attached to the fleet now manoeuvering in the channel. During the early morning she collided with the armored cruiser Jean Bart. The first examination of her hull showed that she was badly damaged and the water was entering so fast that it would be a race for life to get her into port. She was headed for Boulogne.

Fuel was piled on her fires until she was running twenty-eight knots an hour. Her boiler plates grew red hot, the woodwork caught fire and the flames rapidly spread beyond the control of the crew. The twenty men manning the vessel fought the fire with desperation, preserving perfect discipline despite their growing agony as the flames spread toward the magazine. Only one man, and he was a recruit, gave up hope and tried to jump overboard. He was caught in time, however, and was put in irons.

Eventually the fire was checked when but a few feet from the magazine by the influx of water through the hole made by the Jean Bart, and the men were then able to quench it. Water continued to flow in and the vessel would have foundered with all on board had she been kept at sea half an hour longer.

Anniversary of Submarine Telegraphy.

LONDON, July 21.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the laying of the eastern submarine cables was celebrated last evening at the Imperial Institute. Sir John Pender, who is at the head of the Eastern, the Eastern extension, the Cape and other cable systems, presided. The Prince of Wales telegraphed congratulations. Several colonial governors, a crowd of scientific men, many military and naval officers and a host of noblemen and society leaders were present.

Britannia Again Beats Vigilant.

KINGSTON, July 21. — The American sloop Vigilant and the British Cutter Britannia locked horns again yesterday in their ninth aquatic battle. The yachts finished in a good breeze as follows: Britannia 4.42.40, Vigilant 4.44.37. Britannia won the race on actual time by 1 minute and 50 seconds. The Vigilant has not yet been measured and the question of her time allowance is still unsettled.

A Revolt in Mosquito.

PANAMA, July 21.—The Indians and Jamaicans of Mosquito have revolted and the Nicaraguan commissioner has fled. The government was ready to send troops to Bluefields when the last reports were received and Col. Madriz was expected to go with them, although at that time the revolution in question was said to have been partially subsided.

Narrow Escape from Drowning.

BELLEVILLE, July 21.—There have been two narrow escapes from drowning here. Bert Bogg, a boy about 10 years old, fell from the steamer Varuna and was rescued with difficulty by Frank Weeks, who jumped in with all his clothes on. Another boy, Willie Blaind, fell off the dock and was rescued just in the nick of time.

American Pressmen in Quebec.

QUEBEC, July 21.—The American pressmen were entertained to a sail around the harbor yesterday. A lovelier sight, they averred, they never saw. The weather was bright and clear. After having partaken of dinner the party left by G. T. R. train for the White Mountains.

The Scourge in St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 23.—The cholera epidemic is rapidly spreading. There are 1,000 patients, mostly factory hands and boatmen, in the hospitals in this city. The new cases average two hundred daily and the deaths one hundred.

An Anarchist Newspaper Man Sentenced.

ROME, July 23.—Signor Zoppina, director of the anarchist Journal La Bomba, in Messina, has been sentenced to ten months and fined five hundred lire. La Bomba has been suppressed.

The Birr Officers Get Off.

DUBLIN, July 23.—The trial of the Birr garrison who tried to assault several girls last week ended on Saturday without a decision, the court being divided on the question of guilt.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

THE RED MILLS AT FENELON FALLS

At last the time so anxiously looked forward to for years by the people of Fenelon Falls has arrived; the "red mill" overhauled and repaired and fitted up with new machinery of the most approved design is again running; dense columns of smoke once more arise from the funnel of the huge pepper-box-like refuse kiln; and dust and ashes from the same source again drop as gently, though not as acceptably, as "the rain from heaven" upon any quarter of the village towards which the wind chances to blow. So far the mill has not cut on any one day much over 50,000 feet of lumber, but it is estimated that when everything has been got into such order that she can run continuously at full speed the average will be nearly 100,000 feet in twenty-four hours, and next year she will almost certainly run night and day, and the mill and the extensive piling grounds will be lighted with electricity. The lumber is cut by two bandsaws a foot wide and 49 feet long, which make about 185 revolutions per minute, and consequently travel at the rate of something like a hundred miles an hour. There are ten of these saws, as they have to be removed and sharpened after four hours' use, and to the care of them Mr. George Tomlinson, an expert from Michigan, devotes his whole time and attention. In addition to lumber of all kinds, the mill will turn out large quantities of lath and shingles, and will greatly increase the supply, and probably reduce the present somewhat high price, of soft wood for summer fuel. The effects of the re-opening of the mill are already noticeable; an increased impetus is begining to be imparted to business of all kinds; several houses that have long been idle are being fixed up and made ready for tenants; and many new faces have lately appeared in the village, greatly to the dissatisfaction of some of our old residents, who have failed to get the employment they expected. It is no doubt a great disappointment to them to see the positions they hoped for filled by strangers but the men brought here are, we are told, old employees of the Howry firm, and some (though not all) of them are doing work that could not be trusted to inexperienced hands. There are hard times in the States as well as in Canada—so hard in some parts of Michigan, if a traveller who was here told the truth, as we suppose he did, that some of the people have been reduced to the necessity of cutting grass and boiling it for food! As the mill has probably all the skilled hands it needs, it is to be hoped that the importation of labour will cease, as there are not a few men in the village anxious to obtain employment and able and willing to give a "fair day's work for a fair day's pay."

A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give Ayer's Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please," an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

The firemen directed their efforts towards saving adjoining property. The bake shop and its contents was a total loss. Mr. Grady had an insurance on the building, but Mr. Barette, who had it rented, had no insurance on the contents. It is supposed that the fire caught from the oven.

ACCIDENT NEAR THE RED MILLS.

A Bus Upsets and a Young Man Breaks His Leg—Others of the Party Severely Injured.

Last evening, about eleven o'clock, a party of young men, who had gone out early Saturday evening on a huckleberry expedition to Buckhorn, were returning home, when near the Red Mills the party met with a mishap. It appears that in order to allow two gentlemen, who were driving to town, to pass them, the driver of the buss turned out and drove upon the gravel, which had been placed on the road. In doing so one horse crowded the other and the result was that the bus turned upside down, with two or three of the party under it. Mr. H. E. Shangraw, employed in Matthew's pork packing establishment, who was buried under the bus had his leg broken, and several others in the party were severely shaken up and bruised about the head and shoulders, and are incapacitated from work to-day. The bus was also badly damaged. Mr. Shangraw was driven to the Temperance House, where he boards, and his injuries attended to by Dr. Clarke. It will be some weeks before he will be able to resume work again. He was removed to the Nicholl's Hospital this morning.

CHURCH CHIMES.

At the morning service in the Mark street church yesterday Misses E. and A. Smith contributed a duet in a very pleasing manner.

In the Park street mission at the different services yesterday, Mr. Wm. Tighe, a student of McMaster Hall, preached scholarly and eloquent sermons to large and attentive congregations.

At St. Andrew's church yesterday, Rev. W. A. Hunter, M. A., of Erskine street church, Toronto, preached at the morning and evening services. His discourses were earnest and powerful, and were listened to by large congregations.

Rev. Thos. Goldsmith officiated at St. Paul's church yesterday and delivered two very earnest and impressive discourses with his usual vigour. The congregation were greatly pleased to see the reverend gentleman back among them and it was quite apparent that the warm respect entertained for him had not diminished by his absence. Mr. Goldsmith will continue to discharge the duties of pastor of the congregation during Mr. Torrance's vacation.

At St. John's yesterday there were good congregations at both services—above the average of warm weather congregations. At the morning service Rev. W. M. Loucks preached an excellent sermon, and in the evening Rev. Mr. Pickford took the service. During the offertory Miss Pousette, of Sarnia, sang "Consider the Lillies" with admirable voice, method and effect. In the evening at the Mission Rev. Mr. Loucks took the service and sermon, and the congregation tested the seating capacity to the utmost.

CHARLOTTE STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

The Rev. Mr. Rae occupied his own pulpit morning and evening and preached to large congregations, notwithstanding the sultry day. The preacher made a most favourable impression on his hearers by his manly and earnest addresses, his utterances gave no uncertain sound, as he declared the whole counsel of God. The morning sermon was taken from the 1st chapter of Philippians, 23rd verse, where the great Apostle of the Gentiles says, "I am in a strait betwixt two." The exposition of the subject was illustrated by Christian experience from the lives of the saints and from the Apostle's own life, shewing that it was not fear of death, but a desire to glorify his Master that drew forth the words of the text. The preacher drew deep spiritual lessons from his subject, which he exhorted his hearers to follow, and closed a remarkable, earnest and practical sermon. In the evening the preacher spoke from Elisha's prayer, found in the second book of Kings, "Lord open the young man's eyes." The introduction to the sermon was graphically pourtrayed as the scene of the chariots of fire appearing on the mountains, was brought before the minds of the people. The Rev. preacher pointed out the power of prayer and its source, concluding with an earnest prayer, "Lord open our eyes that we may see." The singing of the choir was beautiful, every member deserving of praise for the efficient services rendered. The subjects for next Sunday's sermons will be, in the morning, "Why people come to church," and in the evening, "Why people do not come to church." Wednesday evening's subject will be "blessing," 10 minutes talk will be given, open to all.

THE PILGRIMAGE EN ROUTE.

Nearly 500 Peterborough Pilgrims Start for St. Anne de Beaupre.

At one o'clock to-day noon eight coaches pulled out from the Grand Trunk station loaded with pilgrims for the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre. Every seat in the coaches were occupied and the station platform was crowded to see them off. Among the clergymen who accompanied the pilgrimage were Rev. Fathers Casey and Scollard, of the Cathedral clergy; Father McColl, Ennismore, and Father Scanlan, Lindsay. At 1.20 another train left the station to pick up all passengers on the route, and it is expected the pilgrimage from this district will be much larger than the one held last year.

The shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre, is linked not only with the earliest Christian traditions of this country but also with the earliest history of Christianity itself. St. Anne was the mother of the Blessed Virgin. At her death her body was buried near Jerusalem. In the reign of the Emperor Trajan the remains of St. Anne were removed to the town of Apt, in the Diocese of Avignon, France. As to the origion of her shrine at Beaupre (beautiful meadow) it is related by popular tradition that, in the early days of the colonization of Canada, several British mariners were navigating the St. Lawrence. A terrific storm arose and shipwreck and the loss of all the lives were threatened. These pious sons of Brittainy reminiscent of the fact that their beloved patroness had never failed to hear them in beloved Brittany, made a vow if she would interpose to save them from shipwreck and destruction, they would build a sanctuary to her name on the very spot they were permitted to land. The good saint heard their prayers. The sailors reached land on the north bank of the St. Lawrence, about twenty miles north-east of Quebec, a point then known as Petit Cap. True to their vow they raised a little wooden chapel which has since became famous throughout the world. In 1658 a larger church was built. But under the hand of time this church becoming dilapidated and threatening to fall into ruin a new church was built on the site. The new church is a splendid edifice, is 200x105 in breadth and 56 feet high, with towers 168 feet in height. Among the most striking ornamentations of the interior are the heaps of crutches on each side of the entrance door, testifying to the healings that have been accomplished. There is a long record of miraculous healings dating from 1661 and it is no wonder that the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre has achieved the popularity that is demonstrated by the fact that since 1874 there has been 1,640 organized pilgrimages to the shrine and that there is a record of the visit of 1,338,164 pilgrims. Last year there were 153 pilgrimages and 130,000 pilgrims.

A CONTRADICTION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—As reports have been largely circulated that I have spoken to tourists in a detrimental manner of Mr. Forbet's hotel at Chemong Park, and also advised them not to patronize it, I wish to say that all such statements are absolutely false, and no such thoughts have for a moment been entertained in my mind. The company by which I am employed allow no such remarks in reference to any public resort, and I am too old an employe to risk my standing and reputation by doing so. At any of my visits to this hotel I have always been treated most cordially. Thanking you Mr. Editor for your kindness in granting me this space, I am

Yours truly,
THOMAS OSBORNE.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

BASEBALL.

The junior Auburns would like to arrange a match with the wine clerks for next Saturday afternoon to take place about 5 o'clock on the Riverside Park.

Cobourg will play the Canton, N. Y., team, to-morrow afternoon.

Uxbridge and Peterborough will play ball on the home grounds, next Saturday.

The home club is trying to make arrangements with the Maple Leaf, of Guelph, for a game on the home grounds, August 9th.

Auburn and the wine clerks played ball on the P. A. A. A. grounds, Saturday afternoon. Following is the score:—

| | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Auburn | 6 | 11 | 3 | 4 | 2 | —26 |
| Wine Clerks | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 1 | —2 |

Oshawa baseball club has been disqualified for non-payment of dues.

The Cobourg Post in referring to the recent baseball match says:—"Peterborough is still in the agricultural business."

LACROSSE.

The Granites are making arrangements for matches with the Millbrooks and Port Hope's. They will play the Dukes, a junior team of the town, at an early date.

The Peterborough's will leave to-morrow for Perth, where they will cross sticks with a team of that town. It is expected O'Meara, the celebrated ex-Shamrock player, will play with Perth.

A special to the Mail from Montreal says: "It now transpires that a protest has been lodged against certain members of the Shamrock lacrosse team. Previous to yesterday's match, Capt. Martin said that Toronto intended to protest Dwyer, Kelly and Tansey for playing under assumed names in Peterborough on June 23, but as this happened to be the date that Shamrocks played against the Capitals in Ottawa Martin was a little surprised, and said that a mistake had probably been made, and to let the thing drop. He telegraphed to Toronto in the evening and was answered that the date might have been wrong, but the protest was to be lodged. Referee Brophy was told of it later on. The Toronto people have evidently made a mistake in the matter, for the only way that the Shamrocks can explain it is that John Dwyer, a junior player, was up west lately, and that Dick Kelly refereed a match in Peterborough, but neither of them were there under assumed names. The Torontos are a little mixed about it." (In Peterborough the whole affair is treated as a joke. A lacrosse player stated to-day that the only "Tansey" Peterborough ever played was Jack McDonough, who is given that pseudonym on the field because of his resemblance to the famous Shamrock star. The Torontos are indeed a little mixed up.

It is stated that Tite, of the Port Hope lacrosse club, says the Kingston News, will play the remainder of the season with the Capitals. It would appear that there is a good deal of "crooked" work going on in the "big league" this year, and the chances are that some of the so-called amateurs, now playing on senior teams, will be made to sit on the "fence" at an early date.

SPRINTING.

A fair-sized crowd turned out to see the 100 yards foot race, Saturday afternoon, on the Driving Park, between Messrs. W. Heffernan and L. LeBar, for a silver cup and a side bet of $50. Mr. C. LeBrun was starter. Lebar won three straight heats.

First Heat,—LeBar started well and kept up a good gait to the finish, Heffernan doing better at the finish.

Second Heat,—LeBar got a good start and won easily by about five feet. 11 seconds.

Third Heat,—This heat also proved an easy one for LeBar, winning it quite easily.

There is some talk of a foot race between Mayhew, a sprinter from Colborne, and LeBar, at the Driving Park, on Labour Day.

CRICKET.

A scratch match was played between the local cricketters on Saturday afternoon. Teams captained by Messrs. Ray and Houldsworth put in splendid practice on the crease, Houldsworth's eleven defeating Ray's by 1 run, the score being 40 to 41.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. P. J. Galvin has received the following entries for the different athletic sports to be run off at Jacob's Island on July 25th: L. LeBar, J. Murphy, W. Thornbeck, M. C. Collins, Geo. Riley, J. F. Sullivan, Albert Coppoway.

Will be Introduced Next Year to Cover the Portion Dropped This Session—Rates on Binder Twine for the Northwest—A New Penitentiary.

OTTAWA, July 23.—When the House met on Saturday morning Mr. Davin asked if the Government would deliver binder twine manufactured at Kingston Penitentiary in the Northwest Territories at the same rates as they were doing in Ontario. Sir John Thompson said that the Government could not afford to do this without a loss to the country.

Reformatory at Glengarry.

In reply to Mr. McLennan Sir John said that if a suitable site could be procured in Glengarry for a reformatory, for which $10,000 was put in the estimates, he would select one there.

Revision of the Lists.

Sir John in moving the House into committee on the franchise bill explained as to his dropping all the bill except as to the revision of the list acts and the changes in the redistributed districts. The time for commencing the revision was August 1. He would introduce a bill next year carrying out the other portion of the bill.

Laurier said that it was probably as good that the Government had left the bill to the last day of the session because if they had another day they might again change their mind. He thought that the first of September instead of the first of August would be a better time for commencing the revision. They were within ten days of the first of August and as the work had to be attended to by members of Parliament he suggested that the first of September would be more suitable for them.

Sir John explained that the intention was to commence as soon as possible after the passing of the act, so that the preliminary lists would be ready by the first of October.

It was finally decided that the revision for the preliminary lists would begin on the first of August and be finished by the first of October, and that the final revision would commence on the first of October and be concluded on February 28.

The House Prorogued.

The House met this morning and cleared up all remaining business. Assembling again at 3 o'clock formal prorogation took place with the customary eclat.

DROWNED WHILE BATHING.

A Sad Accident Which Happened to a Thamesville Young Man.

THAMESVILLE, July 23.—A sad accident happened yesterday about two miles of Morpeth dock whereby this village loses a young and much-respected citizen, Mr. Chas. E. Buller, son of Henry Buller. With some friends, among whom were his brothers, Alfred and Dougald J., his brother-in-law, L. C. Decow, W. F. Lawrence, William and Bert McDonald and Hiram Richardson, he went to Lake Erie to spend the day. He, Lawrence and the MacDonald brothers went out bathing. The water at the time was a little rough and the waves were running very high.

The other members of the party were sitting in the carriage on the shore waiting for the bathers, who all started to come to land after being in the water about half an hour, when the deceased dropped behind the others and was apparently seized with cramps and sank about twenty rods from shore where the water was not more than four feet deep.

As soon as his companions missed him they turned back to rescue him, but on account of the muddy condition of the water they were unable to find the body until about six o'clock when all hope of resuscitation was gone.

The remains reached Thamesville after midnight. The deceased leaves a wife and one child.

An English Embezzler Arrested.

OTTAWA, July 23.—Major Sherwood, chief of Dominion police, has received a telegram from Hamilton, stating that Henry Freeman Jaynes, who some time ago skipped from London, Eng., taking with him $3,000 of his employer's money, had been arrested there. His family recently left London for Canada via Antwerp. The superintendent of Dominion police was advised to watch the arrival of the steamer Wandraham and to shadow the family when they arrived. They reached Quebec on the 17th instant and were followed to Hamilton, where Jaynes was found. He lived under the name of J. Cox.

Fire at Longue Pointe.

MONTREAL, July 23.—Longue Pointe, near Montreal, the scene of the great asylum fire a few years ago, was visited by another bad fire last evening. The fire broke out in the farm house of John Altimus on the Longue Pointe road. The flames spread quickly and the whole farm-house was soon in flames. The assistance of the Montreal firemen was asked and one engine was sent to the scene. At one time the fire threatened to become general, but it was got under control. The loss will amount to about $3,000.

Severe Storm in Prince Edward Island.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., July 23.—A severe thunder and lightning storm passed over here yesterday. Two houses were shattered. A man lying beside a stove was struck by falling bricks from the flue and stunned. F. S. Adsinault and wife, in a house in Abrams village, were thrown out of bed and injured. The side of the house was torn badly. Two boys were thrown from one side of the room to the other. In some parts of the country deep trenches are torn in the road and telephone lines are considerably damaged.

Cement Works Destroyed.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., July 23.—Yesterday a disastrous fire broke out in the Owen Sound Portland cement works, destroying all their valuable machinery. The stock of cement was saved. Owing to lack of storage room and an over supply of cement on hand the works were closed down some few weeks ago. Loss probably $18,000, on which there is a reported insurance of $12,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Patrons Will Protest Monk.

DUNNVILLE, July 23.—There was a largely attended meeting of the Patrons here on Saturday, at which it was decided to protest the election of Hon. R. Harcourt. The matter, it is understood, is in the hands of their solicitors, and the protest will be entered at once.

REV. FATHER CONWAY IN NEW YORK.

He is Interviewed by an Irish World Reporter — His Impressions of the Green Isle.

The following extract is taken from the New York Irish World of Saturday, July 21st:—

"Our readers will recall a sketch given two months ago of Rev. Patrick Conway, of Norwood, Ont., the patriarch of the Canadian priesthood, and the announcement that he was about to visit his native Ireland. It gives us pleasure to state that he returned from his trip last week and, after a few days' stay in New York city, proceeded to his parish. Our representative, who had the pleasure of a cordial chat with the venerable priest, found him full of vigor, health and cheerfulness after his visit to the old land. Father Conway speaks most encouragingly of the changes noted by him since his previous visit several years ago. The people have made considerable progress in that time in the counties which he visited which were chiefly Longford, Leitrim and Sligo. Their home conditions are more comfortable and their children better clad and more generally instructed. Notwithstanding the drain from the population through emigration, Father Conway says he found the churches apparently as fully thronged as before and he saw many evidences that the people of Ireland were never more devoted to their faith and to their religious obligations than at the present time. During his entire visit he saw but one man under the influence of liquor and he felt proud and joyous to be able to note the fact, for Father Conway is a firm believer and consistent advocate of total abstinence. During his entire stay in the city he received many visits from the members of the priesthood and his nephew, the brilliant young attorney, James J. Conway, of 140 Nassau street, managed to keep his leisure hours occupied with sight-seeing, which he greatly enjoyed, for a true Irish heart never grows old."

DID LIZZIE MOODY SUICIDE?

The Inquest at Cooksville Adjourned for a Week.

COOKSVILLE, July 23.—The coroner's inquest on the death of Lizzie Tosh, wife of William Moody, whose connection with the Williams tragedy is well known, was held here on Saturday evening, but nothing was done and the inquest was adjourned for a week to await the result of the post mortem examination.

This woman's mysterious death on Friday morning is exciting unusual interest in the community, and reviving again for public comment the murder of the Williams couple and the trial and conviction of MacWherrell as the one guilty of the crime. Since the time of the tragedy Mrs. Moody has been mentally unsound, the cause being attributed to the suspicions set afloat among her neighbors by the tongues of gossips, who seemed bent on fixing stigma on the Moody family in connection with the crime. The woman was engaged at her household duties when she fell to the floor and expired a few minutes later.

Dr. Sutton of this place, who was sent for, expressed the opinion that death was due to strychnine and an inquest and post mortem examination were ordered. There are some who prefer to believe that the poison was administered by others, but the general opinion is that the woman died by her own hand. Hence the result of the inquest is watched with considerable interest.

To Chain the Power of the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., July 23.—Secretary Parkins, of the Cataract Construction Company, has received official notice from President Langmuir, of the Queen Victoria Park Commission, that the preliminary plans of the power development on the Canada side have been approved by the commission and by the Ontario Government. This leaves the way open for continuing the work of preparation for constructing the power tunnel wheel, pits, etc., on the Canada side. There is no little interest felt here in the matter and many are wondering when actual operations will begin. Mr. Rankine is reticent on the subject and gives no idea when the important step will be taken.

Vigilant Wins a Second Time.

KINGSTOWN, July 23.—The Vigilant and Britannia on Saturday sailed their tenth race, Britannia having already won 8 and Vigilant 1. The Vigilant, when two-thirds of the race was over, had a lead of 1m 17s on the Britannia. When the second mark in the the third round was passed, the time was Vigilant 5.19.15, Britannia 5.38.13. The Vigilant won by three minutes and thirty-nine seconds, without accounting the time allowance, said to be one minutes and ten seconds.

Italy's Triumph in Kassala.

ROME, July 23.—Premier Crispi spoke in the Senate on Saturday concerning the defeat of the Mahdists last week and the occupation of Kassala. The triumph of Italy's colonial troops, he said, would be followed by excellent results. The Mahdists now would probably pause in their course of pillage and murder. He himself had been opposed to the occupation of Massowah in 1884, but the Italian flag once raised could not be hauled down.

Fight Between Spaniards and Malays.

PARIS, July 23.—The Matin's Madrid correspondent says that the Governor of the Philippine Islands has telegraphed to the Government an account of a fierce battle between Spanish troops and natives in Mindanao. The Spaniards were surprised, but they recovered speedily and drove the Malays from the field. They lost 14 killed including an officer and 42 wounded. The Malays left 27 dead on the field.

A Horror in the Black Sea.

ODESSA, July 23.—It is now certain that 140 persons went down with the Italian steamer Columbia, which collided with the Russian steamer Vladimir in the Black Sea a few days ago. All the evidence badly inculpates the Russian seamen who abandoned the Columbia and her crew and passengers to their fate, although the vessel floated an hour and a quarter after the collision.

Claude Gets His Divorce.

EDINBURGH, July 23.—In the Court of Sessions, where Lord Kyllachy has been hearing evidence in the action for divorce on the ground of infidelity, brought by Claude Alexander of Ballochmyle, Ayrshire, against his wife, formerly Lady Diana Montgomerie, youngest daughter of the late Earl of Eglington, judgment was rendered on Saturday for the petitioner.

How to Make Lime Water.

A bottle of lime water in the house is a great convenience. To make it, put about a pound of unslacked lime in a large bowl; pour over this three quarts of boiling water. Let it stand for ten minutes, then stir well with a stick. Place the bowl in a cool place for eight or ten hours. At the end of that time pour off the clear water, letting the sediment remain in the bottom of the bowl. Bottle the clear water and keep in a convenient place.

A tablespoonful of this lime water may be added to a glass of milk to be given to a patient with an acid stomach. In case of burns cover the burned parts with a cloth wet in lime water.

Rossa Speaks at Birr.

DUBLIN, July 23.—O'Donovan Rossa spoke at length in Birr on Saturday after unveiling the monument to the Manchester martyrs. He said that he doubted the sincerity of the government in the cause of home rule. He detected in England the same old hatred of Ireland. The meeting passed resolutions favoring amnesty of the political prisoners.

The Trial of Santo Cesario.

PARIS, July 23.—Remarkable precautions will be taken during the trial of Santo Cesario, the murderer of President Carnot, which will begin in Lyons on the 27th. On his way to the court and back the prisoner will have a strong police and military escort. The court house will be guarded by infantry and a battalion of police.

Forged Half a Million Dollars.

THE STEWART CASE.

Mr. Stewart Pays a Visit to Pictou—Congratulated by His Many Friends on His Restoration to Health.

PICTOU, N.S., July 16.—Good news sometimes travels as fast as bad news, which is proverbially fast. Many people here knew that Mr. Allan Stewart, of Springton, P.E.I., had been for many years afflicted with kidney disease and gravel. It was known, too, that last year he was so bad that public opinion put him down as likely to die soon. Mr. Stewart fooled public opinion though, for he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills and ten boxes of them completely cured him. When he paid a flying visit to this city a few days ago, he received many hearty congratulations on restoration to health and improved appearance. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to cure in this part of the Dominion.

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

THE NEWSPAPER WORLD

SOME OF THE INTERESTING CURIOSITIES FOUND THEREIN.

The Number of Newspapers in the World—The Oldest Journal is the Pekin Gazette—The Beggars' Journal is One of the Most Curious.

There are 4,965 daily newspapers published throughout the world, of which no fewer than 1,759, or more than a third, are issued in the United States. That country is, in fact, more plentifully supplied with newspapers than any other, there being, besides the dailies 13,404 weeklies, and 605 papers which appear at other intervals without taking into account the monthlies and other magazines and reviews, which, bring up the total to about 23,000, giving employment, is estimated, to 200,000 people. New York State alone has more papers than are published in all the continents of the world south of the equator.

Newspaper enterprise appears, indeed, to flourish all over the New World, at least, to the extent of putting forward great numbers of separate papers. Canada has ninety four dailies, 576 weeklies, and 132 monthlies. Latin-America—including under this convenient term Mexico and Central and South America, where Spanish and Portuguese are spoken—has over 4,500 newspapers of all sorts, 200 of which are printed in other languages than Spanish or Portuguese, almost every foreign tongue being represented.

The newspapers of the British Isles number 2,272. London alone sending out 496 of these. Two monthly magazines and reviews of all kinds published in the British Isles total up to an additional 1,900. The 200 dailies have an average circulation which is nearly five times as great as that of the much larger number issued in the United States.

Paris has more dailies than London, New York, Philadelphia, and Boston combined. The Parisian papers, of which there are 141 altogether, are generally distinguished by having larger circulations than those of all other cities. The largest circulation in the world is that of the Petit Journal, which issues more than a million copies daily.

Germany occupies the second place with regard to the number of daily papers, having 973, besides 2,630 weekly and other papers. The oldest European newspaper still published is the Post Zeitung, of Frankfort, which dates from 1616.

The oldest newspaper in the world is the Pekin Gazette, which has been regularly published since A. D. 911. It has now three issues daily (not merely editions), with a circulation of 10,000. The contents are simply official information, Imperial decrees, and the like, which are communicated to the publisher by the functionaries of the Imperial Palace. The official documents are drawn up with great care, and are only published after such careful revision that they do not appear until two or three days after the publisher has received them. However, he has time to publish an unofficial edition, and also a manuscript edition, which is the first edition, and appears two days before the official. There are six editors, so that there is an ample reserve in case of absence of any of them for Government reasons. That this is not a needless precaution, in view of the strict watch kept on the paper, may be understood when it is stated that during the 1,000 years or so the paper has been in existence seventeen of its editors have been beheaded.

The Gazette is exactly the same in form to-day as it was a thousand years ago. It is 4 in. wide by 10 in. long and each issue consists of about eighteen leaves of soft, thin paper, with ragged edges, printed on one side in Chinese characters, the whole inclosed in a thin yellow cover, and lightly stitched. It is sold on the streets of Pekin by news men and boys.

But though China can boast of this ancient newspaper, it otherwise makes a poor show in the Journalistic world. For all its 400,000,000 inhabitants it has only twenty-four newspapers, ten of which are daily, and fourteen appear at longer intervals. Only eleven are printed in Chinese, one is printed in French, the rest being English.

Japan presents a striking contrast, having 92 dailies and 175 other periodicals. Nearer home, even the little island of Iceland, with some 70,000 inhabitants, has the same number of newspapers as the great empire of China.

The newspapers of India are published in many languages, and it is said that those in the native tongues are more widely circulated and read in proportion to the number of copies printed, than is the case any where else in the world. A single copy will serve a whole village, and will pass from hand to hand until it actually falls to pieces.

Persia has six newspapers, all in the native language except one in Syriac. Persian newspapers are not printed from type. When the reading matter is ready it is passed to a scribe, who makes a clean copy. From this a beautifully written, fine copy is made by a handwriting expert, and this is finally exactly reproduced by lithography.

Borneo has the smallest regular published newspaper in the world—the Sarawak Gazette, printed in English, and first issued in 1807.

All over the world some fifty-nine languages are represented by newspapers. Many are printed in two or three languages, English in such cases usually being one. The newspapers of Austria show a greater variety in this respect than those of any other country, including in the list German, Italian, French, Magyar, or Hungarian, Greek, Latin, Polish, Servina, Slavic and Hebrew. The most remarkable paper in Austria, and probably in the world as regards languages, is "the Acta Comparationis Leitrarum Universitatum, a semi-monthly review of comparative literature, which has contributors in every part of the world whose articles are all printed in their native tongues.

The United States have also a considerable variety of languages. Among other foreign tongues, one paper is printed in Magyar and one in Armenian. In south America there are papers published in various native languages, notably in the Guarani of Paraguay. The Zulus, even, had some years ago a paper in their own dialect published in South Africa, but it has now ceased to appear.

The newspaper world offers many curiosities in the way of names. The longest newspaper in existence is that of a Greenland sheet, which rejoices in the euphonious designation of Arrangaglioto Natingin-navuik Sysarammas Sesuik. Curious also is the conjunction of names which obtains in the town of Tombstone, Arizona. The leading paper is the Epitaph, which is edited by an Englishman named Coffin, and published by a man named Sexton. The publisher declines advertisements of undertakers, but appropriately inserts death notices gratis.

The most northern newspaper is the Nordslys, published at Hammerstein. The editor and his staff work in a small turf-roofed wooden house. News comes by mailboat, and the Hammersteiners are made aware of the world's events generally eight days late; and as the paper is a weekly, its news is often a fortnight old. The subscribers are kept still further behind, as many have their copies delivered by boat, unless they fetch them, which they sometimes do, paying for them in herrings or other fish.

A peculiar example of newspaper enterprise under difficulties is offered by the Rhodesia Chronicle and Advertiser, a Mashonaland paper, which is a foolscap sheet of sixteen pages, not printed in type, but written by hand, and duplicated by an office stylograph process. Paper being sometimes scarce in Mashonaland, blue-ruled essay paper is used in case of need.

The most curious of all class journals is surely the Beggar's Journal of Paris, which is published daily, and gives its subscribers a complete lists of baptisms, weddings and funerals to take place the same day, which may be assumed to afford a good "pitch." Begging-letter writers are provided for by a special section, which gives the arrivals and departures of persons of known charitable tendencies.

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the sufferer becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—ulcers and tumors form, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly affected from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and trouble. These and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

Gives Instant Relief.

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause than Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

"A Social Vision."

This book of Chas S. Daniels is an attempt to forecast the future of society, to give us the logical results of the present condition of things and to show that by and by human nature will wake out of its sleep and do something quite worthy of itself.

For instance, and we choose at random, here is a picture of a live church, not the dogmatic church of to-day, but the church which recognizes its duty to the world. The young pastor has just been called to his charge and feels that he has a burden to carry. He has a long talk with his bishop, who suggests several innovations. Here is a bit of conversation:

"That is a fine old church," said the Bishop, "and you ought to feel happy with such opportunities."

"Yes, but there is nobody in it."

"There are plenty in the lanes around, I warrant you, and we must seek them out and compel them to come in. How many will your church hold?"

"Eight hundred."

"How many are there when your force is strongest?"

"About two hundred."

"Then there is a waste of space for six hundred; or three-fourths is wasted."

He then suggests that the audience room be divided and made into offices; that business men occupy them, who will hold various kinds of meetings in them during the evening and read good books to boys who can be gathered. It is to be a working church, with a social science department and a kindergarten, and all sorts of attractive things to make the outside community interested in it.

You can tell what a load of hay is from a handful of it, and you can tell what the book is from this simple extract.

"The Practical Man."

Of all stupid persons none is more exasperating than the individual who takes every opportunity to proclaim himself "a practical man." To be practical with him means to gauge all actions by their results, and that results should always be to the immediate advantage of the actor. Considering that a superabundance of ideas hinders, rather than helps a man in making up his mind how to act, he regards with an air of superiority verging on pity the intellectual man with a speculative turn of mind. His view of life usually may be summarized by the adage "Charity begins at home" with the additional inference that it also ends there.

Because such a man's rule of action is narrow, and therefore definite, it is hardly safe to infer that he is necessarily practical. Probably more men have made fools of themselves by acting without thinking than by thinking without acting.

The really practical man is one who "reduces his theories to actual use," not the man who has no theories to reduce.

He who guides all his actions by a few isolated facts is less wise than the man whose rule of conduct however broad, is subservient to well known laws. For a man's material welfare and happiness, whether he likes it or not, must necessarily be bound up with that of his neighbors, his fellow-citizens and his countrymen. Therefore to regard all great social reform as having nothing to do with his own personal interest shows extreme ignorance and shortsightedness. No class of society can suffer without at some time interfering with the welfare of the others; and "vice versa." The amelioration of one class advances the good of the whole body.

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparilla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose? why Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I'm going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

Nothing Impossible.

Just now a mite of money is worth a mountain of stock.

Just now, nothing seems impossible in the line of economy. But the TRUTH about low values is hard to comprehend. Anything less than ALL the facts concerning OUR goods and their present values would be unjust to the public.

You cannot always buy so many kinds of goods at and below cost as we offer you now. Your best economy is to invest your money in wisely selected goods at present prices at this store. Listen:

DRESS GOODS
AT COST.

Just to liven things up these hot days we offer all our Summer Dress Goods at about cost. This will help to clear out our stock and save carrying anything over to another season.

WASH GOODS
AT COST.

Chambrays, Krinkles and Muslins all at cost. This is the chance of the season as the stock is all right and well bought.

PARASOLS
AT COST.

Not a fraction of a fib, fabrication or falsehood gets into our store talk. Truth is the best salesman. Parasols at cost just means what it says.

ALL TRIMMED MILLINERY
AT HALF PRICE.

That's a sweeping reduction. Surely cost plays no part in this case. Half price takes everything we have in Trimmed Millinery.

MANTLES AND CAPES

At interesting figures.

DELAINES
AT ABOUT COST.

We can accommodate these beautiful goods to those who come for them. Their bargain story has new life to-day.

BLOUSES, SHIRT WAISTS
AT COST.

Don't be skeptical. Prudence says buy freely.

DO EUROPE ON A BIKE.

POPULARITY OF A WHEELING TRIP THROUGH FOREIGN LANDS.

Very Cheap and Very Entertaining—In Fact, Some Who Have Tried It Say It Is Cheaper Than Staying at Home—Some Figures.

About this time it's getting to be quite the fad to make economical trips to Europe. If one has a bicycle, so much the better. Wheeling beats pedestrianism all hollow in both comfort and rapidity, and for the student bicycling is better than railroading, for by the former method of travel out of the way places may be penetrated and the beaten path can be monopolized by the plutocrat and the occasional vacationist who do not care to economize when doing something unusual. However prosaic European trips may be to persons in certain financial circumstances, to the average Canadian they are extremely unusual, and when one is taken it marks an epoch in the life of the individual. It is interesting to know that a New York bicyclist traveled in this manner through England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland, was gone twelve and a half weeks and the journey cost him $95. This demonstrates that such trips are possible.

As a matter of fact this example has been contagious and a party of seventeen calling themselves the Anarchists' Wheeling Club have started on their journey to do Holland on a wheel. The Holland trip is preferred, apparently, for the reason that it is a country not much traveled by Canadians and the fare is cheap. Besides, the roads are reported good.

"Talk about pleasant trips!" said an enthusiast, who has done some bicycling abroad. "It's cheaper to go to Europe than it is to stay here during the summer. Think of it—ninety-eight dollars for a first cabin round trip steamer ticket. Then when you get to Holland you merely break away in any direction, for you're sure to find good roads wherever you may go. The country is thoroughly built up. You can't get lost, and on fifty cents a day you can live like a prince. Of course, you can use more money if you throw it at birds and want to buy the house at which you may be stopping, but fifty cents a day will see you through very comfortably in the country. Five cents, for instance, in coin of the realm will get a splendid breakfast, consisting of curd cheese, a hot omelette, some bacon and a cup of steaming coffee. For a drink of 'schnapps' you will have to pay a few cents extra, of course.

"And the service is excellent. A buxom Dutch girl with a broad grin on her ruddy face brings you the food, asks you if you want more and you assume Dutch is sufficiently like German to make 'Yah' intelligible, and you say 'Yah.' All the members of the family come in to admire you and your bicycle, and when you leave you undoubtedly leave an ineffaceable impression of dash and daring and generosity, too, if you tip the waitress a cent or two. The frugality, the good temper, the kindly feeling exhibited by these excellent persons raise Wouter van Twiller and Petter Stuyvesant and all their descendants in your estimation, however highly you may have regarded them before.

"The feather bed habit I have found rather highly developed in the parts of Holland where I have been, but the beds are clean, and lodging on the road will be found very pleasant. The last trip I took was with a party of seven persons. Each man had a wheel. The only unpleasant feature was an economical fiend. He had along with him an oil stove, and he put us to the blush continually. We would reach an inn and six of us would order dinner. The economical man would ask for three raw eggs, which he wanted to boil over his oil stove. None of us knew the language, and the oil stove fellow would have an awful time making himself clear. On one occasion he had to crow like a rooster and cackle like a hen before they understood he wanted eggs. In the meantime we were frightfully embarrassed, for the price of the cooked dinner was ridiculously small. However, our economical friend was not daunted, and he actually lighted his oil stove right in our midst, borrowed pepper and salt from our table, boiled his eggs with borrowed water, bought some milk, coffee and ham, and to our confusion and disgust gorged himself, while the fat host explained to his wife something about our friend being 'verruckt.'

"He kept a strict account of all his expenditures, or pretended to, and drove us crazy with questions as to whether he had spent one or two cents for cheese at the last stop, he having postponed the posting of his ledger and forgotten some of the items. While this man and his oil stove had their disadvantages, they were sources of considerable diversion at times, and made the party much more conspicuous than it otherwise would have been. On this occasion we were eight weeks in the saddle, and the entire trip, including steamer ticket, cost me but $200. I was extravagant, however. Living expenses at four dollars a week would have aggregated thirty-two dollars, but I got something extra here and there and went to amusements of various kinds, and in that way consumed sixty or seventy dollars. It must have cost the oil stove man about thirty dollars. The only reckless thing he did was to buy a new suit of clothes, and they cost ten dollars."

From inquiry at the offices of various steamship companies the New York Herald estimates that at present there are 5,000 Americans "doing" Europe on bicycles. A slight knowledge of the French or German language is of great benefit in the rural parts of Teutonic Europe, it is said, while in the cities there are always to be found shopkeepers and hotel clerks who know enough English to understand requests for creature comforts.

The Leech Cure.

A young man was suffering from a swollen jaw. His landlady had applied various remedies without much success, and finally she said: "I think you will have to get a couple of leeches."

"Where can I get them?"

"At a drug store."

"Will two be enough?"

"Yes, and you want both of them at once. In three or four hours that swelling will go down."

The young man went to the nearest drug store and purchased two leeches. He returned to his room, studied the flat, blackish, oblong things with some distrust, and then boldly washed them down with a big glass of water. In a few minutes the landlady came around.

"Where are the leeches?" she asked.

"I took them.'

"Took them! Swallowed them?"

"Why, yes; what's the matter?"

"They'll eat you up. Don't you feel anything? Run for the doctor!"

The doctor came. The young man moaned in pain. The landlady cried. And that was all that happened.

Milk in the Barn.

When the farmer first tries dairying he follows the methods of the pioneers and milks out of doors. He loses money by doing it. That it is more comfortable in winter to milk in the barn, all will concede, but the old practice of milking out of doors dried up the cows in winter and it was thought that the canopy of the skies was good enough shelter for doing all kinds of farm work. This is not true in dairying. Over and over again it is necessary to insist upon the necessity of uniformity, and the only way to secure it is to milk under shelter. A pelting storm just at milking time plays the mischief with out-of-door milkers. A hot evening which makes the flies ravenous, annoys the cows and the milk pail goes with a light, poor-paying load. Milk under shelter the year around.—NOTICE: milk the year around and milk under shelter the year around and then you may have a stream of currency flowing into the treasury the year around.

Shot His Wife and Her Paramour.

ANTONITO, Col., July 23. — Casimero Areno shot and killed his wife and her paramour, Refugio Ortez, on Saturday. The tragedy occurred at Ortez, a town six miles south. The murdered man is a son of J. N. Ortez, the richest Mexican in the county.

Lynched by Masked Men.

CINCINNATI, July 23.—Twenty masked men took Louis Laferdetta from the jail at Burlington, Boone county, and hanged him. He was the tramp who murdered William Waitlock, a farmer.

Terrible Loss of Life in Turkey.

A Would-be Assassin Released.

A Cashier Suicides.

A Number of Timely Hints Given by an Expert Housekeeper.

One of grandmother's wise ways was to keep a cup of alum-water always close at hand; it usually stood on the window-sill beside her work basket. Cut fingers and bruises of all kinds, if wrapped in cloth wet with alum-water, healed with a rapidity that was truly wonderful. This is so simple a remedy that it is worth while to know about it. Excellent for burns.

The Care of Brooms.

The rapidity with which brooms ordinarily wear out is surprising. This is partly due to leaving the broom standing on its brush end when not in use, but more to carelessness in handling. A piece of strong cloth, or better yet, of old woven under-flannel or stockinet, should be drawn on over the handle and down below the place where the broom splints are stitched.

A few stitches with strong cotton yarn should fasten this cover at its lower edge, and gather and fasten it around the handle, sewing the stitches through and through. This cover holds the broom-splints together, and prevents their breaking out and the tearing off of the banding of a broom, which repeated striking against doors and mop-boards and reaching under heavy pieces of furniture does.

Washing Oilcloth.

Kitchen oilcloth does get shabby often in a remarkably short time, and the manufacturer and the merchant who sold it get all the blame, whereas some of it should be shouldered by both mistress and maid. Tepid water should be used in wiping up an oilcloth, and soap only where there are grease spots. Wet only a small portion at a time, and, as soon as the dust and dirt are removed, wipe perfectly dry.

After the oilcloth is cleaned, go over it with a flannel wet with linseed oil. Use plenty of strength rubbing in the oil. Once a year give the oilcloth a good coat of varnish. With proper treatment a good oilcloth lasts for years, and the colors keep bright even after constant use has worn parts of the oilcloth into holes.

How to Clean Lamp Chimneys.

One of the most disagreeable tasks of the housekeeper is made easy by the use of a little salt. If your chimneys is very sooty take some soft paper and clean it, but use no water. When as clean as you can make it with the paper, take a dry flannel cloth, put some salt in your chimney and rub briskly. Treat the outside the same way and you will be surprised at the brilliant polish obtained.

Any piece of glass can be treated this way successfully, and even a flat-iron can be made free of rust if rubbed over a paper on which salt has been sprinkled.

Beef Dripping.

Housekeepers will find that good beef dripping is better than lard for some kinds of pastry, and for frying purposes, though for the latter use it burns sooner than lard. Clarify it by pouring boiling water on it as it is taken from the dripping pan, letting it stand till cold and firm, then taking out the cake of fat and scraping off the impurities from the bottom; the rest will be clean and sweet.

Bacon fat can also be used in place of lard, but mutton drippings will only answer for frying purposes, and many cooks will not use them even for that.

A Good Recipe.

Here is a recipe which I once read, and always remembered it because of its goodness. I send it that others may try it:

Take one gill of forbearance.

A pinch of submission.

Twelve ounces of patience.

A handful of grace.

Mix well with milk of the best human kindness.

And serve with a radiant smile on your face.

Please try it when you feel all out of patience and everything seems to go all wrong, and see if it doesn't help you.—The Household.

Beauty of Red Hair.

If the women with red hair would only study how to use it becomingly they would be proud of the distinction of having it, instead of dissatisfied with their fate. There seems to be an impression among women with red hair that almost any shade of blue can be worn by them because, as a usual thing, they have fair and delicate complexions. But, as a matter of fact, blue is the one color above all others that they ought to avoid. The contrast is too violent, and the combination is not harmonious. The shades most suitable to be worn with red hair are bright, sunny brown and all autumn leaf tints. After these may be selected pale or very dark green—but never a bright green—pale yellow, and black unmixed with any other color. Solid colors are more becoming to red-haired people than mixed, the mixed colors nearly always giving a more or less dowdy appearance. In fact, red hair is usually so brilliant and decided that it must be met on its own ground, and no vague, undecided sort of things should be worn with it.—Detroit Free Press.

For the Kitchen Floor.

If your kitchen or any other floor that you do not wish to carpet shows unsightly cracks try the following recipe for them: One pound of flour, three quarts of water and a teaspoonful of alum and make a paste of them, cooking well together. After removing from the stove stir it into a lot of paper that is torn in small pieces and let it soak, stirring as much as you can. The paper should be stirred until it is all in a pulp and the mass is so thick that it is difficult to stir longer. Apply it to the cracks—be sure the floor is freshly cleaned first—and force it in, smoothing it off even with the surface. Leave it to dry thoroughly, and you will find that it is more lasting and a great deal cheaper than putty. This can be painted right over as though it were wood.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Worth Knowing.

Nothing is better for cleaning dusty and greasy garments than soap bark. However, it cannot be used for light hued garments, as it possesses just enough coloring to darken delicate tints. It is quite inexpensive and may be purchased at any drug store.

When the end of a seam is reached in stitching by machine, the easiest and neatest way of fastening the threads is to turn the work around and restitch for a short distance.

THE SURVEYORS IN LABRADOR

Letters Reach the Capital Announcing the Safety of the Party—The Speech From the Throne Delivered at Prorogation—Printers Discharged.

OTTAWA, July 24.—The speech from the throne at the prorogation of Parliament yesterday was delivered by the Governor-General with unusual brevity, and was as follows:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate—Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In bringing to a conclusion this laborious session of Parliament, I have to thank you for the assiduity and zeal with which you have attended to the various matters which have been brought before you. I congratulate you upon the notable fact that the invitation which my Government extended to the Governments of the other colonies to send representatives to Canada to confer on matters affecting their mutual interests was so promptly accepted; and that her Majesty's Government also enhanced the dignity and usefulness of the conference by sending a representative to assist at its deliberations. It is confidently hoped that the results of the conference will be found beneficial to the colonies and to the empire generally. The ratification of the treaty of commerce with France will lead, I hope, to a large increase in our exports and an extension of friendly relations with that company. I trust that the arduous work which has engaged you in re-adjusting the duties of customs will accomplish the desired result of adapting the tariff to the present conditions of the various classes of our population.

The statutes of the session will show that the laws affecting many public interests have been revised and greatly improved by your efforts, and I observe that you have likewise made generous provision for public improvements which are designed to increase the facilities for travel and transportation throughout the country;

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I thank you for the liberal provision which you have made for the services of the current year.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate—Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In relieving you from your present duties, I pray that your labors may be fruitful and of benefit to the country, and that on returning to your homes you will find that a generous harvest is about to reward the toil of our farmers, and that the blessings of Providence have been likewise bestowed abundantly on all the other interests of the people whom you represent.

The Surveyors at Labrador.

D. H. Keeley, of the Government telegraph service, has received a despatch from the agent of the Hudson Bay Company at Mingan, Que., stating that letters dated Grand Falls, Hamilton river, June 18, had been received from Mr. A. P. Lowe, who is making a Government survey of Labrador. They reported the party in good health. Mr. Lowe expects to arrive at Mingan towards the end of August.

Masonry on the "Soo" Canal.

Mr. Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canal, denies the report contained in a despatch from the American "Soo" that the masonry on the part of the Canadian locks now nearing completion was defective. He stated that some 800 feet of wooden revertment crib work had been shoved out in a few places by earth filling. This was on account of winter work. The defects had been repaired, and would not delay the opening of the locks, which takes place some time next month.

A Tax on Bachelors.

Mayor Cox, who recently started a movement to tax bachelors, has asked Assessment Commissioner Pratt to prepare a list of all single men on the voters' lists with a view of bringing the statute labor tax into operation. The mayor thinks a city by-law authorizing the taxing of the bachelors will be necessary before the statute can be put in operation.

Government Printers Discharged.

Forty-two employes have been discharged from the Government Printing Bureau. Considerable ill feeling is expressed in labor circles because the list includes several of the oldest members of the staff, who were looked upon as permanent employes. Among them was Antoine Choquette, who has been steadily employed for sixteen years. All are Conservatives.

An Old Railroader Dead.

BRANTFORD, July 24.—Henry Yates, an old and respected citizen of this place, died at his residence here. Mr. Yates was one of the best known railroad engineers in Canada. In 1853 he came to Canada as chief engineer of the Great Western railway, and later on he was contractor for the building of the railroad from Buffalo to Goderich. After this line was completed he was appointed chief engineer of the Grand Trunk railway. About 1878 he was partner with the late John H. Stratford, contractor, and built the Air line of the G.T.R. and part of the Canada Southern railway. Deceased leaves a wife and three sons.

JAPAN WILL NOT BEND

And China Remains Firm in Resisting Her Right to Interfere.

WAR NOW SEEMS INEVITABLE

And Can Only Be Averted by the Interference of the European Powers—Japanese Gunboats Reported to be Bombarding Corean Towns.

LONDON, July 24.—The Central News says it has been learned from a high source in London that the relations between China and Japan have grown much more serious within the last 48 hours. Japan insists emphatically upon certain reforms of Corea's internal administration, while China resists Japan's demands with equal determination. Under no circumstances will China allow Japan's claim of the right to interfere.

The Earl of Kimberley, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, had a long conference yesterday with the Chinese and Japanese ministers. He urged upon each the great need of moderation and forbearance in both Tokio and Pekin, and spoke emphatically of the dire consequences of war between the countries. His representations, while received with great courtesy and expressions of satisfaction by both ministers, failed to elicit an affirmative response from either of them.

The Central News received this despatch from Shanghai last evening: The telegraph between Pekin and Shanghai has been restored. The rumor that war has been declared is denied officially, but there seems to be no hope of a pacific settlement. Apparently war can be averted only by the interference of European powers to protect their commerce and the lives of their subjects from the injury which Japan's action threatens to cause them. It has been again reported that Japanese gunboats have begun bombarding the Corean coast towns.

SHANGHAI, July 24.—In view of the increasing complications between China and Japan the German gunboat Wolf has been ordered to sail north to Che-Foo, which is directly east of Seoul.

SWALLOWED BY AN ALLIGATOR.

The Man's Body Found Intact in the Animal—Hurricanes in Venezuela.

PANAMA, July 24.—The following news is sent from Colombia:

In Pinion, on the Magdalena river, while bathing, a man was devoured by an alligator. His absence could not be accounted for until the following day, when the alligator was killed by some people of the village. On opening the saurian the body of the unfortunate man was found inside intact.

Eight men from the village of Palmito formed a party to cut down a gigantic tree. The tree in falling struck the whole party, causing the death of all.

Terrible hurricanes have occurred in Cula, Venezuela, destroying houses and crops and causing the complete interruption of telegraph lines.

Miss Dawson Attends the Conference.

LONDON, July 24.—Miss Dawson, who was elected by the Birmingham Synod as a delegate to the Wesleyan Conference, took her seat in that body yesterday. The Rev. Owen Watkins called the attention of the conference to her presence and moved that the question of her right to sit as a delegate be referred to a committee. Price Hughes moved an amendment that the conference proceed with the order of the day, and in a speech in support of his amendment advocated the admission of women as delegates. An exciting debate followed and an amendment was finally adopted, without expressing any opinion as to the election of Miss Watson, instructing the chairmen of district synods not to accept the nomination of women as representatives until the whole question is decided by the conference.

The Evicted Tenants Bill.

LONDON, July 24.—In the House of Commons yesterday Messrs. Chamberlain and Balfour spoke against the evicted tenants bill, and its passage was advocated by John Dillon and John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland. The division on the second reading followed Mr. Morley's speech. It showed a vote of 259 for the bill and 227 against it. The announcement of the result was greeted with prolonged cheers from the Government benches.

Britannia Beats the Vigilant.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The eleventh race between the Britannia and Vigilant took place yesterday, the former winning for the ninth time. The Vigilant led at the start, passing the pilot head flag boat 55 seconds in advance of her rival. This lead was slightly increased on the second round. Later on, however, the wind that had been blowing fresh early in the day, died away, the Vigilant became becalmed and Britannia won.

The French Press Bill.

PARIS, July 24.—In the Chamber of Deputies Premier Dupuy asked that as a mark of confidence in the government the Chamber reject all amendments to the government's press bill aimed at the suppression of Anarchy. The request of the Premier was granted, the Chamber rejecting all amendments with increased majorities.

Killed His Landlady.

BERLIN, July 24.—At Cannastadt, in Wurtemburg, a laborer named Mauns shot and instantly killed his landlady, Mrs. Nipp, and fatally injured her husband by stabbing him. He then attempted to commit suicide, but was seized before he could accomplish his object. Manns was in love with Mrs. Nipp who rejected his attentions.

The Canadians' Record at Bisley.

LONDON, July 24.—The Canadian marksmen at Bisley have won about £350 besides cups and trophies. The corporation of London gives fifteen prizes to the colonial and Indian volunteers making the high at scores. In what is known as the Grand Aggregate the Canadians won all but one.

Dowe's Bullet-Proof Coat Punctured.

BERLIN, July 24.—Major Brinkman sent a bullet through one of the tailor Dowe's so-called bullet-proof cuirasses at Spandau. He shot with a regulation army rifle at a distance of 2,000 feet.

IN THE U. S. SENATE

Gorman Attacks Cleveland and the Letter to Wilson.

INVESTIGATING THE SCANDALS

A Witness Possessing the Contract Made by a Senator for the Purchase of Stock Examined—Playing a Waiting Game With Regard to Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Not for many a year has the Senate chamber witnessed such a stirring spectacle than that which took place there yesterday. The knowledge that Senator Gorman was to take up the gauntlet thrown down by President Cleveland attracted large crowds.

Mr. Gorman was in his best fighting trim. Without a note or memorandum to refer to or to refresh his memory he held the floor for nearly three hours, exhibiting powers of oratory which few, even of his warmest political admirers, would have given him credit for. While unsparing in his attack on the President he directed his efforts principally to sustaining the proposition bill, as fixed up by Senators Jones, of Arkansas, and Vest, of Missouri, and as finally passed by the Senate, had been submitted on several occasions to the Secretary of the Treasury and the President and had received the assent and approval of both of them, and that it was not until after the publication of the Wilson letter that the hostility of the President to the Senate bill had been known or suspected.

Mr. Gorman's assertions on that point were fully corroborated and with all necessary detail by Senators Jones, Vest and also by Harris (Tenn.), who related two interviews which he had had with the President, the last of them while the bill was in conference, from which he had come away with the distinct understanding that the President was strongly in favor of the bill as it passed the Senate, "if no better terms could be obtained."

Senator White, of California, made a short speech in favor of the motion to insist on the Senate amendments and to agree to further conference, and then, without action on any of the pending motions, the Senate adjourned.

Judging by the statement of the managers of the bill there appears to be no change in the situation. Much depends upon the persistence with which Mr. Villas pushes his motion to strike out the differential duty on refined sugar and the attitude of this Senator led a number of Democrats to make the statement that it looked as if the administration wanted to see this action taken. If an effort is made to push this motion some of the Democrats, it is asserted, are prepared to take the responsibility of settling the fight at once by moving to indefinitely postpone the conference report and if made by a Democrat, a Senator said that this motion would prevail beyond any possible doubt.

American Recognition of Hawaii.

The administration has three days in which to determine whether to recognize the new Hawaiian republic promptly or to withhold its formal recognition another fortnight. The question will probably come before the cabinet to-day. There is an impression that the formal recognition will not be made with undue haste on account of the administration's contention that Americans were too active in overthrowing the old government.

The Sugar Scandals.

The sugar investigating committee met with Mr. Lodge (Rep., Mass.,) present. There was but one witness, Emil Guillardeau, of the New York firm of W. B. Wheeler & Co. This is the witness who is said to possess the original contract in which a certain senator ordered sugar stock purchased. The members of the committee refuse to talk further than to say they are getting at something tangible. An early adjournment was taken on account of the tariff debate.

Murdered on His Train.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., July 24.—J. F. Nelson, the oldest conductor on the Brunswick and Western railroad, was shot through the heart and killed on his train 30 miles from Brunswick while trying to stop a crowd of drunken negroes from fighting. His train porter was mortally wounded. Six arrests have been made and great excitement prevails.

Burned to Death in a Yacht.

NEWARK, N. J., July 24.—The steam yacht Favorite, which ran from this city to Rockaway, was burned to the water's edge yesterday. Seven of the crew were aboard sleeping and all were gotten off except two boys who were sleeping in the hold.

Boy's Body Found in the Whirlpool.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 24.—The body of a boy, 14 or 15 years of age, was taken out of the whirlpool yesterday by Harry Clark and Louis Smith, two town boys. The body has been floating around in the eddies of the whirlpool since yesterday morning. It is completely nude, and has apparently been in the water two or three weeks, being badly decomposed and the hair is all off its head.

A Fungus Destroying Apple Crop.

ALBION, N.Y., July 24.—The apple crop of Orleans county will fall short of a quarter crop and the same is true of Niagara county. A mysterious fungus grows about the stem of the apple and causes it to fall. This growth developed during the hot weather of a month ago which was followed by cold rains.

Well-Known Grain Dealer Assigns.

MONTREAL, July 24.—The well-known firm of Marsan & Brosseau, grain and hay dealers, formally assigned at the demand of Donat Mieranlt, with liabilities of over $150,000. The Ontario Bank is interested to the extent of $60,000, partly secured.

A Horrible Case.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 24.—A woman is dying by inches at 48 Guthrie street. The flesh is dropping in pieces off her body. Several days ago her body turned black and blue in blotches and presented an irritated and festering appearance.

Abdul Aziz Enters Fez.

TANGIER, July 24.—Sultan Abdul Aziz entered Fez on Saturday with 30,000 troops and courtiers. He was cheered loudly by the people.

TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1894.

Although Parliament has been in session nearly four and a half months, the Mail points out, between forty and fifty bills and resolutions introduced by private members will be left untouched when His Excellency discharges the legislators from duty. These propositions included the repeal of the Franchise Act, the prohibition of the use of railway passes by members of Parliament, the prevention of church lotteries, the removal of disabilities imposed on the Freemasons of Quebec, the provision of a maximum passenger rate, the reduction of the salary of the Governor-General, the more effective restraint of combinations, the disfranchisement of provincial employees, and many other measures of more or less interest to the public. It is evident from this that if Parliament transacted all the business brought before it with no greater expedition than usual, there would be no vacation between sessions.

THE good people of the United States have suddenly awakened to the fact that immense quantities of frozen fish have been entering the port of Gloucester, Mass., as caught by American fishermen, while in reality they were caught by Canadians, and sold to the Americans. The people who eat the fish in innocence and good faith are in a deplorable plight, the Globe remarks. There is no clause in all the tariff legislation which can effectually deal with their case. With most patriotic intentions they have been plunging a dagger in the bulwark of their national greatness. But good may come out of this evil. It is said that a fish diet has a tendency to produce brains, and if the theory is true the man who smuggles fish into a protection country is an angel in disguise. He supplies a long-felt want.

THE 1894 show of the Royal Agricultural Society, of England, was lately held at Cambridge. Her Majesty the Queen took the first prize for three-year-old heifer in the Shorthorn class with the magnificent animal Bouquet, and also the first prize for Aberdeen-Angus cow, with Ewrya. Lord Roseberry, the Premier, took first and second prizes for Aberdeen-Angus heifers, and had an animal highly recommended in the Shorthorn class. The interest taken by the Queen and Premier in the agriculture of Britain add no little to their popularity, and they would perhaps be more popular if they did not "scoop" so many prizes.

ARE YOU A MOTHER?

If so, read what a St. John Mother says about Lactated Food.

A MODEL BABY GIRL.

It has often been asserted that Lactated Food is the best in the world for babies who cannot obtain a full supply of healthy breast milk. All assertions regarding the superiority of Lactated Food, are backed by the strongest proofs.

Mrs. E. P. Nichols, 106 City Road, St. John, N.B., writes as follows: "Some time ago you kindly sent me a sample tin of Lactated Food. I am very tardy expressing my thanks, but it is not, by any means, that I do not fully appreciate it. I have continued using Lactated Food ever since, and am perfectly satisfied with it.

"My baby is now a great fat, healthy girl, weighs over twenty pounds, is just eight months old, and has six teeth, and more nearly through. My friends are surprised she is getting her teeth so easily. She is no trouble at night to me. I could not, with an easy conscience, do without Lactated Food."

Mothers in Canada who give Lactated Food a week's trial, will never use any other food for the babies.

Lactated Food is indeed a life-giver; it is also a preserver and shield from all summer complaints to every baby who is fed on it from day to day.

CANOEISTS AT CROTON POINT.

A Birch Bark Canoe From Canada Excites Considerable Interest.

CROTON POINT, N.Y., July 24.—There are now over two hundred canoeists here, and the week promises to be the merriest and most exciting period in the history of canoers meeting.

Most of the old-time champions are here, including Secretary Douglass and C. E. Archibald, of Montreal. Another foremost Canadian is D'Arcy Scott of Ottawa, holder of the champion paddling trophy. He will paddle the same boat he used last year, the Sunbeam, and the race is sure to be exciting as his closest competitor of a year ago, A. H. O'Brien, of Toronto, will make another struggle to get the trophy. D'Arcy Scott and his brother, W. L. Scott, who has his well-known open paddling canoe, Ouawanda, with him, occupied a charming little spot in the lower end of the camp close to the water's edge.

D'Arcy Scott has with him the only birch bark canoe in camp. She is of genuine Indian make, coming from the interior of Canada, and is a very pretty and durable little boat. The Indian paddles are smaller in both length of handle and width of blade to those used by canoeists. The birch bark canoe has attracted a great deal of attention.

TRIAL OF EUGENE DEBS.

Argument Finished For and Against Dismissal—The Butcher's Strike.

CHICAGO, July 24.—In the trial of Eugene Debs yesterday Mr. Gregory submitted his argument for dismissal. He finished speaking at 4 p.m. and then Edwin Walker opened for the government. Mr. Walker ceased speaking at 5 o'clock and court adjourned until to-day.

There was no indication at the stock yards that the Knights of Labor employed there would go out on strike again as hinted by Mr. Sovereign. The only branch of the packing house works which had not its full complement of men was in the killing rooms. The strike of the butchers is still felt by the packers.

BUTTE, Mont., July 24.—At a meeting of the local A. R. U. last evening the strike on the Montana division was declared off. It was the last road in the state to hold out.

BAD FIRE IN CHICAGO.

Three Men Buried in the Ruins—One Rescued in a Dying Condition.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Twelve frame houses on Van Horne street were destroyed by fire yesterday. While a number of people were watching the flames the walls of one of the buildings fell into the street burying three men in the ruins. A rescuing party at once went to work and in a few minutes succeeding in rescuing one of the men named Steeget. He was so badly burned, however, that he will die. Two men named Sheick and Odin are still buried in the ruins. The property loss is estimated at $20,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Deadly Duel in Tennessee.

HENDERSON, Ky., July 24.—Word has reached here that a duel to the death between two men took place on the depot platform at Erin, Tenn., on Saturday night. It seems that Allen Olcott had betrayed and deserted Miss Virginia Reed on the evening of their appointed marriage and fled to Tennessee from Southern Kentucky. Ten days ago Robert Reed, brother of the wronged girl, learning that Olcott had gone to relatives at Erin, Tenn., armed himself and started in pursuit. He met Olcott and, under cover of his pistol, compelled him to walk towards the depot. When within a few yards of the railway station Olcott drew his revolver and fired a ball into Reed's body. He dropped to the ground, but retained sufficient vitality to discharge a shot through Olcott's brain, causing instant death. Reed died an hour later.

Serious Accident on the Big Four.

CINCINNATI, July 24.—Yesterday morning a head-end collision between the incoming Big Four Chicago passenger and an outgoing engine occurred at Griffiths, 13 miles from the city. Fireman Frank Taylor, of Indianapolis, of the loose engine, was instantly killed, as were also Charles Herman and Richard Tudor, tramps of this city. The engineer was injured, probably fatally, and nine passengers were hurt, some of them seriously.

Fatal Railroad Wreck in Arkansas.

TEXARKANA, Ark., July 24.—The northbound passenger train, from Dallas over the Texas & Pacific road, was wrecked near Queen City, Tex. The train consisted of a baggage car, smoker and one passenger coach, and it is reported that seven people were killed. Among them were the engineer, fireman, express messenger, negro porter and three passengers.

Destructive Fire in Pennsylvania.

BINGHAMTON, July 24.—The business portion of the village of Great Bend, Pa., about fifteen miles from here, was wiped out by fire last night. The blaze started from an exploded lamp. When the flames were under control seven buildings had been consumed, including several places of business and the office of the Great Bend Plaindealer. The loss will be heavy.

Hood's Cured after Others Failed

Scrofula in the Neck—Bunches All Gone Now.

Sangerville, Maine.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—I feel that I cannot say enough in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. For five years I have been troubled with scrofula in my neck and throat. Several kinds of medicines which I tried did not do me any good, and when I commenced to take Hood's Sarsaparilla there were large bunches on my neck so sore that I could not bear the slightest touch. When I had taken one bottle of this medicine, the soreness had gone, and before I had finished the second the bunches had entirely disappeared." BLANCHE ATWOOD, Sangerville, Maine.

Y. P. S. C. E. NOTES.

GILMOUR MEMORIAL CHURCH, BAPTIST.

The meeting of the Gilmour Y.P.S.C.E. was led by Mr. Kerril, who gave a Bible reading on the topic "Right and wrong ways of seeking." An interesting paper on the topic was read by Mr. Waram and several questions from the Golden Rule were answered by the Endeavourers. It proved a very helpful meeting to all.

This society is going to use the "booklet" prayer meeting topics and daily reading instead of the usual topic cards.

SELWYN AND NORTH SMITH.

The union meeting of Selwyn and North Smith, C. E. Societies held on Sunday evening, July 15th, proved a decided success. After a short song service, two passages of Scripture, (the right and the wrong ways of seeking), were read and briefly explained by two of the members. Four of members gave each a two minutes paper on "When, How and Why to seek and the results of seeking which were very interesting and instructive. About twenty minutes were taken up by remarks and verses on the topic, sentence prayer and impromptu singing. Altogether the meeting was one to be remembered with pleasure and profit.

THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION.

Cleveland '94, that has been the watchword of the Endeavourers for the past few months. Some looked forward to this event with many expectations, and those that have anticipated the pleasure of mingling with the vast throng of Endeavourers feel that the experience will remain with them through life. The less fortunate will have to satisfy themselves with the glowing reports that their delegates have brought home with them. The convention throughout was the greatest of all the conventions yet held. The enthusiasm displayed was boundless. The Endeavourers took the city by storm and held everything their own way during their stay. They sang hymns from morn until night, on street cars, on the public thoroughfares and in fact the city was so completely besieged that it was an utter impossibility to get away from the enthusiasts. The forty thousand delegates were given a hearty welcome by the Cleveland Endeavorers and it was surprising to see how their many wants were attended to. The only drawback to the whole event was the unavoidable absence of president F. E. Clark, who by sickness was unable to attend. Rev. C. A. Dickinson, of Boston, was elected president pro-tem. In the presence of a sympathetic audience a letter was read from the founder of the society, Rev. Dr. F. E. Clarke. The programme was then proceeded with. William McKinley, governor of Ohio, extended a greeting to the society. Of his noble oration we can give below only a few short extracts taken from his utterances. He said, I like Christian Endeavor because Christian Endeavor makes character. I like it, too, because it makes Christian character; and there is no currency in the world that passes at such a premium anywhere as good Christian character. The time is going by when young men or young women have to apologize for being a Christian. Christian character swings wide open every door of opportunity to the young men and young women of this country. I am conscious of no more beautiful employment than that of the Christian Endeavourer. The more faithful the Endeavour the more certain the realizations. We cannot try to be good without doing good. The addresses throughout were of an inspiring nature and space will not permit us to even make brief mention of the many points scored. The growth of the society is one of the most astonishing facts of the century. It is but thirteen years old, yet it has already more than 3,000,000 members. There has been no other movement so contagious since the days of the crusades. The figures of the growth of the society are interesting. The first year there was one society with 48 members, the second year 7 societies and 481 members. Then the figures began to multiply more rapidly, the million point was passed in 1891 and the 2,000,000 mark this year. There are Christian Endeavor members in every clime. Of the total enrollment 400 are red men, 18,700 are yellow, 97,000 are black and 1,907,820 are white.

The plan of campaign for the ensuing year as proposed by President Rev. Dr. F. E. Clarke and recommended by the committee on resolutions and unanimously adopted by the society is as follows:—

The message to the Christian Endeavorers on this their thirteenth convention is —Strike in the name of the Lord—strike again for principles that have made you strong—strike once more for converted loyalty and outspoken devotion and definite service—strike again for Christian citizenship and for the extension of the Kingdom in all lands, and for your world-wide fellowship. Do not be content with one, two, or three blows for the right. Strike, and strike, and strike again until the day is won.

1. Strike for principles that have made Christian Endeavorers strong. What are our principles? If I know anything about them they are the ideas involved in the pledge, the consecration meeting and the committees.

2. Strike for good citizenship. Right nobly have you rallied around this standard during the past year. And I thank God for the years work! But you have only struck once. Strike, strike again until, if Christ should come to Chicago, New York, Toronto or San Francisco, He would find clean streets, and clean city halls, and clean men in them, with never a brothel or a dive to pollute the air that He should breathe.

3. Strike for missions. More has been done during the past year than ever before. Strike again, Christian Endeavourers, and again, and again, and then once more. It is not the stern voice of a chiding prophet that speaks to you, but conscious need of our own beloved land, English speaking America, and the unconscious needs of hundreds of millions of the non-Christian world, that call upon you for a constantly larger effort. A year ago, at Montreal, three advanced steps were proposed,—Christian citizenship—proportionate and systematic giving to missions and the enlargement of our Christian Endeavour fellowship. All these steps you have taken with quickened pace and flying banners. Never before has Christian Endeavour so advanced in numbers and widespread fellowship. In hospitable Australia, in mother England, in progressive Japan. in conservative China, in awakening India, as well as in the great Republic, and in the great Dominion of North America (in which Christian Endeavour always has been, and I trust always will be one) our fellowship has grown as in no previous year, still we need not cry for worlds to conquer. They are all around us. I rejoice to say that in the northern Dominion there is scarcely a division. Almost all the young people's societies are Christian Endeavour, or Epworth Leagues of Christian Endeavour.

RINGING RESOLUTIONS

adopted by the convention:

Resolved, that we recognize the sale and use of intoxicants as the greatest evil of the times, and we hold ourselves pledged, as Christian Endeavourers, to seek the utter overthrown of this evil at all times and in every lawful way.

Resolved,—that we reaffirm our solemn purpose to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy; that we regard its right observance as essential to the civil and religious interests of man; and that we will resist to the utmost of our powers the mighty efforts now being made by the enemies of God to desecrate and utterly secularize the Lord's Day.

Resolved.—that we extend to our beloved President and leader our tenderest sympathy in his present affliction, and assure him that our prayers shall continually be offered that his life may be spared, and his health restored, that he may be long continued in the place of special usefulness to which the providence of God has called him.

NOTES OF THE CONVENTION AND SPICY SAYINGS.

The convention of '95 goes to Washington; about '95 is not yet clear. The convention goes to San Francisco if the rail roads give a sufficiently favourable rate. This they have not done. If the rate cannot be obtained by September 1 the Convention goes some place else. This was the understanding when San Francisco was first promised the Convention.

Canada carried away more than its share of diplomas.

Were St. Paul to return to earth he would probably join the Christian Endeavour Society.

Christian Endeavour has found a fulness in the hearts of men; and the love of God revealed in our Lord Jesus Christ is the lever with which the world is being moved as never before.—Mrs. E. J. Phinney.

Don't be wheelbarrow Christians that go only when pushed. Don't be Christians like the Arctic rivers — frozen at the mouths.—Rev. John T. Beckley, D.D.

The deepest thing in Christian Endeavor is consecration.—Rev. Gilby C. Kelly, D.D.

Like some people, a dog when he has nothing to do, will wait to be patted on the back. But when he gets after a hare he does not care to be patted on the back.—Rev. Wm. Patterson.

If the Christian Endeavour Society were seated in cars, sixty persons to a car, it would require 33,300 cars, and these if coupled together in one train would reach 400 miles.—Jas. L. Hill, D.D.

Here are some of the things that Miss Annie M. Edwards said that Endeavourers can do to push the cause of temperance: They can take the pledge themselves as examples; they can establish cold water fountains, coffee houses, and in places of temptation, bright meeting-places to replace the social features of the saloon; regular weekly gospel temperance meetings; they can circulate temperance literature; they can create a right public sentiment; especially they can start juniors right on this great life and death question.

Don't Lose the Baby.

Every mother knows how critical a time the second summer is, and how many little ones die during that period from Summer Complaint, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, and Cholera Morbus; and how anxiously she watches day by day, lest the dread diseases snatch away the loved ones! There is no disease that comes so suddenly or is frequently so quickly fatal, as these Bowel Complaints, and in a large majority of cases doctors and medicines seem to be of no avail. There is, however, one remedy, which in forty years of trial has never been known to fail when taken according to the printed directions, and this is Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER. It is so safe and sure that no mother is justified in being without it. A bottle in the house ready for sudden sickness will often save a life. You can get the new Big Bottle for 25c.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please," an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

A THOUGHTFUL PROPOSAL.

A Pleasant Plan for Practically Recognising Faithful Services.

Mr. Harry Long, people's churchwarden of St. Johns, has long entertained the idea of giving a treat to the choir boys and this year he has in co-operation with members of the congregation arranged for carrying his ideas into practice. The choir including the choir boys are to be given a delightful treat. On August 6th the congregation will tender a free excursion down the river per steamer City of Peterborough to members of the choir and boys. As many of the congregation as desire and all are asked to join, will accompany the excursion. At Jubilee Point probably a halt will be made for dinner, and the party will will then pass on to Sprite Island near Jubilee, a beautiful spot where some time will be passed in the enjoyment of the usual picnic festivities. On the departure of the steamer for home the choir boys will be left behind on the beautiful island, like so many juvenile Robinson Crusoes—in charge of Rev. C. B. Kenrick, choirmaster. Previous to the day of excursion tents will have been pitched and furnished for the accommodation of the lads for a week's stay on the island. By the liberality of the congregation a liberal commissariat department will have been provided, and the boys given the benefits of a glorious outing on Gospel terms—free. Any one who has known the delights of a camp in comfortable tents, on a beautiful island, in a beautiful lake, with fishing, bathing and the thousand and one undefinable delights that that the inventive genius of a healthy, happy boy can compass, may form some idea of the "picnic" the boys will have during their week's stay on Sprite Island. Rev. Mr. Kenrick will be guardian-general and commander-in-chief, and judging by the active interest he takes in his choir lads, his happiness in witnessing the enjoyment of the boys, will equal theirs. This plan to be carried out in its entirety will need the active co-operation of the congregation, whose sympathy with the scheme is desired.

IN THE MATTER OF BARLEY.

A Subject of Interest and Profit to Farmers.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Permit me to give a few words of advice to the farmers as to the treatment of their barley. Farmers when you cut your barley don't thresh it out at once; let it stay in the stack or mow for a month before threshing, to give it a chance to sweat. Sweating is a chemical process which makes a great improvement in barley for malting purposes. Barley threshed immediately after cutting never malts well. Barley is better for being cut slightly on the green side and allowed to stand in the field till dry enough for housing.

Yours, etc.,
H. CALCUTT,
Brewer and Maister.

TEA BLENDED WITH HOPS.

The largest wholesale tea houses in London, England, known as the Snelling Tea Coy., Ltd., have successfully blended Assam and Ceylon teas with specially prepared English hops, which proves to be the finest flavoured tea in the market. It is a delicious beverage and one of the greatest morning luxuries, besides being an article of great dietetic value. The flavour of the infusion is that of a sound tea to which has been contributed the delicate and bitter taste of the hop. The tea used in the blend is of unquestionable purity, as indicated by the analysis. There is really no tea to equal the Hop Tea in flavour or hygienic properties. The following is of Dr. Adams, the President of the Society of Public Analysts of the United Kingdom:

THE ANALYTICAL REPORT

2nd January, 1891.

"This is to certify that the sample of 'Hop Tea' submitted to me for analysis consists of a blend of pure Indian and Ceylon teas with Kentish Hops, and contains no other admixture whatever: these constituents are manipulated and dried in the most skilful manner, so as to develop the volatile oil which imparts the grateful aroma that is the special characteristic of the best of teas. The chemical analysis discovers in unusual abundance the alkaloid Theine, the substance to which tea owes its valuable properties as a food, giving rest and comfort to the weary, tranquility in nervous excitement, and by some marvellous means, while preventing waste of nervous energy, promoting intellectual activity, as it appears to me, this combination of tea and hop is a most happy idea, by which the undesirable property of ordinary tea, namely its astringency, is sensibly diminished and modified, while at the same time, the advantageous property of the hop is introduced. In my opinion this Hop-Tea will prove to be a great boon to many persons hitherto debarred, owing to excess of astringency, the use of ordinary tea."

THREW HIMSELF OVERBOARD.

A Steerage Passenger on the Parisian Commits Suicide.

QUEBEC, July 24.—The Allan R. M. S. Parisian, Captain Joe Ritchie, from Liverpool, July 12, arrived in port and reports that on July 13 Mr. Delepin, a steerage passenger, jumped overboard. The ship was at once stopped and a boat manned by the third officer and five men was quickly lowered. The boat cruised around for 40 minutes, but no traces of the unfortunate man could be discovered. As the sea was pretty high at the time and darkness coming on the boat was taken on board and the ship proceeded.

The deceased was a native of Havre, France, and had apparently left home on account of some trouble, as a cablegram had been received by the French Consul here from his family to send him home again.

The Consul was awaiting the arrival of the Parisian only to learn of the death of the unfortunate fellow, who was, it is understood, a lawyer by profession.

IT IS A MYSTERY.

Investigation Into the Death of Archbishop Cleary's Nephew.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 24.—The coroner was called upon yesterday to investigate the rather mysterious death of Thomas Cleary, nephew of Archbishop Cleary, of Kingston, Canada, who had been employed as bookkeeper in a wholesale cabinet hardware establishment on Franklin street.

Cleary was found by officers staggering along Doomis street between Madison and Monroe streets. Thinking he was under the influence of liquor, the officers called a patrol wagon and Cleary was taken to hospital, where he died soon afterwards.

The physicians thought death might have resulted from concussion of the brain, but no marks of violence were to be found anywhere on the body. Cleary's landlady said he had always been an exemplary young man, but had been in rather poor health for some time. He was 28 years of age.

A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give Ayer's Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone.

INSTRUCTION THAT DOES NOT INSTRUCT.

The Toronto Empire of Monday has the following under the heading of "An Instructive Incident:"

"Some time ago the Messrs. Howrie, of Saginaw, Mich., purchased the saw mill on the old Smith estate at Fenelon Falls, Victoria county, and extensive timber limits in the adjacent north country. The mills had lain idle for years, and as the water power was a valuable one the stoppage was a severe loss to the village and neighborhood. The advent of an enterprising firm that promised to restore the activity which the place long lacked was hailed with satisfaction by the inhabitants. The firm have enough timber with which to operate the mill for fifteen or twenty years, and as the manager and his assistants, together with the chief operators, have taken up their residence in the village and will domicile workmen there, the gain is distinct and unmistakable.

The Peterboro' EXAMINER, true always to the Liberalism which hates progress because it increases prosperity to the credit of the Dominion Government, does not approve of the enterprise of the Messrs. Howrie. It would rather have the old state of depression as more agreeable to its purposes. Here is the way it greets the return of business to Fenelon Falls:"

"Yesterday a squad of eighteen or twenty workingmen from Saginaw, Michigan, arrived in town by C.P.R. and went north to work in Howrie & Son's mills at Fenelon Falls, or on their limits. Thus we have the spectacle of a score of American workmen invading Canada, and directly depriving a like number of Canadians of employment, while not a single Canadian is allowed to 'do a tap' of work in the United States."

These settlers who bring money and energy into the country the EXAMINER would turn back, evidently as undesirable additions to the population. The mill at Fenelon Falls was in the market for years. Any enterprising Canadian could have purchased it and made money in operating it, but native energy, repressed by such advisers as the EXAMINER and the party which it serves, (and, the Empire should have said, the N. P.,) failed to see its opportunity. Now, when active men come upon the scene prepared to develop what Canadians neglected, they are met by the ignorant criticism which the EXAMINER sees fit to bestow."

The Empire writes a good deal of rubbish to evade the point the EXAMINER sought to make—and that was to point the unfairness of the condition which permitted American labour to come into Canada and compete with Canadians, while Canadian workmen were rigidly excluded from the United States. Not one line of objection did we write in opposition to the Messrs. Howrie starting one or a hundred saw mills. The Empire would have raved by the hour if the interests of the manufacturers had been affected by the machinery to equip the "Red Mills" being imported from the United States free of duty; yet it glories in the fact of Yankee enterprise bringing in Yankee workmen—"settlers" who will not become citizens—with the result of depriving of work Canadian citizens, who are expected to rejoice at the advent of "settlers" whose presence means further instalments of the idleness which the glorious N. P. has not banished. During the recent provincial election contest the Empire was violent in its denunciation of the Ontario Government for not imposing the impracticable condition to the sale of timber limits, that the logs were to be cut in the country in order that Canadians, instead of Americans, could be given employment. Yet what is the difference in this respect between the present condition and importing American labour to cut the timber from our limits? The "silly season" seems to have struck the Empire very hard. It can have but very little idea of the feeling of Canadian workmen if it thinks it can "instruct" them by dealing with "an instructive incident" in the way it does do—prating about American enterprise and "settlers who bring money and energy into the country." Where are the money and energy the so-called National Policy was to bring into the country, and furnish labour with perennial employment at the highest rate of wages? The Empire has a very tender heart for capital, but it is willing to see Canadian labour, the most important element in national development, supplanted by alien labour and set aside in idleness. That is the way with your old school Toryism—the exaltation of the classes at the expense of the degradation of the masses — keep the rabble down and plunder them for the benefit of capital. The EXAMINER believes that the interests of capital and labour are so directly connected, that the welfare of both should be fostered on just principles. Labour is the true creator of capital and should have first consideration. THE EXAMINER has not very much love for the lex talionis but if its application is ever justifiable, it is so in relation to the barbarous alien labour law of the United States, which the Empire glories in and justifies. If the Empire wishes to 'instruct" the workingmen and citizens of Peterborough, in respect of the "incident" it deals with, it will have to employ something more convincing than the "ignorant criticism" it uses in the case in question.

THE STEWART CASE.

Mr. Stewart Pays a Visit to Pictou—Congratulated by His Many Friends on His Restoration to Health.

PICTOU, N.S., July 16.—Good news sometimes travels as fast as bad news, which is proverbially fast. Many people here knew that Mr. Allan Stewart, of Springton, P.E.I., had been for many years afflicted with kidney disease and gravel. It was known, too, that last year he was so bad that public opinion put him down as likely to die soon. Mr. Stewart fooled public opinion though, for he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills and ten boxes of them completely cured him. When he paid a flying visit to this city a few days ago, he received many hearty congratulations on restoration to health and improved appearance. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to cure in this part of the Dominion.

CHEMONG PARK POINTERS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Since the last time I sent a few items to your paper, things are very lively here, several American visitors having arrived since then at the hotel, amongst them being E. F. Turk, wife and family; J. R. Champny, wife and family; Geo. Herzberger, all of Rochester, and G. F. Party, G. D. Warren, Sodus Bay, N. Y.; and for this week many more are to arrive and the house is already well filled, the facilities for reaching the park, being far superior to those of former years as the swift steamer "Idle Hour" meets all trains at Chemong station Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, in addition to the stage which leaves Chemong for Peterboro twice a day and returns, under the creful guidance of Mr. Robert Scott, who is well fitted for the post, being ever obliging and courteous to his passengers, in fact to all at the Park.

A very large excursion of pleasure seekers came up from Bobcaygeon Friday under the auspices of the Union S. schools of that rural village and surrounding country. A great many took advantage of the excellent bill of fare provided at the hotel, which was not only served up but cooked to suit the most fastidious taste. Mr. C. H. Barr and Mr. C. Barr, guests of the hotel, landed 18 lovely bass during the afternoon, whilst Mr. Herzberger caught 43; and this is no fish story, in fact good catches are daily being made.

Mr. Stocker of your town is building a cottage, which, when completed, and it is now very nearly so, will make one more pretty cottage, and be a credit to the Park, as it is not being slighted in any way, and will have every little neat and tasty decoration on it, both inside and outside, that adds greatly to making a park look well.

Every Sunday, commencing at 11 a.m., divine service is held in the pavillion by the Rev. Mr. Davidson, rector of St. John's church, and is well attended by the residents of the park and guests of the hotel.

Haying is well advanced all through this section, although it will only be a fair crop, and on some farms harvesting has commenced, and the farmers all appear well satisfied as to the prospects of the yield, and only await the results of market prices, hoping that they will be good. The potato crop is turning out well, and not nearly so bad as was anticipated during the heavy spell of wet weather.

Mr. English, the well-known boat and canoe builder, has Mr. Waddell very busily engaged at the club house (which has been lying dormant for about four years) repairing boats and getting everything in A1 order for the members who purpose having their club second to none. Everybody will give them a hearty and very warm welcome.

One of the chief complaints made by American fishers, as well as our oldest wielders of the reel, is the absurd change in the law as to the close and open season for bass, the 15th to 10th being just the time when the bass are full of spawn, and would soon drain even our best grounds. We wonder our overseers and the heads of the fishery departments could make so very serious and grave a blunder.

Mr. Phonso Fobert, the youngest son of the proprietor of the Hotel, has acquired a great mania for collecting old relics, and now has a very old tomahawk, bearing an inscription dating back two hundred and three years, that was recently unearthed on a farm near the hotel, and also a cutlass and sword that did work at the battle of Waterloo.

Mr. Fobert has rented his cottage to a party from Rochester, and this is their first visit here, and they are so delighted with Chemong Park, that they contemplate purchasing one or two lots and building a fine cottage.

Mr. Fuller and family, of chief architect's office, Ottawa, arrived Tuesday.

Major Rundle and family are taking a well earned holiday and deserved rest in one of Mr. Elliott's cottages.

Amongst the various businesses carried on in the village, there has not for some time been any harness or shoe store, but to-day Mr. John Tramblay has moved from Lakefield and taken up his abode in the store and dwelling on Main street, directly opposite Nicolls' blacksmith shop, where he will not only keep a stock of boots and shoes, harness, ready-made, but will do repairing in either of those lines, as well as make to order. Mr. Tramblay being a first-class workman and very attentive so his business, will no doubt receive a liberal share from the surrounding country in this, his enterprise. We may soon look for a drug store and butcher business, these two businesses being about the only ones not carried on here, except an M. D., but owing to the bracing and fresh pure air, sickness is comparatively unknown, hence, the writer presumes, this can be the sole reason for one aspiring to a big name and fortune not out of starting here.

The torture of dyspepsia and sick headache, the agonizing itching and pain of salt rheum, are removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Are you watchful? Is your blood in order and your liver active, so as to repel disease? If not, you will find in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery just the help you need. It comes to your assistance when you have such warnings of impure blood and inactive liver, as pimples, boils or carbuncles; or a feeling of lassitude, weakness and despondency. When your flesh is, from any cause, "reduced below a healthy standard," you've only to take the "Discovery," which will set all the organs into vigorous action and builds up both flesh and strength. Avoid nauseous preparations of Cod liver oil. They add fat, but not wholesome flesh or healthy tissue.

VERY VARIED VIEWS.

The Great Strike as Seen From Different Standpoints.

YOU MAY TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

The Investigating Commission as Defined by Chairman Carroll D. Wright—Chauncey M. Depew Reviews the Strike—Grand Master Workman Sovereign Says What Has Been Gained—The Pullman Side and That of Eugene V. Debbs.

The end of the great railroad strike has set men thinking of the remedy for possible troubles of the same kind in the future. As eminent contributions to strike literature the opinions of leaders and representative men are valuable in enabling our readers to form some opinion upon knowledge of the conditions which made the strike possible. The cold facts of their opinions are given, and readers will find food for thought if they do not, in considering the varied opinions herewith given, find a fully satisfactory conclusion to the whole matter.

As to the Investigating Commission.

By the law under which President Cleveland proposes to appoint a commission to investigate the recent strike Commissioner of Labor Carroll D. Wright will be chairman, and he will have the casting vote. He is regarded as eminently fitted for the responsibility, having devoted many years of his life to the study of the labor question and of industrial questions generally.

Commissioner Wright was born in Dunbarton, N. H., on July 25, 1840. He was educated in the public schools of New Hampshire and Vermont, and was studying law when the war broke out. Then he enlisted in the Fourteenth New Hampshire Regiment, of which he became Colonel in 1864. He served as Adjutant-General under Phil. Sheridan, and was one of that distinguished officer's most trusted aides. Poor health compelled him to resign in March, 1865, when he returned to the study of law and was admitted to the bar in the following October. He practiced his profession for several years, and then moved to Massachusetts, where he was elected to the State Senate in 1871, and was serving in that body when appointed Chief of the State Bureau of Statistics of Labor, an office which he filled for fifteen years. In 1880 he was appointed State Supervisor of the National Census, and in 1885 he was commissioned by the Governor of Massachusetts to investigate the public records of the towns, parishes, counties and courts of the State.

The National Bureau of Labor was established under a law passed by Congress in 1884, and in 1885 Col. Wright was selected as its first Commissioner. For the next three years he filled both the State and national offices, but finally gave up the State office.

Mr. Wright is a big man, fully six feet in height, broad shouldered and athletic. He has pleasant blue eyes, dark brown hair and a smooth face, except for a heavy brown moustache, slightly tinged with gray. In a recent interview he defined the scope and duties of the Commission:

"The responsibility of this new commission will be very grert, especially in view of the fact that this is the first opportunity that the President has had to act under the law of 1888. It might be well to say right here that we have nothing to do with the arbitration of the questions involved in this dispute. The law requires the commissioners simply to investigate the facts and report upon them, making at the same time such suggestions in the way of remedies as may be deemed appropriate. With regard to the possible solution of the present trouble and the remedies that may be suggested by the commission, I can only say that until the whole matter has been thoroughly sifted, there is no ground upon which to base any conclusions. The medicine cannot be indicated until the disease has been diagnosed."

Col. Wright has declined to give any intimation of his sympathies in this strike, but the correspondent is able to state that he has neither sympathies nor prejudices. On all labor problems, especially in their relation to capital, Col. Wright has been a conservative, but a careful investigator, always following ethical rather than purely economical lines. Fads, crankisms and fancies have never commanded his attention, except as incidental studies.

The Law.

The authority for the appointment of the commission is section six of Chapter 1,065 of the Laws of 1888, entitled "An act to create boards of arbitration or commissions for settling controversies and differences between railroad corporations and other common carriers engaged in interstate and territorial transportation of property or passengers and their employees." The section is as follows: "That the President may select two commissioners, one of whom at least shall be a resident of the State or Territory in which the controversy arises, who, together with the Commissioner of Labor, shall constitute a temporary commission for the purpose of examining the causes of the controversy, the conditions accompanying it and the best means for adjusting it, the result of which examination shall be immediately reported to the President and Congress, and on the rendering of such report the services of the two commissioners shall cease. The services of the commission to be ordered at the time by the President, and constituted as herein provided, may be tendered by the President for the purpose of settling a controversy such as contemplated either upon his own motion or upon the application of one of the parties to the controversy or upon the application of the Executive of a State."

Representative O'Neill, of St. Louis, the author of the law, says:

"It was during the great Southwestern Railway strike that I framed the original bill. It was first introduced in March, 1886. Master Workman Powderly and Mr. Hayes, of the Knights of Labor, heartily approved of it. It passed both houses, but was too late to receive the President's signature. The same bill was reintroduced in the next Congress, and after a debate mainly over the compulsory clauses it was passed, with those clauses left out. If those clauses had been left in the bill it would have been much more effective in the present case. The point made by those who opposed the compulsory provision was that while employers might be compelled to take back strikers, it would be almost impossible to compel strikers to go back to work unless you marched them between files of soldiers. In the end it was agreed that it would be best to leave the law as advisory, rather than compulsory, and so it stands."

[CONTIUED AND CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

WOLSELEY'S TRAITS.

Some of Them That Brought Success to the English General.

General Lord Wolseley being prevented by the fact of his not having royal blood in his veins from becoming Commander-in-Chief of the British Army, the Queen, who loves him, was resolved at least to make him Field Marshal by way of a birthday gift. I have always fancied that, having had so much trouble with most of her Irish subjects, the Queen had a specially weak spot in her heart for Wolseley because he was an Irishman and so valiant a Royalist. His Irish nature sticks out in his love of adventure and in his wonderful luck of getting out of perilous scrapes. He entered his profession 42 years ago as a lad of 18, with the rank of ensign. He was rapidly promoted in the field. During his first campaign in Burmah he and a brother officer were shot down at the head of a storming party. His companion bled to death in a few minutes, and Wolseley's life was saved almost miraculously after months of extreme suffering. In the Crimea, when he was but 21, he was several times wounded. In the trenches before Sebastopol he was knocked down by a solid shot striking near him, and rendered senseless, while those above him were instantly killed. He was picked up for dead with holes in all parts of his body. The surgeons abandoned hope, but he did not, and to his determination and fortitude he owed his final recovery with only the loss of an eye.

That lost eye made him a Captain. He was the youngest man in the army to receive such a commission, and the musty-fusty War Office, after a feeble effort to cancel the promotion, felt sure something very dreadful would come of it. Nor was the War Office mistaken. In the first few months of his new authority Captain Wolseley abolished the leather stock which encumbered the necks of his company and which had been retained as a part of the uniform merely because of a venerable tradition. He also allowed his men, when on active service, to go unshaven. We who live in times when the English Army has been turned upside down cannot fully appreciate the dismay which fell upon the authorities in Pall Mall when they learned of those grave misdoings. What? The leather stock abolished! What? The razor gone out of use! There was only one course to be adopted with this revolutionary young Captain. He was placed on a rickety troop-ship bound for China, with the certainty that she would be wrecked on the way. The ship, indeed, was wrecked—she foundered in the Straits of Banca; but Captain Wolseley was picked up safe and sound, and, being at no great distance from India, was sent to help in suppressing the Sepoy mutiny. He had lost all his kit; he had not even a clean shirt and a tooth brush; but he managed to make his way to Lucknow and was chosen by Sir Colin Campbell to take part in the relief. Contrary to orders, he carried the mess house; contrary to orders, he drove the enemy out of the Moti Mehel; contrary to orders, his servant having been shot from a loophole, he dashed out of cover and bore the wounded man into safety amid a rain of bullets. When he entered the Residency everybody cried: "Wolseley was the first in! Wolseley has the Victoria cross!" but Wolseley raised his hand. "No," said he, "Bugler Jones was first in; not I." And Sir Colin Campbell, hotheaded, warm-hearted, rode up in angry haste and cried; "How dare you storm the mess house? How dared you drive out the enemy? How dared you leave cover and pick up a wounded man and carry him in, and tend him, and—and—God bless you, my dear boy!"—Kate Field's Washington.

The Fate of the Hen.

Once an ardent bicyclist was relating his latest adventure, and explaining to the inquiring family the reason of the strange condition of his new bicycle trousers.

"You see, the road was smooth and straight, and I was going for all I was worth—the old wheel was just humming—when suddenly one of those dreadful hens the country people persist in keeping ran out in front of my 'bike.' When the hen saw the wheel coming after her, she began to run, only instead of getting out of the way, she ran straight ahead. I shouted and hallooed, but she kept on.

"Then I slowed up, and so did that hen. Then I turned a bit to the right—just after the hen turned that way. Then I turned to the left, and there was that hen. I did all I could to make her get out of my way or to get out of hers, but it was no use. So at last I gave up trying to save her from her fate. I ran my wheel straight ahead, faster and faster, until I overtook her and rode over her! And the jump that old bike made when it struck that hen gave me a 'header,' and over I went into the ditch! Of course there was a good puddle there—there always is; and of course, too, I got a good splashing, and that's what's the matter with my trousers, you see!"

"But what became of the hen?" asked an interested small listener.

"The hen? Pshaw! I didn't care particularly what became of the hen. It was my trousers I cared about. But if you want to know badly, I'll tell you. I believe that hen was 'in the soup'!"

"In the soup?"

"Yes, she was decidedly 'in the soup'! Indeed, I may say that I know she was 'dead in it.'"

"'Dead in it?'"

"Indeed she was! I shouldn't wonder if the man that owned her had chicken soup for a week. For that hen was so 'dead in it' that she never even winked when the bike struck her."

To Keep Windows Clear.

The London Queen is authority for the statement that steam will not gather on windows if they are rubbed when clean and clear with glycerine. The glycerine is to be applied with a cotton cloth when the glass is rather warm and entirely dry. The window is then to be polished with another cloth of cotton or canton flannel until it shines and the glycerine is no longer visible. It should not, however, be entirely removed from the glass if it is to answer the purpose for which it is applied.

CITY OR COUNTRY.

What the Biographies of 10,000 Successful Men Teach.

Most of the great literary men of the age have come from the country. Washington Irving was almost the only exception. He was born in New York, and did not move to the region of his most delightful work—the rural banks of the Hudson until his early youth was passed. But Hawthorne, Bryant, Longfellow, Lowell, Howells, and scores of less important literary lights, were country born. Perhaps no person had a broader bird's-eye view of the effect of environment on successful men than the editor of Appleton's "Cyclopedia of American Biography." Nineteen thousand biographies are covered in the work, and with them all he is familiar to an extent that seems incredible to an outsider. He analyzes what they seem to him to teach concerning environment, as follows: Acuteness, sharpness, knowledge of the world are developed better by the friction and competition of city life. What city life does not develop, however, but usually impairs is stamina. It often happens, therefore, that after one or two generations of city life, exclusively in cities, the stock is weakened and it is necessary to go back to the soil for reinvigoration. A general application of this rule—going back to the soil—is impossible, however, for the fact that we have stated has been tacidly recognized by Americans and country or outdoor life of one kind or another is playing a more important part in the lives of residents of cities. Thus the balance is kept even. Put in its simplest form, the country boy in the city will be outstripped at first, but in many cases he has greater staying power. His children, however, will have less, if they are kept in the city. The best material in business or the professions is country stock developed by city experience, and most of the successful men in the cities have the country behind them. It is to the influence of country life as understood at present that a very large part of the force of the younger generation in the cities is due. In the term country life should be included the outdoor sports and summer outings, which are now generally within the reach of city boys. In a way the fable of Antaeus answers the question."

Poultry for Farmers.

The spring has been favorable and the flocks of young chicks are numerous and large on the majority of farms. The early beginning has been easy, but all poultrymen find that the larger number of fowls in the poultry yard requires additional care to keep them healthy. disease being the great drawback to successful poultry raising. Upon some of the essentials for success a writer in the American Farmer says: There are probably very few farmers in the country who breed pure-bred poultry or who even introduce a pure-bred cockerel into their flocks once in several years, and it seems very strange that farmers should pay so little attention to their poultry. On the other hand, most farmers keep some pure-bred cattle, hogs or sheep, or at least buy a blooded animal once in a while to keep up the stock and improve certain qualities. Why is it that they pay more attention to all other branches of the farm than to poultry? Does not poultry pay when a lot of eggs are taken to market or a lot of spring chickens sold at ten or fifteen cents per pound?

They seem to think poultry can take care of itself. Turn it out and let it pick up its own living, roost in trees and lay eggs in a haystack. What would they say if their cattle and sheep were turned loose and did not have even a shed to shelter them? "O, well, the chickens are small; they don't need much room and they can find a place to roost in the hay shed."

Think these points over and reason them out, and see the benefits of introducing pure bred male birds into your flocks. Farmers ought to take as good care of their poultry as of any other branch on the farm, for there is more money in poultry for the amount invested than in any other department of the farm.

Carrots for Horses.

The best variety of carrot to feed horses in winter depends upon the character of the soil. If the soil is deep and rich, then the Long Orange is a good variety. If the soil is not very deep, then the Short Horn or the Danvers carrot may be best. It should be planted with a drill. If Short Horn, drill twelve inches apart. If the Long Orange, fifteen inches apart. If the seed were all perfect, one and a quarter pounds is enough for an acre, says the Country Gentleman, but as it is often bad, three and one-half to four pounds should be used. As soon as the carrots appear they should be cultivated with the horse hoe. A heavy crop of carrots sometimes yields more than thirty tons per acre. It is very important that the weeds should not get a start. Carrots should be stored in a cool, dry cellar, never laid upon damp ground. They are best stored upon a plank floor, or in bins. They may be laid in piles not more than two or two and a half feet deep. When fed, it is well to run them through a cutter. These roots have an excellent effect upon the health of horses and assist in the digestion of other food. They prevent constipation in horses, give a smooth, sleek coat—that is, when fed in moderate quantities of not more than one peck per day to each horse.

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparialla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose? why Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I'm going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

I was attacked severely last winter with diarrhœa, cramps, and colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I can thank this excellent remedy for saving my life. Mrs. S. Kellett, Minden, Ont.

Nothing Impossible.

Just now a mite of money is worth a mountain of stock.

Just now, nothing seems impossible in the line of economy. But the TRUTH about low values is hard to comprehend. Anything less than ALL the facts concerning OUR goods and their present values would be unjust to the public.

You cannot always buy so many kinds of goods at and below cost as we offer you now. Your best economy is to invest your money in wisely selected goods at present prices at this store. Listen:

DRESS GOODS
AT COST.

Just to liven things up these hot days we offer all our Summer Dress Goods at about cost. This will help to clear out our stock and save carrying anything over to another season.

WASH GOODS
AT COST.

Chambrays, Krinkles and Muslins all at cost. This is the chance of the season as the stock is all right and well bought.

PARASOLS
AT COST.

Not a fraction of a fib, fabrication or falsehood gets into our store talk. Truth is the best salesman. Parasols at cost just means what it says.

ALL TRIMMED MILLINERY
AT HALF PRICE.

That's a sweeping reduction. Surely cost plays no part in this case. Half price takes everything we have in Trimmed Millinery.

MANTLES AND CAPES

At interesting figures.

DELAINES
AT ABOUT COST.

We can accommodate these beautiful goods to those who come for them. Their bargain story has new life to-day.

BLOUSES, SHIRT WAISTS
AT COST.

Don't be skeptical. Prudence says buy freely.

A Hamilton Man Suicides.

HAMILTON, July 24.—James Bertram, of 43 Chatham street, committed suicide yesterday by plunging a dagger into his heart. The dagger was made of a small file and was very sharp. Bertram had been out of employment for some time and became despondent. He arose at 4 o'clock in the morning, and without disturbing his wife, went into the woodshed and committed the deed. He was 52 years of age and was a member of A.O.U.W. He leaves a widow but no children.

Young Man Drowned While Boating.

YARMOUTH, N. S., July 24.—On Saturday evening Herbert Wyman, son of Geo. Wyman, of Sanford, near hear, with two young ladies, went out on the lake rowing. Wyman was seated in the stern of the boat, facing inwards with his feet on the rail. His oar slipped and he fell overboard. The ladies immediately screamed for assistance and neighbors quickly responded, but Wyman was not seen for several hours afterwards when his body was found. He was 20 years of age.

I. O. O. F. Grand Encampment.

CHATHAM, Ont., July 24.—A large number of officers and delegates and visitors from all parts of Ontario and neighboring states arrived here yesterday to attend the Grand Encampment of Oddfellows held last night and to day. Last evening a reception was held at Bright's Opera House, where an exemplification of the camp degree was given by Chatham Camp, after which a banquet was given at the Garner House.

Will Burn Down the Hospital.

TORONTO, July 24.—The city council, after discussing the best means to remove the old smallpox hospital, have decided that the best way to get rid of the obnoxious germs of disease would be to burn down the building. An order of the council is to be obtained for that purpose.

Killed While Working in a Well.

MONCTON, N. B., July 24.—Albert Lewis, aged 50 years, whilst working in a well at Boundary Creek near here, was struck on the temple and killed by falling stones through slight cave in. He leaves a widow and several children.

The Cause of Lizzie Tosh's Death.

TORONTO, July 24.—The post mortem examination on the body of Lizzie Tosh, housekeeper for Wm. Moody, has been made public. It shows that she suffered from heart disease and kidney disease, to which death was due.

A Scene at a Wedding Ceremony.

MONTREAL, July 24.—A sensational scene took place at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church yesterday. The marriage was being celebrated of two young Irish people, John Riley and Maggie Baker. The young man's family objected to the marriage and after the ceremony, as the couple were leaving the church, one of his sisters appeared on the scene and with shrieks caught hold of the bride and endeavored to stop her. After considerable difficulty she was taken away and the couple hurriedly left. The scene created quite a sensation in the neighborhood.

A Benefit Association in Liquidation.

LONDON, Ont., July 24.—The Canadian Masonic Mutual Benefit Association, after twenty-two years existence, found that, owing to the increased assessments consequent upon the extreme old age of its members, it should not continue doing business on the old system of assessment, and the inspector of insurance has ordered that the association go into liquidation at once. Mr. Andrew Ellis, secretary treasurer of the association, is the liquidator.

Another American Steamer Seized.

AMHERSTBURG, Ont., July 24.—The Government Cruiser Petrel seized the small American pleasure steamer Louis on Lake Erie last evening for infringement of the Canadian fishing laws and towed her here. She is the property of the Sandusky Fish Company.

SOME SAILING SKIFFS.

PRETTY LITTLE CRAFT THAT RACE IN TORONTO'S WATERS.

The Sailing Skiff Club is an Organization of Two Hundred Members—The Officers and Something of the Pleasures of the Sport.

Toronto is a city of bay-side clubs, but if enthusiasm among its members be a criterion of success, then the Sailing-Skiff Club, with its membership of 200, occupies a foremost place, particularly as it has but recently celebrated its second birthday. Under the patronage of the Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and George Gooderham, Esq., its onward strides have been phenomenal. Besides Capt. World, the club's hustler, it has among its members such well-known fresh-water sailors as L. J. Levy, the genial Ned Apted, who made a great reputation in the Ethel, and now owns the swift Gracie: Dennis World of the famous Little World, Archie Taylor of the Alliance, W. J. Withrow of the Nina and Alfred Skinner.

Our skiff-sailors object to their club being termed a training school for yachtsmen, but such, in many respects, it really is, and a capital one, too, even though men like Æmilius Jarvis and Wilton Morse—the former, at least, having more than a continental reputation as a knowing one at a yacht's tiller—are found enrolled with the club. The club goes in for sustaining enthusiasm from start to finish, and to keep the members shoulder to shoulder during the winter, smoking concerts, progressive euchre parties and such affairs are resorted to, it being no rare thing for 300 persons to be present.

This year the bay was clear of ice on March 11th, and by the 19th the first boat lay at moorings off the club house at the foot of Sherbourne street.

The officers for the year are:

Commodore, H. M. Pellatt.

Vice-commodore, George H. Gooderham.

Captain, T. A. E. World.

Secretary and treasurer, F. C. Patterson.

Three years ago skiff sailing was confined almost wholly to those who, after rowing to the Island from town, or vice versa, took advantage of a favorable "draft" to hoist a sprit-sail for the return trip. Sailing canoes were the rage in those days for all who lacked the funds or inclination to own a yacht. Gradually the feeling grew that the respectable sea which on occasions stirs up the Toronto harbor necessitated something sturdier and safer than the egg-shell canoe. The example set by a few was followed by the many. The sailing skiff of to-day was evolved, with its stouter frame and planking and towering cloud of working canvas.

Ordinarily, a skiff which, empty, would capsize under the weight of its sails and rigging alone, becomes with her crew aboard as "safe as a church," as the nautical folks say; and when all hands perch on the windward gunwale—your skiff navigator loathes dead ballast—the blast is indeed a rollicking one that can do more than cause the tiny vessal to drink a cupful of water. It takes nerve and cool judgment to handle these cockle-shells; but when a novice has once learned the tricks of the trade in a season's apprenticeship in an under-canvassed boat, apparent dangers lose their terrors, and he soon realizes that all that is necessary is judgment at the helm and experience to do the "hiking" to windward in the gusts. Once through the novitiate period, all fear and prejudice swallowed, the skiff-sailor awakens to some idea of the joy of the healthy sport. He hungers for a brush with everything on the bay, be it propelled by oar, steam or sail; and when eventually he has nearly doubled his original sail area, in the hope of giving his boat even swifter heels, the great indescribable delight of skiff-racing wins its way through his being, grips fast and will not leave him. In this final state he is not above wooing his little boat to increased exertion with soft phrases as she slips her head through the curling waves—for all the world as though she were a pet mare reeling off a neat mile on asphalt. For anyone not absolutely foolhardy, skiff-sailing, certainly, is safe, health-giving, captivating and the least expensive in the whole gamut of summer pastimes. The culmination of a skiff-owner's joy is at one of the many regattas held during the season for 16, 18 and 20-footers, as well as two special classes for boats over 20 feet.

The club is modeled, as to regulations, after the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, the classification being mean length and actual sail area measurement for corrected length. At the regattas spectators have a much better chance of enjoyment than in the larger yacht races. The course being a small triangular one, no incident of the trials is beyond range of the unaided eye, and a greater amount of manœuvring is done than in a yacht race. Such judges as Capt. Dick Tugler of the Oriole and George Warin, the famous maker of racing shells, confess that the prettiest sight they ever saw on fresh water was the Skiff Club's initial regatta last year. The diversified rigs, sloop, yawl, or lugger—single and double—gave all the graceful effects of a yacht race in miniature, while the extremely large number of entries—some fifty in all—imparted an additional spirit. This is the great reason of the club's success and explains fully why on gala days the commodore's steam yacht Cruiser, which is generously placed at the disposal of visitors, and the commodious club-house itself are overtaxed with the galaxy of youth and beauty that turns out. Few of the skippers flying the anchor burgee have not been on extended cruises and many have encountered old Ontario in her angry moods, during a run for the Beach at Hamilton or for Oakville's piers.

Last year, through the energy of the club, a Lake Sailing Skiff Association was formed for the purposes similar to those of the Lake Yacht Racing Association, namely, to encourage the art of skiff building and sailing in Canadian waters. At present the clubs composing the associations are the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto, the Toronto Sailing Skiff Club and the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club; but before the season is ended it is likely that all the clubs on the lake will have come under its wing. A series of skiff regattas has been arranged for at different points around blue Ontario's shores, and the promise is made that when the first comes off on Toronto harbor on July 28 it will be an inspiring sight.

Highway Robbery at the Capital.

OTTAWA, July 24.—James A. Gouin, city postmaster, while walking along Elgin street, near Cooper, was attacked by two men, who struck him a heavy blow on the head, rendering him unconscious, and then gagged and robbed him. They secured a gold watch and chain valued at several hundred dollars. When the men committed the robbery some people were still sitting on their doorsteps a short distance away. The robbery is considered the boldest and most daring that has ever taken place in the capital.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, July 24, 1894.

There was a very weak local wheat market, with prices the lowest on record.

The amount of money due Canadian banks by agencies in the United States is $15,650,000.

The average condition of the wheat, barley and oats crops in Great Britain is over 100 per cent.

At the London (Eng.) wool sales 7,350 bales were offered. The better qualities were briskly competed for.

The Hay Trade Journal is in receipt of advices from England, France, Scotland and Germany which say the largest crop of hay known in several years has been secured in excellent condition.

The downward movement in wheat continued in Chicago, and the market closed weak. Corn was strong and higher. Oats were dull. Receipts to-day—Wheat, 615 cars; corn, 470 cars; oats, 185 cars; hogs, 17,000.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The market was very quiet. One load of oats sold at 40c, which was all the grain received. Wheat is quoted at 62c for white, 61c for red and at 58c for goose. Peas nominal at 66c, and barley at 42c to 44c.

American Sugar was again the overshadowing feature of speculation at the New York Stock Exchange. The dealings were attended with considerable animation, some round amounts changing hands at intervals. The sharp jump in Sugar led to a rally in the general list, which before had shown a declining tendency. Speculation left off steady in tone.

Buffalo.—Cattle—One hundred and twenty cars; good heavy shipping and export steers were 15 to 20c higher, at $4.25 to $4.85. Bulls, 10 to 15c higher; fat butchers, $2.40 to $2.75; exports, $2.85 to $3.25; stockers and feeders in better demand and higher. Sheep and lambs—The season of Canadian shipments was ushered in by the arrival of one load from Western Ontario. They were choice stock, but held over buyer's views. Hogs—Fifty cars; bulk, mediums and heavies, for which demand was slow.

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

LOST IN ARCTIC SEAS

Probable Fate of Wellman's Expedition to the North Pole.

FURTHER NEWS FROM NORWAY

Professor Oyen Was Found Dying at Danes Island—Mr. Filden, Owner of the Yacht Saide, Has Still Hope That the Party May Be Safe.

LONDON, July 25.—Latest advices from the far northern part of Norway confirm the despatches of last week, stating that the Wellman expedition to the Arctic has been lost.

Mr. Filden, the owner of the yacht Saide, received news that Prof. Oyen, the geologist who accompanied the Wellman expedition, was in distress. Mr. Filden ordered the Saide to Danes Island, where Oyen's dog piloted the Saide's party to the professor's quarters. He was found in bed in an almost dying condition.

Upon a table in the professor's quarters was found a letter containing bitter reproaches against Wellman, whom he accused of having left him in the lurch. The Saide also reported that Prof. Oyen was so badly provisioned when he was found that his early death was a matter of certainty, but in spite of his sufferings the professor refused to be taken off Danes Island, insisting upon remaining there faithful to his trust, even though death was the result of his continuing at his post in his Arctic solitude. The Saide left provisions and medicines with the professor.

Filden was the naturalist of the expedition in 1875. He was aboard the Saide when she went to Danes Island. The Saide is now at Granton. Filden writes that there are reasons for fearing that the Ragnvald Jarl is beset with ice, or that she has already come to grief, though that need not involve the loss of the explorers. He advises Wellman's friends to send supplies via Tromso to Pines Island, where they will arrive in September.

The Standard this morning, referring to the fate of the Wellman expedition, deprecates over-harsh criticism, but says that it cannot be denied that it was an ill-advised plan of inexperienced men to beat the record.

The Wellman Expedition.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The north pole expedition, with Walter Wellman at its head, which is now believed to have been lost, left Tromsoe, Norway, May 24, 1894. They sailed from Spitzbergen on the steamship Ragnvald Jarl. The intention was to take what Wellman considered the true highway to the north, namely, that which the influence of the gulf stream carves out of the ice in the Norwegian sea. The expedition included: Astronomer Owen B. French, of the United States coast and Geodetic survey; Franklin, an American skater; Oyen, a geologist from Christiana; Alme, a meteorologists, and two sportsmen and runners from the University of Christiana. They were last heard of at Danes Island, off the northwest coast of Spitzbergen, where Prof. Oyen remained to guard the provision depot established there.

Vigilant Wins From Britannia.

ROCHES POINT, Ireland, July 25.—No very great interest was taken in the 12th race between the Vigilant and the Britannia. It was the first day's racing of the regatta of the Royal Cork Yacht Club. The prize competed for by the racers was $500 offered by the club. The breeze, just previous to the start, was from the northeast, and while it was softer than Monday, when the yachts averaged about 10 knots per hour over the course, yet it promised to be steadier. The Vigilant had the best of the race from the start. She continued to increase the lead of an advantageous finish throughout the contest, and when the end was reached minused 4m. 32s. ahead of the Britannia. The score now stands nine to three in favor of the Britannia.

Pugilist Corbett in Ireland.

DUBLIN, July 25.—James J. Corbett, the American pugilist, paid a visit to the town of Ballinrobe, County Mayo, where his father was born. He was greeted at the station by thousands of people who literally carried him to his hotel. In the afternoon he gave a performance for the benefit of a chapel which his uncle, Rev. James Corbett, is building. Excursion trains were run to the town during the afternoon to convey the crowds of people anxious to see the American champion. In the evening he was entertained at a reception in the town hall, where he was presented with an address of welcome and overwhelmed with bouquets.

The Afrikander's View of the Conference.

LIVERPOOL, July 25.—Mr. T. H. Hoffmeyer, the Afrikander leader who was one of the Cape Colony delegates to the Intercolonial Conference in Ottawa, has arrived here on his way home. In an interview Mr. Hofmeyer expressed his belief that the conference will tend greatly to remove the treaty obstacles which are standing in the way of more favorable treatment of the products of the colonies. He expressed himself as greatly impressed by the magnificence of the resources of Canada and the business capacity of her people.

Rescued Sara Bernhardt.

LONDON, July 25.—While Sara Bernhardt was playing in the "Dame Aux Camelias" last evening in the Theatre Royal, Glasgow, a man ran to the stage from the wings in the fourth act, and, seizing her by the shoulders, made a heroic endeavor to rescue her from Duval.

CÆSAR IN THE SENATE

Hill Likens the Bolting Democrats Unto Historic Romans.

IN DEFENCE OF THE PRESIDENT

The Democratic Managers of the Bill Accused by Senator Caffery of Bad Faith in Striking Out the Sugar Bounty—Still No Action Taken.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The most entertaining and remarkable feature in the great national performance on the floor of the Senate was the part played by Senator Hill, as the defender of President Cleveland against the assaults of Democratic Senators in connection with the President's not famous letter to Mr. Wilson, the chairman of the House conferees on the tariff bill. Mr. Hill took the ground that the letter, being unofficial, was no violation of the constitution, that it was no attack on the Senate, or upon any Senator, but that it was an honest effort to carry out the policy and theories of the Democratic party and to advance the interests of the people. As to its being an unwarranted attempt to interfere with pending legislation.

Mr. Hill asserted that the blame lay with those senators who, instead of acting on their own judgment and responsibility, "badgered" the President to give them his views upon the compromise bill which they had prepared. "Do as I do," he said to them. "Keep away from the White House." He wound up a two hour's speech, bristling all over with the spikes and spears of his wit and sarcasm, by comparing the senatorial conspiracy against President Cleveland to that which compassed the assassination of Julius Cæsar. In this historical parallel Senator Gorman of Maryland stood for the "lean and hungry Cassius," of whom Cæsar said: "He thinks too much. Such men are dangerous." Senator Jones of Arkansas for "Honest Brutus," Senator Vest for the "Envious Casca," Senator Voorhees for Trebonious, and the distinguished senator from Tennessee, Mr. Harris, for Cinna. He carried out the parallel by declaring that these senators made the same plea which the conspirators of old made: "Not that they loved Cæsar less, but that they loved Rome more." "Not that they loved Cleveland less, but that they loved their party more."

Mr. Hill was followed by Senator Caffery, of Louisana, who submitted a motion looking to the restoration in the sugar schedule of a bounty for 1894. In a short speech (which was, however, not concluded) he accused the Democratic managers of bad faith in striking out the sugar bounty and declared explicitly for himself and colleague (Mr. Blanchard) that they would not vote for the tariff bill if it put sugar on the free list.

Without action and in order to have time for a Democratic caucus the Senate adjourned.

Almost immediately the Democratic Senators went into caucus for the purpose of formulating a programme in regard to the disposal of the tariff bill. For three hours the discussion continued and then without having reached any conclusion an adjournment was taken.

Fell Out With His Mistress.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 25.—Henry Clay Hickok, a saloonkeeper, has been arrested on information given by his mistress, Mrs. Margaret Anderson. Seventeen years ago Hickok, with his wife, settled in Rockford, Iowa, when he stole 1,700 bushels of wheat and four race horses, and fled to Hamilton, Ont. He was arrested, but jumped his bail. He went to Toronto where he met Mrs. Anderson, who was the widow of a defaulting bank cashier. Hickok deserted his wife and with Mrs. Anderson went to Buffalo and opened a saloon. About five years ago he moved to Columbus, where he embarked in the same business. A short time ago he fell out with his mistress, who had him arrested.

Affairs in Bluefields.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A special from San Jose, Costa Rica, says: The Nicaraguan general, Cabezes, has been reinforced and has taken Bluefields, but he was compelled to ask British aid in order to succeed. Mr. Gosling, the British Minister, arrived there and through the British Consul, who has a great influence over the Jamaicans, he induced them to lay down their arms. Chief Clarence's forces were driven from the bluff, but they are holding the lower coast. Clarence is mustering a force in the interior and has officered his men with Americans.

Coal Strikers Use Dynamite.

CONNELLSNILLE, Pa., July 25.—A house owned by T. H. C. Frick Coal Company at Leisenring No. 3, was blown up yesterday by dynamite. Andrew Carsick, a deserter from the strikers' ranks, was sleeping on the first floor and escaped uninjured. The strikers had stolen over 200 sticks of dynamite and other explosions are expected.

An Arctic Expedition Turned Back.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., July 25.—The steamer Miranda, Capt. Farrell, carrying the Cook Arctic expedition to Greenland, consisting of 54 persons who are exploring West Greenland, which left here Sunday, July 15, returned here yesterday, having collided with an iceberg at the entrance of the Straits of Belle Isle. The accident occurred last Tuesday when the ship was about eight miles north of Belle Isle during a thick fog. It will take ten days to make repairs.

Families Homeless in Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 25.—A fire took place yesterday in Arcade street, above Sherbrooke street, and as a result 25 families are homeless. The fire is supposed to have broken out in a plumber's shop, a wooden building of two storeys on Arcade street. The flames spread to an adjoining carpenter shop and lumber piles. Damage, $35,000.

His Flying Machine Collapsed.

BRUSSELS, July 25.—Engineer Lilienthal, of Lychterveide, who recently constructed a flying machine with which he succeeded in reaching considerable heights, was practising on Sunday when the wings of the machine collapsed at an attitude of 200 feet and he fell to the ground. His fall was broken somewhat, but he was badly injured.

THE TROUBLED ORIENT

Corean Troops Attack the Japanese and Are Repulsed.

CHINA'S ACTIVE OPERATIONS

More Troops to be Sent Into Corea—Merchant Vessels Embargoed So As to be Ready for Transport Service—Shanghai a Neutral Port.

SHANGHAI, July 25.—It is reported that a Chinese transport ship has been sunk by a Japanese gunboat.

A despatch from Nagasaki says an engagement has taken place between Corean and Japanese troops, in which the former were defeated. It is said the Corean troops attacked the Japanese garrison at the instigation of the Chinese residents.

The British charge d'affaires at Tokio has wired the British Consul here that Japan has agreed to treat Shanghai as outside the sphere of operations in any warfare that Japan may engage with China.

When war has been declared the non-combatant powers will exact a pledge that the treaty ports shall be exempted from attack, their respective squadrons combining to ensure the fulfilment of the pledge.

China has embargoed the fleet of the China Merchants Company, the vessels to be employed as transports when needed. Negotiations are proceeding with other vessel owners. The partial blockade here is aimed only against passenger and cargo steamers owned in Yokohama, Nagasaki and Kobi. Some owners propose to sail their vessels under the American flag.

The Viceroy at Tien Tsin claims that there are militia and naval munitions in the imperial factories sufficient for a six months' campaign. The Viceroy's camp in the vicinity contains 30,000 infantry and cavalry, and additions arrive daily. Another force will shortly be despatched to Corea.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Mr. Tateno, the Japanese Minister here, received a cablegram from his government saying Corean troops had made an uncalled for attack upon the Japanese soldiers stationed at Seoul, and that their fire had been returned by the Japanese troops. Minister Tateno said the published statement that Secretary Gresham had made an apology to him for having sent a telegram to Minister Dunn at Tokio saying that the United States would view with regret the levying of an unjust war upon Corea was without foundation.

VICTORIA, July 25.—The French warship Duguay Trouin, which sailed for Honolulu, has returned to port. It is thought that the threatened conflict between China and Japan over Corean affairs has something to do with the sudden change in the Duguay Trouin's movements. She was signalled from Cape Flattery to return to Victoria.

Election Petitions Filed.

HAMILTON, July 25.—The petition against the election of Hon. J. M. Gibson for West Hamilton was filed at Osgoode Hall yesterday in accordance with instructions given to Nesbett & Ganld, barristers, of this city. Five hundred and forty dollars has been subscribed towards the necessary $1,000 deposit required, and an effort will be made to raise the balance before the expiration of the three days allowed by the Controverted Elections Act. If the necessary funds are not forthcoming the matter will be allowed to drop.

TORONTO, July 25.—A protest against the election of Dr. Ryerson for East Toronto was filed yesterday morning by Johnston & Ross on behalf of their client, W. R. Oxley. The protest charges Ryerson and his agents with breaking nearly every clause of the election act. He is accused of offering money, drink, food, using intimidation and fraud, and of giving or lending money to lodges, corporations and societies to influence votes.

Recorder de Montigny's Ruling.

MONTREAL, July 24.—A most interesting decision has just been given by Recorder de Montigny, of this city. On June 24 last Norman Murray, a local character, was arrested on a charge of interfering with the St. Jean Baptiste procession. He was brought before the recorder the following day for trial, but objected to the recorder on the ground that the latter was a Roman Catholic and a Papal Zouave and that his obligations to the Pope prevented him from granting an impartial trial. Recorder de Montigny received his objections and in an elaborate judgment, which he has communicated to the press, he rules: That there is nothing in his obligations as a Catholic or a as Papal Zouave to prevent him from granting fair play to all men, and he orders the case to proceed.

Picked Up a Yacht's Crew.

WINDSOR, Ont., July 25.—When the steam barge Juno arrived at Windsor Captain Allen reported that during a gale 20 miles off Rondeau he picked up a small yacht containing Principal Merchant, of the Toronto Collegiate Institute, and four friends whose names he did not learn. The yacht was drifting at the mercy of the wind and waves, and but for the timely assistance of the coal barge crew all hands would have been lost. The gale lasted several hours and was quite severe.

Killed on the Grand Trunk.

RIDGEWAY, Ont., July 25.—Henry Finzey, of this village, filled up with liquor and started up the Grand Trunk tracks towards Moore's Crossing. After reaching a distance of half a mile he sat down by the side of the railway and fell asleep. Shortly afterwards a train came along and Fenzey was struck by the car steps and instantly killed. Two years ago the same train struck him while he was intoxicated and cut off one of his feet.

Canadian Bisley Team Disbands.

LONDON, July 25.—The Canadian Bisley Team was disbanded yesterday. Before doing so, however, the members of the team presented Major Ibbotson, the commander, and Captain Kirkpatric, the adjutant, with gold headed umbrellas. The total amount of prize money won by the team at the meeting was £549. The officers will sail for home on August 16. Most of the men will leave on August 2.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Sidney Beckett cup was rowed for over the Jubilee course, a second time, Saturday, and was won by Mr. Harry Lane, of Harwood. The race throughout was most exciting, being closely contested. The Indians from Hiawatha got the best of the start and led for the first half mile, when Lane made a great spurt, passing his opponents and keeping his lead, winning by half a boat length. The weather was cloudy, with a light wind from the north-west. The cup has to be won three times in succession during the season, therefore Mr. Lane has a good chance of winning it. The next race will take place on Friday, first week in August. Should Lane win, he holds the cup.

The weekly pop with Winchester repeating rifles took place at the Point, Saturday evening, the contestants being Capt. Charles Calcutt, Peterborough, Sidney Beckett, Jubilee, James Tobin, Rochester, N. Y., Joe. Young, Buckhorn, and Colonel Hartnut, of Detroit. The range was three hundred yards, and the targate eight by ten. Capt. Calcutt got in some effective work, making 36 points out of the possible 38, closely followed by Tobin, who used a Smith & Wesson, and came in 4 points behind. The rest of the expert shots did credit to themselves, coming in close proximity. The rifle used by Capt. Chas. Calcutt was the same one he used in the tournament held in South Dakota some time ago, when he came in third out of 28 competitors. Hence the good shooting made by him. The next pop comes off at the Jubilee Range, Saturday, August 4th.

Mr. Jack Emmerson, of the Lock Works, was on a trouting expedition Saturday and in fishing the Cavan creek he succeeded in snaring forty-eight of the speckled beauties.

Mr. Frank Arkles has opened out the Victoria Park hotel, some nine miles down the river. He has also erected a commodious boat and storage house at the landing stage, where campers and fishermen may store their canoes, utensils, etc. The house has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished; everything strictly A 1. Tourists desirous of a trip down the river can remain over night and spend an outing on the river, trawling, etc., and can board the steamer next day for home. Mr. Arkles will spare no pains in looking after those desirous of spending a good day's sport.

The Peterboro' Cobourg & Marmora Railway will run the balance of the fishing season in conjunction with the P. S. & Ng. Co. from Cobourg to Harwood. The excursions booked from Cobourg are Presbyterian church and Sunday school, and the two Methodist churches.

The gentleman who removed the 'lunge from Mr. Steve Holland's Refrigerator the other evening had better return same, as he is known and Mr. Holland intends making it most interesting for him, if he does not comply.

Mr. Kennealy reports that Keene had a shower of frogs intermingled with a little rain the other day, he says they were the genuine green frogs such as anglers use for bait. The frogs fell to the extent of thousands, being nearly a foot deep in one spot. This is not a fish story—it's a frog story.

Mr. Beckett sold to Mr. James Wedlock of Wedlock's Landing 150 pounds black bass Saturday. Mr. Beckett reports that the fish are getting gamey and take the hook in great shape. He is shipping 400 pounds to Syracuse, N. Y., via. Cobourg.

Mr. W. C. M——e, accompanied by his friend, S. B——t, while engaged in catching crawfish for bait the other day, noticed that their canoe took a sail on its own account. They immediately gave chase for the runaway through muck, mud and mire up to their necks, and succeeded in capturing the runaway.

The guests registered at Hotel Jubilee are the following: Mr. A. St. A. Smith, Miss Violet Dover, Mr. Dover, Mr. W. C. Mudge, Mr. Jas. Tobin, jr., Rochester, N. Y., Miss Rose Calcutt, California, Master Willie Beckett, Pine Lake, Utah, Mr. Sidney Ireland, Cow Island, Mr. Boswell, artist, Miss Ida Duprese, correspondent to the Graphic, London, Eng., Mr. Joseph Yonge, Buckhorn, Mr. Richard Thirnbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Hartnutt.

Mr. Geo. Haws, accompanied by Mr. Albert Tivey, were on a fishing excursion down the river on Saturday as far as Victoria Park, and succeeded in hooking seven bass and four 'lunge, and at the same time losing a monster, which they consider would weigh 15 or 16 pounds. The catch tipped the beam at 60 pounds.

Mr. Nesbitt and party of the Court House has also good luck, returning home with eighteen bass.

Messrs. Bert Giroux and Strong also succeeded in hooking twelve bass, the largest of which weighed 4½ pounds.

Mr. W. C. Mudge, accompanied by Sid Beckett, had good luck also, their catch being six 'lunge and five bass—the largest 'lunge weighed 16½ pounds, while the bass weighed a trifle less than six pounds, in a single noon.

The City of Peterborough runs the Sons of England excursion to Jubilee Point on Thursday. It will be a monster excursion as everybody is going.

CANADIAN HORSES.

A subject that attracted some attention in the army papers a few years ago when first mooted by Major Orr, is again brought to the front by the following letter which is being published in English official circles under the heading, "The Time of Peace is the Time to prepare for War." Lieutenant-Colonel Wyndham writes:

I beg to submit to you my views on the question of an Imperial remount depot in the North-West of Canada and its advantages to England. In case of war it would be well to have a few thousand horses fit for immediate service, that could easily be shipped east or west. In no part of the world could they be bought or held so cheaply, as by employing your own men they could be fitted and trained at a small cost; fodder and grain for the horses and beef and provisions for the men being less than half the price they are in England. It might be argued that in case of war you could get ten or

TWENTY THOUSAND HORSES FROM CANADA

I do not doubt it, many more; but would they be of any use? How long does it take to fit and train a horse? And how long, at the present time, is a war likely to last? How are you prepared for it? I am writing of the western horse ranches, though at the present time the the older provinces contain many thousand horses fit for either cavalry or artillery; the western country is the breeding district of Canada, as the cost of raising horses there is small. Of late years large sums have been spent, and much trouble been taken by the western men, to improve their horses; but I am of the opinion that, unless something is done to encourage them, the horses will be allowed to deteriorate. I also think that the horse should be bought young, handled, and fed with a few pounds of grain to develop bone and muscle. I have heard it said that the western horse is not fit for military service. I quote from a letter addressed to me by

MAJOR-GENERAL T. B. STRANGE R. A.:

"Of course a depot in Alberta is the proper plan; horses could be shipped east or west, or dismounted cavalry sent out and mounted. You know what the prairie bred broncbos did in the North-West rebellion campaign. I have worked in war and peace, with every sort of horse—English, Arab Cabul, Indian, stud bred, native Australian, Cape and New Zealand. None for endurance in heat or cold can match the broncho; and since that campaign the size and physique have been enormously improved, as you know, and endurance not lost, as they have the same prairie bringing up."

Would it hurt the English farmer? Not one hundredth part so much as to be caught by war without a supply of horses. The step taken by the continental powers in the event of an impending war has been to stop the export of horses. Canada is the only country where a depot could be established to supply England's cavalry want for either eastern or western service.

OVER 21,000 HORSES

were in 1891 shipped to England, many of which I have no doubt found their way into the Imperial service. Now, would it hurt the English farmer to buy them cheaper, without the intervention of the middle man? Rather it would be a help, as anything that tends to reduce his taxes must be a benefit. At all events, let the authorities send out a competent man to examine and report upon the western horse, as trained for the use of the North-west Mounted Police. I am also in favour of establishing a recruiting depot in Toronto for the 100th Regiment, which is Canadian. In case of war I believe not only would Canadians, but hundreds of British now in America, come in to join. During the Fenian raids in 1866 many came from the States, and many more offered their service to the Canadian Government. I argue thus from a strong belief in doing everything that can be done to strengthen the tie between Canada and the Motherland to the advantage of both.

THE SEISMIC SHAKE-UP OF TOKIO, JAPAN.

Interesting Description of the Earthquake in Japan.

The following letter from Mrs. Large of the Canadian Methodist Women's Mission, Tokyo, Japan, to a friend in town, gives a vivid picture of the earthquake which shook Tokyo on June 21st.

TOKYO, June 21st, 1894.

I have not time for a very long letter but I know you will look anxiously for some word of the earthquake that visited us yesterday, the like of which I do not care to witness again. It was a few minutes before or after two, I had been sitting writing when I saw three soldiers coming to the house, for Wednesday is our "reception day" for them, and though we had decided to withdraw the meeting on account of their examinations, they sent a comrade down at noon to say that the exams. were over and that they would like to come. I went down stairs to meet them. Just as I got to the foot of the stairs the house began to move. I stepped into the drawingroom where Kate and our friend Mr. Kumagai were when the house got such a slap on the side and a bump underneath that the ornaments began to tumble down; at the same time the tiles on the fire proof store room in the next compound began to slide off like the ice before the spring sun, the walls of the timbers groaned and creaked like living mortals. The noise of breaking glass and falling bodies could be heard in every direction. Seising Kate I rushed for the door and landed her in the hands of the soldiers who were entering the yard; asking them to care for her I rushed back to the girls to find them standing with scared faces and white as sheets, in groups in the hall and on the stairs "waiting for orders" they afterwards said. The older ones comforting the little ones who were in tears. The moment I called "come" they quietly made for the door, but by the time the first ones reached it the vibrations had ceased and we could go back to see what damage had been done. The floors were covered with soot, plaster, etc., some pieces had fallen from the ceiling, while at every joining the grinding had brought down the plaster like fine flour, the vases standing on the floor were overturned but not broken, while some things from the mantel were in atoms. In the kitchen the whole ceiling had fallen, in the storeroom, bottles had tumbled from the shelves, the two bottles of sacramental wine that I intended for use at conference was spilled upon the floor. Up in my room books from the top shelf were on the floor while a picture from the top of the book case was in a hundred pieces. Cracks to be seen everywhere in the walls, straight across and oblique, for the house danced up and down and cornerwise. In the part with the mansard roof the whole three chimneys are cracked right around, one having moved about an inch—these must all come down. On the hill they fared much worse than we. In Tsukiji the Episcopalian boys' school is in ruins, a Japanese teacher was killed, the end is out of Trinity church while their theological buildings, just about completed, are badly damaged. In the Whites, Amblers, Thompson, the druggist, and the other Thompsons, and No. 13, chimneys tore right down from roof to foundations. Dr. Macdonald ran out of the house but was thrown to the ground, got almost up only to be thrown more violently than before, then he narrowly escaped being hit with the flying tiles, etc., etc.,

THE ROOM SWAYED BACK AND FORTH,

CONFUSION REIGNED,

At Nihon Bashi was the worst, the fireproof godowns suffering badly; they could not give so had to break. They are tearing down next to us;

IT HAS CHANGED ITS POSITION,

and its sides are lined with big cracks. Brick buildings everywhere suffered. Our Azabu church must come to the ground, it is pronounced unsafe for anyone to enter. In many places the earth opened from half an inch to about six. The Friends' school, as well as the Cosands' house is chimneyless, while daylight can be seen through them. They say the Tsukiji people would not remain in their houses last night. Miss ——, as usual was transfixed, she could not move; but Miss ——, on the contrary, found her legs very useful. The porch of the Rokumakwan fell in, killing a foreigner and someone's betto; the latter's body resembled a cookie more than anything else. They say many died in the bath houses; some could not get out of the water, others were crushed by the bricks from the chimneys. Smoke stacks are down on every side, and the coolies are already at work clearing up the debris. I shall never forget the scene. To be in a room and see its walls dancing jigs to the music of its own timbers, while in the next yard can be clearly seen the same thing, is no trifling matter, and the feeling that one has inside is beyond description, and does not cease with the vibrations.

The rain clouds are gathering; though some will be discomforted by wet just now, with their roofs open to the sky, I hope it will rain, for the danger of another such time will be past, and the poor parched earth refreshed. The heat is just terrible; we get very little sleep at night, and sweat all the day long. As I write I am soaked through to my dress waist, and feel as limp as a rag. We long for a breath of mountain air, and are planning to leave here on July 2nd, and will hold the annual in Karuizawa. The plague in Hongkong makes our folks liable to be delayed as all ships are quarantened for ten days if they have any sickness on board when Nagasaki is reached; so they are going out with us and we can bid them good-bye there; I am about done out. Poor Kate got a bad shock, when I left her. Last night she was afraid to go to bed—said she had nothing good in her and could not go to bed, (there had been a good deal said about if the shake had been in the night), after comforting her for a while she went to bed but not to sleep. Some time after she called me to her and said, "Mamma, I have told Jesus all about it and He says it is all right. I can sleep now," and in five minutes she was fast in slumberland. This morning about four she awoke and called to me, "I've had a good sleep and am not a bit afraid," but all day she has kept near me and looks as though under a strain. What a blessing that these severe shocks lose somewhat of their intensity as the days go by, otherwise we could not endure.

SHE CRIED BITTERLY

DROWNED IN LAKE ONTARIO

The Sad End of Young Charles Ussher, a Toronto Boy.

PORT CREDIT, Ont., July 24.—Yesterday another was added to the long list of drowning accidents which have occurred on Lake Ontario this season. The yacht Rover, with a crew of four, consisting of J. C. and Charles Ussher, sons of the Deputy Registrar of Toronto, and Meredith Kittson and E. G. Cape, of Burlington, left Toronto in the morning for a run to Hamilton. There was a strong northeast wind with a heavy sea, and when about a mile and a half out in the lake opposite Mimico it was discovered that the painter had broken and the dingy was drifting away.

Charles Ussher, who was an expert swimmer, volunteered to swim after it, and speedily stripping himself jumped overboard for that purpose. It was soon seen by those on the yacht, however, that he was not gaining upon it, and they put about to pick him up. Running so close that they almost grazed him a rope was thrown to him which, although it fell over his person, he did not succeed in grasping it.

The yacht was soon past him and close to the dingy, into which young Kittson jumped with the intention of rowing to Ussher's assistance, but it sank beneath him and he also was soon battling for existance. He was rescued by J. C. Ussher, who managed to reach and lift him to safety on the yacht when about sinking for the last time.

In the meantime the waves had closed over Charles Ussher, and no trace of him could be seen. After cruising about the spot for some time in the vain hope of finding him the rest of the crew made for Port Credit, from which place the sad news was communicated to their parents.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please," an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

—The police show a laudable industry in arresting a vagrant for begging. The fishing is said to be first-class and some good catches were made yesterday. ## SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cricket and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

A team representing Peterborough went to Perth, Monday evening, to play the club of that town yesterday and suffered defeat by a score of five to three. Both teams, who were strengthened by out side players, put up, it is said, a magnificent game, but at the close of the game Perth had everything her own way. There is a strong feeling that the day of lacrosse importations should be at an end. If the home team cannot win with the assistance of the good local material at their disposal, they had better go out of the business. The games were taken in the following order:

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1st game | Peterborough | Phelan | 1½ | Minutes. |
| 2nd " | " | Wasson | 4 | " |
| 3rd " | Perth | O'Meara | 15 | " |
| 4th " | " | McVey | 8 | " |
| 5th " | " | O'Meara | 10 | " |
| 6th " | Peterborough | Lipsett | 12 | " |
| 7th " | Perth | McVey | ½ | " |
| 8th " | " | McVey | ½ | " |

The following players will represent the Junior Peterboroughs in their match with the Junior Orillias on the P. A. A. A. grounds to-morrow afternoon: Craig, goal; Brown, point; Lynch, cover point; Green, Logan and Dobbin, defence field; Guy, centre; McCabe, Rickey and Wasson, home field; Heap, outside; Lipsett, inside.

The secretary of the Peterborough Juniors has received an invitation from the secretary of the Hastings club to take part in a tournament in that village on August 15th, Hasting's Civic Holiday, for a silver cup valued at $25. The teams which will likely enter are Campbellford, Belleville and Hastings juniours.

Mr. McConaghy, who refereed the Port Hope-Peterborough game at Port Hope, says that he shook hands with Tansey, of the Shamrocks, on the field, but Tansey says it is a case of mistaken identity. The question now seems to have dwindled down to this: Did Tansey play in Port Hope or did he not? The Torontos are labouring under a huge hallucination.

BASEBALL.

Teams representing the 'Prentice Boys and True Blues will play ball on the P. A. A. A. grounds a week from Saturday.

It looks as if Cobourg would be the Eastern winner. So London or Guelph can get ready.

According to Dave McMillan, Lindsay's crack twirler of last year, that team would like very much to be in the Eastern League this year. They are playing first-class ball.

CRICKET.

A Toronto cricket team defeated Cobourg at cricket Saturday.

Millbrook club visited Cobourg and defeated the team of that town by nearly 200 runs.

The following players will represent Peterborough in their match with East Toronto on the home grounds Friday, July 27th. Game called at eleven. S. Ray, R. B. Rogers, W. Stocker, J. Houldsworth, D. Rogers, P. Goldsmith, G. Horkins, T. Allison, J. Sherriff, W. J. Montgomery, C. Halliday.

SPRINTING.

At Perth yesterday a number of local sprinters entered races. Mr. L. LeBar came in third, "Jim" Turnbull, formerly of this town, coming in first, in the 100 yards race.

In the three-legged race Walter Phelan and D. Davidson won first place, and Messrs. LeBar and Murphy second.

THE GUN.

The Gun Club will hold their weekly shoot at 4 o'clock to-morrow on Riverside Park.

ATHLETICS.

At the Grand Trunk athletic tournament at Cobourg a fine list of sports was run off. The Grand Trunk tug-of-war team defeated Cobourg and county of Northumberland, the best two pulls out of three, of five minutes duration each.

THE AUBURN OUTING.

Successful Excursion Held by the Employees of the Auburn Mills.

Notwithstanding the heavy rain which fell in the morning, a good number took in the annual excursion of the employees of the Auburn Woollen Mills to Jacob's Island yesterday. The steamer Columbian met the excursionists at Chemong wharf and a pleasant sail was indulged in to Jacob's Island, where Mr. P. J. Galvin had everything in readiness for them. After dinner had been partaken of a base ball match took place between Peterborough and Auburn, in which the latter team was defeated. Following is the score:—

|---|---|
| Auburn | 1 0 0 3 0 0 4 0 0— 8 |
| Peterborough | 0 6 0 1 0 0 1 4 0—12 |

At the conclusion of the base ball match the following list of sports was run off:—

Tug of war—Peterborough and Auburn base ball clubs—won by Auburn.

Married men's race—R. Weeks.

Married ladies' race—Mrs. P. Welsh.

Committee race—R. Weeks.

200 yards race (open)—R. Weeks.

Boot race (boys)—G. Hayes.

Girls' race—Lizzie O'Hearn.

100 yards race (open to members of Peterborough base ball club)—F. Lynch.

Throwing base ball—1 D. McCabe, 110 yards; 2 W. Evans, 104 yards.

Boys' race—1 A. Long, 2 F. O'Hearn.

Best dressed lady on ground—Mrs. W. Fleming.

Mr. Wm. Fleming was awarded a prize for selling the most tickets.

Butcher's orchestra accompanied the excursion and dancing was indulged in all day, the wet weather driving the people to the pavilion.

The excursion was in every way a success and the committee of management are to be congratulated.

ENNISMORE.

(From a Correspondent.)

On Saturday, July 14th, "Sam.," "Jim," and "Dick," three well known farmers of Ennismore, started out on a pleasure trip to the back lakes. Everything was lovely until they reached Tom. Eastwood's, in the beautiful village of Buckhorn, and after that everything was still lovelier. On the banks of the Massassaga Sam saw a bear perched on a tree, and politely hid behind a stump until convinced by Dick that it was only a poor, miserable raccoon. The next morning, bright and early, Jim and Dick were aroused by heart-rending screams proceeding from the river. On rushing to the place they were horrified to see a member of their party about four rods from shore, clinging for dear life to an old root, while his hat and canoe were keeping company, sailing down the river. They made all haste to reach him. He was nearly exhausted from excitement and fatigue, as he had been there over an hour, and but for the timely rescue would undoubtedly have met a watery grave, as on measuring the depth of the water at the spot, it was found to be a little over three feet. But in spite of misfortunes they had a pleasant time, and after vowing never "to give it away," they returned home, but a little bird told the tale.

ONE HER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The beautiful showers of rain to-day will prove very favourable to all kinds of crops, especially the root crops.

The editors and proprietors of our local paper are showing examples of perseverance, economy and industry, not only by advocating it in the columns of their sheet but by personal efforts put forth and they advise all other young men to follow their example rather than be idle.

Wesley Thompson, son of Dr. J. M. Thompson, is now visiting the parental roof after serving his time as druggist, and whoever secures his services in the future will get a trustworthy reliable hand.

There are a goodly number of our sports camping at Pigeon River just now. It takes about three hours to paddle to Jacob's Island, Pigeon Lake, where fishing is reported good.

The Rev. Mr. Somerville preached an excellent sermon here last Sunday in the Presbyterian church.

Mr. MacKay will occupy the pulpit at the usual hour on next Sabbath.

The farmers of East Emily in the neighbourhood of Fowler's Corners, Smith township, report excellent crops of all kinds and no reason for grumbling.

The excursion on Friday next, July 27th, under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday School and the popular and energetic superintendent, Dr. J. N. Thompson, promises to be a grand success. No doubt many of all the village denominations will take advantage of the trip. A special train leaves here at 7.45 for Chemong, via Peterborough, and thence per steamer Columbian to Buckhorn. The Citizens' Band will accompany the excursion.

If Lodge No. 646, Emily district, can get a full muster, also No. 41 of same district, they intend going to compete at Peterborough on Aug. 13th. No doubt they will come in for their share of honors.

THE ASHBURNHAM BURGLARY.

No Clue to the Burglar Who Stole the Watch.

Mr. Theodore Ludgate, Ashburnham, when returning home Monday night on his bicycle, hung his coat, which contained a silver watch and chain, on a rack in the hall. Tuesday morning when going to his coat he discovered that some time during the night a thief had entered and walked off with his hat, watch and chain. A number of suspicious characters have been noticed hanging around the outskirts of the village, and it is supposed one of the number committed the theft.

WE "STICK TO OUR TEXT."

In its issue of yesterday the EXAMINER found it necessary to deal with misstatements of the Empire, in regard to our attitude towards the Red Mills at Fenelon Falls, and to-day a little attention is due the Review, which, following in the wake of its leader, falsifies our position and champions the cause of alien, as against the interests of Canadian, labour. Both these organs state in effect that the EXAMINER opposes and denounces the Messrs. Howie for starting the Red Mills at Fenelon Falls. This is incorrect; the EXAMINER only denounced the injustice of permitting alien labour to enter Canada and compete with and exclude Canadian labour. Both the Review and the Empire gloat over the Red Mills resumption as though it was a new industry, whose establishment they claim is to be credited to the N.P. and the Dominion Government. This is not correct either. The Red Mills simply take the place of two other mills, which were rendered dormant by the timber limits supplying them passing from their former ownership to that of Messrs. Howie & Son, so that the Red Mills are in no sense of the word a new industry, and the N. P., if it is entitled to any credit, is entitled only to the credit of starting one saw mill where formerly two were in operation. The Review, again following the Empire, justifies the employment of the alien workmen, on the ground that some of them are put to "work that could not be trusted to inexperienced hands." What does the Review, that cannot shield itself behind the excusable ignorance of the Empire regarding local conditions, mean by thus insulting Peterborough saw mill men? There are any number of skilled saw mill men deprived of employment by the closing down of three large mills in this vicinity, who are as good and competent, and as well skilled, operators of saw mills as any Michigan workmen, and who could have given Messrs. Howrie & Sons just as effective service. Yet the Review defends the iniquitous principle of freely permitting United States workmen to enter Canada and take the work from Canadians, when the latter are shut out of United States like felons. The Review was very solicitous for the welfare of Peterborough working men, when, at the closing of the late election contest, it used the Sabbath day to print and post a lying roorback, appealing to the workmen to vote against the only Government in Canada that has ever enacted any practical legislation in the interests of the working classes, and now it upholds the importation of American saw mill workmen on the grounds that Canadian workmen in this line do not know enough to do the work that "cannot be trusted to inexperienced hands." Our contemporary quotes the Fenelon Falls Gazette to justify the position it has taken. A selection may be made from the same article to show that the workingmen of Fenelon Falls are not "rejoicing over the industry which Messrs. Howrie & Sons have started." The Gazette says:—

"Many new faces have lately appeared in the village, greatly to the dissatisfaction of some of our old residents, who have failed to get the employment they expected. It is no doubt a great disappointment to them to see the positions they hoped for filled by strangers."

This confirms the EXAMINER in the only position it has taken in reference to Messrs. Howrie & Sons, namely that the conditions are most unrighteously unjust that permit workmen, from the United States, when Canadians are shut out like lepers, to come freely to Canada with the approval of papers like the Empire and Review, to rob Canadian workmen of the labour which in all fairness is their just due. The Empire rejoices; the Review rejoices, over the starting of the Red Mills—though it occurs to us that we have had one or two saw mills in operation in this district before—the Yankee workman rejoices who goes to the wicket on pay day and draws his money, while the Fenelon Falls workman stands helplessly out in the cold, compelled—he and his family—to eat the stale bread of idleness, buttered with injustice. It is bad enough to have the iniquitous conditions that permit such things, without having Canadian journals, which are supposed to guard Canadian interests, justifying them and "rejoicing" over the circumstances that attend them.

PICTOU, N.S., July 16.—Good news sometimes travels as fast as bad news, which is proverbially fast. Many people here knew that Mr. Allan Stewart, of Springton, P.E.I., had been for many years afflicted with kidney disease and gravel. It was known, too, that last year he was so bad that public opinion put him down as likely to die soon. Mr. Stewart fooled public opinion though, for he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills and ten boxes of them completely cured him. When he paid a flying visit to this city a few days ago, he received many hearty congratulations on restoration to health and improved appearance. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to cure in this part of the Dominion.

MR. QUINN DEALS WITH MR. LANCASTER.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—My attention has been called to a letter in the Review of the 6th July over the signature of John Lancaster.

Mr. Lancaster's letter, like his speeches during the campaign, is either an exhibition of his ignorance or wilful falsehoods from beginning to end, and I challenge him to prove one false statement in my letter.

I say Mr. Lancaster was a candidate for the Patron nomination in Norwood, and that he did not withdraw his name from nomination for the Local Legislature, but after only receiving two votes from that nomination he did withdraw his name for the Commons. His course in connection with the Patrons as explained in my former letter, goes to prove that he joined the Patrons for political purposes. When I stated at that convention that I would be elected by a large majority, I had every reason to believe so, judging by the large number at the convention and the enthusiasm displayed, but, as time went on, I found there were many deceitful men like Mr. Lancaster, who were there for their own selfish purposes. I say positively that Mr. Lancaster did promise me his support, and if he denies that, when joining the Patrons, he took an obligation to "Support all worthy brothers in order to place them in positions of trust, providing they are the choice of the majority of the delegates at any convention called for that purpose."

If Mr. Lancaster did not want the Patron nomination why did he not accept the Conservative nomination when first tendered to him and not wait until immediately after the Patron nomination and then write to the Secretary of the Conservative Association that he would now accept the Conservative nomination.

Mr. Lancaster says that I resigned at the patron meeting in Norwood, which he must know to be false, for I stated distinctly at that meeting that I would not then resign but would consider the matter, and if I resigned would do so through the public press.

Compare his course with Mr. Blezard's who joined the Patrons on 20th February 1892, and who at the Norwood convention told the Patrons he was not eligible to accept of their nomination, as he had already accepted the Liberal nomination.

At the Peterborough convention some person objected to Mr. Blezard speaking on account of him being a politician. Mr. Blezard immediately sat down and a motion was moved for Mr. Blezard to address the meeting; it was carried unanimously and even that person had not courage enough to vote against the motion, when Mr. Blezard continued his address.

Mr. Lancaster's whole political contest has shown to the electors of East Peterborough that he is either one of the most ignorant men in the riding, or he is full of falsehood and double dealing. One mean insinuation alone of Mr. Lancaster's during the campaign, viz., that the hotelkeepers were paying Mr. Blezard's expenses, is enough to show the character of the man. Mr. Lancaster was holding himself up as a champion of temperance, while one of his ardent supporters was going about with him in the same conveyance with a bottle of whisky.

It did not take the electors of East Peterborough long to see through such a transparent fraud, and if they had had another month's acquaintance with him he would have been defeated by over 1000, instead of 465. Even the electors of his own township showed they would no longer countenance such a fraud, and gave Mr. Blezard nearly double the majority he had the last election.

No doubt Mr. Lancaster feels a little sore after being defeated by such a large majority, but even if he does and there was one drop of gentlemanly blood in his veins, and there should be at least one drop, when he claims to belong to the party of gentlemen, he should refrain from making any insinuation against Mr. Blezard, for if ever a man was treated kindly and honourably by another, Mr. Lancaster was by Mr. Blezard. When Mr. Lancaster first came out for parliamentary honours, he was looked upon as an innocent duck, but if so, he was an apt scholar, and was soon contaminated by the company he kept. Burns says:

"The best laid schemes o' mice and men
Gang aft a gley,
And leave us naught but grief and pain
For promised joy."

I don't know whether Mr. Lancaster's schemes were laid by a man or a mouse, (he can likely tell) but whether by man or mouse they have "ganged agley," and left Mr. Lancaster what he well deserved for his double dealing, "naught but grief and pain."

Yours truly,
WM. QUINN,
Douro.

VERY VARIED VIEWS.

The Great Strike as Seen From Different Standpoints.

YOU MAY TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

Chauncey M. Depew's View.

The President of the New York Central Railroad, Chauncey M. Depew, cabled, on request, his view to the London Times. He said:

"The labor troubles in the United States are due to the long-continued industrial depression, and the strike was caused by the ambitious effort of Mr. Debs, President of the American Railway Union, to absorb all organizations of railway employes into one. The success of the disorder and the delay in suppressing it were owing to the heretofore undefined boundary between State and Federal authority.

"There is universal unrest and almost frantic desire for anything in place of present conditions.

"With these unprecedented industrial conditions and the anomalous political relations in a few States, the elements were favorable for what in Latin countries would be revolution, and with Anglo-Saxons riots, at first successful; then reason soon reasserts itself and firmly enforces the law.

"Our railroads have about one hundred and seventy thousand miles of trackage and one million employes. Among employes the locomotive engineers, firemen, trainmen, switchmen and others have each their organization or brotherhood. These labor organizations have become conservative with time, and their contracts with the companies are inviolable. The locomotive engineers are the strongest and richest of American labor unions, and their agreements, while not enforceable at law, are adhered to with scrupulous honor.

"Mr. Debs was for many years a high and popular official of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the editor of a labor magazine of advanced Socialistic and somewhat Anarchistic views. He conceived the idea of breaking up the existing organizations and gathering the railway world into his order. His scheme was attractive. The initiation fee was only $1, and the annual dues twenty-five cents.

"The order was to control the railways and coerce their managers. Debs would begin with a million dollars in his treasury and have an income of two hundred and fifty thousand.

"Finding no real or imaginary grievance on any railway, he chose to make his fight upon the trouble between the Pullman Car Company and the mechanics in its shops over the construction of some hundreds of freight cars for various railroads.

"Debs ordered a boycott of the Pullman cars, and on the refusal of the railways to break their contracts with the Pullman Company and inflict nameless cruelties upon their passengers he ordered their lines closed. Trains were stopped wherever telegrams reached them, without regard to the health or necessities of travelers, traffic ceased and business was paralyzed over about two-thirds of the area of the United States, a distance containing one-third of our population.

"The reliance of the strikers was upon the impotence of State governments and the friendship of local authorities. They could confidently count on the co-operation of rival local politicians. The industrial and financial distress gave them general sympathy, though their action intensified the suffering a thousand fold.

"State autonomy reached its perilous condition when the Governor of Illinois gave great moral support to the strike by rebuking President Cleveland and virtually ordering the United States forces out of the territory. It reached its ridiculous stage when the Governor of California requested a permit from the strike leader to visit his capital, which was contemptuously refused.

"After President Cleveland's proclamation it required a few days for the general public and the strike leaders to grasp the idea that the President was in earnest and the army and navy in motion; then this gigantic conspiracy collapsed as suddenly as it had organized.

"The losses occasioned by the strike are enormous, but it is destined to prove of incalculable benefit to the country. The national idea has been strengthened and broadened. Safe anchorage has been found for persons and property.

"The far-reaching results of this short revolution can be briefly stated. Interstate railroads are national highways which the Government will keep open at any cost, and a method will be provided for the settlement of differences with their employes. The General Government will find a way to protect the citizens of the States, who, in a larger sense, are citizens of the United States, from the cowardice of all State officers or their corrupt sympathy with law-breakers.

"Every vested interest is more secure and the rights of every one more safe. Legitimate labor is better protected and more sure of its rights and of justice.

"CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW."

General Master Workman Sovereign's Idea

"As regards railroads, I believe the result will be a general agitation that will result in a complete readjustment of the methods employed by these corporations. I think it will eventually arouse the people to elect to Congress men that will bring about the Government ownership and control of all interstate transportation lines.

GEORGE M. PULLMAN.

The situation is certainly gravitating fast in that direction. The real railroad strike has just begun. As for calling it off or stopping it, that would be impossible. It has gone beyond the possibility of an abrupt ending, or any ending that ignores the rights of the employes. They have become aroused to a lively appreciation of the manner in which they have been downtrodden, and the general question of railroad operators and the system employed must be solved by the people. It is not now a mere question of running trains, but a broad question of general rights that the immediate future must decide.

"J. R. SOVEREIGN,
"General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor."

The Pullman Co.'s Stand.

In an interview, George M. Pullman, stated the issue as he saw it thus clearly:

The demand made before quitting work was that the wages should be restored to the scale of last year, or in effect that the actual outgoing money losses then being daily incurred by the company in car building should be deliberately increased to an amount equalling about one-fourth of the wages of the employes.

It must be clear to every business man, and to every thinking workman, that no prudent employer could submit to arbitration the question whether he should commit such a piece of business folly. Arbitration always implies acquiescence in the decision of the arbitrator, whether favorable or adverse.

Who will deny that such a question is plainly not a subject of arbitration? Is it not then unreasonable that the company should be asked to arbitrate whether or not it should submit such a question to arbitration?

The public should not permit the real question which has been before it to be obscured. That question was as to the possibility of the creation and duration of a dictatorship which could make all the industries of the United States and the daily comfort of the millions dependent upon them hostages for the granting of any fantastic whim of such a dictator.

Any submission to him would have been a long step in that direction, and in the interest of every law-abiding citizen of the United States was not to be considered for a moment.

Debs on the Situation.

"The situation now, so far as we are concerned, is that every avenue leading to a settlement has been closed up by the rejection to the General Managers' Association of the proposition submitted to them yesterday by us," said President Eugene V. Debs, of the A. R. U. "They not only rejected a fair and square proposition to settle, but they took occasion to show their venom and spleen by attempting to insult not only organized labor, but Mayor Hopkins and the city authorities of Chicago as well.

"We now propose to muster all resources and combine all our forces to give the railroad companies a fight to a finish, regardless of consequences. For the past few days we have been flooded with letters, telegrams and communications of every character from every source, appealing to us, in the name of humanity, to declare the strike off. We have done everything that manly men could to that end. We will not surrender our honor.

"We now propose to test the efficacy of public opinion. If the railroad managers had made us as fair a proposition as we made to them and we had refused to accept it, public opinion would have risen in revolt against us and forced its verdict at the points of the Federal bayonets. What we ask is a fair and square deal."

"Corporations are no more sacred than flesh and blood. If they can with impunity disregard public conscience, comfort and safety, then the plain, common people, whom we represent by multiplied thousands, have the same prerogative when arrayed in a fight against them.

"We are in shape financially to make the strike last six months or six years. While the American Federation of Labor did not order its men out, it did pledge us its support. All labor will stand by us to the end. We can live cheaply. We will stand by this fight to the end, if that be till the new century dawns.

"The railroads do not want peace. They are foolish enough to think they can crush organized labor.

"How about Pullman?"

"We will take care of Mr. Pullman before we get through with him. Pullman has deigned at last to make a statement to the public. He will submit a statement to his employes next. He has come to the explaining point, and we will bring him to the settling point before we get through with him."

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

CHIEF JUSTICE RUSSELL.

A Master of Legal Tactics and Skill as a Cross-Examiner.

The official announcement made recently that Lord Russell-Killowen, better known as Sir Charles Russell, had been appointed Lord Chief Justice in succession to the late Baron Coleridge, did not cause any surprise. When the fatal nature of Justice Coleridge's illness was first made known, it was recognized that Lord Russell was his legitimate heir; and the only circumstance putting the succession at all in doubt was the question whether the Liberal Ministry would still be in power when the Chief Justice died.

Charles Arthur Russell—he laid aside the "Arthur" long ago—is an Irishman. He was born in Newry in 1833, studied at Trinity College, Dublin, practiced as a solicitor in Belfast, was admitted to Lincoln's Inn in 1856, was called to the bar in 1859, became a Queen's Counsel in 1872, represented Dundalk as a Liberal member of Parliament from 1880 to 1885, and South Hackney in 1885-6; and had served in the last two Liberal Cabinets as Attorney-General. That is a summary of the new Lord Chief Justice's professional career.

Lord Russell is not a specialist in his profession, not an orator, not a master of style, and not a statesman or even a great politician, and his life has not been by any means an unbroken series of successes. On the other hand he has a wide general knowledge of law, coupled with the ability to turn it into special knowledge at any time, as a critic writing of him in the Green Bag has expressed it. He is a good Parliamentary debater, an effective speaker, a cogent reasoner and an excellent jury lawyer. He chiefly owes his success, however, to the fact that he is a master of legal tactics and the greatest living cross-examiner—at least in Great Britain. It is these two qualifications which have made him prominent in almost every case of note in the last 20 years. Other lawyers may have been deeper thinkers, better strategists; but when it came to tactics—"handling troops in the presence of an enemy" in a military sense, in other words conducting a case in the presence of a jury, Sir Charles has had no superior.

He is a tall, strongly-built, white-whiskered, keen-eyed man. To complete the picture of him as it exists in the public mind add a pair of eye-glasses, a snuff-box and a red pocket-handkerchief. In cross examination it has been his practice not to bully a witness unless, as when the spy Le Caron confronted him, the witness beat him at his own game. This insinuating method was like that of Lord Coleridge himself, who is described as having by gentle words helped many a man into putting the noose about his own neck before he knew it.

As a proof of Sir Charles' generalship a story is told how, in a certain litigation, the counsel for the plaintiff, in moving for a new trial, complained that "the Attorney General had carried the verdict with a rush." "If we were to yield to that contention," returned Lord Coleridge, "it would be necessary for us to grant a new trial whenever Sir Charles Russell was 'on the other side.'" Another story told of him illustrates his bearing when in conference with brother lawyers. Sir Charles has not been very popular with his brethren, because he is apt to treat them rather imperiously; and his conferences have been described as being like the councils of war of a certain general who allowed no one to talk but himself. The story is that, at a certain conference, Sir Charles finally stopped to take breath; when an Irish barrister, associated with him in the case, broke in with: "Will you kindly call to mind, Sir Charles, that this is a consultation, and not a lecture?"

The Parnell inquiry brought Sir Charles into the general knowledge of people on this side of the Atlantic. The result of that inquiry was one of his greatest triumphs. The artistic, even dramatic way in which he brings out his points was shown when he began with Pigott by desiring him to "write the word hesitancy"; and when he introduced his memorable speech by asking, "Who are the accusers?" and "Who are the accused?"

COMMERCIAL FIGURES.

Kaiser Wilhelm's Land, a portion of southern New Guinea, exports nothing but tobacco and bamboo.

The wine export of France is greatly overestimated. France imports ten times as much wine as is exported.

Canada exports every year over $3,000,000 worth of wood and its manufactures and $2,000,000 worth of cheese.

Sericulture is carried on in almost every part of France, and the export is a most important factor of French commerce.

The leading products of Austria are the food grains, sugar beets, tobacco, hemp, wine, iron, coal and the precious metals.

In proportion to its size Saxony is the busiest industrial state in the German empire. Textile fabrics are the most important.

Rev. Dr. Dale, the eminent Nonconformist clergyman of Birmingham, England, who is preparing a work on journalism and literature, began writing for the press when he was twelve years of age.

Sophronius, the patriarch of Alexandria, now ninety-five years of age and who has been a bishop for fifty-five years, is said to be the senior bishop of Christendom. Next to him come Archbishop Kenrick, of St. Louis, who was consecrated fifty-three years ago, and Pope Leo XIII., who was consecrated fifty-one years ago.

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparilla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose! why Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I'm going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

I was attacked severely last winter with diarrhœa, cramps, and colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I can thank this excellent remedy for saving my life. Mrs. S. Kellett, Minden, Ont.

Nothing Impossible.

Just now a mite of money is worth a mountain of stock.

Just now, nothing seems impossible in the line of economy. But the TRUTH about low values is hard to comprehend. Anything less than ALL the facts concerning OUR goods and their present values would be unjust to the public.

You cannot always buy so many kinds of goods at and below cost as we offer you now. Your best economy is to invest your money in wisely selected goods at present prices at this store. Listen:

DRESS GOODS
AT COST.

Just to liven things up these hot days we offer all our Summer Dress Goods at about cost. This will help to clear out our stock and save carrying anything over to another season.

WASH GOODS
AT COST.

Chambrays, Krinkles and Muslins all at cost. This is the chance of the season as the stock is all right and well bought.

PARASOLS
AT COST.

Not a fraction of a fib, fabrication or falsehood gets into our store talk. Truth is the best salesman. Parasols at cost just means what it says.

ALL TRIMMED MILLINERY
AT HALF PRICE.

That's a sweeping reduction. Surely cost plays no part in this case. Half price takes everything we have in Trimmed Millinery.

MANTLES AND CAPES

At interesting figures.

DELAINES
AT ABOUT COST.

We can accommodate these beautiful goods to those who come for them. Their bargain story has new life to-day.

BLOUSES, SHIRT WAISTS
AT COST.

Don't be skeptical. Prudence says buy freely.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Uncertainty Exists as to the Death of Mr. Vankoughnet.

OTTAWA, July 25.—There seems to be some ground for believing that the report of the death in Ireland of Mr. L. Vankoughnet, late Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs, is untrue. Several friends and relatives of Mr. Vankoughnet were shown a Toronto despatch stating that Mr. Vankoughnet himself had cabled a denial of the report of his death. They stated their information as to the death of Mr. Vankoughnet was based on despatches from friends of the late Superintendent-General in Toronto and Brooklyn inquiring if a report that he was dead was true. They had received no direct communications. Friends in Ireland, with whom Mr. Vankoughnet was to have visited and travelled for some time, were cabled to on Friday regarding the report, but no reply has yet been received.

Lord Aberdeen was to have left last night for Restigouche en route to Halifax to meet Lady Aberdeen, but was detained owing to a sudden indisposition of Lady Marjorie. His Excellency will leave this evening.

Pong Jung's Romance.

HAMILTON, July 25.—Pong Jung, a Chinaman employed in Wah Lee's laundry, complained to the police authorities that a Toronto damsel named Mary Beatty had obtained from him $100 in money and $300 worth of jewelry, dress, etc., on promising to marry the celestial. Mary came to Hamilton by boat, and Pong Jung says all arrangements were made to have the marriage ceremony performed here on Monday evening, but the girl, after securing another loan of money from her Chinese lover, skipped out and left the Chinaman in the lurch. Pong Jung has been courting the Toronto girl for about two years, and during that time has been very lavish with his presents to the "golden haired" girl.

Anglicans Renounce Protestantism.

MONTREAL, July 25.—In Archbishop Fabre's private chapel Rev. Mr. Alexander, Episcopal dean of the diocese of Fredericton, and Prof. Stockley, who was at one time connected with the University of New Brunswick, formally renounced the Church of England and became members of the Church of Rome. John Meagher, of the firm of Meagher Bros., acted as sponsor for the ex dean, while the Rev. Canon Bruchesi, an able member of the Archbishop's household, acted in the same capacity for Prof. Stockley. The two converts had for some time been preparing for the change under guidance of Rev. Father Jones, an able Jesuit theologian.

Drowning at Port Stanley.

PORT STANLEY, July 25.—A sad drowning accident occurred here yesterday when William Balkwill, aged 21 years, son of Isaac Balkwill, lost his life. He was stepping from the dock to a scow when he missed his footing and fell into the harbor between the scow and dock and never came up. Willing hands at once dived after him, but they could not locate him. Grappling irons were brought into use and it was fully forty minutes before the body was recovered. Deceased was a promising young man and a universal favorite. His aged parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole village.

Father and Child Drowned.

PEMBROKE, July 25.—A sad accident has occurred on Allumette Island, just opposite the town of Pembroke. A young girl was bathing in the lake and getting beyond her depth the father, Mr. Sam Shannon, jumped in to rescue her, but sank immediately and never rose again till the bodies of the father and child were recovered about an hour afterwards. Mr. Shannon leaves a wife and family of five children. The water was not very deep and it is impossible to account for the accident as Mr. Shannon was known to be an excellent swimmer.

TRIAL OF EUGENE DEBS.

Arguments Pro and Con Concluded—Taking of Testimony Begun.

CHICAGO, July 25.—At the trial of Eugene Debs Mr. Erwin completed his argument for the defendants in the forenoon and was followed by Mr. Bancroft, attorney for the Santa Fe Railroad. The closing speech was made by Mr. Geeting for the defendants. It was 4 o'clock when the arguments were concluded and the judges then announced their decision on the question of the admissibility of testimony which was the only one they considered.

"While the case has criminal characteristics," said Judge Woods, "It is nevertheless a case in equity and we hold that the defendant's answer is not conclusive."

The taking of testimony began this morning.

The District Attorney seemed to be alarmed at a postponement of the case, saying that the men would cause trouble. The judge took occasion to warn the defendants that if they interfered with the employes of railroads, even by advice, it would be very hard for them in case they were adjudged guilty of contempt.

Shot the Deputy Sheriff Dead.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 25.—Yesterday Deputy Sheriffs Cole and Smith, with a warrant for the arrest of Charles Hudson for complicity in the massacre at Slope No. 3, near Pratt City, went to the house of Hudson's father near Coalburg. As soon as the deputies appeared the Hudsons opened fire on them. Cole fell dead at the first fire, and Smith was mortally wounded. The Hudsons escaped to the mountains near by. A posse was formed and immediately started in pursuit. In a fusilade two of the posse, Gay and Simmons, fell badly wounded. Fifty troops were ordered by Gov. Jones to report to Sheriff Morrow, and they, with a squad of deputies, have gone to the scene.

Fighting in Brazil.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Advices from Rio de Janeiro dated July 12 state that in the south part of the republic there have been stirring times. On the 6th inst. a battle was fought at Campos Novos in which the legal troops lost 20 killed, including two captains, and the enemy 30. The number wounded on both sides was about 200. In the centre of the Rio Grande there have been many small combats with unimportant results.

Cholera in Illinois.

CARTHAGE, Ill., July 25.—News has reached here that a Mrs. Joseph Hatfield has died at Oxville, near Meredosia, on the Illinois River, with what physicians pronounce genuine Asiatic cholera. Mrs. Hatfield was ill only two hours. It is known that precaution has been taken to prevent a spread of the disease. The case has caused considerable excitement in the vicinity.

Sailors Shot by the Captain.

COLLEGE POINT, L. I., July 25.—There was a mutiny on board the schooner P. R. King last night. Frank and Charles Durard, Portuguese sailors, were shot and fatally wounded by Captain Parker J. Hall. The two men made an ante-mortem statement denying that there had been a mutiny and asserting that the captain had shot them without provocation. The captain is under arrest.

Four Killed by an Elevator.

NEW YORK, July 25.—While workmen were engaged in hoisting a grain elevator in Clausen & Price's brewery yesterday the cable of the elevator broke, causing it to fall to the cellar. Four men were instantly killed and another received fatal injuries. The dead are: Louis Baer, Bernard Smith, Tony Carroll, Henry Hornberg. The injured man is William E. Merritt.

Buried in a Caved Cistern.

WINONA, Minn., July 25.—By the caving in of a wall of a cistern at the Young Ladies' Catholic Seminary three bricklayers and a boy nine years old were buried eighteen feet under the earth and brick. A force of men were at once set to digging, but all the victims were dead when found.

No "Rats" From Canada.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Immigrant Inspector Smiley informs Superintendent Stump that as a result of the investigations made in Athens and Perry counties, Ohio, he is satisfied that no alien miners from Canada have taken the places of striking miners and no fears need be entertained that they will.

Explosion in a Match Factory.

TRENTON, N.J., July 25.—Three persons were injured by an explosion at the Trenton match factory. The damage to the building will amount to several thousand dollars. The explosion was due to the overheating of about five gallons of composition which is used in making the heads of the matches.

A Convict's Good Luck.

BOSTON, July 25.—It is learned that Michael Welsh, who has served nine months of a year's sentence in the House of Correction in South Boston, for larceny, has fallen heir to $75,000 by the death of his father, Chief of Police Welsh of Quebec. Michael ran away from his home in Quebec some 15 years ago.

Gas Companies' Troubles Settled.

BUFFALO, July 25.—The consolidation of the warring gas companies in the Canadian field is announced. The Erie company has sold out to the Provincial Gas company, which is the end of the Standard Oil monopoly in the gas business.

A Printer Falls Heir to a Fortune.

FAIRBAULT, Minn., July 25.—Henry S. Bretz, a compositor of the Fairbault Republican for the past twelve years, received notice yesterday from a cousin in Michigan that he has fallen heir to a part of $40,000,000 which was left by some relatives in Germany.

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, July 25, 1894.

Trading in American stocks in London is very dull and practically at a standstill.

Grand Trunk returns of traffic for week ending July 21 show a decrease for 1894 of $47,623.

At the London (Eng.), wool sales 6,000 bales of good average quality were offered. The attendance was good and the bidding spirited.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—There was no grain on the street owing to unfavorable weather and prices are nominal. Wheat is quoted at 62c for white, 61c for red and at 58c for goose. Peas nominal at 66c, oats at 40c and barley at 42c to 44c.

In Chicago wheat had apparently not yet reached the bottom, although there was a slight rally at one time and the close was only ¼c lower. Oats were firm, provisions strong. Receipts to-day: Wheat 475 cars, corn 275 cars, oats 120 cars, hogs 26,000 head.

Buffalo. — Cattle — Four cars, firm. Sheep and lambs—Ten cars on sale. Dull, with values fully 25 to 60c lower for the poorer grades of lambs; dull and weaker for very best, and sheep scarce and firm, fair to good mixed sheep, $3.25 to $3.75; choice to fancy native lambs, $3.25 to $4.50; fair to choice, $3.25 to $4.15. Hogs—Twenty cars, active.

The attention of operators centered on Chicago Gas at the opening of the New York Stock Exchange and Sugar for a time was relegated to the rear. Sugar advanced ⅛c at the opening to 105⅛, fell to 104⅛, rose to 105⅛ and in the late trading declined to 103⅛. The railway group left off firm.

A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give Ayer's Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone.

FACE LIKE A BURN

Bloody Water Oozed Out Constantly. No Peace Day or Night. Doctors Failed. Cured by Cuticura.

My child's disease, which was the worst kind of Eczema, started on one cheek like a ringworm. It spread and itched so that poor little fellow had no peace night or day. Then it appeared on the other cheek and chin, until all were raw as a piece of beefsteak, like a burn where you would rub off the skin, and bloody water oozed out constantly. His sufferings were terrible I know, although he was but six months old and could not tell how he suffered. I tied his hands that he would not scratch, then he would rub his poor little cheeks on his shoulders to relieve the intense itching. I had as good a doctor as was in Philadelphia, but he failed to relieve him. I read of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and at once purchased them. Strange to say that very night he rested without scratching his face, and from that on he improved and gain was entirely cured. I would like anyone suffering from this terrible disease to see my boy, who is in his twelfth year now. His complexion is as clear and smooth as can be. This is an unsolicited testimonial, and every word is true. I thank God for my child's recovery, and I thank the manufacturer of CUTICURA.

FIRE'S AWFUL HARVEST

Over Two Hundred Horses Perish in a Washington Conflagration.

FIREMEN CRUSHED TO DEATH

Three Meet With a Terrible Fate Beneath the Falling Floors of a Warehouse—Several Others Severely Injured—Damage Placed at $250,000.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The warehouse and stables of the George W. Knox Express Company, occupying over a quarter of a block at Second and B streets northwest, were destroyed by fire yesterday. Three firemen lost their lives. Over 200 heavy draught horses, nearly all of the company's express wagons and the contents of the large storage building were burned. The Adams Express Company's stable, adjoining the Knox building to the north, was also almost entirely consumed. About 150 horses were there, but all were taken out by the hardest kind of work on the part of the citizens and policemen. Eight two-storey houses on the alley north of the Knox building and two small frame houses back of the Adams stables were destroyed. Six or eight other houses were more or less damaged. The total loss will exceed a quarter of a million dollars, about half covered by insurance.

The three firemen killed were: Samuel E. Mastin, Michael Fenton, Dennis Donohue. Four firemen were badly injured and had to be taken to the Emergency hospital. One of the Knox stable employes was burned, and may died. Fully a dozen firemen and policemen were overcome by heat and had to be carried to places of safety.

The fire was discovered at 2.30 a.m. A number of men who were sleeping in the Knox building were awakened by smoke. They found the entire rear of the second floor of the building in flames, and had hardly time to escape with their lives. Five minutes later a general alarm was turned in and in five minutes more the entire fire department of the city was on hand. The horses of the Knox Company could not be reached. There were 205 of them, and they were on the second storey of the building. The Knox building was a four-storey structure of brick.

Another four storey building of the Knox Company facing on Second street and connected with the stables, separated only by a thin brick wall, was used entirely for storage purposes. It was packed with furniture and merchandise. It was in this building that the greatest loss occurred.

Shortly after 3 a.m. the most terrible incident of the fire occurred. The firemen had carried their hose into the burning warehouse through one of the large rear doors. This door was held up by weighted ropes and the men had just entered this door when the ropes burned through and the heavy wooden door fell penning them in. The work of cutting through the door was immediately begun and was all but finished when the floors above fell with a crash. The immense weight burst out the door and crushed three of the firemen to death. Three others were with difficulty dragged out of the debris alive.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

The City Infested With Burglars—Experimental Farm Reports.

OTTAWA, July 26.—Ottawa is infested with tramps just now, who are committing all sorts of outrages. A few nights ago Postmaster J. A. Gouin was sandbagged and robbed at 10 o'clock in the evening, and last night Antonio Martello, an Italian and a stranger in the city, was also sandbagged. Yesterday two men entered Wm. Booth's office on Wellington street, sandbagged him and made away with $1,600 in cash. Booth was found in the morning in an unconscious condition.

A sample of binder twine from the Kingston penitentiary was received at the Department of Justice. It shows a smooth, even and compact thread, composed entirely of manilla, and is to be sold at 6½ to 7 cents per pound.

Two publications were made at the experimental farm yesterday. One was by Prof. Fletcher on the blights and rots of potatoes, and gave timely information; the other was by Prof. Craig on the black knot on the plum and the cherry. All who desire the publications can have them on application.

Sir A. P. Caron and Hon. Mr. Ives, president of the Privy Council, will probably sail from Canada for Europe on Saturday next.

Though there was a rumor that the election of Hon. E. H. Bronson would be protested and considerable talk to that effect, it is now conceded that there will be no protest. Saturday will be the last day on which a protest may be entered.

Bicycle Racing at Waterloo.

WATERLOO, Ont., July 26.—The races held here yesterday by the Waterloo Bicycle Club, were well attended by both spectators and contestants, no less than 72 racing men being entered. The prizes were an unusually handsome and valuable lot and fully sustained the reputation of the Waterloo Bicycle Club in this respect. Owing to the large entry list nearly all the races were run in heats, there being no less than 27 events during the afternoon. The track was only in fair condition, the recent heavy rains making it impossible to break records or even come near them. The Seagram cup, a beautiful trophy valued at $70, presented by Mr. Joseph E. Seagram to the winner of the novice race, was won by T. W. Barnes, of the Hamilton Bicycle Club.

SITUATION IN COREA

Rumors of Fighting Between Coreans and Japanese in Seoul.

BRITAIN WILL NOT INTERFERE

She Will Be Satisfied With Protecting Her Own Interests—The Chinese Continue to Land Troops in Corea—A Peaceful Settlement Now Possible.

LONDON, July 26.—A vaguely worded cablegram from Yokohama stating that the Japanese troops in Corea are marching against the Chinese position and that a battle is imminent, is interpreted here to mean that the main force of the Chinese troops is south of the Chemulpo. The Japanese legation here says there are only about 200 Chinese troops in Seoule, while there are between 5,000 and 6,000 Corean and about 6,000 Japanese soldiers there.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Central News says: "Numerous rumors of further fighting at Seoul are current here, but none can be confirmed. The Coreans continue to menace the Japanese of the Seoul garrison. Intelligent native opinion here is that there will be an amicable settlement in which the Europeans will have no share.

"The Chinese arsenals and arms factories are busy night and day. The officers of Chinese gunboats are filling the numerous vacancies on the vessels with seamen attracted by generous bounties."

There is a strong impression at the Japanese legation here that fighting is in progress in Corea, although no official notice to that effect has been received.

"The officials at the Chinese legation have heard nothing of the reported sinking of a Chinese transport by a Japanese vessel. They say that their information indicates an important improvement in the situation, and they are hopeful that peace will be restored if it has been formally broken. It is understood that the British squadron in Chinese waters has been ordered to defer its cruise northward.

The Central News says: "Great Britain has informed China and Japan that in case they infringe upon her interests she will take whatever steps she may deem necessary, but otherwise will not interfere in the present dispute."

The suggestion that the United States might intervene in the Corean difficulty has excited much interest here. A despatch from Shanghai says: "American residents here suggest the interference of the United States as the readiest solution of the problem, but the European residents do not regard the suggestion as serious."

More Chinese Troops Landed.

SHANGHAI, July 26.—It is reported that 12,000 Chinese troops, who sailed on July 20 with eight warships, have been landed in Corea. This report, although unconfirmed, has been received with satisfaction by the foreign residents of Shanghai. If the facts be as stated they say the Japanese who must have known of the expedition's plan to land refrained from attack, because they had become more amenable to the pacific counsels of the treaty powers.

Russia's Attitude Excites Interest.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—An official of the Japanese legation says concerning the reported landing of 1,000 Russian troops at Gensan, that it was extremely improbable, because Russia would have no interest in landing troops there except to take part in some hostilities. In view of the fact that Russia has tendered her good offices to China and Japan for the settlement of the present controversy, it does not look from this official's point of view as if Russia would attempt such an invasion. He was amazed at the report published that the Corean king had been kidnapped by the Japanese and said it was ridiculous, for the reason that Japan was not making war against Corea. He added: "It the event of war between Japan and China the ports in China and in Corea where the United States and European powers have received certain concessions by treaties would unquestionably be respected and left outside of the limits of hostility. Japan has made three distinct propositions to China for the settlement by arbitration of this matter. She has done everything possible that a self-respecting nation consistent with honor could do. Every proposition that has been made to China has been ignored and it is clearly apparent that China is urging the Coreans on."

C. P. R. Steamers May be Needed.

MONTREAL, July 26. — D. McNicoll, general passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, says that the strained relations between China and Japan had as yet had very little effect on the C. P. R., but he could not foretell what it might have. Mr. McNicoll stated that it might be interesting to know that in the event of Britain becoming involved in trouble, it is more than probable that he would take over the company's fleet of steamers. They are all armed cruisers and under the subsidy arrangements with the Imperial Government, under which they were built, in the event of war they can be taken over and put into instant commission. Whether this would be agreeable to the owners or not remains to be seen, but as this is the busy tourist season on the world's tour by the Japan route, such action might complicate matters.

WELLMAN MUST BE LOST.

Captain Nansen's Ship Also Reported to Have Been Crushed by Ice.

LONDON, July 26.—Carl Siewers, the Polar enthusiast, has received a number of letters from Norwegian sealers just returned home from Arctic waters, which confirm his belief that the Wellman party are all lost and that Captain Hansen's ship has also been crushed in the ice. The Peary party, he believes, will return in September, after having sailed over the pole in an open sea.

Refused to be a Liberal Monarch.

LONDON, July 26.—A Madrid correspondent says: A declaration signed by Don Jualme, prince of Asturias, and son of Don Carlos, has appeared. In it the Prince says that he could not accept the Spanish Crown as a liberal constitutional King. Some years ago, he says, Senor Sagasta, now Premier, offered the crown to Don Carlos on the condition that he reign as a liberal monarch and Don Carlos bluntly refused it.

DEMOCRATS IN CAUCUS

The Decide to Agree to a Further Conference on the Tariff.

SENATOR VILAS IS DOUBTFUL

He is Disposed to Urge a Differential Duty on Sugar—The Feeling of the House Members Strongly in Favor of Passing the Senate Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—If the action of yesterday's Democratic caucus is obeyed the Senate debate on the conference report on the tariff bill will be resolved and the measure will go back to conference without instructions. Mr. Jarvis' resolution that the bill be sent back without instructions was agreed to unanimously, although at no time did Mr. Vilas give the assurance to the caucus that he would not press his motion to strike out the differential duty on refined sugar. His final statement to the caucus was that he would take the matter under careful advisement and decide it in his own mind in the morning. A Senator who described the situation to a reporter said the impression the rest of the caucus got was that Mr. Vilas would confer with the President and be guided by what he advised. Then the resolution that the bill be sent back to conference without instructions was agreed to and the caucus adjourned.

Nearly the entire time of the canous was taken up in discussion of the sugar duty. Senators Caffery and Blanchard, of Louisiana, announced their intention to vote against the bill if any change was made in the sugar schedule. Senator Smith (N.J.) made a vehement speech, in which he warned Mr. Vilas that he was trifling with a weighty subject when he talked of changing the bill which has been the result of so much hard work in the Senate and which had only passed by a very slim majority of one vote. Mr. Smith said that the number of Senators who had been opposed to the income tax had been induced to vote for the bill because the schedules relating to the industries of the great states they represented had been arranged so their shops would not be compelled to shut up or their workmen thrown out of employment. Because this had been done they had consented to swallow the income tax and given their pledge in caucus that they would stand by the party.

The absence of Senators Murphy and Irby from the caucus was alluded to as an indication that the bill had lost ground since it passed the Senate. Among the reports current in the House was one that the Democratic leaders of the House and Senate had agreed to bring in a joint resolution adjourning Congress on Saturday, August 4. This, it was said, would result in expediting the work in conference on the tariff bill so that whatever report might be agreed upon by the conferees must necessarily be passed within the next ten days. There is apparently no doubt that the House is now willing to accept any fair report on the tariff bill which may come from conference. It is asserted that if the Senate bill was brought before the House it would pass by a large majority with scarcely an hour's debate.

An Alien on Trial for Perjury.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 26.—Jacob Hurst, formerly of Selkirk, Ont., came to this city in March, 1892, and immediately took out full citizenship papers, alleging that he had been a resident of this country for five years, and two citizens were procured who swore to the alleged period of residence. Inspector de Barry has had them up for perjury. Robert Holland, formerly of Selkirk, Ont., testified to a 20 years acquaintance with Hurst. Another former resident of Selkirk testified to knowing Hurst 17 years and that they came here together in 1892. The case was put over until August 20.

An Entire Block in Ashes.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 26.—An entire block of buildings on Sprague avenue and First street were destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss, $40,000. George M. Smith, a miner, jumped from the third storey of a boarding house and received internal injuries. Mrs. Phyllis Holman jumped from the same floor, breaking her breast bone and is probably fatally injured.

A Body Identified.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 26.—The body found in the whirlpool rapids at the Falls a few days ago has been identified as that of 18-year-old George Hartmetz, of Pittsburg, who was drowned off Grand Island on July 17.

Confessed to a Big Steal.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—William Melville, the correspondent clerk of the Bank of California, has made a confession that during the last thirteen years he has stolen $45,000 of the bank's funds.

Lundy's Lane Celebration.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 26.—The eightieth anniversary of the battle of Lundy's Lane was duly observed yesterday on the historic battle ground by the Lundy's Lane Historic Society. James Lowell, M.P., president of the society, occupied the chair, and opened the proceedings with a few well chosen remarks. Patriotic speeches were made by Canon Bull, Capt. Cruickshanks and others. Appropriate papers were read by Miss Camochan, Niagara, Mrs. Cursons and Miss Fitzgibbon, Toronto. All the graves of both Canadian and American soldiers that fell during the contest, as well as that of Laura Secord were decorated with Canadian and American flags.

Fire in Fergus.

FERGUS, Ont., July 26.—Yesterday fire was discovered in the front window of H. H. Perry's drug store, cause by lightning. In the window were 3 large show bottles filled with alcohol, two of which exploded. By the explosions the large plate glass front was blown to the street into a thousand pieces. The damage is covered by insurance.

ENCAMPMENT ODDFELLOWSHIP.

The Annual Meeting—The Reports Indicate Progress.

The annual session of the Grand Encampment was held on Monday and Tuesday at Chatham. The grand patriarch closed his report as follows:

"It affords me pleasure to be able to say that the beautiful tenets of our branch of the order have been advanced upon every suitable occasion that presented itself during the past year. The harvest is not so large as I had hoped to garner, and yet something has been accomplished. It would be quite safe to perdict also that the seed which has been sown will bear good fruit as soon as the ripening sun of increased commercial prosperity shines upon our fair province. My heart is filled with gratitude to those brothrrs, and they are many, who have served to lighten my task by tendering a helpful hand. My fervent hope is that the legislation of this session will be such as to perpetuate the upward and onward progress of our encampments, and I anticipate that the kindly hospitality of the brothers and citizens of the good town of Chatham will be blessed equally to the giver and the receiver."

The Grand Secretary reporting on the state of the order says: "Generally speaking the encampment branch has done well. The increase in new material has been greater, and the suspensions for nonpayment of dues have been very much less, which is a very favourable sign."

GRAND OFFICERS.

The Grand Encampment concluded late Tuesday night. The officers for the year are:—Mr. S. S. Merrick, Carleton Place, grand patriarch; Mr. E. T. Essery, London, grand high priest; Mr. John J. Reed, Montreal, grand senior; Mr. Geo. Ross, Hamilton, grand junior warden: Mr. M. D. Dawson, London, grand scribe; Mr. E. Beltz, London, grand treasurer; Messrs. F. Doggett, St. Thomas, and A. H. Blackeby, Galt, representatives to Grand Lodge; Mr. Sam. Law, Guelph, grand marshall; Mr. Geo. Bell, Ottawa, grand inside sentinel; Mr. Wm. Potter, Chatham, grand outside sentinel. Picton was chosen as the next place of meeting.

Groups of districts were formed as follows:—Peterborough and Lindsay, Hamilton and Dundas, Guelph, Berlin and Galt, Belleville, Picton, Trenton and Sterling, Port Hope and Cobourg, Newmarket and Aurora, Belleville and Prescott, Parkhill and Forest, Waterford and Jarvis, Chatham and Blenheim.

A HANDSOME DRUG STORE.

Mr. John Nugent Moves Into His New Premises, No. 339 George Street.

Nine years ago Mr. John Nugent, the obliging and well known druggist, embarked in the drug business on Hunter street. Having had a long and successful experience in the profession he was not long in establishing a reputation and business which has made his name known throughout this district. In order to keep abreast of the times and in the front rank in the march, he has found it necessary to seek new quarters, and accordingly leased the store on George street, recently occupied by Mr. W. R. Meredith, merchant tailor.

These premises have been undergoing a thorough overhauling the past few weeks. The interior has been entirely renovated, a new oak floor put in and handsome shelves of cherry adorn the wall on the left of the main entrance, with handsome glass fronts, in which are placed the patent medicines and other compounds. The main counter is handsomely finished in ash, behind which is another row of shelves and drawers of cherry. The druggist shelf bottles are very pretty in design and are the first of this pattern ever introduced here. The ceilings and walls are also decorated and repapered, the handiwork of Mr. W. H. Watson and staff.

The fixtures and fancy woodwork in the store were the workmanship of Mr. J. R. Donel who has already acquired a well-known reputation for high-class work in this line.

Mr. Nugent is the third druggist who has occupied these same premises. Away back in the sixties the late Dr. Bell conducted a drug business in these premises and fourteen or fifteen years ago Mr. Lane did business in the same stand.

Mr. Nugent can now lay claim to having one of the neatest and handsomest drug stores in the district:

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

A branch of the Union Bank has been opened in the building formerly occupied by the Mechanics' Institute, Manager Forest in charge. The store recently vacated by J. W. Clark is being fitted up for the bank.

Last week, while taking a belt from a planing machine, in J. Finlay's factory, Mr. Andrew Torrance had the misfortune to have his left hand caught by the knives. The thumb was entirely severed and the first and second fingers severely cut.

It is our sad duty to record the death on Thursday evening of Mrs Mary Higgins, relict of the late Wm. Higgins, at the age of 75 years. Mrs. Higgins was in good health until some six months ago, since when she has been troubled with quinsy, which developed into cancer in the throat. Wednesday morning she sustained a paralytic stroke and became unconscious, in which state she remained until her death Thursday evening. The remains were interred in the Roman Catholic cemetery, Asphodel, Sunday morning, service being conducted by the Rev. Father Conway. Deceased was born in the north of Ireland and at the age of 13 came to Canada with her father. Some 45 years ago she was married to Wm. Higgins. They took up their residence in Dummer, being among the very earliest settlers. In 1874 they removed to Norwood where they have since resided. Seven children are left to mourn the loss of the departed, five sons and two daughters: Messrs. Jas. Higgins, Saginaw; Michael Higgins, Norwood; Patrick Higgins, Minnesota; Joseph Higgins, Detroit; Matthew Higgins, Minnesota; Mrs. Biker, Ionia, Mich., and Mrs. Taylor Campbellford. Messrs. James and Joseph and Mrs. Taylor were present at the funeral.

LIBERAL PLATFORM.

Eleven Important Declarations for Reform—Text of the Convention—Freedom of Trade and Economical Administration—Purity of Governmental Methods—Gerrymandering and Stuffed Electoral Lists Condemned.

The following is a good summary of the platform of the Liberal party as adopted at the Ottawa convention last year:—

1. A tariff for revenue only, thus reducing the taxes to the needs of honest, economical and efficient government and based not as they now are upon the protective principle, but upon the requirements of the public service and so adjusted as to make free or to bear as lightly as possible upon the necessaries of life and should be so arranged as to promote freer trade with the whole world, more particularly Great Britain and the United States; because the present tariff, founded upon an unsound principle used, as it has been, by the government as a corrupting agency wherewith to keep themselves in office has developed monopolies, trusts and combinations, has decreased the value of farm and other landed property, has oppressed the masses to the enrichment of the few, has checked immigration, has caused great loss of population, has impeded commerce and has discriminated against Great Britain.

2. A fair and liberal reciprocity treaty (including a well-considered list of manufactured articles) with the United States, assented to by her Majesty's Government, without which no treaty can be made. Such a treaty would develop the great natural resources of Canada; would enormously increase the trade and commerce between the two countries; would tend to encourage friendly relations between the two peoples; would remove many causes which have in the past provoked irritation and trouble to the Governments of both countries. And would promote those kindly relations between the Empire and the republic which afford the best guarantee for peace and prosperity. The pretext under which the Government appealed to the country in 1891 respecting negotiations for a treaty with the United States was misleading and dishonest, and and intended to deceive the electorate; no sincere effort has been made by them to obtain a treaty, but, on the contrary, it is manifest that the present government, controlled as they are by monopolies and combines, are not desirous of securing such a treaty.

HONESTY AND ECONOMY.

(3) Strictest economy in the administration of the government of the country; and view with alarm the large increase of the public debt and of the controllable annual expenditure of the Dominion, and the consequent undue taxation of the people under the Governments that have been continuously in power since 1878,

(4) Maintenance of the ancient and undoubted right of the House of Commons to inquire into all matters of public expenditure, and into all charges of misconduct in office against Ministers of the Crown; for, the reference of such matters to royal commissions, created upon the advice of the accused, is at variance with the due responsibility of Ministers to the House of Commons, and tends to weaken the authority of the House over the Executive Government.

(5) Purity of Government, as opposed to the gross corruption in the management of expenditure of public moneys which for years past has existed under the rule of the Conservative party, and the revelations of which by the different Parliamentary Committees of Inquiry, have brought disgrace upon the fair name of Canada.

(6) Independence of Parliament, and arraign the Government for retaining in office Ministers of the Crown proved to have accepted very large contributions of money for election purposes from the funds of a railway company, which, while paying the political contributions to him, a member of the Government, with one hand, was receiving Government subsidies with the other.

THE LAND FOR THE SETTLER.

(7) The sales of public lands of the Dominion should be to actual settlers only (and not to speculators), upon reasonable terms of settlement, and in such areas as can be reasonably occupied and cultivated by the settler.

(8) Adoption of the Provincial voters lists, and repeal of the Dominion franchise act, which since its introduction has cost the country over a million dollars, while each revision involves an additional expenditure of public funds of a further quarter of a million dollars, besides entailing a heavy expenditure to political organizations.

(9) In the formation of electoral divisions county boundaries should be preserved, and in no case parts of different counties should be put in one electoral division.

(10) Reform of the Senate so as to bring it into harmony with the principles of popular government.

(11) Ascertaining the mind of the people on the question of prohibition by means of a Dominion plebiscite.

The platform set forth in these eleven paragraphs is the creed of a party whose history is identified with the political progress of Canada. For every reform that led to the freedom and self-government of to-day the Liberal party has struggled in the past. The great agitations previous to Confederation are familiar as household words and even during the comparatively brief period that the party has been in power since Confederrtion important reforms were given effect. The constant aim of the Liberal party is to give real effect to the principle that the people govern. Towards this end the introduction of the ballot, the trial of election cases by judges, the effort to make popular favour rather than the length or depth of a candidate's purse the dominating factor in elections, were among the achievements of that period. The retroactive fiscal policy of the Conservatives since 1879 has furnished the Liberals a task well worthy of their principles and traditions and to the glory of the party it can be said that it has never for a moment wavered in its opposition to the false principles of protection and high taxation. It has never sought to win a party victory by compromise or surrender of principle. The Liberal press has been consistently faithful in endeavouring to show that protection is a robbery of the many for the benefit of the few and long as the victory is delayed it must come at last.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, July 26, 1894.

The earnings of the Canadian Pacific for third week of July decreased $73,000.

The largest crops of hay known in several years are expected in England, France, Scotland and Germany.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—This market is quiet; oats steady, 300 bushels selling at 39½c to 40½c. Wheat is quoted at 62c for white, 61c for red and at 58c for goose. Peas nominal at 66c, and barley at 42c to 44c.

At the London (Eng.), wool sales 9,800 bales of fairly good quality were offered embracing large lots of merinos which sold readily at full rates.

In Chicago wheat was dull and weak, the close being ½c lower. There was a decided set-back to the bull movement in corn, the close ½c lower. Oats were dull and a shade lower. Receipts to-day: Wheat 450 cars, corn 260 cars, oats 140 cars, hogs 27,000 head.

Buffalo.—Receipts of sale cattle were moderate, only about four cars. Market ruled fairly steady; all were sold at full former prices. Sheep and lambs—Five cars. Sheep scarce, strong; a load of good 90 pound sheep with some yearlings mixed brought $4. Some light but fancy corn fed lambs sold at $4 70; good to prime lambs quotable at $4 to $4.50. Hogs—Five cars.

In the opening dealings at the New York Stock Exchange the general market was dull and steady. Subsequently the room operators sold a line of the Granger stocks on reports from the west about damage to the growing corn. From present indications Saturday's gold shipments will reach $3,000,000. The decline in the active railway list ranged from ½ to 1½ per cent. Sugar sold at its highest near the opening on the failure of the Democratic Senators to get together.

Athlete Cigarettes, more sold of this brand than of all other cigarettes combined.

Burdock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, I an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Death of Mr. James McAndrew.

This morning the family of Mr. Geo. H. Noble, plumber, Louis street, were shocked by the receipt of a telegram from Utica, N.Y., announcing the death of of their son-in-law, Mr. James McAndrew, formerly of Peterborough. No particulars accompanied the telegram—authority was simply asked for as to the disposal of the body. The sudden announcement was a great shock to the family, especially to Mrs. McAndrew, who has been residing with her father ever since Mr. McAndrew returned from Scotland a few months ago. The deceased at the time of his death was filling an engagement with Messrs. Russell, Wheeler & Son, of Utica, as master steamfitter, and it is presumed must have been killed by some accident, as Mrs. McAndrew had a letter from her husband a short time ago, and he was then in good health. Mr. Noble has written for full particulars in the meantime. Mr. McAndrew carried on business at one time in Peterborough for some years and was well known in town. He leaves a wife and three children behind him, to whom will go out the heartfelt sympathy of the public in their sudden and irreparable loss.

ANOTHER BATCH OF "EXPERTS."

A Further Instalment of Fifteen Michigan Workmen Arrives for Howrie & Sons.

Another batch of "expert" workmen, numbering fifteen, arrived by C.P.R. yesterday from Michigan, and went north to work in Howrie & Sons saw mills, Fenelon Falls or on their limits. Of course this means that fifteen more Canadian workmen will be deprived of the employment which they should receive; and of course the Empire and Review will say that these workmen are "experts," and that the mills could not be run without them. In all conscience, now, does it require between thirty or forty experts to run one saw mill?

It may require that number of Yankee experts, but four or five Canuck experts could keep any saw mill in the country running. If a Canadian bootblack should cross the lines and ply his trade he would be put in jail in short order. Yet our Dominion Government allows the American workmen to come over by scores and their organs like the Empire and Review, welcome them with open arms as "settlers"—settlers who never will become citizens, but rather raise the American flag on Canadian national holidays, celebrate the Fourth of July and "rejoice" over a condition of things that robs Canadian workmen of employment.

ORILLIA EXCURSIONISTS IN TOWN.

Four Hundred and Fifty Orillians Invade the Town.

A special train at 11:30 to-day brought the excursion of Branch 57, C. M. B. A., Orillia, Mr. J. Thompson, President, and twenty members of Brechin Branch to town. At the station the excursionists were met by members of the local Branch, No. 30. The Citizens Band of Orillia under Bandmaster Gibbons which accompanied the visitors played them up town to the C.P.R. hotel, where Mr. Overend, formerly of Orillia, received them. This afternoon the visitors are taking in the sights of the town, being driven about town by the local branch. Rev. Fathers Duffy, of Orillia, and McGuire, of Bracebridge, also accompanied the excursionists, as well as a team of Orillia's lacrosse club, who are playing with a local twelve this afternoon. The visitors will leave this evening about 6:30.

MAINTAINED ITS LEAD.

The 57th Made a High Score on Saturday —Leading Teams.

The Ottawa Citizen states that the first team of the 57th Battalion made 890 in its shoot in the Military Rifle League on Saturday. As they were second in the three previous shoots, with 30 less than the Hespeler Rifle Association, and the latter only made 890 on Saturday, the 57th therefore lead all other ten men teams in the league. The 57th's total for the four shoots is 3,490, made up as follows:—1st shoot, 851, 2nd 883, 3rd 830, 4th 890. The latter score is the highest but one made in the league this year. Hespeler R.C. made 917.

ANOTHER LETTER.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I noticed in THE EXAMINER of July 23rd, a paragraph over the signature of Thomas Osborne. Mr. Osborne contends that he did not speak in a detrimental manner of Chemong Park hotel, which I am prepared to prove he did and also that he insisted on certain tourists who were en route for Chemong Park, to go to Jacob's Island instead.

Yours respectfully,
R. N. SCOTT,

A THRIVING FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.

In another place will be found the report of the fourth annual meeting of the Dominion Building and Loan Association, held in Toronto on Wednesday. The statement presents a record which would be a high credit to any financial institution. The last year's receipts amounted to $570,489.70 and the earnings reach the respectable figures of $183,440, which is a splendid showing, considering the stringency that has prevailed in commercial circles the past year. The clear and concise address of the president indicates the stability of the Association, the nature of its operations and the popularity it enjoys with the earning classes as a medium of investment. Congratulations are due the directors on the excellent standing and earnings of the Association, showing that the confidence of the shareholders has not been misplaced. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., was re-elected President; Mr. T. P. Coffee, of Guelph, Vice-President; Mr. F. M. Holland, General Manager, and Mr. John McQuillan, Treasurer and Field Manager.

A CASE OF SMALL-POX.

It Breaks Out in the Township of Chatham—The Patient a Detroit Woman.

(Chatham Planet, July 24th.)

Smallpox has developed in the outskirts—Chatham township. The health officers were on the alert, and the case is being handled with skill and every precaution. There is no likelihood of the outbreak spreading. Nearly a week ago Mrs. James Whatmough, of Detroit, and her three children, came on a visit to this city and have been since staying at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Louis Bates, Taylor Ave., a considerable distance in the township of Chatham. Several days ago the lady visitor complained of feeling ill, and yesterday a physician was summoned. He immediately detected symptoms of smallpox and directed that the patient be isolated, awaiting developments. This morning he again visited the patient and found that the case had fully developed as small-pox of a most viruldet type, the rash having already broken out. Immediate steps were taken. Dr. Rutherford, the medical health officer, for Chatham township, being out of town, Dr. Hall was notified, and the case will probably be placed in Dr. Charteris' hands till the return of Dr. Rutherford. A Planet reporter this morning had an interview with the attending physician. "There is no doubt as to the case being small-pox," he said, "although the steps taken will do away, I believe, with any danger of its spreading. The regular characteristics have fully developed and the case is a serious one, although the patient is in a good healthy condition. The woman's husband is an employee of the white-lead works, Detroit.

[There was no outbreak of small pox near Chatham, yet from Detroit, over a hundred miles distant, the disease is introduced into that town. The report states that there is no danger of the disease spreading, but any person can fancy that the people of Chatham would very much prefer that the patient were elsewhere. The incident shows the necessity of public protection from small pox. The Detroit woman had no idea that she had been exposed to small pox or she would not have gone on a prolonged visit, and the people with whom she was a guest had no such idea or they would not have received her. If her hosts have been vaccinated they can regard the exposure to which they have been subjected with comparative indifference. If they do take small-pox it will be of such a mild form as to constitute only a trifling ailment. This incident shows that distance in these days of rapid and universal travel is no protection against the disease. There is no assurance that some other Detroiter, who may have been exposed, like the Chatham visitor, to small-pox, may not come to Poterborough to visit friends; yet our Board of Health and Health authorities seem to think that because there is not a case of small-pox in Auburn or Ashburnham there is no necessity for any action in the direction of general vaccination. If those who have the responsibity in such matters can sleep, they may sleep on, perhaps, till there is a rude awakening.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

The President on behalf of the Board of Directors said:—

GENTLEMEN,—Your directors have pleasure in submitting their fourth annual report, because it affords grounds for congratulating you upon the progress of the past year and upon the evidences afforded of the healthy condition of the Company's affairs. You will be pleased to learn that, in the face of a period of unusual financial stringency, the operations of the past year show a large increase in the volume of business transacted, which fully meets the expectations formed at the beginning of the year. The amount of stock in force also shows a very gratifying increase, and the outlook for the coming year is most encouraging.

The Mortgage account shows a general increase to the extent of $120,519,75, the amount on April 30th 1893 being $376,408,87; and on April 30th 1894, $497,018,62.

It is gratifying to note that the economical management that has marked the past year's operations, permits of the transfer of nearly $2,500, from Expense Account to Profit and Loss, a circumstance that will permit the more rapid maturing of stock; and it is also a source of gratification to be able to state that although the sum of $7,000 has been set aside as a nucleus of a Contingent Fund, the surplus added to previous profits, yields a fraction over 12 per cent., compounded yearly, on the Loan Fund, from the beginning of each series of stock, or in other words from the date of investment

There is also, we are pleased to be able to say, a continued increase in the amount of prepaid stock in force, notwithstanding the fact that after August last year your Directors deemed it advisable to decline the withdrawal privilege to purchasers of prepaid stock, all prepaid stock being sold on the distinct understanding that it could not be withdrawn until maturity. This feature undoubtedly adds to the stability of the Association, and tends to beget the confidence of the investing public and consequently adds to the popularity of our Association as a stable investing medium.

Your directors have to report an unprecedented demand upon the loan fund of the Association during the year, a further evidence of the adaptability of our system of doing business to the wants of the public. Our local boards are one important element of our popularity in bringing the public who have dealings with the Association in personal contact with officials in localities where the company does business.

We might be permitted to refer to the satisfactory results of the visit of Mr. J. MacQuillan, our Treasurer and Field Manager, to the Local Boards between North Bay and the Pacific Coast since our meeting one year ago. A strict examination was made into the nature of the loans and their character, with the most gratifying results in the way of evidence of the care exercised by Local Boards and their agents. Similar gratifying results followed a similar investigation by Mr. Wm. Findlay, our travelling representative, into the work of the Local Boards in the Province of Ontario.

A further reduction in the expenses of management has been affected since the last general meeting by the reduction in the number of Directors upon the Board from nine to six.

The extension of the area of operation of the Association is shown by the formation of new Boards in hitherto unoccupied districts, while the interest manifested by the officials of the local Boards already in existence in the promotion of the welfare of our Association in a large degree accounts for the success that has attended its work.

The Auditors deserve special mention for the faithful and able manner in which they have discharged their duties and their certificate of the correctness of the records, of the list of securities and of the annual statement will be found in the latter.

PRESIDENT'S REMARKS ON REPORT.

With such a report to deal with I have great pleasure in moving its adoption. In doing so I feel that I can add very little to the gratifying facts it presents. That the fourth annual report should show such a satisfactory increase in all respects, among which it may be submitted assets of over half a million dollars as not the least prominent, is a practical proof that the principles upon which the Dominion Building and Loan Association are founded are sound, and that investors of comparatively moderate means have in our Association an institution that meets their condition, commands their confidence, and secures their patronage. And as time goes on and these advantages are more impressed upon the public mind, our Association will receive increased confidence at the hands of the public; and it will indicate in no sense an over-sanguine temperament to predict, that the great success of the first four years will be bettered yearly as the time goes on. With the basis of correct and sound economic principles, with the advantages of these principles practically applied under economical and careful management, I see no reason why such a forecast should not be realized. Therefore, it gives me much pleasure to move the adoption of the report.

SECONDING ADOPTION OF REPORT.

The Vice-President, Mr. T. P. Coffee, said:—Gentlemen, In rising to second the motion for the adoption of the report, I feel that I can add but little to what has been said by the mover or to what is contained in the report to which we have all listened with so much gratification. There has been a substantial advance which is remarkable for a financial institution that has not finished the first half of a decade of existence. This has been achieved in the face of keen competition of concerns of similar character and greater age, in the face of great financial depression, and with an economy of expenditure in the matter of management, which, combined, demonstrates the strength of our association to a degree that to my mind justifies the prediction as to our future progress made by the mover of the motion. With a report that speaks so eloquently for itself I feel that it is unnecessary for me to make any further remarks. I second the motion for the adoption of the report with great pleasure.

Mr. D. W. Karn, of Woodstock, piano and organ manufacturer, said:—As a director of the association he felt gratified with its prosperous and substantial condition as evidenced by the highly favourable report which was presented. There was evidence of sound finances, careful management and satisfactory returns, such as commended themselves very strongly to himself as a practical man of business. Sound principles underlying the association, conjoined with a management that brought good results and won public confidence, were certificates of character that would help the Dominion Building and Loan Association make its way in the world in the first rank of financial institutions. He supported the motion heartily.

After other shareholders had approvingly referred to the report and the progress of the business of the association it was unanimously adopted.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.

The following gentlemen were re-elected as directors for the ensuing year:—

J. R. Stratton, Esq., M. P. P., Peterborough.

D. W. Karn, Esq., organ and piano manufacturer, Woodstock.

C. Kloepfer, Esq., wholesale carriage hardware merchant, Guelph.

J. E. Neville, Esq., druggist, Berlin.

Dr. J. M. Lefevre, Vancouver, B. C.

Thomas P. Coffee, Esq., barrister, Guelph.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors the following officers were elected.

President—J. R. Stratton, Esq., M. P. P. Peterborough.

Vice-President—Thomas P. Coffee, Esq., barrister, Guelph.

Executive Committee—The President, Vice-President and D. W. Karn, Esq.

General Manager—F. M. Holland.

Treasurer and Field Manager—John MacQuillan.

THANKS.

A resolution was then adopted expressing the thanks of the shareholders to the President, Board of Directors and the officials of the association for the efficient services during the year.

The other general business of the Association, of which due notice had been given the shareholders, was then approved.

ANOTHER RESIDENCE BURGLARIZED.

The Residence of Mr. C. Braund Visited by the Midnight Marauders Tramps Seen in the Vicinity.

Tuesday evening a burglar or burglars visited the residence and grocery of Mr. C. Braund, corner of Park and Albert streets. By raising a window in the lower portion of the building the tramps were able to gain entrance into the house. A tallow candle was lighted and brought into use and the crooks began to help themselves to some eatables—a remarkable cool trick for strangers. After satisfying their appetite they next endeavoured to satisfy their evil propensities and immediately began to ascend the stairs, passing the bedroom of Mr. Braund in their movements. Here they espied a writing desk which contained some family papers. In the morning Mr. Braund, who had slept through it all, noticed the drippings from the candle on the floor, and his suspicion was immediately aroused, but up to the present only the writing desk and contents are missing.

The residents in this part of the town are greatly excited and annoyed by a number of male gentry who are hovering around the vicinity of the circus green and cattle pen, and it is believed they are the same parties who are committing the robberies. A visit of the police would result in ridding the town of these unwelcome citizens.

BIG FIRE IN MONTREAL.

A Whole Block Destroyed by Fire—Firemen Have a Narrow Escape.

MONTREAL, July 26.—One of the fiercest and most destructive of fires for the area attacked broke out on the premises of Messrs. G. H. Labbe & Co., St. James street.

G. H. Labbe & Co. are wholesale furniture dealers and have a large block on the street, which extends through to Inspector street, and is occupied as a store and workshop. In the basement of the store a quantity of tow was kept, and this was found in a blaze about one o'clock.

Owing to the inflammable nature of the material stored upon the premises the fire made alarming progress, and had soon covered almost the whole area occupied by Labbe's premises. The excitement amongst the crowds of people who blocked up the roadway was intense.

Then the period of greatest excitement, a sound of breaking glass was heard and flames were seen pouring out of Labbe's premises, adjoining the residences 127 and 129 Inspector street. After a little delay a ladder was run up and half a dozen firemen perched precariously on the not too old roof and directed two streams of water on the flames. The red flames leaped on high and scorched the gallant men whose lives were seen to be hanging by a thread, for the heart of the fire was incandescent and water seemed a vain foe. A moment later and then a cry of horror arose and filled the street. A sound of rending and tearing fell on the ears and a loud crash followed, with a cloud of dust sweeping through the smoke and all knew that the building had collapsed. Many reported that several firemen were underneath the ruins. This proved, happily, not to be true, but two priests were sent from the Archbishop's Palace to be in readiness to administer the last rites.

When the smoke and dust cleared away the firemen were found clinging to the roof and it was said that only one had been injured. The premises were totally destroyed.

The premises on St. James street were the property of J. B. Murphy, of Kingston, and were valued at $50,000. The four-storey building facing Inspector street was the property of Labbe & Co. and valued at about $75,000. The whole stock was valued at $70,000. Labbe & Co. were insured for $40,000.

Double Drowning Accident at Moncton.

MONCTON, N.B., July 26.—Burques' mill pond at Fox Creek, about four and a half miles from here, was yesterday the scene of a dual drowning accident. Two young lads, aged 15 and 17 years, sons of Charles T. and Mark Leblanc, went in swimming. Neither were able to swim and the younger one getting beyond his death sank. On his first appearance on the surface he yelled to his companion, who, although unable to swim, leaped to his rescue. The drowning lad locked his arms around his companion and both struggled for a moment and then sank within full view of several of their companions on the bank. The bodies were recovered shortly after, but life was extinct.

Theackston Gets a Heavy Sentence.

WINDSOR, July 26.—Alfred Theackston, alias Thackaray, who married a Miss Renaud, of Detroit, a few months ago in this city and got $900 and some jewellery from her, was brought into the police court for sentence yesterday. Theackston pleaded for mercy, claiming he was under the influence of liquor when he married the girl and that he was formerly a respectable and a responsible business man in Toronto, but drink ruined him and it was impossible for him to restore anything, as he had not got it to restore. Magistrate Bartlett sentenced Theackston to serve six years in the Kingston penitentiary.

Crops in Nova Scotia.

HALIFAX, July 26.—Nova Scotia crop reports for July show a highly and satisfactory outlook for harvest prospects in this province. The hay crop on the uplands is 111 per cent., or 11 per cent. above full crop on intervals. Hay is 19, or 1 per cent. above and on dyke lands 106, or 6 per cent. above average. Last year hay was but 75 per cent., or 25 per cent. below average. It is early for reliable data about fruit, but the prospect of the trees is excellent. The potato crop is 99 per cent. or 1 below full average. While the oat crop is 101, or 1 per cent. above.

Protest in South Renfrew.

TORONTO, July 26.—A protest has been entered against the election of Robert Campbell, member-elect for Renfrew South, The charges are the usual ones of bribery and corruption, and are entered by Beck & Code, agents for McIntyre, Code & Orde, of Ottawa, on behalf of their client, Thomas Harvey. Campbell is a Liberal and ran against a Liberal, Dr. Dowling, the member of the House during the last four years. The doctor was beaten by 231 votes. One of his friends has entered the protest.

"This is not a woman's sphere," remarked the lady baseball player at shortstop, as she got out of the way of a red hot liner.

Seward—Were you aware that Noah understood all about electricity? Baldwin—No; did he? Seward—Most assuredly; he made the arc light on Ararat."

Powell—Do you always agree with your wife when she makes an assertion?" Jefferson—Why, of course I don't! You don't think I would deprive her of every amusement, do you?"

"What is the difference between a train robber and a Pullman porter?" "None that I ever could discover." "Oh, yes there is. One yells hands up and the other murmurs and puts both hands out".—Brooklyn Life.

THE SPORTS.

Owing to the extension of deer forests in Scotland golden eagles and wildcats are on the increase in that country.

A London bicyclist completed, the last of May, a bicycle ride from London to Constantinople, which he began early last March.

A deer hunt, with a comical termination, was lately witnessed in Meath, Ireland. The game, being hotly pressed, plunged into the sea and swam to an island a mile distant.

THE STEWART CASE.

Mr. Stewart Pays a Visit to Pictou—Congratulated by His Many Friends on His Restoration to Health.

PICTOU, N.S., July 16.—Good news sometimes travels as fast as bad news, which is proverbially fast. Many people here knew that Mr. Allan Stewart, of Springton, P.E.I., had been for many years afflicted with kidney disease and gravel. It was known, too, that last year he was so bad that public opinion put him down as likely to die soon. Mr. Stewart fooled public opinion though, for he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills and ten boxes of them completely cured him. When he paid a flying visit to this city a few days ago, he received many hearty congratulations on restoration to health and improved appearance. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to cure in this part of the Dominion.

SHILOH'S CURE is sold on a guarantee It cures Incipient Consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a dose; 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Geo. A. Schofield

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

It is a favorite fad just now to cover a book with a scrap of brocaded silk, sometimes padding it with a layer of cotton wadding underneath. Two ribbons are attached to opposite sides by which to tie it together, and a dainty gift is formed which is inexpensive but rich in appearance.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A FORMER PETERBOROUGH RESIDENT.

Mr. J. Murray Smith Dies Suddenly of Heart Disease – Thirty-three Years Connected with the Bank of Toronto.

Mr. J. Murray Smith, manager of the Montreal branch of the Bank of Toronto, died suddenly at his country residence at Beaurepaire, Lake St. Louis, on Wednesday. Mr. Smith, who will be well remembered by many of the older residents of Peterborough was born in Dufftown, Banffshire, Scotland, and was fifty-seven years of age. He came to Canada while quite young, and entered the Merchants' Bank. Leaving this, he was appointed to the staff of the Bank of Toronto, and soon became manager of the Peterborough branch. For thirty-three years he had been connected with the Bank of Toronto, and had become one of its most trusted servants. He was an energetic, careful and conservative business man, and an official upon whom the management relied with the greatest confidence, and in whom the institution loses an officer it will be difficult to replace. Mr. Smith was for the past fifteen years a director of the Young Men's Christian Association. He has been previously in the Peterborough association and coming to this city was immediately elected a member of the Board of Directors. He was also president for the term of 1884 86. He was always thoughtful and attentive to the interests of the association and was one of its most respected members. Mr. Smith has been president of the Presbyterian Sunday School Association of Montreal since 1886, since which time it has grown to twenty-five schools, with 5,000 teachers and scholars. One of his duties was to visit the schools in the association and give them the benefit of his counsel and advice. At St. Paul's church Mr. Smith has been an active member during the last fifteen years. He took an interest in all the affairs of the congregation, and attended all the regular meetings. He was for some years superintendent of the Sunday School.

The remains were on Thursday removed from his country residence, where he died, to his city house. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon.

A Museum Episode.—Manager—What's the row in the dining-room? Waiter—The Two Headed Wonder has got all tangled up eating macaroni.

Deceit.—Jackson—You keep a private cash account, don't you? Currie—Yes. It is the only means by which I can conceal from my wife the amount of my expenditures."

Death of Major Draper of Toronto.

TORONTO, July 26.—Major Draper, formerly Chief Constable of Toronto, died yesterday at his apartments at 100 St. Patrick street. Asthma was the immediate cause of death, though the major had been in poor health for years past. Major Draper was a son of Chief Justice Draper, and was born at the family residence at the corner of Wellington and York streets in March, 1837. He studied law in his early days, and after being called to the bar practised his profession in Kingston for some years.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

Port Hope defeated Lindsay yesterday in a score of 4 to 1.

The junior Ontario's defeated the junior Lindsay's yesterday in the latter town, 2 to 0.

In the lacrosse notes of Wednesday in reference to the match at Perth it was stated that "both teams were strengthened by outside players." In this the sporting editor was misinformed. He was led to believe by one who was present that at least three outside players took part in the match. In justice to the club it may be mentioned that all who played were bona fide members of the team, with the exception of Jennings. The remarks regarding the importation of players, though their local application based on incorrect information, is to be regretted, will of course be concurred in by all lovers of the game. It has always been the claim of the Peterboroughs that they play nothing but purely local men in their matches and have endeavoured to keep the national game from being lowered into the line of other athletic organizations where "Pinkertonism" plays an important part. And if the home club fails to win a majority of the matches played this season it is because local players have played against outside teams composed principally of "ringers." If the lovers of sport in town would only take that practical interest in the boys displayed by other towns half the size of Peterborough the players would then be able to give a good account of themselves.

The Port Hope Times in its notes on the recent baseball match, between Port Hope and Cobourg, says: "It is a disgrace that in a town in which eminent judges sit so frequently and charge the juries to give impartial decisions, that some of the citizens seem imcapable of cultivating a sense of justice and British fair play." In the same issue the Times prints an article on the Toronto protest against Tansey and Kelly of the Shamrocks. If the Times wishes to display the deep interest which it professes to have in lacrosse and "cultivate a sense of justice and British fair play," it would come out with a comment on the protest, as it is in a position to make a statement which would have some influence in getting Toronto out of the muddle in which it is placed. But the Times is silent on this point, also Mr. Patterson, the managers of the Ontario, who could, if he wished, end all talk of a protest to a certain extent. Let yourself be heard this time, Mr. Patterson, for you are not particularly quiet on other occasions.

A commercial traveller from the lower provinces who was in Perth on Tuesday and witnessed the match between Perth and the home club states that he was surprised at the pretty exhibition of the national game Peterborough put up on that occasion. He witnessed the Toronto-Shamrock match at Montreal, Saturday, and says that the combination work of the home club could equal that of the two professional teams. He was very bitter in his denunciation of the rough treatment the boys received at the hands of Perth.

It is expected Cannington and the Junior Peterboroughs will cross sticks at an early date.

The Granites and Dukes will play for the Junior championship of the town on Monday evening, July 30th at 4:30 o'clock.

Orillia defeated Bradford yesterday by a score of four to three.

BASEBALL.

Lindsay will play Peterborough baseball on August 4th.

The Cobourg baseball team is trying to make arrangements for a trip through Eastern Ontario and New York state. The secretary has written the Athletics of Kingston asking for a game.—News.

"Dan" McCabe received word to-day that the Maroons, of Toronto, will be here for a certainty on July 13th.

Dr. Fairbanks, president of the Cobourg Baseball club, has given President Ward and Secretary Davis notice protesting the game between Cobourg and Port Hope in the latter town on July 20th. Port Hope won the game by 5 to 4. The charges against Port Hope are playing two outsiders, that the Port Hope catcher played with another club in the same league a short time previous to July 20th, and that an effort was made to induce the Cobourg catcher to throw the game by offering him money. Port Hope succeeded in preventing Peterborough and Lindsay from entering the league on the grounds that they played poor ball last year, but Port Hope may be kicked out soon for ungentlemanly and unprofessional practices. What sort of a cheer will Manager Hawley send up then.

CRICKET.

Following are the names of the East Toronto players who play the local cricket team to-morrow: J. D. LeRoy, F. J. Berry, J. Thompson, C. Attewell, C. Hopkins, Dr. G. M. Terris, A. Van Dyke, A. F. Hatch, W. Creekton, E. Smith, C. Maddocks; J. Sydner, spare, and A. Mitchell umpire. The game commences at 11 o'clock sharp and as this will be one of the best matches of the season, the committee would like to see it well patronized. A small admission of 10 cents will be charged for gentlemen, while ladies and members of the club willl be admitted free.

East Toronto defeated Belleville yesterday at cricket by an innings and fifteen runs.

CRUELTY IN A REFORMATORY.

Investigation at Elmira, N.Y., Into the Charges Against Brockway.

ELMIRA, N.Y., July 24.—Investigation of the charges of cruelty against Superintendent Brockway, of the Elmira reformatory, was continued yesterday. One of the witnesses, a former inmate of the institution, testified that Brockway "paddled" him several times. "He paddled me," said the witness, "till the blood ran down my legs." Conway has been in a bad way physically, having had trouble with his kidneys, which resulted in an operation being performed upon him at Bellevue hospital, New York.

After being paddled the old trouble returned and Conway states that it was brought on again by the bathroom treatment. "When I was up to the hospital I asked Dr. Wey why he let Brockway paddle me in the condition I was in. He said I must not mind a thing like that; it would give me a good appetite for breakfast."

"The following Wednesday I was paddled again. After the beating I was sent out to the shop, where I fainted. Then I had hemorrhage. The floor was all covered with blood. When Dr. Wey came in the next day he said it looked like a slaughter house."

There was considerable disturbance between counsel engaged in the examination, which reached a climax when Judge Gilbert, for the prosecution, addressed Mr. Ivins, of the defence, and said: "Mr. Ivins, I think you are the most infamous scoundrel I have met."

The French Anarchist Bill.

PARIS, July 26.—The debate on the anti-anarchist bill was continued in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. Article five, inflicting the penalty of fine and imprisonment for publishing reports of anarchist trials, was adopted. The sixth article of the bill, providing that those sections of the penal code which concede extenuating circumstances be applicable to the preceding articles was passed unanimously. M. Burdeau, president of the Chamber, intervened last evening to prevent the duel between M. Jourdan and ex-Minister Rouvier. He persuaded M. Jourdan to withdraw the insult which he gave during the debate and undoubtedly this will satisfy M. Rouvier.

Smashed Pullman's Windows.

CHICAGO, July 26.—About a dozen large plate glass windows in the residence of George M. Pullman at the corner of Prairie avenue and 18th street were smashed with stones thrown by Simon Riskins, a Russian and an anarchist, yesterday. When questioned he delivered himself of curses against the United States Government and Geo. M. Pullman. He said Pullman had thrown him out of work and that this was not the last Pullman would see of him. Later he admitted he was a tailor and said he had not been working for a year. Reskins was taken before Justice Foster and bound over to the criminal court in $300 bail. The prisoner could not furnish the bonds and was jailed.

Debs and His Associates at Liberty.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Messrs. Debs, Howard, Keliher and Rogers, of the A. R. U., are at liberty under bail pending the hearing of the various cases against them. They were yesterday required to give $7,000 bonds each, covering five new indictments, in addition to the contempt cases brought by the government and the Santa Fe railroad. The hearing of the contempt cases was adjourned until September 5 and it is the purpose of the defendants' attorneys to force a hearing on the indictments before the contempt cases are again called.

A Boy's Sad Mistake.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 26. — John Collins, a gardner, residing in the outskirts of Cunningham, thought he heard thieves in his garden, and with his daughter Maggie, 16 years old, went out to investigate. The closing of the door awoke Mrs. Collins who aroused her son Willie, telling him burglars were trying to get in. The boy got a Winchester, and going out mistook his father and sister for burglars and shot them both. The father will die; the girl was seriously injured.

Mr. Gladstone's Eyesight.

His other is troubled with an immature cataract, but he can still, aided by the application of a solution of atropine, see to write and to read good print moderately well. His general health is good and his vigor remarkable.

Bishops Displeased With the Vatican.

LONDON, July 26.—The Standard's Rome correspondent says: "The Pope is much disquieted by the letters he received from Polish Bishops, who refuse to submit to Russia as the condition of their communicating directly with the Vatican. The bishops protest strongly against the Vatican's action to obtain diplomatic relations with Russia."

AMERICAN TARIFF BILL

Villas Subserves Personal Interests to the Good of His Party.

HE EULOGIZES THE PRESIDENT

The Nevada Populist Compares Grover Cleveland With the Unfortunate Charles I.—The Senate Adjourns Without Any Decision Being Reached.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—It was late when the Senate took up the question of agreeing to a further conference on the tariff bill. During the two hours that constitute what is technically known as "the morning hour" Senators had bills taken from the calendar and considered by unanimous consent and about 20 of them were passed, none of much public interest.

Then the house message asking for a further conference was taken up and Mr. Villas (Dem., Wis.) addressed the Senate in a two-hour speech, delivered off-hand, and with much oratorical effect. His speech was highly eulogistic of President Cleveland, whom he defended from the charges of duplicity and of improper interference with legislation made by Senator Gorman in his speech of Monday. He spoke of Mr. Cleveland as "the great first citizen of the republic and as the representative of the national honor." And he declared, with solemnity and vehemence, that to insult him was to affront every good citizen, and that to stab him was to sting the heart of every true American.

In conclusion, he withdrew his motion of Friday to strike out the additional discriminating duty of 4c a pound on sugar and favored Mr. Gray's motion to insist and to consent to further conference. He did this, he said, because he was a strict party man and desired to be in accord with his Democratic brethren. And he expressed the hope that out of the conference would come a measure far better than that which had already passed the Senate.

Mr. Vilas was followed by Mr. Stewart (Pop., Nev.), who criticized the President's letter as an invasion of the executive power such as had cost Charles I. his head.

At the close of the debate the vote was taken on Mr. Hill's motion to recede from the duty of 40c. a ton on iron ore and on coal. There were only six votes, including his own, cast in favor of it, as against 65 in the negative. Then Mr. Caffery (Dem., La.,) withdrew his motion in favor of a modified sugar bounty for 1894. Mr. Quay had already withdrawn his motion to have sugar put on the free list, and the only question left was Mr. Gray's motion to insist and to agree to the further conference asked by the House.

As the vote was about to be taken, Mr. Vilas' motion to recede from the one-eighth cent a pound discriminating duty on sugar was renewed by Mr. Washburn (Rep., Minn.,). A point of order was made against it, and that point was decided, without a conclusion being reached when the Senate adjourned.

The Law Barring Canadians.

The sub-committee of the House Committee on Immigration and Naturalization having charge of the bill of Mr. Lockwood (N.Y.) for the protection of American labor and enforcement of the law of domicile, reported it to the full committee favorably. The bill forbids entrance into the United States of subjects of the Dominion of Canada or Mexico whose purpose is to perform labor service of any kind and makes violations of this provision punishable by a fine of $100 or imprisonment for 90 days.

A Drain on the Treasury.

The treasury lost yesterday $2,300,000 in gold, including $2,200,000 at New York and $100,000 at Boston for export. This drain on the gold reserve reduced it to $58,050,000, the lowest point ever reached.

Underground Trolley Lines.

The question whether or not an underground trolley is a commercially practicable and successful method of propulsion for street car service would be determined on an extensive scale in the national capital. A bill to authorize one of the street car systems in this city to extend its lines and change its motive power has passed both branches of Congress. It requires the company to equip and operate its lines with an underground electric system within a period of two years, under a heavy penalty for failure. It was stated in debate that this was one of the most important measures ever passed by Congress, as the demonstration that the underground system can be successfully operated will compel a change of power of thousands of miles of electric roads in the United States.

The Petrel After Illegal Fishers.

DUNKIRK, N.Y., July 27.—Considerable anxiety is felt here over the non appearance of the fishing tugs Puritan and Staube at their docks. It is reported that they were seized by the Canadian authorities while raising their nets on the other side. The tug Hope came in yesterday and reported that the Puritan, Captain Driggs, was pursued by the Canadian vessel Petrel. The Puritan is a fast and reliable vessel and has plenty of fuel aboard. If the Canadian boat does not best her she will probably make this port before midnight. Nothing can be heard from the Staube and it is feared that she is tied up on the Canadian shores.

Trolley Car Stables Destroyed.

NEWARK, N.J., July 27.—The Bloomfield car stables were burned yesterday. Six trolley cars were destroyed. Three firemen were injured, two fatally, while taking 75 horses out of the stables.

CANADIANS AT LONDON

Delegates Attend the Meeting of the Imperial Federation League.

COLONEL DENISON IS THERE

He Argues That Peace is Maintained by Means of Britain's Navy and Canada's Millions, and Urges Preferential Tariffs Between Britain and Her Colonies.

LONDON, July 27.—Sir John Lubbock presided in the London Chamber of Commerce last evening over a meeting of the city branch of the Imperial Federation League. He welcomed the Canadian delegates heartily.

Col. Denison, of Toronto, spoke of the importance of maintaining the unity of the Empire. Canada, he said, was absolutely true to England and would resolutely fight against any movement to annex her to the United States. Great enmity was felt in the United States towards England. Only the better educated and higher classes there were friendly toward England. The peace was maintained only through fear of the British navy and 5,000,000 Canadians. In the event of France and Russia combining the United States would join them. This emphasized the necessity of federation. Canada was prepared to make great sacrifices for this, but she expected help from England. In conclusion Mr. Denison urged a system of preferential tariffs between Great Britain and her colonies.

The motion of Sir F. Young to appoint a committee to consider the best course to pursue was carried against some opposition.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Cheating the Mails Gradually Being Stamped Out—Pacific Quarantine.

OTTAWA, July 27.—Post-office Inspector Hawken states that since fines have been imposed for the concealment of letters in mail packages and newspapers for transmission through the mails this practice has been steadily falling off.

Dr. Selwyn, director of the geological survey, left to-day for Athabasca Landing, N.W.T., as the representative of the Government to locate a suitable boring for petroleum. He will travel via Calgary and Edmonton and will be absent some weeks.

In reference to the scourge at present ravaging China, Mr. Lowe, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, states that our quarantine arrangements on the Pacific are perfect and will effectually prevent the introduction of the plague into Canada. He said the Dominion need have no fear on account of the outbreak of cholera in Russia, because our quarantine station at Grosse Island is the best on the continent.

Summing it up Mr. Larke finds that there will be at least 1,163 World's Fair medals to be distributed among Canadian exhibitors. In all 2,350 prizes were won by Canadians, but in the case of cattle and sheep the prizes were mostly cash. The total of the premiums won by exhibitors of live stock from the Dominion was $21,600. The prizes will be distributed about the end of September.

May Now Fly the Royal Ensign.

MONTREAL, July 27.—The St. Lawrence Yacht Club has received permission to use the title Royal. The distinction is one which all yachtsmen may be proud of, for it is not given to all to enjoy it. It is no mere assumption on the part of the members of the club, for the authorization has been received from the Queen through the Colonial office and the club will now fly the blue ensign in place of the red. The only other Royal Clubs on this continent are the Royal Canadian, of Toronto, and the Royal Hamilton, of Hamilton. The members of the Royal St. Lawrence are naturally pleased at the honor done them and at an early date the event will be celebrated in fitting style.

Warden Stephenson's Disappearance.

TORONTO, July 27.—Donald G. Stephenson, of East Toronto, warden of the county of York, who left for Orillia on the 16th, saying he had some business to attend to in that town has not yet been heard of. As far as known his assets and liabilities are about even. A good deal of surprise is expressed at the disappearance of Mr. Stephenson, as had he been known to be in difficulties there are many who would have come to his assistance.

An Unknown Man Dies at Bolton.

BOLTON, Ont., July 27.—An unknown man died here suddenly last night. Papers on his person go to show that his name is Abe Patterson, hailing from Wiarton. Whether he came to town to take the train to Owen Sound or got off the evening train is unknown. He is an old man of about between 65 and 70 years. Quite a sum of money was found on him. The body is now at an undertakers awaiting claimants' disposition.

Protest in West Lambton.

TORONTO, July 27.—A protest was entered yesterday against A. T. Gurd, the P.P.A. member-elect for West Lambton. An elector named Leys is the petitioner, and the usual charges are made. The fact that Mr. Gurd was elected as the candidate of the P.P.A. is considered in the protest. It is claimed that as the P.P.A. is a secret society Mr. Gurd is responsible for the act of each individual member.

Body Found at the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 27.—Yesterday the body of a man was taken from the river at Port Day. It has been removed to the morgue and is unidentified. The man is about 45 years old, with iron grey beard and hair, dressed in a black suit, sack coat. He was apparently in good circumstances.

Seriously Injured by a Trolley.

TORONTO, July 27.—A man named John Dineen was struck by a Queen street car yesterday. He was thrown violently to the ground, and his scalp was literally torn from his head and he was otherwise seriously hurt. He now lies in a precarious condition.

WAR IN THE ORIENT

A Despatch From Shanghai Says it Has Been Declared.

THE COREAN KING A PRISONER

He is Seized and Held by the Japanese—Chinese Steamers Prevented From Landing Others, Manned by Coolies, On Their Way to the Scene.

LONDON, July 27.—The Central News has this despatch from Shanghai: "War has been declared between Japan and China. The Japanese have seized the King of Corea and hold him prisoner. Eleven Chinese steamers are on their way to Corea. Most of the troops aboard them are Coolies armed with bows and arrows. Some Chinese steamers which have arrived at Corea have been prevented by the Japanese from landing troops. It is reported that the Japanese artillery sunk several of them.

LONDON, July 26.—The Japanese and Chinese officials have received many despatches from their home government. While declining to say much of the tenor of these despatches, the officials state that the prospect of an agreement between China and Japan remains satisfactory.

Raising Funds for Japan.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—A meeting of the committees representing Japanese residents was held at the Japanese consulate last night and it was decided to make immediate efforts to raise $10,000 to assist their government in carrying on its war with China. The San Francisco Japanese are prepared to form a brigade, arm them with American rifles and go to Japan at their own expense.

PENAL SERVITUDE FOR LIFE.

Meunier, the Hunchback Anarchist, Sentenced at Paris.

PARIS, July 27.—Meunier, the hunchbacked anarchist, was placed on trial yesterday for having blown up the Cafe Very in the spring of 1892. Meunier is supposed to have blown up the cafe to avenge Ravachol, who had been arrested there by the police with the aid of M. Very, the proprietor, and L'Herot, the waiter. Neither Very nor L'Herot was able to identify Meunier, but there was damaging evidence against the prisoner.

Meunier was found guilty and sentenced to penal servitude for life. He had evidently prepared himself for the death sentence and after the judge ceased speaking shouted tragically: "Courage, comrades, this state of society cannot last long. Death to tyrants, long live anarchy."

Emin Pasha's Assassin Found Guilty.

BRUSSELS, July 27.—Commander Baron Dhanis, of the Belgian troops in the Congo State has reported that the Arabs Ismaila, Mamba and Conga have been found guilty by court-martial of having murdered Emin Pasha. Chief Msercra and his son Amici, who are accused of having murdered the explorer Hodister in 1892, and Kitma and Ntambwe, who are charged with conniving at the assassination of Emin, have been captured. Others implicated in plots against European explorers have been detained.

LONDON, July 27.—The Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent says after communicating with M. Guerin, M. Breuillac has decided to prohibit the publication of the proceedings in Santo Cesario's trial. He will allow the indictment, verdict and sentence only to be printed. Existing laws empower him to give such orders.

Seeking Each Other's Gore.

ENCOURAGING NATIVE INDUSTRIES.

The Dominion Government exploit the N. P. as the foster mother and wet nurse of Canadian industries, but the foster mother takes some peculiar freaks in encouraging her children. The customs law is bad enough when it extorts taxes from long suffering citizens without distinction except in favour of protected manufacturers, but it is much worse when it adds barefaced robbery to extortion as has been done on the most frivolous technical protext in the matter of the seizure and confiscation of the fishery plant of J. & C. Noble. The following summary from the Globe gives the general features of the flagrant outrage:—"The seizure of the fishing fleet of J. & C. Noble and the ruin of their long established business is an arbitary act by the Fisheries Department, which shows the people of Canada to be truly submissive. The loose methods of the department seem to have rendered the fishermen perpetually liable to seizure. They were in the habit of commencing operations in April and paying their fees when the inspectors came for them in June. After the season of 1893 they were warned that they must not commence without securing their licenses. The firm of J. & C. Noble forwarded $280 license fees to the fishery officer at Sault Ste Marie on March 4. As they received no official notification for a month they concluded that everything was satisfactory and on April 15 they started for their fishing grounds. On May 8 their entire fleet was seized by the departmental officials on the charge of fishing without a license. All the other Georgian Bay fishermen were in precisely the same position, but out of about 60 boats only those belonging to the firm of J. & C. Noble and one other were seized. The license fees forwarded to the officer were returned on May 25, more than two weeks after the seizure and almost three months after they were forwarded to the officer at Sault Ste Marie. On June 23, about a month later, the firm was fined on the charge of fishing with the plant already seized. The outfit seized consists of four tugs and seven boats and represents the result of between 30 and 40 years' labour. The business, which has been ruined by the seizure, employed about 120 men and involved an annual expenditure of about $60,000. At first it was believed that the department would inflict no more severe punishment than the crippling of the season's work, by no means a light infliction, but it seems that the entire fleet is to be confiscated and sold. The punishment is so outrageously disproportioned to the offence that it should excite public indignation. The offence was merely a technical one, for which the department was somewhat to blame. For more than seven weeks they held the license fees forwarded by the firm, and gave no notification as to their intention of granting or withholding a license. All the other fishermen started to work, assured by the silence of the department that their licenses were secure, and the firm of J. & C. Noble merely followed their example. There was no evidences of any intention to violate regulations. When a Minister from Nova Scotia can perpetrate such an act in Ontario there must be something wrong, at least in our Fisheries Department."

In comment upon this the Toronto News Conservative, says:—"The Globe scores the Fisheries Department for the confiscation of the fishing fleet of J. & C. Noble on Georgian Bay. The scoring is well deserved. The destruction as a punishment for a merely technical offence, of a property worth $40,000, and an industry involving an annual expenditure of $60,000, is an outrage without parallel in Canada." Here we have the case of the swiftest and severest punishment of a minor technical infraction of a statute law, while a Minister of the Crown who trafficked in corruption funds to the extent of thousands—giving with one hand subsidies to railways and with the other grasping the boodle assessments out of the subsidies squeezed from contractors and buying up a whole province, retaining his seat in the Cabinet, his seat in the House, and his knightly escutcheon not untarnished, but whitewashed by a subservient parliamentary majority, at the instance of a Government, that cannot view a petty breach of the customs' act with the least degree of allowance. The people of Canada are indeed long suffering.

Prohibition, the Mail thinks, did not make very substantial progress during the session of Parliament now ended. The great convention at Toronto called for the introduction of a prohibitory resolution into Parliament. A deputation went to Ottawa to solicit the views of the Government, but they were expressed in such a way as to be difficult of interpretation. Then after a consultation with a committee of members a resolution was framed and introduced into the House. It declared that "it is expedient that as speedily as possible this Parliament should enact a law to prohibit the importation manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in Canada, except for medicinal, manufacturing and sacramental purposes." Several members who were not for immediate prohibition were willing to support a demand for the reform "as speedily as possible," but the motion was not voted upon. On May 7th the debate was adjourned, and took its place at the end of the list of public bills and orders. As many other matters then had precedence, that was the last of prohibition heard during the session. The resolution was embalmed on the order paper, and it knew no resurrection.

Manitoba is all right, judging from the vital statistics for the past six months. Its record is 454 deaths, 689 marriages, and 3,096 births. The cradles are bringing more immigration to the West than the railways.

"I was suffering from what is known as Bright's disease for five years, and for days at a time I have been unable to straighten myself up. I found relief before I had finished taking half of a bottle. I got so much help from taking the first bottle that I decided to try another, and since taking the second bottle I feel as well as ever I did in my life." GEO. MERRETT, Toronto, Ont.

IN THE FRENCH CHAMBER.

The Anti-Anarchist Bill Passed After Many Amendments.

PARIS, July 27.—Consideration of the anti-anarchist bill was resumed in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. M. Boudeville (Radical) challenged the accuracy of the vote taken on Jaures' amendment, which he said had been erroneously counted. He had voted with Jaures, yet he found his vote had been counted with the majority. Verification of the voting yesterday showed that the government's majority on the amendment was only 6 and if the vote was further rectified by the changing of his (Boudeville's) vote the majority for the government would be but 4, instead of 40, as announced. M. Boudeville expressed his belief that some members of the majority had placed more than a single ticket in the ballot box.

The President, M. Burdeau, said it was true that the verification of the vote had disclosed but six majority for the government.

Boissy d'Anglas, Republican, proposed to limit the period of the operation of the bill. Premier Dupuy declined to accede to any limitation of the law declaring such proposal must be rejected. The motion was rejected, 250 to 230.

M. Goujat, Republican, offered an amendment declaring that the proposed law had no application in the event of a dissolution of parliament. He said: If this law was enforced during elections it would restore the worst features of the empire, foster the persecution of unofficial by official candidates and virtually nullify the suffrage. The speaker was several times called to order. The amendment was rejected, 318 to 143.

M. Millerand, Socialist, demanded an inquiry into the voting of Jaures amendment yesterday. M. Krantz, Liberal Republican, supported Millerand's motion. An honestly conducted inquiry would show which of the deputies had changed their votes between the president's announcement of the figures last evening and the publication of the list of votes in the Journal Official. Millerand's motion was adopted 510 to 2 and an inquiry was ordered to take place immediately after adjournment.

M. Rouanet, Socialist, offered an amendment suspending the operation of the bill during parliamentary recess. Rejected. M. Contanet, Socialist, proposed an amendment to exempt the speeches of candidates in parliamentary elections from the list of grounds for persecution. Rejected.

Several other amendments were voted down and the bill was finally passed 268 to 163.

Horrible Cruelty in Elmira Reformatory.

ELMIRA, N.Y., July 27.—The investigation of the charges of cruelty against Superintendent Brockway of the State Reformatory were continued yesterday. John J. Delaney told of six or seven incarcerations in the solitary cells, each lasting from three to five days, with his hands chained to the floor during the day and to the floor during the night. Richard Quinn, a very reluctant witness, testified that he had been strung up and paddled by Brockway until he was insensible. He said he was bleeding from the nose and mouth and had wounds on the upper lip, also on the top of his head from which scars remain.

Fatal Accident to an Exploring Party.

Negro Hanged at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—Charles Wilson, colored, aged 24, was hanged in the jail yard yesterday. His neck was not broken and his body turned and twisted in convulsive movements for nine minutes. Nearly 200 persons witnessed the hanging and many were overcome by the scene. Wilson shot and killed a negro named Mose Hodge. The murder was occasioned by jealousy over the affections of a colored girl.

Beat His Wife With a Screw-Driver.

PATERSON, N.J., July 27.—Christopher Kinsley went home in an intoxicated condition, seized his wife by the hair, dragged her to the porch in the rear of the house and beat her with a screw-driver, fracturing her skull. The woman was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital in a dying condition.

THE EASTERN WAR CLOUD.

How Canadian Interests May be Affected—The Canadian Pacific Steamers Can Become Armed if Great Britain Becomes Involved.

The strained relations between Corea, Japan and China, which has almost broken into actual hostilities and consequent bloodshed, have aroused public curiosity as to what effect such a war would have on the Canadian Pacific's carrying trade between these countries and Canada. A Star reporter, therefore, called on Mr. D. McNicoll, General Passenger Agent of the Canadian Pacific, this morning, and propounded the question to him, and this is what he said:—"So far it has had no effect whatever. It might, however, interfere with us in the event of our ports of call in Japan and China being either blockaded or bombarded by keeping away people otherwise desirous of travelling by this route. Then, again, it might have an opposite effect and attract crowds of travellers to whom a warlike scene would be enjoyable, and who might like that sort of thing."

"It is hard to say just now how matters may turn out, and a war between these powers might change the whole complexion of our traffic. As a matter of fact I think Japan has a much stronger navy than China, and there is little to fear of their ports being subject to the horrors of war. Then again there is talk of leaving the treaty ports open. Hong Kong, of course, is a British Colony, and Shanghi, our other port of call in China, is a treaty port. In Japan we have Nagosaki as a coaling station, and Kobe and Kokohama. The latter of course is the port of Tokio, the capital, and lies about eighteen miles from it.

"All depends on the drift of the trouble and the question whether other interests may or may not be dragged into it. As to Corea, should it become the theatre of the war it would affect us but little, as apart from a solitary missionary, now and again, we have but little business with that country."

"It may be interesting to know that in the event of Britain becoming involved in the trouble it is more than probable that she would take over the Canadian Pacific fleet of steamers. They are all armed cruisers, and under the subsidy arrangements with the Imperial Government under which they were built in the event of war they can be taken over and put into instant commission. Whether this would be agreeable to the owners or not remains to be seen, but as this is the busy tourist season for the world's tour by the Japan route such action might complicate matters."

CHEESE EXHIBITS AT THE INDUSTRIAL.

Owing to the remarkable growth of the cheese industry in Canada, the management of the Toronto Industrial Fair have been compelled to afford an increased recognition to this important branch of production. Last year owing to the special prizes offered by the Eastern, Western and Quebec Dairymen's Association, the space at the disposal of exhibitors was entirely inadequate to show the immense number of exhibits. This year the prize list for cheese has been doubled by the introduction of a new feature. Heretofore prizes have only been given for August cheese, but the present list includes premiums of equal amount for June cheese, both white and coloured. Fifty dollars of the amount to be distributed in prizes is given by the Eastern Dairymen's Association of Ontario. In order to accommodate the increased number of exhibitors the entire dairy building will be devoted to cheese. The display will be on exhibition during the entire fair, instead of only during the last week as formerly. Great interest is being taken by dairymen and farmers in this feature of the fair, and some distant localities will be represented. Mr. T. J. Dillon, of the Dairying Service of Prince Edward Island, has forwarded a list of 19 intending exhibitors of cheese from that Province. All entries in this department must be made by the 11th of August.

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

The Late John Logan.

On Thursday, July 26th, Mr. John Logan, who has been a well known resident of Peterborough for the past quarter of a century, died at his residence, Park street, at the patriarchal age of 75 years. The deceased who was a native of Scotland came to Peterborough in 1872 with a family of five children, all of whom are still living—Robert Logan, town; Mrs. Robert Telford smith; John Logan, town; James Loga , town; and Mrs. Robert Mein. He was a member of the congregation of St. Paul's church and was held in high esteem and highly respected for his steady industrious habits and good qualities as a citizen. Mr. Logan's last illness dated from Sunday night. He was a staunch Liberal in politics. Mrs. Logan still survives him and is in the possession of good health.

Dentists in Session.

The members of the Eastern Ontario Dental Association and the Ontario Dental Association are in session at Kingston. Dr. Rose, of Peterborough, has been appointed member of the Ethics Committee of the Ontario Society. At Thursday mornings session Dr. Rose read a paper on "Classification of Dental Pulps." At Thursday's evening session on the question of increasing the membership of the Association, the News says:—Dr. Rose, of Peterborough, suggested that the dealers in dental instruments and their agents and travellers be induced to act as agents of the Association, and be paid to canvass members of the profession whom they meet on their travels through the Province, and who do not belong to the Association already, to join. This suggestion also received the support of a goodly number of the members.

A Lecture on Robert Burns.

Miss Jean Howison, of Perth, Scotland, will give an evening with Robert Burns, the poet, in Bradburn's Opera House on July 31st, with readings and recitations from his poems. Miss Howison comes highly recommended by the press and eminent public men, and the following letter from Mr. Melville Millar, a former Peterborough citizen, whose commendation will be accepted as a reliable expression of opinion, is a valuable testimony to the excellency of the entertainment. Mr. Millar heard Miss Howison in Orillia:—

ORILLIA, Ont., July 7th, 1894.

R. M. Dennistoun, Esq., Peterborough.

DEAR SIR,—I suppose you are still president of the Peterborough St. Andrew's Society, and as such, take an interest in everything calculated to keep up a proper interest in Scottish affairs.

I take the liberty of introducing to you Miss Howison, who is lecturing on Burns, and having heard her here last evening, I can safely recommend her popular lecture as an entertainment, that no one, who cares anything for such things, can afford to miss. Should Miss H. arrange to give her lecture in Peterborough, I thought that possibly you would kindly interest yourself in the matter, and set such influences at work as would ensure a good house. You may take my word for it that no one would regret spending an evening at Miss Howison's entertainment. With kind regards I am.

Yours truly,
MELVILLE MILLAR.

THE SEWERAGE OUTFALL.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Having taken some interest in the discussion of town sewerage and seeing that a new vote upon the old discarded system, slightly changed but not improved, will be taken on the 2nd prox., I ask space in your columns for a few supplementary remarks on the general question.

To any one who has followed the subject from its beginning, it must seem clear that under cover of all the strategies, manœuvres and makeshifts that have, from time to time, been resorted to by certain councilmen and engineers, there lay a resolute design to stand by the old Lock street outfall at all hazards.

The unseen, irresponsible force, the dark horse in the scheme who conceived the Lock street location—in error most unquestionably—must not be set aside or baffled in his purpose; he has been vigilant and watchful in guarding and gaining time to accomplish his pet theory, his perverse theory, but it is to be hoped the vote on next Thursday will give it a quietus.

The chairman of the sewerage committee, who is always foremost and best in this sewage business, in his late report is induced very innocently to "recommend this ammendment of our last report so as to follow Mr. Allan McDougall's scheme in building a brick outfall that will be sufficient for all time to serve all parts of the town." A suitable point forsooth, on the top of the Little Lake bank at one side of the town, to select for a sewer to "serve all parts of the town." What an imposition on the credulity of an intelligent people!

Mr. McDougall's first scheme for Lock street sewer was brick, egg shaped, 2,2x 3.3, capacity 5.39 sq. ft. His second scheme was a pipe 1.76 reduiable to 0.98 capacity, or to five and a half times less. His third scheme, brick, egg shaped, 2x3 ft., capacity 4.37 square feet, is the one now proposed. The first two schemes have very properly been voted down, and it is to be hoped, for the credit and advantage of the ratepayers, that the third will meet with the same fate.

In the dilemma which followed the first defeat, the American sewer expert, Col. Waring, who, for his well earned professional reputation, I regret to say, allowed himself to fall into the web of gentlemen, whose plans he came to examine and report upon; gentlemen, who practically throttled and gagged him from his entry to the town until he left it, was consulted.

Blandishments and cajolery, however, did not wholly charm him. He condemned, root and branch, Lock street included, the pet plans of our municipal statesmen and scientific engineers, and so, apparently, left no hope for them. But they determined not to stay baulked. When Lock did not carry they made up their minds that Aylmer or Park street should not. Col. Warring's wish and duty were to seek a more suitable, central and better outlet scheme to the south of the town, but in this he was thwarted in a most discreditable and reprehensible manner.

There was no plan to guide him, no plan to show him the position, distance or lie of the river, south of the town. A feint was made to visit the south suburb; but before nearing it the river was represented to be flooded, its banks under water, and consequently unapproachable, that the distance was great, etc. For instance, Col. Warring was told that the distance from Lake street to the river, via Park was 1¾ miles, or 9,240 feet. The actual measured distance is 5443 feet, the difference 3,797 feet, being the measure of the lie. In this dishonourable, uncitizen-like manner was every obstacle put in his way, and he prevented to see for himself, as he certainly should have seen the southern outlying suburb and the favourable position and gradients it presents for direct and efficient drainage. Are men who would descend to such contemptible unworthy means the men to be intrusted with the confidence of the ratepayers? Having condemned the Lock street outlet on the east, and deterred from seeing or examining for an outlet on the south side of the town, Col. Waring in preference to looking northwards over Smithtown hill, turned, as the only alternative, his eyes westwards to Eastland's farm for a sewage deposit. He proposed building a sink hole in the town to receive the sewage, to be thence pumped up the hills and far away to the place of vegetation. Let the ratepayers who will vote on next Thursday ask themselves what the expert engineer's opinion of the Lock street sewer must have been, when he would substitute in preference a scheme so visionary and impracticable as to pump the sewage to Eastland's farm.

We all know the advantageous position of our town for I might say perfect drainage right in a direct line through the centre of the town, having taxpaying property every foot of the way on both sides. Let us see how the George and Lock streets sewers stand in this respect.

Between Wolfe and Rink streets, George street runs through an arm of the lake—Spaulding's Bay—nearly 1,000 feet across, equal to a frontage of say 2,000 feet on both sides. To this add about 700 feet along the bank of the lake on Lock street and we have 2,700 feet, considerably over half a mile of lake and bay frontage, that do not require sewers, and that pay no frontage tax or any tax to help to build them. Besides this, from Charlotte to Romaine street, a distance of about 4,400 feet, there are but two narrow strips of land, on the east side of George street, which if not drained directly into the river close by, will not require extensive sewerage at any time. Common-sense practical men will therefore see that the area requiring drainage, and the taxable property to pay for it, at any rate from Charlotte street south, lies almost wholly west of George street. The old objection too, of bringing the sewerage around two acute angles at foot of George and head of Lock via Lake street, attaches to what is called the "amended plan." In the distance along Lake street there will be a back or reverse flow of the sewage of about 70 feet and about 80 feet sewerage pipe more than would be required by turning at better angles—right angles—on Rink or Perry streets.

I have never condemned severely the original plan submitted by Mr. MacDougall, via Aylmer to Lake street. With proper modifications as development, time and necessity suggested, I consider the general plan to that point a good one; but the part via Lake and Lock streets I have condemned and will continue to condemn as a gross economical and engineering blunder that must ultimately lead to great loss to the town through extravagance, inefficiency and grevious dissatisfaction. See what the inconvenience and loss will be to run the main and outlet sewers along the Street Railway track via George and Lock streets. The railway will be obstructed and the town will have to pay the bill. The money vote asked for will not be sufficient. More and more will be wanted. There is no fixed plan to work on, no responsible head to guide, no reliable data to begin or end with. The people have no security. The engineers (the home engineers) say there is a swift current at Lock street. They also say there is little, if any, difference of level as compared with foot of Park street. If this be so, how comes the "swift current?" There is no swift current at foot of Lock street.

I understand that street railway extension to the foot of this street is promised, and wharves are to be built to connect with steamboats at this point—the point chosen for the sewage of the town for all time to be emptied into.

The plea of urgency to give our workingmen employment is used. By all means let our men get work, and get well paid for their labour. They build the town, and make the money to pay all taxes. But men could be employed all the same in doing useful work—they like it better.

I am afraid, sir, this communication is already too long, so I will conclude by appealing to the ratepayers not to go back on the vote you gave two years ago, not to stultify yourselves, but to remain true to your record; be steady and consistent and vote down on Thursday next the trumpery abortion as you voted down its bogus parent two years ago.

The sewerage must go on, and better, and more of it.

Truly and thankfully yours,
J. W. FITZGERALD.

July 27th.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT NEAR BAILLIEBORO.

Mr. Robert Redmond Meets With Serious if not Fatal Injuries—Now Lying at the Point of Death.

On Tuesday evening between nine and ten o'clock Mr. Robt. Redmond, a well known resident of the town who resides on Donegal street, was returning to town from South Monaghan with a load of butter. When near the residence of Mr. Henry Larmour, about one half mile from the village of Bailliteboro, a bolt, which attaches the shafts to the axle of the cart dropped from its position, and the vehicle was given a sudden jerk and toppled to one side in the ditch. Mr. Redmond attempted to rein the horse, which was standing at the time on the elevation of the newly graveled road, and in doing so one of the hind wheels collapsed, throwing Mr. Redmond out with considerable force. He was picked up unconscious by Mr. Larmour, who was attracted thither by the noise, and carried to his house. Dr. Grey of Bailliteboro, was immediately summoned, and it was found that the unfortunate man had sustained severe injuries to the neck and spine, his body being completely paralyzed. To-day Mr. Redmond is suffering much pain, and very little hope is held out for his recovery.

Mr. Redmond is well known throughout the district as a peddler, and his friends will regret to hear of the serious accident which has befallen him.

FIRE AT MOUNT JULIAN.

Saw Mill Burned to the Ground—Loss $3,000—Insured for $1,000 in the Gore.

On Thursday, between twelve and one o'clock, while the men who are operating the saw mill at Mount Julian were at dinner, they were greatly astonished to observe that the mill where they had been about twenty minutes previously actively engaged cutting lumber, was a mass of flames and the fire could be observed for miles around. The fire lasted but a short time and the machinery and buildings are a total loss. The property which was a steam mill, owned by a Mr. Hawkins, who a short time ago purchased it from Mr. John Hull, Lakefield, was insured in the Gore for $1,000. Loss $3,000. It is very doubtful if the saw mill will be re-erected.

NOTES GATHERED ON THE WAY.

James W. is a daisy and was the favourite with the ladies.

The committee, who selected the finest looking lady, still lives, but had to be taken off the grounds immediately after giving their decision, to avoid getting their whiskers pulled.

The hands on the boat were very courteous. Daddy Taylor was to the front as of yore.

A couple of young men of an inquisitive turn of mind, tried to see if the water was wet. Needless to say their clothes were moist, and a young lady, to keep up the reputation of her sex, did likewise, with the same results.

The committee were very energetic throughout and have the satisfaction of knowing that all were pleased with the efforts they put forth.

THE VISITORS ENTERTAINED.

Branch No. 30, C. M. B. A., Entertains the Members of Orillia and Brechin Branches.

The visiting members of Orillia and Brechin Branches of the C. M. B. A. were right royally entertained by Branch 30, C. M. B. A., yesterday afternoon. Shortly after dinner the brethren of the local lodge and visiting lodges left the lodge room, George street, in hacks to take in the sights of the town. They were driven to Auburn and shown the manufacturing industries in that portion of the town, after which they were driven to other points of interest. In Ashburnham, St. Joseph's Hospital was visited and the visitors were kindly shown through the institution by the kind Mother Superior.

After the drive the brethren repaired to the lodge room of the local branch, where a meeting was held. In the absence of the President, Mr. T. Dolan, Vice-President, occupied the chair, and in a few words expressed the pleasure it gave the members of Branch 30, to welcome the visitors to town, and hoped they would enjoy themselves while here. Deputy T. Doris and other members also added a few words. Bros. Geo. Ball, of Branch 30, and Chas. Podger, of Lindsay Branch, contributed songs, which were well received.

During the afternoon Rev. Father Duffy, Dr. Thompson, and Messrs. R. D. Gunn, Regan and Frawley, called on His Lordship Bishop O'Connor at the palace.

The following members of Orillia Branch No. 57, accompanied the excursion: Jos. Thompson, president; J. M. Fox, 1st vice-President; D. Malone, 2nd vice-president; R. M. Donnelly, treasurer; R. A. Lynch, financial secretary; Jas. Patten, recording secretary; J. Cashman, assistant recording secretary; A. Birchard, marshall; F. Clark, guard. Committee, R. D. Gunn, chairman; Thos. Hoey, secretary.

The members of Brechin Branch present were: R. L. Gaughan, president; John McKarkell, vice-president; W. McGrath, chancellor; J. Coster, marshall.

At 7 o'clock the excursionists, accompanied by the Citizens' Band, which had been taken in hand by the members of the Fire Brigade Band and shown about town, boarded the train for Orillia, all loud in their praise of Peterborough and the hospitality of its citizens.

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES.

The W.C.T.U. Presented Their Prizes in Physiology and Temperance Last Evening.

The ladies of the W.C.T.U. awarded the prizes given by that society for the pupils of the Public Schools taking the most marks in physiology and temperance, last evening in the Murray street Baptist church. There was a very good attendance, being composed principally of ladies. Rev. W. R. Young, of the George street church, occupied the chair, and in his opening remarks referred to the good work carried on by the ladies of the W.C.T.U. in the cause of temperance. Rev. Mr. Grant, who was present for the presentation, also added a few words of praise to the W. C. T. U. and its work. The musical portion of the programme was of an excellent character. It opened with the singing of the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." An excellent quartette was then sung by Misses Wesley and Carey and Messrs. Routley and Davidson. Miss Annie Fawcett then contributed a pleasing solo, after which two young men rendered an instrumental duet. After a collection had been taken up, Mrs. Paton, on behalf of the ladies of the W.C.T.U., presented the prizes to the lucky winners in a few well chosen and appropriate remarks. The first prize, a handsome silver watch, way awarded to Miss May Alexander; the second, a costly writing desk, was awarded to Miss Mary Goldsmith, and Master Wm. Allison was given the third prize, a beautiful volume of Germany illustrated. The prizes are very costly ones and the W. C. T. U. are deserving of great praise for the interest they have taken in the advancement of these important subjects in the public schools. The programme concluded with another well rendered quartette by Misses Wesley and Carey and Messrs. Routley and Davidson. Miss Jewett was the accompaniste of the evening.

The W.C.T.U. desire to thank the members of the choir, Mr. Davidson and all others who kindly assisted in the entertainment.

TREATMENT FOR OBESITY.

A Patient Loses Fifty Pounds in Six Months—The Hot-Water Cure.

Savill gives an account of his treatment of obesity that presents some features of special interest. A man five feet ten inches in height and weighing 284 pounds was admitted to the Paddington Infirmary to be treated for an ulcer. This patient, 68 years of age, was unable to walk, chiefly by reason of his bulk. He was put upon a diet of one pound of cooked fish and one pound of lean cooked meat a day and a pint of hot water sipped at intervals every two hours. The fish and the meat were distributed in meals, according to the taste of the patient, but no bread, vegetables, milk or any other article of food was allowed. The patient was a person of intelligence and did everything toward the success of his treatment, managing to drink five or six pints of hot water during the day. Weight decreased steadily. On admission, September 21, it was 284 pounds; on October 2 it was 274 pounds; on November 18 it was 256 pounds, and on December 4 it was 246½ pounds. At Christmas there was some latitude given in diet and the result was a prompt addition to his weight of seven pounds, but by January 15 weight was reduced to 239 pounds. After four months' treatment the diet was modified by the addition of two small slices of bread and butter at breakfast and supper and milk and sugar in his tea night and morning.

On February 7 he returned to ordinary meat diet, such as other patients had, with the exception of potatoes. He then weighed 234½ pounds. Weight increased slightly for a time after resuming ordinary diet; but on March 21, when the patient left, he weighed 230½ pounds, having lost over 50 pounds in six months. The ulcer healed within four weeks of his admission, and pain and stiffness soon disappeared, permitting as much walking as the space in the ward would allow. Weight remains the same (230½ pounds), the man now being on ordinary diet, but drinking no beer. His health is excellent.—London Lancet.

Flower Combinations.

We all know perfectly well that a beautiful thing may be quite spoiled by using it in some way inconsistent with its character, writes F. Schuyler Mathews in St. Louis Republic. This is particularly true with regard to a flower when it is used for the purpose of decoration; it is too often the case that one loses sight of the beauty of flowers by reason of the compact way in which they are arranged. A word or two about the characteristics of certain flowers may help us toward a more intelligent use of them.

A little attention bestowed on the character of a flower will help one to understand how two or more of them may be artistically combined. Yellow daffodils look pretty with white cherry blossoms, and the Pyrus japonica combines well with white narcissus; but pansies or violets always look best when they are quite alone. Certain flowers are graceful, others are cheerful; some are bold and effective, like the jack in the pulpit; some are delicate, like the lily of the valley. It stands to reason that these must be arranged so their characteristics are not hidden. It is possible to produce a pretty group of buttercups and daisies, whose gold and white effect is always charming; but the addition of a single pink blossom spoils all! To keep flowers looking well the water should be changed daily and old blossoms thrown away. Then the groups should be carefully adjusted with relation to each other, so no two tall specimens should appear together. A little sunlight may do no harm, but cut flowers exposed to the full rays of a powerful sun wilt at once, and a pretty arrangement is soon spoiled.

Early morning is the proper time to pick flowers. They should be immediately sprayed with a rubber sprinkler, which, by the way, is invaluable to one who is gathering fresh blossoms. We are apt to treat flowers carelessly—a handful of them picked in the heat of the day without a good sprinkling is soon in the same condition as a fish out of water.

Tired, Weak, Nervous.

Means impure blood, and overwork or to much strain on brain and body. The only way to cure is to feed the nerves on pure blood. Thousands of people certify that the best blood purifier, the best nerve tonic and strength builder is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What it has done for others it will also do for you—Hood's Cures.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.

Some people laugh to show their pretty teeth. The use of Ivory White Tooth Powder makes people laugh more than ever. It's so nice. Price 25c. Sold by druggists.

PALACE OF THE SUN.

Magnificent Ruins of Very Ancient Cities in Arizona and New Mexico.

There are many and unmistakable ruins and relics of what were once, in the very long centuries ago, cities in the great south west, peopled by an industrious, ingenious and considerably cultivated population. The Pueblo Indians of New Mexico and Arizona are certainly an old race, but beyond them are the Aztecs, who flourished in Mexico during the time of the Columbian discovery, but whose most ancient seat of empire was the kingdom of Cibola, which extended north and included Utah and Colorado. Mr. Buel, in his greatest and most exquisite work, Glimpses of America, thus discourses about this lost race and their institutions:

"The capital of this extinct empire is supposed to have been situated in Penal county, Arizona, the ruins of which are traceable along the Gila river, in what are known as the Casa Grande. Remarkable stories have been told of the relics of this ruined city, enthusiasts often describing them as equal in grandeur to the prostrate columns and mighty archways that speak in imperishable stone of the magnificence of ancient Egyptian cities. The Montezumans were supposed to have held their court in the splendid stone palaces whose relics lie scattered through the Casa Grande, and whose carvings and hieroglyphics seem to attest the glory of a once mighty people. * * * The buildings, of which nothing but confused heaps remain, were of irregular style, but yet of some architectural pretension, for the walks were made of concrete, molded into blocks nearly three feet square. The principal structure, which is supposed to have been Montezuma's palace, was about sixty feet long by fifty broad, and stood five stories, or forty feet high. For windows there was a square aperture or transom over each door, but wholly insufficient for either light or ventilation. Living in the closest communal state, however, these people appreciated fresh air like they did the storm and cold, only when it was on the outside. Around the palace there are plain traces of what was once a great wall on which were sentinel towers rising several feet above the main wall, thus proving that this was not entirely a land of peace, nor do appearances indicate that it was one of plenty.

"Near St. Joseph, Mexico, discoveries have been made of several hundred ruins of the habitations of prehistoric people. Among these ruins, the walls of which were made of undressed stone and cement, are found remains of huge cisterns, walls of fortifications, strange implements of bone and stone, beautifully designed, carved and painted pottery, associated with old though artistic pictures, characters and symbols cut upon large rocks in canyons near, and with such nicety of taste as strike the beholder with admiration.

"These people were larger than those of to-day, some of them being fully eight feet tall, and there are evidences to show that their average height was about seven feet. They buried their dead in the ground floor of their rooms, with their heads towards the east and their ornaments with them. In the eastern part of Socorro county are the ruins of an immense city known as the Grande Qnivero, covering a space of over two miles square. It's walls are in some places over eight feet thick, forty feet high and 700 feet long. A great aqueduct carried water to the city, but today there is no water within forty miles of the ancient wonder. It stands silent and alone in the sunlight and in darkness, and where once the love, industry and skill of a now unknown race builded thousands of beautiful and happy homes, the coyote, bat and snake hold sway. When and by whom they were built was a mystery to the Mexican people more than 300 years ago."

THE STEWART CASE.

Mr. Stewart Pays a Visit to Pictou—Congratulated by His Many Friends on His Restoration to Health.

PICTOU, N.S., July 16.—Good news sometimes travels as fast as bad news, which is proverbially fast. Many people here knew that Mr. Allan Stewart, of Springton, P.E.I., had been for many years afflicted with kidney disease and gravel. It was known, too, that last year he was so bad that public opinion put him down as likely to die soon. Mr. Stewart fooled public opinion though, for he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills and ten boxes of them completely cured him. When he paid a flying visit to this city a few days age, he received many hearty congratulations on restoration to health and improved appearance. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to cure in this part of the Dominion.

DEAR SIRS,—I have used Yellow Oil for two or three years, and think it has no equal for croup. Mrs. J. S. O'Brien. Huntsville, Ont.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

RECORD BREAKING.

The Lancet Counts the Cost in the Bicycle Arena.

Another of those abnormal feats to which we have more than once drawn public attention has been accomplished. One of the great "record breakers" has set all his compeers at defiance by his truly marvellous effort of cycling from the Land's End to John o' Groat's in 86 hours, fifteen minutes—that is, nine hours and forty minutes quicker than the "safety" record. We are informed that he experienced little fatigue, and to all appearances he was not in any way injured by his success; but the most remarkable part in this act is included in the fact that he performed his task without indulging in one moment of sleep. He was three days, fourteen hours, and fifteen minutes without reclining once, or resting or ceasing his active movement of propulsion, except for the very briefest moments.

We know from the best experimental proofs that a healthy heart will beat 106,000 times in twenty-four hours, and that the lowest estimate of the work done by this labor is equal to lifting 122 tons one foot; but it has recently been shown that 'cycling tells severely and specially upon the circulation, and that the number of the strokes of the heart is doubled during such active exercise as that to which the rider subjected himself, so that the lowest estimate we can assume for the work of his heart each day was 212,000 beats, with work done of 244 foot tons; and this maintained for three days and fourteen hours and fifteen minutes was equal to more than 851 foot tons without repose. The experiment, for it must be looked upon physiologically as an experiment, is not without its uses. It shows that there remains much that is as yet unexplained in respect to the cause of sleep, suggesting, indeed, that there is something in persistent motion of the blood, sustained by volition of a resolute kind, which prevents the nervous system from passing into that passive or negative state to which the term "sleep" is applied. The practical lesson we are most called to dwell upon, however, bears on the ultimate influence of extreme exercise on the bodies of these young men who make themselves the victims of self-inflicted injury.

The report of a feat such as we have related may suggest that, for the moment, the athlete has sustained no harm, and that all our teaching is so much nervous admonition, or, as it is sometimes designated, "grandmotherly care." We wish it were so. Unfortunately we know that these violent strains bode, in the end, the certainty of premature decrepitude. Towards the goal of death the best heart can only perform a certain measure of work, and whether that be done by rapid or slow process determines the length of days in which it is done. Theoretically, therefore, it is the fate of these young competitors, who otherwise might be destined for a long and active existence, to succumb or break down before the sun of their life has reached it full meridian; and practically, this so far, has been the fate of all who have endeavored, under the applause of their unthinking comrades, to do what nature has not constructed them for doing without risk and without ultimately proclaiming to them in a voice stronger than theirs that she, after all, is the arbitress of their destiny.—The Lancet.

A Toilet Luxury.

One more is added to the long row of cut glass bottles that nowadays find a place on every woman's dressing table and slip into sockets in her fitted traveling bag. It is filled with a clear white liquid, without the use of which the careful woman's toilet is scarcely complete. Listerine—for that is the liquid's name, is not an expensive toilet article. Twenty-five cents will fill a good-sized bottle, and it is a precious pleasant ounce of prevention against pounds of cure.

Dainty women, heedful of the condition of their teeth, use a teaspoonful in their tooth brush water once a day or every night, just before going to bed, rinse out throat and mouth with a teaspoonful of listerine in four of water. Women who sing and who are troubled with hoarseness or sore throat use the same preparation for a gargle with most beneficial results.

For mild turns of indigestion this simple, soothing remedy is an almost magic corrective. The dose is a teaspoonful in about four times the amount of water, and where an unpleasant taste lingers in one's mouth, a washing out with a little listerine and water leaves the lips sweet and odorless.

Dentists particularly recommend the use of listerine for the teeth, for it cleanses as no brush ever can be expected to, carries off or nullifies all the ill effects of the tiny deposits in the teeth, corrects acidity and acts, in short, like a magic potion. It is very like vaseline in the comfort it gives, and now belongs to the toilet pharmacy along with cologne, camphor ice and the rest of it.

Dirt and Science.

In the last analysis probably everything is dirt. But there are wonderful dirts, comments an exchange. Coal tar is one of the most unpromising to look at, but what a magazine of possibilities there are in coal tar after it has passed through the inquiring hands of the chemist. One of the latest uses to which a coal tar derivative is applied is as a substitute for quicksilver in the bulbs of thermometers. This substance is tunol. It contains no water, can stand a much lower temperature than quicksilver without freezing, and when exposed to warmth expands with great regularity. Besides possessing these qualities, it is cheap, and as it is much lighter than quicksilver the tube of the thermometer can be made much larger than is now usual, and it will not only be much easier to read the record, but greater exactitude in registration will be secured. The dark blue color of tunol is another element which will contribute to the ease of reading the thermometer.

Worth Ten Dollars a Bottle.

Any person who has used Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure, would not be without it if it cost ten dollars a bottle. A good thing is worth its weight in gold, and Nerviline is the best remedy in the world for all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute; lame back at one application; headache in a few moments; and all pains just as rapidly. Why not try it to-day? Large bottles 25 cents, sold by all druggists and country dealers. Use Polson's nerve pain cure—Nerviline.

Constipation, neuralgia, biliousness, and bad blood are promptly cured by Burdock Blood Bitters, which acts upon the stomach, liver, bowels and blood, curing all their diseases.

ITCHING PILES AND PIN WORMS.

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the sufferer becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—ulcers and tumour form, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly affected from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and trouble. These and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S

OINTMENT

Gives Instant Relief.

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

A Mother's Beautiful Child

Dragged Nearly to Death's Door by Severe Nervous Disease—Suffered Extreme Pain in the Head—Doctors Could Do Nothing—South American Nervine Called in at the Eleventh Hour and Restores to Health Little Annie Joy, of West Toronto Junction—The Great Remedy is Reducing the Death Rate of All Canadian Cities.

MISS ANNIE JOY, WEST TORONTO JUNCTION.

A bright little lad, or golden-haired girl, is the delight of your home. Whether you revel in riches, or know something of the privations of poverty, that child is all the world to you. It is no wonder that mother and father become anxious when sickness overtakes the little one.

The remedy, fathers and mothers, is near by. South American Nervine has been the means of giving back the bloom of youth to thousands of suffering little ones. It is not a medicine that buoys up the parents' hopes, only to have them in a short time dashed down again lower than ever. Whether with child or adult, it promptly gets at the seat of all disease, which is the nerve centres. From this fact it is peculiarly efficacious in the treatment of nervous diseases of man, woman or child.

A recent case is that as told by Mrs. M. A. Joy, of West Toronto Junction, whose little daughter Annie, aged 15 years, had been a sufferer from severe nervous depression for about two years. As with all mothers, no trouble and expense was spared in the effort to bring relief to the child. The little one suffered extreme pains in the head, so distressing at times as to render her completely helpless, sapping all her strength. The best skill of the most skilled physicians was called into request, but little Annie steadily grew worse. Becoming more hopeless and discouraged as the weeks went by, Mrs. Joy decided on trying South American Nervine as almost a last resort. Employing her own words she said: "I determined to give it a trial, although I felt it was useless."

To-day it is all happiness around that home, for before one bottle of the medicine had been taken, the mother tells us Annie commenced to show decided signs of improvement. The child has taken three bottles and has practically regained her natural health and vigor. There is nothing surprising in the fact that Mrs. Joy cannot speak too highly of South American Nervine.

Much was at stake, but this wonderful discovery proved equal to the emergency, and so it does in every case. Thousands of letters on file from well-known citizens prove this. For nervous diseases of young or old, from whatever cause, it is an absolutely infallible cure.

COMMITTED TO THE DEEP

A BURIAL SERVICE AT SEA IS OPPRESSIVELY SOLEMN.

Crew and Passengers Alike Feel the Solemnity and Become Subsided on Such Occasions—How the Captain Feels for Days After the Rite is Performed.

An old sea captain said in a recent talk: A burial at sea surpasses the ceremony on land in point of solemnity as much as the awful grandeur of mid-ocean surpasses the mild, soft beauty of a tranquil lake. Men of the sea are not given to sentimental musings.

The constant menace to life makes them reckless and ribald. But when a death occurs on board ship the meek and humble piety which characterizes both crew and passengers would do credit to a Quaker congregation. The great desolate stretch of water, with its mountainous billows and its howling gales, seems to invest the presence of the grim reaper with a more merciless character and brings to the minds of the living a more realizing sense of the terrors of death than is felt on land, with its houses and rushing trains and carolling birds trilling a trenody from every bough along the line of march from church to graveyard. You can depend upon it, that no matter how rough and hardened the sailor, he takes off his hat and bares his head to the pitiless sky whenever he passes the corpse.

The feeling of oppression which extends all over the ship when a death occurs is so overpowering that for this very reason, if for no other, it is necessary to get rid of the corpse with all possible speed. And the getting rid of it is a climax to the tragedy more shocking than anything the man who has never experienced it can imagine. The idea of dropping the cold, insensate mass of mortal clay into the limitless, bottomless ocean, to be knawed at and nibbled by the greedy monsters of the deep is horrifying to the stoutest heart. And yet there is ever present to the captain that horrible realization that it must be done, and, as everybody shrinks from doing it, it devolves upon him to do it with his own hands.

The body is strapped to a bare board, face up. To the foot of the board are attached heavy weights, usually cannon balls. Then this board is shoved out over the bow of the ship by some of the crew, who, after doing this, make haste to scurry back out of sight of the final proceedings, leaving no one there but the captain, whose duty it is to tip up the board and let it drop into the sea, feet foremost. Maybe you think you can sleep after doing that. If you do, just volunteer to perform this service for the first captain on whose boat you are a passenger, when a death occurs. I assure you that he will turn the task over to you; and I also assure you that you won't get any more sleep for a good many nights afterwards.

Why Wives are Neglected.

"I am not at all surprised," said a bright woman, "that some men find other women more attractive than their wives. In this age of progress and newspapers, women who do not live up to the times must expect to be eclipsed by those who do. The 'Hannah Jane' theory set forth in Carleton's poem is exploded.

"The occasion for my disgust is that twice within the past week I have met wives who did not care for the frivolities of life, and whose husbands I did not blame for casting 'sheep's eyes' at more attractive women. The first woman came into the dining-room of a hotel in a Western city. She evidently boarded at the place, and it was a really good hotel. Every other person in the dining-room was well dressed. Her husband was well dressed. She actually wore a wrapper, one such as is sold in the stores at 98 cents a piece. It was of a dull peacock green color, with yellow rings in it and intensified her sallowness. Her skin and hair had a neglected look, the latter brushed back so tightly that two thin places near her temples were plainly visible. Her whole appearance was of the 'don't care' order. The sooner she drops away from this mudane sphere, the better it will be for the husband, whose eyes wandered often to the tables where sat other women, who were 'fixed up.'

"The other case was that of the president of a great trades union, with whom an interview was necessary. His home was sought towards evening. It was a neat brick house, the front closely shut up, and it actually became a necessity for the correspondent to attack the kitchen door before she found anyone. This 'anyone' proved to be the wife of the man, a young, black-eyed woman, with a neglected child clinging to her dress. She was, by all appearances, a born slattern. The interview was short and not interesting. The husband was sought in the office of the trades union of which he was chief officer. He was a grand surprise, as he was a man, not only of brawn and brain, but remarkably well dressed and thoroughly intelligent. He seemed rather suspicious, but thawed easily under genial influences. The truth inadvertently leaked out that he rarely got home until midnight. I did not wonder. I only wondered that he ever went home. I don't think I would have cared to go."—Cincinnati Tribune.

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparialla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose? why Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I'm going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

I was attacked severely last winter with diarrhœa, cramps, and colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I can thank this excellent remedy for saving my life. Mrs. S. Kellett, Minden, Ont.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cricket and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

A good number took in the lacrosse match yesterday on the P.A.A.A. grounds between the junior Orillians and the junior Peterboroughs, and a good exhibition of the game was witnessed. Those who were present seemed to take an interest in the game, and the juniors showed that they knew a little about lacrosse. About 3.15 the teams lined up before Referee C. LeBrun in the following order:

| PETERBOROUGH. | | ORILLIA. |
|---|---|---|
| Craig | Goal | Cain |
| Brown | Point | Peird |
| Heap | Cover Point | Quinn |
| McCabe | Defence Field | Dusty |
| Lynch | " " | Thompson |
| Green | " " | Cameron |
| Guy | Centre | Yates |
| Logan | Home Field | Tudhope |
| Jno McCabe | " " | Blain |
| Lipsett | " " | Blain |
| Wasson | Outside Home | Glassford |
| Rickey | Inside Home | Mitchell |
| Cochrane | Goal Umpire | Watson |

Guy secured the ball at the face and made a neat pass to Logan, who ran towards the visitors' flags and passed to Wasson. After some further skirmishing Wasson made a neat shot on goal and scored. Time, 2 minutes.

Shortly after the face off for the second game Lipsett secured the sphere and made a shot on goal, but missed to Peard, who sent the ball up the field. The Peterborough players were in danger for a time but Wasson got the rubber and passed it to Rickey, who scored the next game after seven minutes play. In this game the playing of Brown, Lynch, Green, Guy and Logan, is worthy of mention.

In the third game some pretty pass work was indulged in by Heap, Wasson, Lipsett and "Jim" McCabe. The ball would hover for a time around the visitors goal, then it would travel to the home territory, and would immediately be sent back again on the Orillia flags. After just fifteen minutes play Logan scored the third game for Peterborough.

When the ball was faced for the fourth game it was seen that Orillia had got warmed up and began to play the combination. Rickey, who had a hard man to handle, showed up in good form, as also "Jack" McCabe, but Yates, the Orillia centre, got the ball and passed to Glassford, who scored the grst game for Orillia in 6 minutes.

Peterborough started off well in the fifth game, and Craig saved the goal on many occasions. In a skirmish near the ti Heap received a severe cut on the nose, which forced him to retire from the field. The game then went on and Thompson scored the next game for Orillia after twenty minutes play.

Peterborough was determined to win the next game and the ball went to the visitor's goal, where it stayed for two minutes, when Lipsett scored.

NOTES.

The Juniors play splendid lacrosse and will give a good account of themselves in the future.

Peard, of Orillia, was a disappointment to many. It was expected he would prove a star yesterday.

There was a little rough playing at certain stages of the game, but the best of feeling prevailed throughout.

C. LeBrun acted as referee and gave satisfaction to both teams.

The Juniors intend arranging with a number of outside teams for matches on the home grounds, at early date.

The papers in the Toronto-Shamrock lacrosse match have been received by the Secretary of the Lacrosse Association. The Shamrocks are so convinced of Tansey's innocence that they will swear out a warrant for anyone who might make an affidavit to the effect that Tansey played anywhere under an assumed name. Some one, it is said, will be arrested in the end.

Port Hope lacrosse club wants to play a match about August 7th, with Orillia. The game will likely be arranged.

BASEBALL.

Cobourg team will run an excursion to Jubilee Point, on Wednesday August 1st.

Peterborough will play ball with the following teams:—Oshawa, July 31st; Lindsay, August 4th: Guelph, August 9th; Maroons, of Toronto, August 13th. All will be played here.

East Toronto defeated Campbellford at cricket yesterday, by an innings and 20 runs.

A MOUNT FOREST WEDDING.

The Nuptials of Miss Nellie O'Connell and Mr. Wm. Brick, a Former Principal of the Murray Street Separate School.

The Mount Forest Representative says that on Tuesday morning, the 24th inst., at St. Mary's church, Mount Forest, Miss Nellie O'Connell, neice of Very Rev. Dean O'Connell, of Mount Forest, was married to Mr. Wm. Brick, principal of the Kingston Separate School. At 10 o'clock the edifice was filled with an expectant throng when the bride entered leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. John O'Connell. As they passed up the aisle Mendelssohn's Wedding March was admirably rendered by the organist Miss Duffy. The groom was supported by Mr. F. D. Henderson, of Kingston. The Very Rev. Dean O'Connell performed the marriage ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. J. H. Coty, St. Mary's Cathedral, Hamilton, cousin of the bride. In the sanctuary were the following clergy:—Rev. P. S. Owens, Ayton; Rev. J. Corcoran, Teeswater; Rev. P. Cassin, Dundalk, Rev. R. Maloney, Durham, Rev. M. V. Kelly, Owen Sound. After high mass, celebrated by Rev. Dean O'Connell, during which the choir rendered music of a high order, the bridal party repaired to the parochial residence. After the usual congratulations, a wedding breakfast was served. The bride was attired in cream faille silk with veil and wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of cream roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Marie O'Connell, of Buffalo, N.Y., sister of the bride. She wore a very pretty gown of white dotted Swiss muslin, with hat to match. Amidst showers of rice the happy couple left for Owen Sound on the afternoon train. A trip on the upper lakes follows, after which they will go to their future home in Kingston. The natural flower decorations of the altar and sanctuary of the church were much admired. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable.

GALT AND PRESTON RAILWAY.

The Two Towns Now Connected by a Perfect System of Electric Railway.

GALT, Ont., July 27.—An important step in the development of Galt and Preston was inaugurated yesterday by the official opening of the Galt and Preston electric street railway. Special cars having on board the officers of the company, C. P. R. officials, members of the municipal councils of Galt, North Dumfries and Preston, shareholders, and representatives of the press left the terminus of the road at the Grand Trunk station, Galt, and conveyed the guests on a tour of inspection of the road, the power house and electric equipment, thence to the Delmonte hotel, Preston, where a luncheon was partaken of with a list of toasts prepared for the occasion.

The Galt and Preston street railway is five miles in length and connects Galt, "the Manchester of Canada," noted for its many factories and its commercial activity, with the pretty town of Preston, so famous as a summer and health resort.

The president of the railway is Mr. Thomas Todd, miller and grain merchant, to whose energy not a little of the successful completion of the road is due.

The entire electrical equipment, including rolling stock, was furnished by Messrs. Allearn & Soper, of Ottawa, and is one of the most complete in Canada, having all the latest improvements electrical science can compound. The engines, etc., are from the Goldie & McCulloch Co.

"DEBS FOR CONGRESS."

The Strike Leader Addresses a Labor Meeting in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 27.—The directors of the A. R. U. have decided to call a convention of delegates of the local unions to be held at Uhlich Hall in this city on August 2 to determine whether the strike shall be continued or abandoned. Each delegate will be instructed by his union before attending the convention how his colleagues feel on the question and he will have full authority to act for them. This will relieve the directors of direct responsibility and incidentally accomplish the purpose of Debs, Howard, Keliher and Rogers without laying them liable to another case of contempt of court.

After the board adjourned the directors attended a meeting of local strikers at Uhlich hall, 2,000 men being present. The cheers which went up on Debs entrance could be heard several blocks away. Debs told his fellow railway men that if the rulings of Judge Woods were correct in the United States Circuit Court then the laborer was no longer a free man and had no right to defend and protect himself, but was a common slave to capital, and had no right to do other than as his employer ordered. He said he did not believe the ruling of the judge was sound, but that if it was, the only thing left to do was to muster their forces and carry to the polls a man who would bring about an amendment to the constitution which would give them their liberty.

"Debs for Congress" was the cry on all sides after the speech.

Killed His Wife and Her Relations.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 27.—John Craig drove to Glendale, five miles from this city, where his wife, from whom he was divorced three months ago, was stopping with her brother George, and deliberately shot and killed them both. He then returned to this city and went to the home of his father in-law, William Hunter, and killed him, after which, stepping over the body, he went to the dining-room, where he shot and killed his mother-in-law. He then turned the pistol against his forehead and fired two shots, both of which failed to kill him. He was taken to the police receiving hospital and will recover. He states he was hounded by his wife's relatives and wanted revenge, but was sorry he had not succeeded in killing himself to complete the whole business.

Does Not Think His Brother is Lost.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., July 27.—Mr. A. W. Wellman, a brother of the explorer, does not credit the rumor that the crew is lost. He says that the story that Prof. Oyen was found on Danes Island without sufficient food and medicines is absolutely without foundation, as his brother stated in his last letter that they had left the greater part of their supplies with Prof. Oyen, and that the expedition would push forward as far as possible, but that should they get caught in the ice, they could follow around the edge with their sleds and dogs until they reached the provision depot.

Liquor and Jealousy a Bad Mixture.

SCRANTON, Pa., July 27. — Maddened with liquor and jealousy Joe Robienski, a Pole living near here, fired a load of shot from a gun at his wife and child. The child was badly hurt and Mrs. Robienski was mortally wounded. Robienski then put the muzzle of the gun in his mouth, pushed the trigger with his toes and blew the top of his head off.

Faction Feud in Minnesota.

NORTHFIELD, Minn., July 27.—The protracted war between the two factions in the Force school district, nine miles south of here, culminated in a terrible fight with clubs and guns. Robert Workman and William Barnhart were fatally wounded. Charles Graham and Reuben Page were badly hurt.

Cut His Throat and Hanged Himself.

BUFFALO, July 27.—John Dodson, a wealthy farmer of Allegheny county, committed suicide on Tuesday by hanging himself in the woods. He had cut his throat from ear to ear with a jackknife after he had placed the rope around his neck and drawn it taut.

The Prince Dropped a Nice Sum.

SARATOGA, July 27.—Prince Hatzfeldt, who four years ago married C. P. Huntington's daughter, has had a gay revel at the roulette table in the Saratoga Club house for the last two nights. Last night he left the club house $8,400 behind the game.

WAS WAR DECLARED?

Contradictory Reports From the Orient Complicate the Situation.

SINKING OF THE TRANSPORT

Particulars of the Engagement Off the Corean Coast—Amicable Arrangements Possible—No Telegraphic Communication Between Japan and Corea.

LONDON, July 28.—A telegram received at the office of the Peninsula and Oriental Steamship Company says positively that war has been declared between China and Japan and that hostilities have commenced.

The Standard regards Mr. Buxton's statement in the House of Commons as a satisfactory denial of the rumor that war has been declared. It says that there is nothing very serious in the capture of the Corean king by the Japanese. The collisions of troops and naval vessels and the landing of American marines, it says, undoubtedly complicates the situation greatly. "The best pledge of a solution of the problem," it adds, "is to be found without an open declaration of a conflict."

The Standard's Brussels correspondent says he has information that "Japan is willing to co-operate with China against the Corean rebels and China welcomes the proposition."

Not Declared Officially.

Several morning dailies print this despatch from Tien-Tsin:

"War has not been declared officially either in Tokio or Pekin. It is believed in government circles that it will not be declared for several days. If the exchange of notes now proceeding result amicably the collisions that have already taken place will be mutually disallowed; otherwise they will be regarded as casus belli. The transport, which was sunk by the Japanese, was the Kow-Shung, owned by Mathieson & Co. It is reported that all were lost. The Mathiesons have taken over a number of Chinese coasting vessels; hereafter they will sail their steamers under the British flag.

"Telegraphing between Japan and Corea has been stopped; therefore no direct reports can be obtained in Yokohama, where nothing is known of a declaration of war. The Japanese authorities stopped on Sunday the Nagasaki mail steamer bound for Shanghai."

The Sinking of the Transport.

SHANGHAI, July 28.—The Chinese transports sunk off the Corean coast by Japanese guns belonged to the fleet of eleven steamers which sailed from Taku on July 20 with 12,000 troops. The fleet left Taku under an escort of gunboats. The majority of the transports proceeded slowly with the gunboats, while the faster ones steamed at full speed, so as to land their troops as soon as possible. On the transports which arrived first at the Corean coast were a few hundred soldiers from the army of the north. Most of the force, however, consisted of coolies with inferior firearms or merely bows and arrows.

The firing was begun by a Japanese battery on the shore while the Chinese officers were trying to debark their men from the first steamer. The cruisers then steamed up and opened fire on all the transports which were lying to waiting to discharge the men. The Chinese were unable to make any effective resistance. They were thrown into great confusion and many jumped overboard to escape the hot fire.

The Chinese officials here do not confirm these despatches. They are exceeding reticent as to every report concerning hostilities in Corea.

The declaration of war has caused keen excitement among all classes here. Business is virtually suspended, although many smaller firms have made desultory efforts to sustain their trade. The Europeans have gathered at the Shanghai Club to discuss the meagre reports from Corea. The position of the Japanese residents is precarious. For weeks the more prosperous Japanese have been leaving the city, but many of the poorer and middle class still remain. The Europeans best acquainted with the city think that the Sikh police will be strong enough to protect them from Chinese fanatics. The Viceroy is confident that the northern army is sufficiently strong to cope with the Japanese force, and he does not intend to employ the southern army except in cases of extreme necessity. The mobilization proceeds rapidly, and the preparations to embark large bodies of troops are making with unexpected energy. Singapore firms are providing many of the transports and stores. The Chinese government bought two large steamers and negotiations for others are in progress.

The Japanese have announced that they will hold the King of Corea as a hostage until the internal reforms demanded by it shall have been satisfactorily guaranteed.

In Seoul excitement is at white heat. There has been considerable disorder, and an uprising of the people may come at any moment.

Not Officially Known in London.

LONDON, July 28.—The officials at the Foreign Office and the Chinese and Japanese legations reiterate that no official news of the war had been received. Numerous cable despatches were delivered at the legation, but in no case could anything be learned concerning their contents. Many more merchants and shippers engaged in the eastern trade have received cablegrams to the effect that war had been declared, hostilities had been begun and business had dropped almost to zero.

Not Much Chance for Japan.

Sir Thomas Sutherland, M.P., chairman of the C. and O. Steam Navigation Company, said an interview:

"China in the long run will be victorious owing to her enormous resources and unlimited wealth. This is not a very fortunate position for Japan, which, in addition to her financial trouble, may have to cope with internal revolution. China is fortunate in having such a financier as Sir Robert Hart, her inspector-general of customs, and such a soldier as Li Hung Chang, her viceroy. China doubtless will employ only levies from the north and centre. The Cantonese although turbulent do not make good soldiers. Doubtless Japan has an advantage over China as regards warships, but China will soon make this good. I expect that she will if necessary purchase European warships."

J. Henniker Heaton, M.P., who is familiar with eastern affairs said: "The Japanese are the Frenchmen of the Pacific. The Chinese are the Germans."

The opinion among politicians here is that as the cruiser Baltimore has landed marines the naval vessels of other countries will do the same. The admiralty decline to give any information on the subject.

Why Japan is Aggressive.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A San Francisco special says: Lucius H. Foote, who was United States Minister to Corea from 1883 to 1886, gives the following statement in regard to the Corean troubles: Japan has undoubtedly invaded Corea for the purpose of weakening the influence of China in that kingdom, and with the expectation of strengthening her own political and commercial importance there. For centuries China has dominated neighboring states, more by her finesse than by her prowess. She has long claimed and still continues to claim, notwithstanding the treaties made with western powers, suzerainty over Corea. This claim Japan has constantly ignored, until it has come to be an exceedingly sensitive question between the two nations. Corea occupies to the orient much the same relation that Turkey does to Europe. Aware of her own weakness and impressed with the supremacy of China, she has looked to that empire for moral and physical support. The influence of China has therefore been paramount and has perhaps been exercised adversely to Japan. War between Japan and Corea would necessarily involve China. If Japan was victorious it would virtually destroy China's influence on the peninsula and give to Japan that value which she desires.

ORANGE GRAND LODGE.

The Meeting in London Addressed by the Canadian Delegates.

LONDON, July 28.—Major Saunders, M.P., delivered a speech of welcome, congratulating the delegates to the Grand Orange Lodge on the success of their efforts during the past eight years in opposing the destruction of the unity of the empire. Orangemen, he said, had sought to interfere with nobody in the matter of religion or political right, but claimed equal liberty for all, though it was a trick of their opponents to misrepresent them as the embodiment of fanaticism and bigotry. They had also been accused of being revolutionists and as saying that under certain circumstances they would resist the law. If Ireland were severed from Great Britain and placed under the authority of an Irish parliament, the majority of that parliament would be hostile to the religious freedom of the Orangemen. They therefore claim the right to refuse to obey the authority before whom their forefathers never bowed and before whom their sons would never bend.

As long as they had a hand to strike with, they would never accept the yoke. No man deserving the name of an Orangeman would consent to accept home rule. Orangemen had force and it could not be denied that if the time came it ought to be employed. They could rely upon it that it would.

At the concluding banquet Delegate Pitts, of Canada, proposed the charter toast to "The Glorious Memory of William III."

In the course of his remarks he said the Dominion of Canada had 4,000,000 Protestants and thousands of Orangemen. The toast was drunk in silence, the company standing. Delegate Kelly, Grand Master of New Brunswick, proposed the toast to the Earl of Erne, the Imperial Grand Master, who was absent on account of illness.

Delegate Gas, of Nova Scotia, proposed a toast to Hon. Clarke Wallace, who in his reply commented on the progress of Canadian enterprise. The Ottawa conference, he said, had shown that the colonies preferred preferential relations with all parts of the empire. They mean to deal with members of their family first. The men of the Dominion would do all in their power to maintain the integrity of the empire.

With Delegate Hon. N. C. Wallace in the chair of the council, resolutions were adopted approving the rejection of the home rule bill by the House of Lords. Mr. Wallace said he was glad to be assured that the prospects of ultimate success of resistance to Irish separatism were becoming brighter every day. The sitting concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

Terrible Heat in the West.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Reports from Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Kansas show that the heat is the greatest in years. Pastures are drying up, and many farmers are unable to find feed for their cattle. It has not rained for many weeks and the corn crop is said to be badly damaged.

The Tariff Goes Back to Conference.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The struggle in the Senate over the question of sending the tariff back to the conference yesterday. After voting on several motions Senator Gray's original motion to insist and agree to a further conference was agreed to without division and the same conferees were then reappointed.

A Counterfeit Caught Red-Handed.

NEW YORK, July 28.—William Martin, an ex-convict and one of the most skilful counterfeiters in the United States, was arrested here while in the act of making counterfeit silver dollars. He was held in $5,000 bail.

Appointed to a Quebec Shrievalty.

QUEBEC, July 28.—It is stated on good authority that Hon. Mr. McIntosh has been appointed sheriff of St. Francois district, Eastern townships.

GULLED THE UPPER TEN

Montreal Society People Would Like to Know More of Mr. Wilmot.

THEY WERE TAKEN IN NICELY

Clarence Wilmot Was a Lion in Society Circles for a Few Weeks and Then Suddenly Disappears—A Grandiose Wedding Which Did Not Come Off.

MONTREAL, July 28.—Some weeks ago a dashing young fellow, who gave his name as Clarence Wilmot, and his native place as Savannah, arrived in Montreal. In some manner or other he received an entree into Montreal society, and soon cut a dashing figure. He spent money lavishly, and gave out that his mother was a millionaire half-a-dozen times over.

A few days ago Wilmot announced to his friends that he intended to marry Miss Marler of Three Rivers, and he proposed to do it in grand style. He chartered the R. & O. steamer Canada, and issued over three hundred invitations for a trip down the river, which was to have taken place this evening.

Great preparations were made for the trip, champagne galore was ordered and many prominent people were to have been present. Yesterday there was wailing and gnashing of teeth when it was found that Wilmot had disappeared and the grand festivities were declared off.

It has been found that there is no such person in Three Rivers as Miss Marler, and now people who engaged his acquaintance are puzzling themselves over who Mr. Wilmot was.

THE WORK OF GRAVE ROBBERS.

A Stolen Body Found After Three Years in the Salmon River.

CORNWALL, Ont., July 28.—While two Fort Covington boys were fishing at the head of Plum Island, at the mouth of the Salmon river, they discovered what looked like a human body in the rushes a short distance from the shore. They immediately went to Dundee and told what they had seen. A coroner from Huntingdon was sent for and went to the place indicated and found the body. It was brought ashore and it was found that the eyes, nose and part of the face were gone. The hands and feet were mutilated, but otherwise the body was in a good state of preservation. The corpse was dressed in black and around the neck was a bedcord, which was rotted away. The coroner did not consider an inquest necessary, but suggested that word be sent to the relatives of the late P. Purcell, of Fairfield, as in his opinion the body was his. Subsequently some of the Purcell family came over and from the clothes and the fact that a piece was torn from the skirt of the coat they thought that their long-lost relation had been discovered.

Mr. Purcell died in Nova Scotia on May 1, 1891. His corpse was embalmed by a Halifax undertaker and brought to Fairfield for interment, the funeral taking place at Flanagan's Point on May 6. On the night of May 14 the grave was opened and the body removed. It was originally thought that the body was anchored in deep water in the river, but it could not be found though dragged and dived for by an expert. Should this have been the case and the body discovered on Plum Island be that of Mr. Purcell it has lain at the bottom of the St. Lawrence these three years and only been released by the rotting of the cord which held it down.

Trade in the Dominion.

TORONTO, July 28.—Wholesale trade quiet; farmers busy with harvesting and country merchants doing little. From Montreal it is reported business is light in all lines and that there is no immediate prospect for improvement until after the settlement of the tariff question in the United States. Halifax reports crops throughout the province all very favorable, which lends encouragement to all lines. Bank clearings at Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax aggregate $21,500,000 this week, a gain of about 5 per cent. over last week and of nearly 25 per cent. as compared with the corresponding week a year ago. There are 32 business failures reported in the Dominion of Canada for the week, against 43 last week, 33 in the week a year ago, 23 two years ago and 20 three years ago.

A Sailor Drowned at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 28.—As the Allan liner Rosarian was coming to the wharf a boat manned by five sailors, who were to take the hawser ashore, was sent out. Everything went well until near the wharf, when, by the wash of the steamer, the boat was rocked, as it was about to capsize. The majority of the sailors kept their seats, but Henry Taylor, of New Zealand, 31 years of age, and Hugh Munroe, jumped into the water. The latter was saved by the Captain of the tug, which was bringing the ship to port, but the former, after coming up twice, sank for the last time before assistance could reach him and was drowned.

Canadian Bankers Elect Officers.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 28.—At the meeting of the Canadian Bankers' Association which closed yesterday officers were elected as follows: Honorary presidents, Sir Donald Smith, president Bank of Montreal, and J. Stevenson, general manager Quebec Bank, Quebec; president, B. E. Walker, general manager Canadian Bank of Commerce; vice-presidents, Geo. Hague, general manager Merchants' Bank of Canada; Duncan Coulson, general manager Bank of Toronto; D. H. Duncan, cashier Merchants' Bank, Halifax; G. A. Schofield, manager Bank of New Brunswick.

His Disappearance Causes Uneasiness.

QUEBEC, July 28.—A Frenchman named Montagnon, who has for several years enjoyed the confidence of the city officials, has suddenly left the city and is accused of defalcation. His friends say he will return soon, as he is in Sherbrooke.

A Grenadier Sentenced to Hard Labor.

TORONTO, July 28.—Edward Underkirk, a young man favorably known around town and a private in the Grenadiers, was given two months at hard labor for stealing a bicycle.

LOOK TO THE LISTS.

THE abandonment of the franchise bill and the adoption of a short measure providing for the revision of the lists under the present franchise act should induce Reformers everywhere to look keenly after the preparation of the Dominion voters' lists. The work done in the period between September 1, when the revision commences, and February 28, 1895, when it ends, will determine the result of the next Dominion election. That the opponents of the Government are a large majority of the people is entirely probable, but the only place where public sentiment can find valuable expression is at the polls. There will be little use in cheering for the principles of tariff reform and clean government at election time unless the cheer has a vote behind it. The duty of the next few months is therefore more important than any that can be done during the heat of a campaign. It should be done under thorough organization, so that the lists shall be complete and fresh at the date of the completion of the revision. It may be that all the labour bestowed upon it will be wasted, and that next session we shall have a radical change in the franchise act. The Government under which the Lachine bridge scandal is possible may think little of the expenditure of a quarter of a million on the revision of a list that they have no intention of using. We are very much inclined to the belief, however, that there will be no change of the law nor any further revision than that now ordered, until the Government goes to the country. If a new revision should be ordered next year, after the political workers upon both sides have spent time and money upon the forthcoming revision, there will be such an expression of adverse feeling as will more than recompense for the labour spent upon the list. Of this there is certainty: the next general election will be the last under the franchise act. Conservatives and Reformers alike are opposed to its continuance and one of the first great measures of the eighth parliament will be the reform of the election laws in so far as they relate to the preparation of voters' lists. The success of the Ontario registration law will ensure the adoption of registration as a principal feature of that measure. The present revision is probably the last under the old order. It may be the better endured because of the knowledge of this fact.

Reformers must look to the lists, because the Government holds the key of the situation. If their opponents neglect the present revision, the Ministry will hold the election on the list. If the Reformers gain advantage, another revision may be ordered; but this is a possibility that must not be considered in the work now at hand.—Globe.

THE people of Canada are divided into two great classes, the taxpayers and the tax eaters. As a rule the people that work are the taxpayers and tax eaters are the people who reap the fruit of the toilers' work—the moneyed classes. In municipal matters especially, if the wealthy paid taxes in proportion to their possessions, the poor man's taxes could be reduced about 50 per cent. Whether in customs or municipal taxes the humble classes pay the big bulk of the taxes paid.

AT the close of Parliament the Ministry put into the Governor-General's mouth the hope that the labours of the session would be fruitful of benefit to the country. One thing was omitted, and that was that the session has been fruitful in scandals and revelations of corruption, misadministration and waste of public funds, which makes one think that from a Government point of practice, political honesty had become an obsolete virtue.

A PROTEST was filed on Thursday last against the election of Alfred T. Gurd the P.P.A. candidate for West Lambton. The complainant is Mr. George Leys, of Sarnia. One of the counts in the petition is that Mr. Gurd is a member and a nominee of the P.P.A., and that the members of the association were his election agents and squandered money on his election. Mr. Gurd defeated Mr. Chas. Mackenzie by a majority of ninety.

THE Ontario Government with a view of protecting the rights of the citizens of the Province, has issued regulations requiring that all candidates presenting themselves at examinations for licenses for cullers must be British subjects and bona fide residents of Canada, a recognition of the rights of Canadians for preference in this matter.

IN Montreal there is a crusade against games of chance; in Ottawa, the civic authorities encourage gambling—forcing bachelors into matrimony by the threat of imposing a tax on these unfortunates.

THE Empire says,—"Little is said about the exodus to the States just now." But there's a good deal thought about the exodus to Canada—of American workmen—at Fenelon Falls.

THE THOUSAND ISLANDS.

Sir Richard Cartwright Interviewed on the Action of the Dominion Government in Selling Them—He Disapproves of the Policy—No Necessity to Sell—Favours a Proposition Made by the Ontario Government to Convert Them Into a Park—The Pretence Under Which They Were Sold.

Among the distinguished guests at the Rossin House Thursday was Sir Richard Cartwright, who arrived in town shortly before noon, and who looks none the worse after his arduous and protracted labours at Ottawa for the past four months. A Mail reporter sought the financial critic of the Opposition last evening and was kindly accorded an interview.

"What is your opinion of the action of the Dominion Government in selling a large number of the Thousand Islands between Gananoque and Brockville?" asked the reporter.

"I do not approve of it," answered Sir Richard. "The Ontario Government made a proposition to purchase these islands and convert them into a public park, if the consent of the Legislature could be obtained, but the Legislature having been dissolved, they asked the Dominion Government to delay the sale until they could obtain the sanction of the new Legislature to the proposal. We had two reasons for objecting to the present sale,' continued Richard. "First of all we thought the time for selling was very inopportune just now. The people have very little money to spend in matters of recreation or luxury, and also, we disapprove of the method of conducting the sale. The Government did not exactly sell secretly; but, on the other hand, no human being had any opportunity to know of the conditions of it, and it was quite possible for parties who had the ear of the department to secure islands they took a fancy to by going a very little above the prices another man might choose to offer."

"Do you think the project of the Ontario Government to convert the islands into a park a good one?"

"I think it might have been. They would have to have appointed guards to look after it. The islands have been very much neglected, there is no doubt."

"What do you think of the figure that is said to have been obtained for 300 of them, $40,000?"

"I think a great deal more might have been got for them by waiting a year or two. Many purchasers would, no doubt, have come from the other side if due notice of the sale was given. There is no necessity for selling the islands just now. The government has selected a very bad time. A pretence was made that the interest of the Indians necessitated the sale, but when the government disposed of the Indians' timber limits a while ago their interests certainly not considered."

"It is said that most of the islands have been sold to Canadians?"

"Yes, but there is no saying how long they will remain in the hands of Canadians. Once these islands get out of the control of the Dominion or Local Governments the work can never be undone. All that was asked was delay until such time as the Ontario Legislature could have passed on the question."

Like a Miracle
Consumption—Low Condition
Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

Said She Was Past All Help

and wanted me to send her to the 'Home for Incurables.' But I said as long as I could hold my hand up she should not go. We then began to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She is getting strong, walks around, is out doors every day; has no trouble with her throat and no cough, and her heart seems to be all right again. She has a first class appetite. We regard her cure as nothing short of a miracle." W. WYATT, 29 Marion Street, Parkdale, Toronto, Ontario.

A HOME JEWEL!

Life-Giving Laetated Food Made it Healthy, Happy, Hearty.

BABY LARIVIERE.

Fortunate and truly happy are all homes where the baby is daily nourished on life-giving Lactated Food. Father, mother, brother and sisters adore the home jewel fed on Lactated Food; it is always healthy, happy, contented, and sleeps sweetly and well. No food in the world for infants' use has ever received such praise and commendation from parents and the best physicians.

The Rev. D. Lariviere. B. A., pastor of L'Eglise du Redempteur, Chatham St., Montreal, writes as follows: "I am sending you a photo of one of your many baby friends. This is Lariviere, eleven months old, weighing twenty pounds. The mother was not able to nurse her more than a month, and since then, she has been fed on Lactated Food, and is perfectly well and contented as you will see by the photo. I hope this may encourage others to try your excellent food."

Montreal Merchant Instantly Killed.

MONTREAL, July 28.—James Richardson, a well-known business man, and member of the former wholesale leather firm of Hua, Richardson & Co., was killed outright by the Sorel train on the Montreal & Sorel railway at Longueuil. Mr. Richardson, who was very hard of hearing, was walking along the track when the train caught up to him, and before it could be stopped he was struck. The unfortunate gentleman had his neck and one of his arms broken and was no doubt instantly killed. Mr. Richardson had retired from business some years since and resided in Longueuil. He was 61 years of age, and had been a resident of this city for thirty years. He came from Quebec and leaves a wife and a daughter and four sons.

Ended His Career in Jail.

MONTREAL, July 28.—Cornelius Doercy, whose death is announced from Kingston, was serving a life sentence for having attempted to murder Constable Baignet, who is now captain in charge of No. 11 station in Hochelaga ward. The crime was committed on July 31, when the officer was taking a man named Murray into custody for drunkenness at St. Ann's Market. Doercy, who was one of a group of loafers in the neighborhood, picked up a shovel that was lying near and struck Baignet on the back of the head, fracturing his skull. He was taken to St. Vincent de Paul, but was subsequently transferred to Kingston penitentiary, where he died. By far the greater part of his life had been spent in reformatories, prisons and penitentiaries.

Rockwood Postoffice Burglarized.

ROCKWOOD, July 28.—The postoffice here was broken into by burglars yesterday, the safe blown open and $300 in money and $50 in stamps stolen. Mr. Pasmore, the postmaster, was awakened by the noise and he jumped up and ran to the window. Seeing three men standing in the street, he called to his brother, who sleeps in the back part of the building, that burglars were around. At this time the three men jumped in a buggy and drove off rapidly in the direction of Acton. The burglars in their flight left behind a good revolver. Word was at once sent to Guelph, and Chief of Police Randall has telegraphed throughout the country to be on the lookout for them.

Bricklayer Killed by a Fall.

HAMILTON, July 28.—Patrick Hanley, a bricklayer, was working at a brick house on Wellington street south yesterday on which alterations were being made, when the stone window sill on which he was standing gave way and he was precipitated to the ground, 25 feet below. He fell on a pile of broken stone and had his skull fractured and his face badly crushed in. He was taken to the St. Joseph's hospital, but died three hours after the accident happened. Deceased was 35 years of age and leaves a widow and several small children.

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

MARCHING TO THE CAPITAL.

Four Hundred Coxeyites on the Road—Population of Ontario by Sexes.

OTTAWA, July 28.—A police officer was informed by Isaac Johnston, engineer of the Parry Sound Railway, that he passed about 400 tramps who were travelling on the railway track in the direction of Ottawa. When he saw them they were about nine miles outside the city. They were evidently railway laborers, who did not like work this hot weather and were coming east on foot. There are all sorts of rumors concerning the approach of these "Coxeyites", but they have not yet reached the city.

Prof. Macoun, of the Geological Survey, who has just returned to the city from field explorations in the vicinity of Alberta, had a brief but unusually successful season of explorations. He was absent scarcely seven weeks and during that time collected over 1,000 eggs of more than 50 varieties, about 300 bird skins, a varied selection of reptiles and a great number of small animals, the latter from the vicinity of the Cypress Hills and Medicine Hat.

This year the statistical abstract book will show the population of the two sexes as follows: Ontario—In 1881, 508 men to every 492 women; 1891, 506 men to 493 women. In the whole of Canada in 1881, 508 men to 494 women, and in 1891, 509 men to 491 women.

It is not thought that the protest of United States fishermen against the license fee of $5, which is charged for the privilege of fishing on the Canadian side of the St. Lawrence, is a matter of very much moment. The regulation was adopted as a means of checking the wholesale slaughter of fish said to have been carried on in Canadian waters, not by sportsmen, but by market fishermen from the United States side of the river. As for the hints of retaliation, it is pretty generally regarded as an empty threat. The license system is said to be a protection to the sportsmen on both sides of the boundary.

THREE MORE PROTESTS.

Elections of Hon. Mr. Harcourt and Mr. Meredith to be Protested.

TORONTO, July 28.—Protests were filed yesterday in the Court of Appeal against the election of W. R. Meridith, for London; J. T. Middleton, for East Hamilton, and Hon. R. Harcourt, for Monck.

I purchased a package of K. D. C., and before I had finished it, the symptoms were all gone, and I now enjoy better health than I have had for years. I can recommend it to any one."

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, July 28, 1894.

On the London Stock Exchange Japanese securities fell three points and Chinese securities one point.

There were 57 carloads of live stock received at the local market. Export cattle weaker, the best selling at 4c per pound. Hogs were slightly weaker.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Receipts continue small, Oats easier, 500 bushels selling at 36 to 40½c. Wheat is quoted at 62c for white, 61c for red and at 58c for goose. Peas nominal at 66c and barley at 42c to 44c.

Buffalo.—Cattle—Thirteen cars on sale. Sheep and lambs—Thirty-five cars on sale. Too many for the market. Sheep dull. The best ewes were taken out for export, but the other grades were neglected. Lambs were 25 to 50c lower, and trade very slack. Good to choice lambs sold at $3.50 to $3.65, fancy $3.75 to $4. Hogs—Twenty-five cars, dull and slow.

To corn belongs the credit for causing a temporary advance in wheat in Chicago and because corn was unable to preserve the full appreciation there was a corresponding decline in wheat. Corn at the opening prices shot upward on the unprecedented high range of temperature that was reported in the northwest and south west. Later, on advices of rain being received from the west and northwest, a decline took place. Oats were in close sympathy with corn. Receipts to-day—Wheat, 470 cars; corn, 320 cars; oats, 175 cars; hogs, 15,000 head.

A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give Ayer's Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Last Night's Band Concert.

A large gathering was present at last night's band concert in Court House Park and the programme rendered was of a high class and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The selections rendered seemed to win the praise of those who take an interest in the music rendered by the band and many were of the opinion that last night's programme was one of the choicest yet presented. The euphonium and cornet solos in the last number of the programme were especially well executed and won the deserved applause of the listeners.

Take It In.

The grand annual excursion of Court Little John, No. 92, C.O.F., which takes place regularly every year on the Civic Holiday, will be an unusually favorite and fascinating trip this year. The posters are now on the walls, and give only a partial conception of the attractiveness of the route, and the extraordinary cheapness of the tickets. The excursion is billed to go first to Toronto by C.P.R., then by steamers across to Queenston, then up along the Niagara River by the Electric Railway on the Canadian side to Niagara Falls and Chippewa, then by steamer to Buffalo. To give some idea how cheap the rates are which have been secured by the Foresters it may be mentioned that the regular return fare from Peterborough to Toronto is $4.20, and to Buffalo $9. On this trip, however, the fares have been pulled down to $1.75 to Toronto, and $2.75 to Buffalo. Children half fare, tickets good for 3 days. Take it in—if you don't you'll regret it.

An Evening With Burns.

Miss Jean Howison, of Perth, Scotland, will give an evening with Robert Burns, the poet, the immortal apostle of the brotherhood of man, in Bradburn's Opera House on July 31st, with readings and recitations from his poems. Miss Howison comes highly recommended by the press and eminent public men, and the following letter from Mr. Melville Millar, a former Peterborough citizen, whose commendation will be accepted as a reliable expression of opinion, is a valuable testimony to the excellency of the entertainment. Mr. Millar heard Miss Howison in Orillia:—

ORILLIA, Ont., July 7th, 1894.

R. M. Dennistoun, Esq., Peterborough.

DEAR SIR,—I suppose you are still president of the Peterborough St. Andrew's Society, and as such, take an interest in everything calculated to keep up a proper interest in Scottish affairs.

I take the liberty of introducing to you Miss Howison, who is lecturing on Burns, and having heard her here last evening, I can safely recommend her popular lecture as an entertainment, that no one, who cares anything for such things, can afford to miss. Should Miss H. arrange to give her lecture in Peterborough, I thought that possibly you would kindly interest yourself in the matter, and set such influences at work as would ensure a good house. You may take my word for it that no one would regret spending an evening at Miss Howison's entertainment. With kind regards I am,

Yours truly,
MELVILLE MILLAR.

Post Office Improvements at Brockville.

Brockville has a new postmaster and he is making improvements in the service in the public interest. Heretofore the general delivery wicket has been closed, after the rural post office manner, from 12 to 1 p. m., while mails were being distributed and sorted. Under the new arrangement the general delivery will be open continuously from 8 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. It would be an immense convenience if the local post office general delivery wicket were to be kept open continuously instead of being closed at the noon hour when persons going home to dinner could secure their mail on the way and without the necessity of a special trip. A post office is intended to serve the public convenience and should be conducted with that end in view.

Wonderful Seamless Garments.

What is called the nineth wonder of the world can now be seen in Peterborough. At least a reporter has been on the spot and seen it, and can readily vouch for the truth of what he saw. Dressmakers, seamstresses, and the fair sex, generally, will, doubtless, be very skeptical when told that seamless dresses, basques, etc., without one inch of seams or darts in goods or linings, even on the shoulders, can now be turned out. So complete and easy is this remarkable invention that it is claimed that no system of dress and garment cutters is as popular wherever it has been tested and approved. Prof. De Lamont the inventor, claims it to be the world's champion tutor and dress cutting system. A school has already been opened out with a good attendance at 426 Water street, by Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hawkins, the duly authorized representatives of the professor, where the system is taught and instruction books provided, for a very modest charge per pupil.

Unwatering Little Lake.

The notice that has been published in the EXAMINER to the effect that the water in Little Lake would be let out on the first of August, refers to the necessity of lowering the water in order to make repairs to the locks dam. The water will be let out for a day or part of a day for the purpose of permitting the construction of a coffer dam to make repairs to one of the sluices of the dam. The water will be lowered two or three feet for this purpose. It would be intensely interesting to have Little Lake completely unwatered so that the members of the Board of Health could take a walk on the sawdusty bottom and see how the rotting edgings and sawdust contribute to the perfume that rises from the lake when a steamer's paddle stirs the waters de profundis. In this event, the Board of Health might see sufficient reason to warrant its insisting upon the Dominion Government thoroughly dredging Little Lake and making it, what it can be made, if it were cleaned out, the prettiest entirely intra-urban lake in the country. Mr. Superintendent, Rogers and his staff, will also repair the piers in the Little Lake where they are decayed between wind and water and also overhaul the booms.

—The Canadian General Electric Company, Peterborough, the Packet says, will commence putting in the incandescent system on August 1st, and it is to be finished by October 1st.

—Last evening, when one of the electric cars were passing down George street, three young ladies and a gentlemen were noticed enjoying a quiet game of cards, in a trailer. They were evidently enjoying the outing on "passes."

—Citizens in the south end of the town in the vicinity of Park and Albert streets are continually missing articles from their houses and they suspect parties who are seen loitering around there. The police intend patrolling that part of the town and will wipe the petty thieving out.

—The latest issue from the press of Mr. Wm. Bryce, publisher, is the interesting novel, "Cyril Whyman's Mistake," by Carrie J. Harris. This is a well written tale, with exciting plot and well sustained interest; a capital companion for a summer afternoon. At the Peterborough Bookstore.

—The place to advertise—that is the EXAMINER. Within the past four or five days, no less than four lost articles were promptly returned through advertisements in the EXAMINER. The fifth article, a $5 bill, was not recovered and it will doubtless come back in the form of "conscience money" in the future.

—Mr. Smythe's (Conservative) majority of one in Kingston has been accounted for. It was polled by a youth 20 years old. He was so tickled at having cast the winning ballot that he wrote to Loudon, gleefully informing his sister that Mr. Smythe owed his election to him. The news was too good to keep. It became noised around London, and from London travelled to Kingston, where the Liberal managers have discovered the story to be true.

—Dr. Jebb, the specialist, finished a four days visit in Peterborough to-day, and leaves for Chemong Park this evening. On Monday he goes to Lindsay to fill an important engagement there. The Dr. has earned the gratitude of numerous citizens for his skillful and successful fitting of spectacles and eye glasses in cases of difficult and impaired eye sight. He now makes regular visits to Peterborough, and those who were unfortunate in not being waited upon this week will be first attended to on his next visit, due notice of which will be given.

A DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

The Residence of Mr. John Lavick Entered About Ten O'clock this Morning.

This morning between 9 and 10 o'clock a tramp called at the residence of Mr. John Lavick, Norwood Road, Otonabee, and asked for something to eat. Mrs. Lavick, who was attending to the household duties, gave the visitor what he requested but it was noticed he was in no hurry departing from the premises. A few minutes after Mrs. Lavick had occasion to go into her room, when she discovered that some one had been there before her and had disturbed the contents. Upon investigation it was found that her black silk dress, a number of silver spoons, a gold ring and about $3 in cash were missing. She immediately notified her brother, Mr. Adam Clotworthy, who was living with Mr. Lavick, and he repaired to his room in order to see if his apartment had been disturbed. The pockets of his pants which were hanging in the room, were rifled and a $20 gold piece, a number of $10 and $5 Ontario bills, amounting in all to about $50, was found missing.

Suspicion points to the fact that the tramp, who solicited the meal, was the one who committed the robbery, but the peculiar feature about the whole affair is that the deed was done in broad daylight, and while Mrs. Lavick was attending to the duties of the house.

The town police have been notified, and are keeping a strict watch for all suspicious characters, but it is more than likely that the thief will travel in a different direction and will give the town a wide berth.

AN ENDORSATION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I read Mr. Fitzgerald's letter on the sewerage in yesterday's EXAMINER, and I believe there is much truth and sense in it.

Lock street sewer is too much to one side and where the town can't grow. It is too far away from the west and north parts of the town and would be no benefit to our property. It will cost too much for any good it can do, as it and George street near it are along the lake and there is not much land or houses to drain.

When it can be done the main sewer should be centrewise in a town and where there is land and houses on the two sides that would be drained.

Then the street railway is in the road and that will make it difficult and expensive to build the sewer and if the railway is stopped the company will have a bill of damages against the town and they will get it.

Anyway, looking at the question all round, I do not think we in the west and north part of the town, and in the south and middle as well would get any good from the present plan and we ought to vote against it as I will. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I am

Yours, etc',
TAXPAYER.

A STREET CAR COLLISION.

A Car Crashes into a Farmer's Waggon On Charlotte Street To-day.

At noon, to-day, an accident occurred at the corner of Charlotte and Stewart streets, which came near resulting fatally. A waggon containing Mr. Wm. O'Brien and mother, wife of the late Thos. O'Brien, of Douro, were driving along Stewart street towards Charlotte street, and when near the crossing, street car No. 4, in charge of Conductor McKee and Motorman Everett, came upon them before he had time to turn his horses. They were in the act of turning when the car struck the horse, and then the waggon, tearing away the front wheel and part of the side of the waggon. Startled by the crash, the horses made a plunge forward and came into collision with one of the large trees opposite Mrs. White's residence. The shock threw out Mrs. O'Brien to the rough surface of the newly-laid street metal. The unfortunate lady was picked up unconscious and carried into Dr. Pigeon's, where her injuries received the necessary surgical attention. After recovering consciousness, Dr. Pigeon drove her to the residence of a relative in town. The attending physician, at the present time, is unable to tell the state of her injuries.

Nuptials of Mr. Albert A. Brinham and Miss Emma Kelly.

A happy event occurred at the residence of David Kelly, Asphodel, Wednesday, July 25th, when his his daughter, Emma M., was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Albert A. Brinham, fireman on the C. P. R., Havelock. The ceremony was performed at 11 a. m., by Rev. James Sanderson, of Norwood, in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony congratulations were exchanged and the company sat down to a table spread with all the delicacies of the season. The remainder of the afternoon passed very pleasantly and at 4:12 p. m. the happy couple took the west bound train for Toronto, Niagara Falls, London, Windsor and Detroit. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and costly presents. They have the best wishes of a host of friends. —Register.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

Belleville and Kingston play lacrosse on August 31st.

Peterborough will likely play Orillia at an early date.

The Granites and Dukes will play for the junior championship of the town on Monday.

On the afternoon of the professional regatta on Couchiching Lake, August 7th, Port Hope and Orillia will probably play a game of lacrosse on the Oval.

It is the opinion in Toronto lacrosse circles that a serious mistake was made when the protest was lodged against Tansey, of the Shamrocks. It is said the promoters of the protest will withdraw their objections.

BASEBALL.

Lindsay defeated Uxbridge yesterday 18 to 10.

Lakefield has organized a baseball club with P. McCargar as captain, and W. Cox, secretary.

Cobourg baseball people, the Packet says, were counting upon having Mr. Mnidrew with them during the holidays, but Orillia's High School Science Master appears to have seen a hand they could not see, which beckoned him away.

CRICKET.

The East Toronto touring eleven visited us yesterday, after a week's practice in, won easy victory over teams in Belleville, Kingston, Deseronto and Campbellford and met their match and more—Toronto being handsomely defeated by the local team in a two-innings game. The match created considerable interest and there was a fair number of spectators, the fair members of the club being particularly in evidence. The ladies were most conspicious in the luncheon pavilion, when, under the management of Mrs. (Dr.) Burnham and Miss Halladay, they provided an excellent repast for the two teams. The local team as well as the visitors, are exceedingly grateful to the ladies for the kindly and substantial attention so gracefully bestowed.

The wicket was in fairly good shape yesterday. Capt. Ray won the toss and sent his eleven to bat to the bowling of Attewell (pro), former coach of the home team, and Berry. The innings was not very productive of runs, a total of fifty-four having been compiled, of which the only double figures (16) contributed by Sheriff, in splendid form, was the chief incident. Allison came next with a score of nine. Toronto East followed and put up a total of 83,—LeRoy getting 11 of these, Attewell 26, and Thompson a round dozen.

Thus things did not look very promising for the home eleven when the home team's second venture at the bat only brought 78, leaving the visitors a round half century to make to win. If they expected to win they counted without their host, or rather Houldsworth, for the last wicket fell for a total of 20 runs, a result largely due to the unplayable delivery of Houldsworth, who bowled a splendid game yesterday, the bowling analyses showing that he made the splendid score of 12 wickets for 22 runs which latter would have been greatly reduced had the fielders held the ball on several occasions. Smith, of the Torontos did a short term of splendid trundling, his record being two overs, two maidens, no runs, and three wickets. Sam Ray, who does'nt seem to lose his grip, is to be credited with two or three brilliant catches. This is the score:—

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. Commodore Calcutt, accompanied by his daughters, spent a most enjoyable time at Jubilee Point yesterday and visited the different landing stages along the line.

A party from Oshawa, nine in number, ladies and gentlemen, are camped, having pitched their tent at the extreme point of the island for an indefinite period.

The familiar face of Mr. Joe Castle, of the Carbon Works, town, paid the Point a visit, accompanied by his wife and son yesterday. He is the same old Joe as yet and is a monument of health. His many friends were glad to see him.

The guests registered at the Hotel Jubilee are as follows:—Mr. Walter H. Beatty, Coldwater; Mr. Chas. McAllister, Gore's Landing; Miss Mary Tobin, Ashburnham; Mr. Billy Edminson, Mr. Thos. Wallace, Gore's Landing; Mr. Harry Lane, (mayor of Harwood); Mr. Robert Watson, Harwood; Mr. Joe Nelson, Mr. Harry Trollope, Mr. John Fulton, Mr. Harry Butcher, Peterborough; Mr. Bob Butcher, Mr. John Heaps, Ashburnham; Mr. and and Mrs. Uriah Wheeler, Otonabee; the Misses Aggie and Mary Kain, accompanied by Prof. Herald, of Toronto.

Mr. Sid. Beckett, of the Point hotel, captured a monster turtle, being 2½ feet long and seventeen inches in breadth, weighing sixteen pounds. He kindly presented the same to Congenial Jackson, who gave the boys a plate of the genuine surtle soup for dinner, being much appreciated by those participating in this celebrated dainty dish.

Mr. Harry Trollope took to himself a header in aqua pura and pulled the hole in after himself. Mr. John Fulton, on perceiving the catastrophe, went promptly to the rescue and after some difficulty rescued him from his perilous position. On account of no M. D. being on the grounds at the time, Manager Jackson had him rolled over and over again till he came to. After several applications of hot water and flannels, with a bag or two of hot salt applied to his feet, he hardly recognized himself when the looking glass was put before him. The onlookers, many of which came to the conclusion that Mr. Fulton should be presented with the Humane Society's Medal for the daring undertaking and at the same time perilous position, in which he placed himself, he not being an expert swimmer. The Humane society should take this into consideration before they make their award, as regards rescues of this sort in Canada.

Mr. Sid Beckett is kept hustly engaged in icing fish; he has in all 900 lbs. for export. They are principally bass and are to be shipped to Toronto and Montreal markets.

A GREAT MANY CHILDREN

—have been cured of scrofula and other skin diseases—as well as thousands of grown people, by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Every disorder that can be reached through the blood, yields to its purifying qualities. Besides, it builds up wholesome flesh and strength; not merely fat like Cod liver oils. A scrofulous condition of the blood invites Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption. We're all exposed to the germs of consumption, grip, or malaria—yet only the weak ones suffer. When you're weak, tired out, and debilitated, or when pimples and blotches appear—heed the warning in time. The "Discovery" sets all the organs into healthy action—especially the liver, for that's the point of entrance for these germs, then if the blood is pure, they'll be thrown off. There's no risk. If it fails to benefit or cure in all cases of impure blood or inactive liver, your money is returned.

The key to the situation—if you suffer from Catarrh, you'll find in Dr. Sage's Remedy. No matter how bad your case may be, the proprietors of the medicine promise to pay $500 if they can't cure you. You're cured, or you're paid.

THE PREACHER'S WIFE.

The Interesting Story of a Lady Who Had Lived for Thirty Years in the Shadow of Sudden Death.

From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Mrs. S. S. Ballaine, wife of Rev. S. S. Ballaine, of Horine Station, Mo., has for many years led the life of an invalid to whom the dread summons might come at any moment, until a kind providence threw in her way the remedy that has restored her health. Her recovery should be repeated in every paper in the land that others suffering might profit by the experience of Mrs. Ballaine, and be saved. A correspondent of the Globe Democrat determined to start the good work and called at the Ballaine home believing that the story would be of far greater value and interest if told in the lady's own words. She welcomed the visitor to the house and expressed her willingness to be interviewed. "My story," said she, "is a simple one of suffering and relief; I had a disease of the heart from which few ever recover, and from which I never expected to escape. I had risen and lighted a fire one morning feeling in normal health, when I suddenly became unconscious. I knew no more until I recovered my senses in bed. They told me that I was black in the face, and that when first picked up no motion of the heart was perceptible. About six years ago I was attacked with a variety of afflictions, such as short breath, extreme weakness, fainting spells, and, most annoying of all, a burning, irritating nettle rash, that at times rendered me almost frantic, and, as you can readily understand, seriously aggravated my heart troubles. One day glancing over a religious paper published in Montreal (I was born in London, England, and was married in Canada, where we lived for a time). I read the testimony of a lady whose case was much like mine, and who had been benefited by Dr. William's Pink Pills for Pale People. Having seen the remedy advertised in other reputable papers I resolved to try them. It was a heaven-sent resolution. The first box had a most miraculous effect. The nettle rash disappeared as if by magic, and my trouble yielded to the medicine like the snow yields to the spring-time sun, and I feel better to day than I have for twenty years. I cannot say too much about my improved condition. My blood is full and rich, my appetite is good, my nerves are steady, I sleep soundly and wake up refreshed, perform the manifold duties of the household, and surely my heart must be in good condition when I answer to all these conditions.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are offered with a confidence that they are the only perfect and unfailing blood purifier and nerve restorer, and where given a fair trial disease and suffering must vanish. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of 50c. a box, or $2.50 for six boxes, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Beware of imitations and refuse trashy substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for such a condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25 cents.

A Four-Footed Bird in South America.

That there are still numerous chances for the indefatigable student and investigator to make new discoveries may be judged from the fact that the only known species of four-footed bird has been discovered only quite recently. The curious anomaly is a native of the Amazon river country, its principal habitat being the islands of Marajo. It is only during the period of incubation (at which time the little embryo's extra legs and feet are seen at their best) and early birdhood that the four-footed feature is at all observable. Like the baby frog, which either "sheds" or absorbs its tail, the four-footed bird rids itself of its useless legs in the same manner, chicks six weeks of age usually being perfectly free from any signs of the extra member. The ornithologists profess to believe that this curious creature is a survival of some past geological epoch. Its scientific name is Opisthocomus cristatus. The natives call it the "hoactzin," which means the "evil-smelling bird."—St. Louis Republic.

A Few Wild Buffalos Left Yet.

There are still some wild buffalos in the west, notwithstanding the general belief of the public to the contrary. A considerable herd of them ranges in the Red Desert in the western central part of Wyoming, and are occasionally seen at intervals near its borders. A bull buffalo, accompanied by three cows, was recently reported as having been observed by a sheep herder near Mud Lake, which is northwest of the big bend of the Muddy. Other herders have frequently seen them in larger numbers, but they are very shy, and keep from the haunts of men. It is simply inconceivable for a man who went west thirty years ago to realize that the noblest of wild animals have been made almost extinct.—Washington Star.

The Great Point in a Hat.

The great point in a hat nowadays, writes Consin Madge in London Truth, is the character of the curve. If we suppose a family of some nine or ten sisters, with a certain similarity of outline, we shall yet find that no two of them look their best in exactly the same hat. What, then, must it be with the world of girlhood at large? It is absolutely safe to say that there never was yet any hat worn by sisters in which one was not, to a certain extent, sacrificed to the other. Take, for instance, the large picture hat of soft and flexible fine black chip, with its multitude of exquisite feathers for trimming, and its one blush rose at the back with another companion bud resting on the hair under the curve at the left side. It might be imagined that such a headgear as this would make any girl look her loveliest, but when one comes to try it on, it is found that a certain amount of alteration in the very important point of curve will be necessary in most cases.

THE STEWART CASE.

Mr. Stewart Pays a Visit to Pictou—Congratulated by His Many Friends on His Restoration to Health.

PICTOU, N.S., July 16.—Good news sometimes travels as fast as bad news, which is proverbially fast. Many people here knew that Mr. Allan Stewart, of Springton, P.E.I., had been for many years afflicted with kidney disease and gravel. It was known, too, that last year he was so bad that public opinion put him down as likely to die soon. Mr. Stewart fooled public opinion though, for he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills and ten boxes of them completely cured him. When he paid a flying visit to this city a few days age, he received many hearty congratulations on restoration to health and improved appearance. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to cure in this part of the Dominion.

Having suffered over two years with constipation, and the doctors not having helped me, I concluded to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and before I used one bottle I was cured. I can also recommend it for sick headache. Ethel D. Haines, Lakeview, Ont.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

STEAM TREE FELLING.

There is No Further Use for the Romantic Woodman's Axe.

Tree felling by means other than manual labor has been an engaging subject to many inventors, and for some time past a more or less interesting array of appliances designed to accomplish it has been paraded before the readers of mechanical journals. One of the more recent of these machines, brought out in England by Allen Ransome, of Chelsea, reminds one very much, in appearance, of the now so familiar rock drill, the drill proper, of course, being supplanted by a reciprocating saw blade. The piston to which the saw blade is attached works in a cylinder of small diameter, but rather long stroke, pivotally supported on a pair of wheels, so that the whole arrangement is readily portable. Steam is intended to be supplied to the machine from a portable boiler through a long steam hose so that the boiler can remain in one place until the machine has felled all the trees within a considerable circle around it, the space cleared, of course, depending upon the length of the hose. Cutting down a tree, however, is not the only function to which the machine is limited. By partially rotating it on its axis the saw can be set to cut in a vertical direction, or at any angle between the horizontal and vertical positions, so that, after having been felled, a tree may be quickly cut up into desired lengths. It generally happens that when a large tree falls it does not lie flat, as its branches hold the upper part of its trunk from the ground, and in order to squarely cross cut trees lying in such a position it is necessary to incline the saw somewhat from a vertical line. This is readily done by the adjusting capacity just mentioned.—Cassier's Magazine.

Importance of Good Teeth.

Few women realize the importance of paying careful attention to their teeth until they begin to suffer the discomfort of toothache and then when it is too late they appreciate the value of a strong, sound set of teeth. One of the most common causes of dental decays, says a correspondent of the New York Journal, is due to the extremes of hot and cold to which the teeth are subjected. The custom of taking food at a very high temperature has not only a deleterious effect upon the teeth alone, but upon the bones, the hair and the complexion. Strong acids are another fruitful source of harm, for by them the ivory is denuded of its enamel, and if once this outer covering is removed it can never be replaced, and the dentine (ivory) left with nothing to protect, will soon decay. It is superfluous to state how destructive bonbons of all kinds are, more especially those known as "acid drops," which should never be partaken of by anyone who wishes to preserve her teeth. The effect of habitually drinking acid beverages is very noticeable where large quantities of rough cider are consumed; the country folk, even quite the young people who are addicted to this practice, are rarely to be seen with a good set of teeth. Liquid tonics and other strong medicines should always be taken by means of capsules, a glass tube or a quill, sold for the purpose, so as to prevent the iron, arsenic, etc, coming into contact with the enamel.

The teeth should be thoroughly brushed both inside and out at least twice a day, morning and evening.

Farm Horse Breeding.

Many of our farmers breed to raise their ideal light, handy little horse for general-purpose horse for their own use, and if they happen to get a good horse, it is the first one sold. Then any old scrub even a mule will do to work on the farm. Is it not better to breed for the most salable horse, large, heavy, draft, or stylish coachers, and keep all the mares and young horses to do the farm work?

On this subject an English farmer and breeder at the Suffolk show said, they were justly proud of the Suffolk horse, and he was sure they all desired that it should be not only an ornament upon the farm, but also a source of profit to the farmer. They could not afford to farm for good looks, and they could not afford to breed horses simply to work upon the farm. A farmer must make a certain profit on his horses, exactly as he did upon his sheep and cattle. A short time since he received a letter from Mr. Sutton Nelthorpe, a most successful breeder of Shire horses, who at a recent sale made an average of 199 guineas for his horses. He said in order to make a profit on the breeding of horses they should be made to work on the farm for four or five years and then sold for work in the towns. Young horses would work fairly well at the plow, but they were no use in the streets, and they were no good for the towns at all unless they were sound in the feet.—Western Agriculturist.

To Be Called Elijah.

Children have been admirably drilled in Bible detail. They know more about it than three-fourths of their Sunday school teachers. They have learned the story of Moses till they can say it as pat as the multiplication table. But I do not find any living interest in Moses. There is one of the grandest life stories in history, and they seem to have no feeling about it. And that need not be so, I remember one of my Sunday school teachers in Chicago telling me how troubled she had been because she was afraid she was not making the stories of the prophets interesting to her boys. But one day she was comforted, for she heard from the mother of one of them that the lad had come home the Sunday before, and, after sitting silent awhile, suddenly burst out at the dinner table: "Well, I do think Elijah was a fine fellow; and, if ever I have a kid of my own, I mean to call him Elijah!" Of course, it is only a rare teacher who can teach that way.—Brook Hereford, in Contemporary Review.

TWO HUSBANDS AT HER GRAVE.

The Story Told of One of Lord Rosebery's Ancestors.

Since Lord Rosebery stepped into Mr. Gladstone's shoes stories of his college days at Oxford and his maiden efforts in the political game have come to light and into print. So far the new Prime Minister's career has been filled with more of the practical affairs of life than otherwise. But one of his ancestors was the hero of a romance, which, though not to be found in the pages of Burke or Debrett, is vouched for by Chambers' "Book of Days." The nobleman was Lord Dalmeny, the son of the second Earl of Rosebery, who in the first half of the last century encountered in London a charming lady, whom he persuaded to marry him, and who accompanied him on a tour on the Continent. This union, though it was concealed from the relatives of both bridegroom and bride, appears to have fulfilled the essential conditions of matrimony, and to have conferred on Kitty Cannon and her noble Lord both harmony and happiness.

But while still in the height of their wedding bliss the lady was stricken by a mortal illness. When assured that there was no chance of her recovery, she asked for pen and paper, and wrote these startling words: "I am the wife of the Rev. Mr. Gough, rector of Thorp, in Essex. My maiden name was C. Cannon, and my last request is to be buried at Thorpe." Lord Dalmeny always protested his entire ignorance of this previous marriage, and bitterly mourned his loss. He determined, however, to carry out the last wishes of one he had loved so well, and, having had the body embalmed, contrived to convey it to England, assuming the name of Williams for the purpose of his journey.

At Colchester, where he landed, the chest containing the remains was opened by the custom-house officers, who suspected a case of smuggling. The body was placed in the church, and the young nobleman took his stand beside it, so absorbed in grief that the scene reminded an imaginative and sympathetic bystander of Romeo and Juliet. Suspicion of foul play having been aroused, Lord Dalmeny at length explained the circumstances in which he was placed, and the real husband was sent for to identify the remains. The meeting between these two men is stated to have moved all who beheld it. Of the two it is said the second husband seemed most desirous to do honor to the deceased. He had a splendid coffin prepared for her and attended the body to Thorpe, where Mr. Gough met him, and the burial service was performed with all due solemnity.

"Kitty Cannon," says the local narrator of the period, "is, I believe, the first woman in England that has had two husbands to attend her to the grave together." Lord Dalmeny died a few years later, in 1755, in the thirty-first year of his age and unmarried.—London Globe.

IRON ORE AND TIMBER.

Vast Quantities of Both Found in the Interior of Labrador.

The interior of Labrador is not the barren good for nothing place people have always taken it to be. A. P. Low, of the Canadian geographical survey staff, who left Quebec in June last year to explore the country, and who wintered with his party at Rigolet Inlet, a Hudson's Bay post on Hamilton Inlet on the north shore of Labrador, in a report tells a story that will open the eyes of the scientific world, this being the first known exploration into the districts traversed. He is quoted by the Montreal Gazette as saying that the vast interior between the north of Lake St. John and Ungava Bay is thickly wooded with spruce trees, mixed here and there with poplar. There are thousands and thousands of square miles of spruce, sufficient to last for years after local forests are done out. The majority of the spruce trees would make timber eighteen inches square. Here and there over the country are indications of vast deposits of the richest of iron ore. The whole of the route traversed was a revelation to him.

Mr. Low made a very extensive and arduous trip. From Lake St. John to his winter quarters, following the various streams in canoes, with part overland journeys, he and his party traveled close on 900 miles. The ascent of the River Ashonaponochonan, which flows into Lake St. John, was very difficult. The party carried with them six canoes. The country proved very rough and the rivers dangerous, so that the trip on the whole was no picnic. Mr. Low expected to leave his quarters early this spring and be home during the fall. He will try and make the return trip overland through the southern part of Labrador, just above the Quebec boundary.

BAY OF FUNDY'S TIDES.

There is a fall in the tide of twelve to fifteen feet at Grand Manon.

At both Lubec and Eastport the tide boasts a better record, which is twenty feet.

The tide at St. John varies all the way from twenty-four to thirty feet.

Seventy feet is what the tide has registered at Moncton, on the bend of the Petitcodiac.

The difference between high and low-water mark on the Cobequid river is twelve miles, the river being twelve miles longer at high than at low water.

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparilla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose? why Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I'm going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

I was attacked severely last winter with diarrhœa, cramps, and colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I can thank this excellent remedy for saving my life. Mrs. S. Kellett, Minden, Ont.

Hamilton Liquor Licences Decreased.

HAMILTON, July 28.—The license commissioners met yesterday and made out a list of 20 saloons and tavern keepers and 10 grocers who are to lose their licenses, according to the resolution of the city council reducing the number of licensed houses by 30 in number. About 40 license holders were notified on May 1 that three months extension would be given them in order to dispose of their stock. Ten of these have obtained a license, but the 30 will be cut off at the end of the present month.

A Commercial Traveller Suicides.

LONDON, Ont., July 28.—G. R. Hibbett, of Toronto, traveller for Joseph Donat, law stationers of that city, who has been staying at the Grigg house here for the past few days, was found dead in his room yesterday. It is a clear case of suicide, as the transom was found tightly closed and the jet open. Hibbett had been drinking hard, and the previous afternoon, when one of the bell boys went to his room in response to a call, he found the gas turned on and called Hibbett's attention to the fact.

A Mystery at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, July 28.—The police are working on a case which is supposed to be murder. A blood-stained handkerchief and numerous spots of blood were found on Britannia street, near a large lumber piling yard. Mrs. J. King, who lives near by, heard rapid steps and heard a man's voice say "We have killed him." Several telephone messages were sent for the ambulance to remove a dead man from this vicinity, but so far the man who sent them has not been discovered. The case is being very carefully investigated.

A Curious Phenomenon.

The story comes from Carleton Place, Ontario, of a curious phenomenon observed on the Chalk river limit of the Gillies Bros. Co. A gang of men, who were engaged cutting logs, noticed smoke as from a small fire rising up over the opposite side of a ridge from where they were at work, and it being near noon they thought it must be from a fire started by some of their companions, as it is customary for the men to take their lunch to the woods with them in the morning and sometimes to start a fire to warm it. So they concluded to go over the ridge at noon time and thus save themselves the trouble of making a fire. Imagine their surprise, on reaching the top of the crest, and looking down on the opposite side to see that the fire was in the tops of the green pine trees, and not on the ground or started as they had supposed. On investigation it was found that the trees were leaning one towards the other, so that near the tops they crossed, and bore heavily against each other. The swaying motion caused by the wind had chafed them so that there was a dry, hard spot on each, where the gum had been oozing out. This day, through the extra length of time the gale had continued, the heavy pressure caused by the friction of the trees rubbing together had evidently caused them to ignite. The trees were cut down and made into logs.

Sale of an Historic Vessel.

At a sale of old vessels of the Spanish navy held at Barcelonia the other day the corvette Tornado passed out of the hands of the government. This is the vessel which, in 1873, captured the American filibustering steamer Virginius and carried her into Santiago de Cuba. The Tornado herself was a prize. She was first known as a Chilean pirate many years ago and was captured in the waters of Funchal by the Spanish frigate Geroma.

Paper Yarn.

Paper yarn is now being substituted for other cheap stock in carpets, and is said to be superior to the shoddy and mungo, both in cost and strength. Of course the paper is used only in the body and on the under side of the texture and not on the upper surface. It is said that fifty-five per cent. of a carpet may be made of paper without a customer suspecting it.—Leavenworth Times.

The Little Chicks.

As a precaution against lice on the little chicks, grease the mother slightly with fresh lard on the keel bone and under the wings, but do not mix coal oil with it. It is unnecessary and sometimes injures the chicks' eyes, as sulphur will also. Use no grease of any kind on the hen while sitting. Use sulphur, or what is better, get a dime's worth of insect powder of your druggist and make a sifter by taking an empty baking powder can and punching the lid full of small nail holes. Sift the nest well and the hen, in feathers of the back and fluff; or what is still better where it is at hand, a few stems of tobacco in the bottom of the nest is a perfect protection. Of course fresh ones must be provided when resetting hens, as they will finally lose their strength. Sometimes they are taken when very dry and pounded up fine, which makes it convenient for use. A handful is then sprinkled into the straw as we make up the nest.

The egg tester is quite a convenience, I find. For example, you set four hens at one time. When they have passed the eighth day test them, and quite frequently all the fertile eggs can be put under three hens and the fourth one receive fresh eggs. Those tested out as not fertile can be cooked and fed to little chicks, mixed with bread crumbs.—Ohio Farmer.

The Corinth Ship Canal.

According to the recent report of the British Acting-Consul at Patras the Corinth ship canal is up to the present but little used. Between the opening of the canal in November and the end of February the only vessels passing through have been a few ships of war, some yachts, and about 200 small Greek sailing craft, although the canal is open to vessels of all nationalities not over 65 feet 7½ inches wide, and drawing not more than 23 feet 8½ inches of water. The tolls charged are as follows: Mail and passenger steamers, either going to or coming from the Adriatic Sea, pay 15 cents per register ton and 20 cents for each passenger carried, both in gold.—Scientific American.

Noiseless Walking-Sticks.

When carrying a walking-stick I have always disliked the harsh grating sound made by the ferule when touching the pavement.

This could easily be remedied by having a piece of rubber in place of the ferule, and I feel sure that the "noiseless walking-stick" would become a boon to all who used it.

THE DEPUTY WARDEN KILLED

A Pipe Loaded With Explosives, With a Slow Fuse Attached, Burst When Their Guards Entered the Mine—A Negro Convict Shot by a Guard.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 28.—The convicts at Tracy City are in a state of mutiny and as a result two men are dead and two others are suffering from slight wounds.

Yesterday the convicts loaded a pipe with explosives, placed it in a coal car and attached a slow fuse to it. Deputy Warden Nelson and his assistants were passing along another entry to bring the convicts out for the night and when they arrived opposite it the bomb exploded. Nelson was instantly killed and Guards Terrel and Thurman were slightly wounded.

A negro convict named Pete Hamilton was killed by a volley from the other guards. There were 115 convicts in the mines at the time and all but 70 surrendered. These remained inside and swear they will not come out.

A telegram says it will hardly be necessary to send troops as it is believed all the convicts will surrender. Escape was probably the object of the mutineers.

Bradstreet's Trade Report.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Leading influences affecting the course of general trade throughout the United States within the week have not resulted in a net gain. Prolonged drouth and hot winds have damaged corn and other crops in Nebraska, and fears are entertained of like losses in Kansas. Exports of wheat, United States and Canada, by coast, for six business days ending July 26 have increased surprisingly, amounting to 8,388,000 bushels. Last week the total was 1,873,000 bushels, and in the week before 2,377,000 bushels. There have been 237 business failures in the United States this week, compared with 212 last week and with 489 in the fourth week of July last year, when the effects of the financial panic were being severely felt. Trade in shoe leather, hides and lumber at Boston remains moderate. Demands in general lines continuing of a hand to mouth character.

Took the Bullet Intended for Another.

SYRACUSE, July 28.—A shooting affray occurred yesterday at Collemer's Corners, near Ballston. The unfortunate is Susan A. Jones, wife of W. A. Jones, the one for whom the shot was intended. Jones and his brother-in-law, Adelbert Truax, were intoxicated and quarreling, when Truax drew a revolver and aimed at Jones. Mrs. Jones stepped between the men to prevent any further developments just in time to receive the bullet in the left breast. She is fatally wounded.

A Canadian Embezzler Caught.

AVON, N.Y., July 28.—Officer Dutcher, in company with United States Marshal Bardwell, arrested a man by the name of Edmond, who absconded from Canada two months ago with a large sum of money. He has been keeping books here for Breen & Brace under the name of William Johnson. When Marshal Bardwell read the warrant Edmond broke down and confessed. He was taken to Rochester and will be taken to Canada as soon as the papers can be secured.

Philadelphia to the Falls on Foot.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., July 28.—J. D. McC. Ruth and W. D. Cornwell, of Philadelphia, were in the city yesterday having come the entire distance from the city of Brotherly Love to Niagara Falls on foot. They made the trip in 17 days, travelling at the rate of 25 miles per day. They are making the trip for pleasure.

Situation in Bluefields.

COLON, July 28.—The following advices have been received here from Bluefields, Mosquito Territory, Nicaragua: "The Nicaraguans, under Governor Cabezas, have been defeated and have retired to Rama, where they collected 400 men and seized some American launches, intending to make a descent upon Bluefields. The launches later were restored to their owners, upon the demand of the American consul. Captain O'Neil, of the United States gunboat Marblehead, has landed 150 United States sailors and marines in order to protect the United States consulate and American interests generally. The British consul has telegraphed for a British warship. The inhabitants of Bluefields are leaving that place in large numbers. The rebel British subjects of Corn Island were disarmed, but have since purchased arms and chartered a schooner which took them to Bluefields. They intend invading Corn Island.

Revived After Ten Minutes in Water.

WATERTOWN, N.Y., July 28.—As the excursion steamer Islander and the steam yacht Alert were running toward the dock at Frontenac, Round Island, on the St. Lawrence, the Islander collided with the Alert, inflicting damages upon the latter which sunk the yacht almost immediately. No one was drowned. The Alert's purser, George Bennett, had a narrow escape. He went down with the yacht and was entangled in the ropes. Antonio John, a Turk, who was on the Islander, dove for him, and brought him up after he had been under the water about ten minutes. After considerable hard work Bennett was brought back to consciousness.

Bank of England's 200th Anniversary.

LONDON, July 28.—The 200th anniversary of the establishment of one of the most notable institutions in Great Britain, the Bank of England, was celebrated yesterday, the charter of incorporation of the bank having been granted July 27, 1694, by William and Mary. The celebration was conducted by the officials of the bank and participated in by the attaches of the institution and a large number of guests.

Don't Lose the Baby.

Every mother knows how critical a time the second summer is, and how many little ones die during that period from Summer Complaint, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, and Cholera Morbus; and how anxiously she watches day by day, lest the dread diseases snatch away the loved ones! There is no disease that comes so suddenly or is frequently so quickly fatal, as these Bowel Complaints, and in a large majority of cases doctors and medicines seem to be of no avail. There is, however, one remedy, which in forty years of trial has never been known to fail when taken according to the printed directions, and this is Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER. It is so safe and sure that no mother is justified in being without it. A bottle in the house ready for sudden sickness will often save a life. You can get the new Big Bottle for 25c.

Wide Awake Soap is a solid bar of pure soap that will not vanish like snow in hot water. Try it.

About six months ago my little son, aged three, was very much troubled with a breaking out on his scalp and behind his ear. The blood effected were about as large as a silver dollar, the flesh seemed raw and covered with little blisters. The child suffered considerably, and was naturally very fretful. I tried several remedies without obtaining any beneficial results, in fact the eruptions seemed to be spreading and new places breaking out. I consented to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and bought a box of CUTICURA, a cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT. I washed the affected parts with the CUTICURA SOAP, taking care not to irritate the flesh, and applied CUTICURA. I noticed a change for the better in the appearance of the eruptions in twenty-four hours. I continued the treatment morning and night, and in two weeks the eruptions entirely disappeared, leaving the skin smooth and the scalp clean, in fact a perfect cure, as I have not seen any indications of any eruption or breaking out since. I gave the child only a few doses of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT. I consider your CUTICURA REMEDIES very valuable, and expect to keep a small supply constantly on hand. I believe CUTICURA would be excellent for applying to insect bites, which are very annoying in this country. C. A. ARMSTRONG,
Swift Island, N. C.

CUTICURA REMEDIES cleanse the system by external and internal medication of every eruption, impurity and disease, and constitute the most effective treatment of modern times.

Sold throughout the world. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00 POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CORP., Sole Proprietors, Boston.

CHINESE LOST HEAVILY

Nearly Two Thousand Men Killed Off Round Island.

ANXIETY IN GREAT BRITAIN

The Prospect of War Being Declared is Viewed in London With Consternation—Chinese Residents Fleeing From Japan—U. S. May Arbitrate.

LONDON, July 30.—All sources of information agree that war exists, in fact if not in name, between China and Japan. It is true, however, that the British Government has not abandoned the hope of staying further hostilities. Her Majesty's Government is willing to go the greatest lengths to accomplish this object. War in the far east would be regarded with genuine consternation by the British foreign office. It would mean the complete readjustment of the whole of the eastern situation, a readjustment which would surely result in serious disadvantage to British interests even if war was actually escaped by this country. Hence there have been the greatest anxiety and activity in diplomatic circles here for twenty-four hours that have been seen since England was on the verge of war with France just a year ago.

The special cabinet council, summoned for the consideration of the eastern question, met in the morning. The cables were burdened all night with long government messages. The Chinese minister received a despatch from Tien Tain which caused him to summon Sir Halliday Macartney to the legation an hour later. Both gentlemen were closeted with Lord Kimberley long before his usual office hour. Lord Rosebery then consulted with the foreign secretary several hours in the middle of the day.

One American cable was almost monopolized by urgent messages between the state department at Washington and the British foreign office. There is good authority for saying that the British Government has abandoned the suggestion that the questions at dispute between China and Japan be submitted to it as an arbitrator, it being evident that such an arrangement would be opposed by Russia. The whole effort of the English Government now is to secure the acceptance by both disputants of President Cleveland's offer to mediate.

Oriental diplomacy is a thing past finding out and nobody dares to prophesy, but the opinion in diplomatic circles here now is that a compromise is no longer possible and that war is inevitable.

An official of the Chinese embassy in London was interviewed regarding the Corean embroglio. He ridiculed the stories in the newspapers about Chinese troops being armed with obsolete weapons. Ever since the Chinese army was re-organized by General Gordon it had been on a moderate footing, and it would surprise its amateur critics. He admitted that Japan had made greater naval progress than China had, but added that China was fully alive to the importance of naval power and had placed large naval contracts within the last few days.

The Central News has this despatch from Shanghai: "The Chinese warship Tsao-Khan, which was captured by a Japanese warship off the coast of Round Island, was equipped partly for fighting. Although completely outmatched by the Japanese cruiser, she offered some resistance and lost fully a hundred men killed and wounded before she yielded. She was entirely disabled when the Japanese boarded her.

"The troopship Dow-Shung tried to get away as soon as the Japanese warships began their attack and made only a weak running fight. The Japanese guns swept her decks and carried off the Chinese soldiers by the score. The latest estimate of the number who arrived here is 1,700. Only 40 survived the fight. It is said that all her officers were killed before she went down.

"The announcement that the rest of the Chinese transports arrived safely at Corea and landed their men is confirmed. On the 27th the Japanese fusiladed heavily those who had landed on the 26th at Yachan. The Japanese officers hoped thus to prevent the junction of the Chinese with the Coreans near Seoul. Whether they accomplished their object is not known.

"No news of the hostilities can be obtained from Pekin. Messages are refused at the telegraph offices. The outlying battalions of the northern army are concentrating rapidly at Taku, the rendezvous from which the regiments are embarked for Corea.

"The work of preparing harbor defences here advances rapidly. Torpedoes are being laid in the north channel at the entrance of the Yang-Tse-Kiang. Great quantities of ammunition have been purchased by the government and are being collected at the ports for shipment. The exportation of rice and grain has been prohibited. The trade is paralyzed. The coasting steamers and smaller craft are afraid to leave the harbors. While everything looks like war the Chinese officials continue to maintain that war has not been declared."

The Central News says that in official circles there is a strong feeling in favor of mediation on the part of the United States, although few believe that Japan and China would accept arbitration unless under considerable pressure.

The Capture of the King.

SHANGHAI, July 30.—The British cruiser Porpoise sailed from Chee Foo yesterday to protect British interests in Corea.

The Japanese minister in Seoul request ed the King before his capture to demand the withdrawal of Chinese troops from Corea. He refused, and thereupon the Japanese troops advanced upon Seoul. After a brief encounter they routed the Coreans and occupied the royal palace. The King appealed to the representatives of European powers to intervene but in vain.

Chinese Leaving Japan.

YOKOHAMA, July 30.—The army and navy reserves have been summoned into service. Chinese residents of Japan are fleeing in large numbers. Reliable news has reached Tokio that the main body of Chinese troops crossed the northwestern frontier of Corea on July 25. In official circles everybody is convinced that China's recent negotiations were a mere subterfuge to gain time and concentrate her forces with a view to combining with the Coreans for an attack. It is reported that the Japanese ships have been fired on from the shore.

Japan's Position Explained.

YOKOHAMA, July 30.—A lengthy statement has been sent out from an authoritative source explaining Japan's position. It is claimed that Japan has never gone beyond the rights given her by the treaty of 1885. The statement rehearses Japan's demands as presented to the government at Pekin, and declares that if war results the policy of China will be answerable for it. It is impossible, says the statement in conclusion, to conjecture what caused China's attitude in the face of Japan's indisputable treaty rights.

WELLMAN IS HEARD FROM

But the Authenticity of the News is Doubted in London.

LONDON, July 30.—Carl Siewes, the Norwegian Arctic enthusiast received a telegram from the captain of the Erling, a Norwegian sealer which arrived at the Island of Tromsoe, Finmark, Norway. The captain said that near Amsterdam island in latitude 84 N. and longitude 0, the Erling spoke to the Ragnvald Jarl, the steamer conveying the Wellman party to the edge of the pack ice. The Ragnvald Jarl signalled: "Please report nearest touching place. All well on board Ragnvald Jarl, and full of hope." The Ragnvald Jarl, the captain of the Erling also telegraphed, had been beset by pack ice, which had delayed her progress considerably. But when spoken Wellman and his party were free of the pack ice, and they should now be well on their way to the north pole.

In a letter published this morning Mr. Felden says of Walter Wellman's Arctic expedition and its probable whereabouts: "I fear that the Erikiug's news of Mr. Wellman and his party is unreliable. The absence of a date and other facts lead me to conclude that the Erlking met some sealer which had communicated with Mr. Wellman between May 10 and May 17."

U.S. TARIFF CONFERENCE.

An Agreement Will be Reached This Week—Labor Arbitrations.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The heat is aiding the tariff compromisers. Extremists find their obstinacy wilting with their shirt collars. Senator Jones is fairly confident that an agreement of some sort will be reached by the conferees this week. The extent of the debate which will then follow will depend upon the nature of the report.

Mr. Erdman, of Pennsylvania, from the commission on labor, in an elaborate report recommending the passage of the Springer bill creating a national board for the arbitration of controversies between employes and their employers says that the bill does not assume to compel arbitration where neither party to the controversy are willing to submit its case. No new penalties are imposed nor new rights or privileges granted.

PEACE IN HAWAII.

The New Government Firmly Established—Trouble in Getting Jurors.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The steamship Australia, six and one-half days from Honolulu, brings Hawaiian advices to July 21. Peace prevails throughout Hawaii and the new government appears to be firmly established.

The jury system under the new constitution is causing some trouble in the country districts. The constitution requires all jurors to take the oath of allegiance to the new republic to abjure all help in restoring the monarchy in any form. In one country district it has been impossible to get enough jurors to serve.

Britannia Beats the Vigilant.

MOUNT'S BAY, Cornwall, July 30.—Vigilant and Britannia started on Saturday in their thirteenth race over a 50 mile course, the score at the start standing 9 to 3 in favor of the Prince of Wales' yacht. Britannia crossed the line a length ahead of the American yacht and both ploughed along at a rattling pace for the first mark. A steady southeast breeze was blowing. Britannia won. The following were the times of the two yachts at the finish: Britannia, 4.19.45; Vigilant, 4.24.57. Thus the Britannia won by 5m 12s, without counting her time allowance, estimated to be 1m 10s.

Archduke William of Austria Killed.

VIENNA, July 30.—While the Archduke William was riding yesterday afternoon in Baden, near Vienna, his horse was frightened by an electric car and bolted. The archduke was thrown. His foot caught in the stirrup and he was dragged more than a hundred yards. He was insensible when the horse was stopped, and died in the evening without having recovered consciousness. The archduke was born in 1827. He never married. He was inspector-general and master of ordnance in the Austrian army.

Tupper at the Colonial College.

LONDON, July 30.—Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner, presided at the exercises of the Colonial College on Saturday, where students are trained for farming in Canada. Sir Charles Tupper in a speech said that agriculture was the oldest and most honorable occupation in the world and that no other was so productive of happiness. He praised Canada in the highest terms as a field of immigration.

Killed His Wife When Drunk.

ALBERT LEA, Minn., July 30.—William Wiley, a brakeman on the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad, in a drunken frenzy shot his wife, firing five bullets into her body. He then attempted to commit suicide but failed. He is in jail.

SWEPT BY FOREST FIRE

Immense Destruction to Property in Northern Wisconsin.

TOWNS IN RUINS AND ASHES

Twenty Lives Reported Lost in the Town of Phillips—Terrible Suffering Experienced by the Destitute Settlers—Millions Worth of Damage Done.

ASHLAND, Wis., July 30.—Northern Wisconsin has been swept by the worst forest fires in the history of the state. Reports indicate that several towns have been burned within a radius of 100 miles of Ashland. To the south, Phillips, the county seat of Peek county, a thriving town of 2,000 inhabitants, has been wiped out. Fifield, just north of Phillips, in Price county, has been destroyed. Taylor county, directly south of Price, is laid waste, and Shore's Crossing has been destroyed.

A dozen carloads of provisions have been sent to the inhabitants of Phillips. Governor Peck has been requested to send tents and blankets for a thousand people. The city is simply a heap of ruins and ashes. Everything is totally wiped out. The damage to property will probably reach $1,250,000. The people had to fly from their homes to escape being burned. Many crossed the bridge and walked to Fifield, and some slept without shelter or food in the open air. The destruction at Mason was total. Houses in the town proper are still standing. The loss at Mason will reach about 700,000.

To briefly summarize the fires have burned as follows: The city of Phillips, entirely wiped out; city of Mason, practically destroyed, with the White River Lumber Company and 30,000,000 feet of lumber; headquarters of the Ashland Lumber Company near Shore's Crossing, entirely wiped out; a special train of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha consisting of sixteen cars and two locomotives all burned, broke through the burning bridge near Ashland Junction; camps of the Thompson Lumber Company, burned at White River; two bridges on the main line of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railroad, one near Ashland Junction and one near Mason; bridges on the Wisconsin Central, one at Chelsea and the other at Phillips, both on the main line south of Ashland.

It is almost certain that some of the homesteaders scattered through the burning district have perished in the flames. Refugees and homesteaders are arriving at Ashland. When the fire reached Phillips it swept from house to house, and in an hour had wrapped the entire village in flames. The people fled to the railway, where trains were started and they were hastily conveyed to neighboring towns.

The heaviest losers are the John R. Davis Lumber Company, $500,000; and Fayette Shaw, a tanner, $200,000. The danger will not be passed until rain falls. The big marsh below Plover is threatened, and those who have hay out there are endeavoring to save it. The same state of affairs exists at Milladore, Sherry and other points west of here.

At Centralia forest fires have been raging in the vicinity during the past twenty-four hours and hundreds of men are now out endeavoring to save the cranberry crop. The hay marshes are also threatened.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., July 30.—Mayor Woodward has received the following telegram from Phillips: "Our city has been entirely destroyed by fires, leaving 3,000 people homeless, without food or shelter. Please take immediate steps to send relief." The line of the fire is twenty-five miles long and the damage to valuable timber is enormous.

MILWAUKEE, July 30.—Twenty people are reported to have lost their lives at Phillips. The following telegram has been received at the executive office at Madison from Clarence Snyder, of the state board of control who is at Phillips: "Over 2,000 people without food or shelter; every energy of our people should be put forth to relieve this suffering. Food and tents should come at once by special train. Communicate with Ben W. Davis as soon as possible there. The scene here is one of the deepest woe. There were several deaths from burning and drowning."

More Election Protests Filed.

TORONTO, July 30.—Three more protests have been filed against Magwood, Conservative member for North Perth; Blezard, Liberal member for East Peterborough, and German, Liberal member for Welland. Thus far ten protests have been registered, six against Reformers, three against Conservatives, and one against the P.P.A. member-elect for West Lambton.

G.T.R. Picnic at Sarnia.

SARNIA, Ont., July 30.—The employes of the Grand Trunk Railway along the air line held their excursion and picnic here on Saturday. Twenty-two carloads of people composed the crowd at Bayview park and athletic grounds, bands of music, boating, dancing, bathing to amuse the 1,500 people present. In the afternoon they took a ride out on the lake, and altogether the day was most enjoyable.

North Wellington Patrons.

ARTHUR, Ont., July 30.—There was a meeting here on Saturday of the Patrons of North Wellington to choose a candidate to represent them at the Dominion Parliament, but on account of the small attendance no choice was made. They adjourned to meet again this fall.

Mr. Purcell's Body Reburied.

CORNWALL, Ont., July 30.—The body of the late Patrick Purcell, which was stolen from its resting place on May 14, 1891, and which was found on Thursday, was taken to his late home "Fairfield," at Summerstown. Here the funeral again took place on Saturday.

Lord Randolph in Canada.

MONTREAL, July 30.—Lord Randolph Churchill, Lady Churchill, and George Keith, private secretary, arrived in the city on Saturday from Bar Harbor in the C. P. R. private car "Iolanthia."

The Miranda Leaves for the Arctic.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., July 30.—The steamer Miranda, with the Cook Arctic expedition, resumed her voyage to Greenland last night, all her repairs having been completed.

THE EMPIRE'S FLAPDOODLE.

The Examiner took occasion to record its objection to the injustice that permits the importation of workingmen from the United States to work in Howry & Sons mills at Fenelon Falls, when Canadians were strictly excluded from the United States. Thereupon the Empire worked off a lot of flapdoodle trying to ring in the national policy as the chief factor in renewing the "Red Mills" and denouncing the Examiner as unpatriotically opposed to national progress. This week the Fenelon Falls Gazette replies to the Empire (and incidentally to the Review, which took the Empire's position) under the heading, "The Empire Mistaken." The Gazette says :—

Because the Peterborough Examiner commented unfavourably upon the importation of a lot of men from Saginaw, Michigan, to work for the Howry firm, while no Canadian is allowed to "do a tap" of work in the States, the Empire, anxious to make a point against the Examiner, says, of course wrongly, that "it hates progress because it increases prosperity to the credit of the Dominion Government, and does not approve of the enterprise of the Messrs. Howry," and then, by way of showing what a benefit the American firm will be to the village, palms off the following bit of nonsense upon such of its readers as are as ignorant as itself :—"The effect of the re-opening of the Red Mill at Fenelon is a sufficient answer to this criticism. Effort has been stimulated there and this fall, besides the lumber mill, there will be two grist mills, a shingle mill, a pulp mill and other industries in operation. The village, through its fine water power, has an electric lighting plant which can be developed to supply electricity for motive purposes, a water works system is in course of construction and an era of prosperity has dawned for the place it has not hitherto known."

That the re-opening of the mill will be of great benefit to the village is self evident; but somebody must have been "fooling" our Toronto contemporary, as we had not only grist but flouring mills, lumber mills and shingle mills years and year ago, the pulp mill has been in operation since 1873, the electric lights and waterworks, though new enterprises, are not in any way due to the Howry's, and would have been established if the firm had never heard of the Falls, and as for the "era of prosperity," we enjoyed a pretty fair one before the mill shut down and are now hoping for a recurrence of the good old times. With regard to the importation of employees, we said last week all we had to say about it. No Government can well be blamed for legislating in favour of its own people against those of any other country, but in Canada the Government has as yet only got so far as to legislate in favour of a few of its own people against all the rest. In the States they are opposed to Canucks so strongly that it is said a native American in Detroit has been refused a city contract simply because he owns a summer cottage on the Canadian side of the river. As to our esteemed friend, the Examiner, it is possibly a little hipped in consequence of the failure of Peterborough, after strong efforts, to get the Howry's to settle in that town.

The Gazette is itself in error if it fancies the Examiner's dealing with the question was influenced by being hipped on account of not securing the Howry mills for Peterborough. Of course we would have much preferred that the mills should have been here, and regret that our efforts to bring them here were unsuccessful, but that had no influence upon our strictures upon the injustice that excludes Canadians from the United States and permits American workmen to take labour away from the residents of Fenelon Falls. Instead of being hipped on account of Fenelon Falls' success over Peterborough, the Examiner has been pleading the cause of the workingmen of Fenelon Falls, and deploring the unjust conditions that prevent them from a share in the added prosperity the operation of the mills brings to the village.

may not retain her dimples and rosy cheeks "blooming with health," until she finds a good husband. A little neglect or accident may bring about some one of the many "female" diseases and "weaknesses," to which the sex is subject, and health may be forever impaired, and hopes and happiness be at an end. Thanks to Dr. Pierce, his Favorite Prescription, prepared by him for women, cures the worst cases of uterine diseases, nervousness, neuralgia, irregularities, and "weaknesses." It is a great invigorating tonic and nervine, and rapidly builds up the health and strength.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

To sum up in a few sentences the information contained in our despatches from all parts of the Dominion on the business outlook is a somewhat difficult task. There is on the part of the correspondents a natural desire to present the salient features of the condition of affairs in their districts in such a form that the optimist may have something of an advantage in the reading. With this, however, there is a singularly full statement of all facts that tell upon the opposite side. The most important factor in the situation is the harvest. From every province and every district the information comes that the crops are quite up to the average. In Manitoba and the Northwest the wheat yield will be uneven. Some sections report injury from drouth, while in others the prospects are that the harvest will be very far above the usual bulk.

In Ontario the prospect is decidedly good. From Wellington and Oxford and Brant, from London, Kingston, Peterborough, Orillia and other centres there is encouraging news of the harvest and, most important of all, the reports indicate a steady decrease in the wheat acreage and the further development of the dairying industries. The hay and root crops, which are of the utmost importance to the dairyman, are of excellent quality, except in some parts of Oxford and Brant, where the drouth affected them seriously. Ontario has at last turned the corner and become in the main a dairying rather than a cereal-producing country. The causes of this change have been varied. The restriction of the barley acreage, as a result of the McKinley bill, the steady decline in wheat values, the success achieved by the farmers who first turned their attention to dairying, have all have been important factors. The change did not come a day too soon. Were Ontario to-day dependent entirely upon cereals there would perhaps be financial trouble ahead. As matters stand the prospects are for a fair fall and winter trade. Merchants have very generally followed the advice of the leading financiers, and taken in sail and the retail traders have been extremely conservative in buying. At the same time it must be clearly understood that the people of Ontario are not adding greatly to their wealth. It is sufficient that they are not falling behind, and that when better times return they will have less leeway to make up than the people of most other States and provinces.

The outlook in the lumber trade is not unpromising. An enormous quantity of logs was taken out of the woods during the winter. That lumber is now being sawn, and most of the mills in the northern district, as well as in the Ottawa Valley, are running full time. The only feature of the situation requiring special mention is the surplus of labour in the cities. Toronto, Hamilton and London have all more mechanics and labourers than can secure employment. Not a few localities announce the return from the States and elsewhere of farm workers, so that there is not so much prospect of relief for the cities by sending their surplus back to the farms. The border States which furnished an outlet for surplus labour from our cities, a few years ago, are no longer in a position to give work to their own labourers, and the result may be an increase of hardships in our centres of population next winter. But at worst a small percentage of the population of Ontario will be thus affected, and the fact remains that Ontario, speaking generally, is probably better off than any other section of the continent to-day.

In Quebec the crops are above the average, according to the information furnished by the Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Beaubien. The farmers of that Province, profiting by the example of Ontario, have turned their attention to dairying, and the result has been an increase in the value of the cheese output of $1,000,000 over that of last year. Quebec has greater difficulties to contend against than Ontario. The soil is hardly so fertile, the breadwinner has usually a larger family dependent upon him, and the cost of civil and clerical government is greater. There is a hopeful feeling abroad, however, that it is probable a bountiful harvest will justify.

New Brunswick reports depression in the lumber business and consequent dullness in the general trade of the province. The crops, are, however, quite up to the average, with the exception of oats which have suffered greatly from the ravages of insects.

Nova Scotia reports good crops, good fruit, a good fishery yield, the largest output of coal in the history of the province and dull trade among the mercantile community. Prince Edward Island reports crops good and general business dull, but with the outlook not discouraging.

One fact stands out with the utmost clearness. The profit of the wealth producer in the near future must come not from enhanced prices for his product, because in wheat, cheese and all the other staples of export there is little prospect of great increase of value, but from an increase of the margin of profit within present prices. This can only be secured by a reduction in the cost of raw material and supplies through tariff revision and by the practising of economies in the cost of government such as can be secured by the abolition of the Senate and the abandonment of the policy of corruption in the construction and operation of public services.

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

Lansing, Mich., July 23,—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The Tramps Keep Away From the City—Gen. Wolfe's Sword.

OTTAWA, July 30.—The first detachment of the 400 who are marching down the Parry Sound railway track gave the city a wide berth, owing to the precautions taken by the police to keep them out. Fifty of them made a detour by way of the railway bridge over the canal and Rideau river and marched along the south side of the river bank, finally bringing up at Hurdman's bridge. They occupied a barn there, while some of them slept in the bush. In the morning they pushed on east and very few ventured into the city.

The rumor published that an order-in-Council had been passed requesting the Lieutenant-Governors of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories to modify the regulations and lighten the burden of the Catholics as to separate schools under their control is stated to be without foundation.

The "patriotic and public-spirited Canadian," who, it is reported, has purchased Wolfe's sword and the Victoria Cross of Lieut. Col. Dunn, the hero of the Light Brigade, is very reticent as to his name and has given instructions to Mr. H. J. Morgan, chief clerk in the Department of the Secretary of State, who has charge of the matter, not to divulge his identity.

Sidney Lobb Out on Bail.

NANAIMO, July 30.—Sidney Wentworth Lobb, whose wife was found dead in bed on the 8th of June last, has been released on bail of $5,000. The preliminary hearing of the case has been constantly delayed at the request of the Crown prosecutor. It was understood that the proceedings on Saturday would be final, but Magistrate Plata apparently does not wish to assume any judicial responsibility in the matter. He announced that now that Mr. Lobb should be released on bail it was his intention to remand the case from week to week until the November assizes, when accused could appear. This is tantamount to a committal for trial, but the evidence is apparently considered so slight that the magistrate has adopted this method of allowing Lobb his freedom.

An Expensive Blaze in Markdale.

MARKDALE, Ont., July 30.—For the second time in a week Armstrong Bros.' large veneer cheese box and basket factory was found to be on fire on Saturday night. All the machinery, buildings, a stock of rollers ready for export, worth about $1,500, and about 10,000 feet of oak timber, went up in flames. It was with the greatest difficulty the storehouse and piles, sash and door factory and Henery's tannery was saved, and at one time McFarland's elevators were on fire. The loss to Armstrong Bros. will be about $10,000, with only $2,500 insurance, besides losing for the whole summer orders and throwing about thirty men out of employment. The cause of the fire is probably incendiary.

Poisoned by Pressed Chicken.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 30.—The Knights of Pythias, of Otsego, had a party about three weeks ago, and the following day 20 persons who attended were taken sick all with the same symptoms. Charles Brundage died a few days later. Monday Dr. French died, and yesterday J. J. Geib died. All the rest have recovered except six, who are still confined to their beds. Many believe that the trouble came from eating pressed chicken at the party.

The Rogers Company Suing Newspapers.

DETROIT, Mich., July 30.—The Rogers Typographers Company, of Detroit, has filed bills in the United States Circuit Court against the Detroit Free Press and the Detroit Evening News to restrain them from using the spacing device used in the Mergenthaler typesetting machine, the linotype in use on those papers. The Rogers Company will in time begin suit against the 500 or more papers using the linotype machines.

A Heavy Loss in Idaho.

BELLE PLAIN, Idaho, July 30.—Fire destroyed the business portion of this place on Saturday evening. Over sixty buildings and business concerns were burned out, causing a loss of $450,000, with $150,000 insurance.

Fatal Colliery Explosion.

SHENNADOAH, Pa., July 30.—By the explosion of a boiler at Packer's No. 4 colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company one man was instantly killed, two so badly hurt that they have since died and one seriously burned.

Blown Up by a Bomb.

CHICAGO, July 30.—A Chicago, Burlington and Quincey engine on the Pan Handle trecks was blown up by a dynamite bomb at Twenty-fifth street. Two men were badly injured.

A Famous Artist Dead.

NEWARK, N.J., July 30.—John A. McDougall, one of the most famous artists of the first half of this century, died here yesterday after a long illness, aged 87.

Deaths From the Plague at Hong Kong.

LONDON, July 30.—A despatch from Hong Kong says that an official report issued there gives the number of persons who died in the plague in Canton districts as 120,000.

The earlier symptoms of dyspepsia, heartburn and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to be cured.

GENTLEMEN,—I have used your Yellow Oil and have found it unequalled for burns, sprains, scalds, rheumatism, croup and colds. All who use it recommend it. MRS. HIGHT, Montreal, Que.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

This Sharper Was Served Right.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 30.—A man calling himself Cawhite, and giving Boston, Mass., as his last place of residence, visited the chief of police on Saturday and offered him 20 per cent. of the gross proceeds if he would protect him in running a first-class gambling dive. The chief promptly consigned the Yankee to the cells and will lay information against him on Thursday of attempted bribery and corruption.

Smuggled Liquor Seized at Halifax.

HALIFAX, July 30.—A clever seizure of smuggled liquor was made on Saturday by James Godwin, customs officer. The schooner Katie M., sixteen tons, came into Connor's wharf, when the officers boarded her and got fourteen quarter casks of rum. He also seized the schooner and took her to Queen's wharf. The liquor came to St. Pierre from the West Indies, thence to Chezzeticook, thence to Halifax.

DAMAGES OF THE STRIKE.

Railroads Presenting Their Bills to Chicago for Losses Incurred.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Large bills for damages to railroad property by the strike rioters are now coming into the city hall. J. T. Brooks, second vice-president of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis railroad, has presented a bill which aggregates $449,691. The largest item is $401,691 for 729 freight cars destroyed and 42 damaged. The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago presented a bill of $21,347, the largest item being for 14 freight cars destroyed and 58 damaged.

The New York Polish Church Troubles.

BUFFALO, July 30.—Very Rev. Dean Pittas, dean of the Catholic Polish congregations of Western New York, says there is not a word of truth in a despatch from this city to the effect that the Polish congregations in this city are in an alleged movement to form an independent Catholic church. The item was manufactured out of whole cloth, the only basis for the statement being that a recalcitrant Polish priest in Cleveland had issued a call for a convention to take such a step. Dean Pittas says that the call will fall flat and no clergyman now in good standing will have anything to do with the movement.

White Girls Marrying Chinese.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 30.—Moy Sam, a Chinese tea merchant of Boston, married Sarah Wilson, a young and good-looking American girl here. Lawyer Sales, who is usually retained by the Chinese in this locality, says several more Chinese will wed American girls here before long, and that one of the prospective brides is a beautiful girl who has been educated at the Normal School. There are so many of these mixed marriages that the authorities suspect the existence of a matrimonial bureau which supplies white wives to the Chinese.

The Woman Bicyclist Starts.

NEW YORK, July 30.—In the presence of several hundred persons, Mlle. Londonderry, the young woman bicyclist, started on her tour of the world from the city hall plaza on Saturday. This is the first attempt of any woman to put a bicycle belt around the world, but Miss Londonderry is confident that she can succeed and set a record for all other women bicyclers. One of the provisions of her trip is that she shall despatch a postal card every ten miles, saying where she is, how she is and the conditions of the roads.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, I an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Take It In.

The grand annual excursion of Court Little John, No. 92, C.O.F., which takes place regularly every year on the Civic Holiday, will be an unusually favorite and fascinating trip this year. The posters are now on the walls, and give only a partial conception of the attractiveness of the route, and the extraordinary cheapness of the tickets. The excursion is billed to go first to Toronto by C.P.R., then by steamers across to Queenston, then up along the Niagara River by the Electric Railway on the Canadian side to Niagara Falls and Chippewa, then by steamer to Buffalo. To give some idea how cheap the rates are which have been secured by the Foresters it may be mentioned that the regular return fare from Peterborough to Toronto is $4.20, and to Buffalo $9. On this trip, however, the fares have been pulled down to $1.75 to Toronto, and $2.75 to Buffalo. Children half fare, tickets good for 3 days. Take it in—if you don't you'll regret it.

An Evening With Burns.

Miss Jean Howison, of Perth, Scotland, will give an evening with Robert Burns, the poet, the immortal apostle of the brotherhood of man, in Bradburn's Opera House on July 31st, with readings and recitations from his poems. Miss Howison comes highly recommended by the press and eminent public men, and the following letter from Mr. Melville Millar, a former Peterborough citizen, whose commendation will be accepted as a reliable expression of opinion, is a valuable testimony to the excellency of the entertainment. Mr. Millar heard Miss Howison in Orillia:—

ORILLIA, Ont., July 7th, 1894.

R. M. Dennistoun, Esq., Peterborough.

DEAR SIR,—I suppose you are still president of the Peterborough St. Andrew's Society, and as such, take an interest in everything calculated to keep up a proper interest in Scottish affairs.

I take the liberty of introducing to you Miss Howison, who is lecturing on Burns, and having heard her here last evening, I can safely recommend her popular lecture as an entertainment, that no one, who cares anything for such things, can afford to miss. Should Miss H. arrange to give her lecture in Peterborough, I thought that possibly you would kindly interest yourself in the matter, and set such influences at work as would ensure a good house. You may take my word for it that no one would regret spending an evening at Miss Howison's entertainment. With kind regards I am,

Yours truly,
MELVILLE MILLAR.

Attend Grafton & Co's Summer Clearing Sale.

Mr. H. S. McDonald, druggist, says:—The sale of Phenyo-Caffain with me is steadily increasing. Customers speak in the highest praise of its efficiency in headache, neuralgia, etc.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

BASEBALL.

Lakefield and Young's Point played ball on Saturday, the former being victorious by a score of 54 to 33!

Oshawa will play ball with the local team here to-morrow on the driving park. Oshawa is playing first-class ball this season, having given Cobourg the closest game of the year in a twelve innings game by a score of 3 to 2. A fine game may be expected as the home team has been considerably strengthened. Following is the local team: McCabe, p.; Campbell, c.; O'Brien, 1b.; Drain, 2b.; Weeks, 3b.; King, s.s.; Dolan, l.f.; Cathcart, c.f.; Lynch, r.f.

LACROSSE.

A match at Lindsay on Friday between Woodville and Lindsay resulted in a victory for Woodville by 3 goals to 2.

The Granites and Dukes cross sticks for the championship of the town, on the Riverside Park, at 6:30 this evening.

Norwood defeated Hastings at lacrosse a few days ago by a score of 2—0.

The latest sensation in lacrosse circles is that Montreal protested Stinson, McVey, Wall and Tansey, Saturday. Tansey is protested on the ground that he played in the early part of July in Port Hope against Peterborough. These facts will be sworn to by an Ottawa man on whose affidavit the Capitals will protest Tansey when the tussle between these two teams will take place. The mania is spreading. First Toronto was affected, then the Montrealers and Capitals. There is no knowing where the end will be and the whole thing is extremely ridiculous to say the least of it. The charge that Tansey played with the Port Hopers will at least do some good. We will now have an opportunity of hearing a statement from Manager Patterson, of Port Hope's "purely locals," who will fly to their rescue and attempt, with poor success, to defend that team from the charge of playing outsiders. A statement from Mr. Patterson in connection with the last charge against Tansey is anxiously looked for.

CRICKET.

The Toronto cricket club completed its tour Saturday, at Cobourg. The game was won in East Toronto's favour by 87 to 14 and 35 for five wickets.

LAWN TENNIS.

Peterborough defeated Millbrook Saturday, by 16 sets to 7. Score:

Montgomery and Taylor (P.) beat H. Wood and Dean (M.) 6—3, 3—6, 7—5.
Strickland and Rogers (P.) beat W. T. Wood and A. Mullingar (M.) 6—3, 6—4, 3—6, 2—6, 6—2.
Wonham and Leith (P.) beat H. and C. Needler (M.) 2—6, 7—5, 9—7.
Taylor (P.) beat G. Dean (M.) 6—0, 6—2.
W. T. Wood (M.) beat Strickland (P.) 6—2, 6—1.
Leith (P.) beat C. Needler (M.) 6—3, 6—1.
Montgomery (P.) beat H. Wood (M.) 6—4, 6—4.
Rogers (P.) beat A. Mullingar (M.) 6—1, 6—2.
H. Needler (M.) and Wonham (P.) a game each, 6—3, 3—6, with score 2—0 in favour of Weedler, when game was stopped by darkness.

THE TURF.

The running horse, Bank Robber, the Cobourg Post says, changed hands on Thursday last. The horse was owned by Mr. H. Stapleton, of Brighton. Mr. Geo. Graham, of Peterborough, was anxious to get hold of him and on that day traded, giving a pair of driving horses for the winner of the mile race at Donegan Park on Tuesday last. Bank Robber is a promising horse and we have no doubt Mr. Graham has secured a prize.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Rev. Carl Smith did not take the services in St. John's church, yesterday, being prevented from coming to town by a sudden attack of illness.

At the Mark street church yesterday Rev. Mr. Beer conducted the services. At the morning service the Misses Eva and Etta Kindred contributed a duet in a very pleasant manner.

At St. Paul's church yesterday morning the Rev. Dr. Goldsmith occupied the pulpit and gave a scholarly address. At the evening service Rev. Mr. Hunter's sermon was listened to with great interest by the members of the congregation.

Rev. R. Marshall, of Belleville, preached in the Murray street Baptist church on Sunday morning, and his sermon was full of eloquence and power. In the evening Rev. Mr. Gilmour of Brockville gave an earnest and practical address.

At St. Andrew's church yesterday morning the services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hunter, of Erskine street church, Toronto, who also preached a vigorous and earnest sermon. In the evening, Rev. Dr. Goldsmith occupied the pulpit and the sermon delivered was an eloquent and convincing one.

Secretary G. R. Williams, of the Y. M. C. A., is expected home, on Monday, from Stony Lake, where he has been spending a fortnight's vacation. Mr. W. McIlroy, who has been acting as Secretary in his absence, is about to leave for Peterborough, and will spend two weeks "on trial" as student-in-charge of a church near that town.—Kingston News.

The services in the Charlotte street Methodist church, yesterday, were conducted by the pastor. In the morning, the preacher chose for his text the words, "Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth," Psalm 26th and the 8th verse. The design and purpose of the sermon was to set forth some of the reasons and motives that brought people to the house of God. The preacher illustrated his subject by anecdote and pictures from practical life and drew lessons that were helpful and instructive to everyone. The discourse was characterized by noble and manly thoughts and was delivered with great earnestness and vigor. The preacher commands the undivided attention of hearers and the congregation appreciates his ministrations, as shewn by the large numbers that attended the morning and evening services. The singing by the choir is a valuable help in the worship. In the morning anthem, Miss Fawcett took the solo part. The evening service was on reasons why people do not come to church. The pastor spoke very plainly, and his utterances were honestly and faithfully given on the subject. The efficient leader of the choir, Mr. A. L. Davis, sang with effect the fine piece, "Hold the light higher."

MR. BLEZARD'S SEAT PROTESTED.

An Attack to be Made Upon Mr. Blezard's Majority of 465.

On Saturday last, a petition against the election of Mr. Thomas Blezard, the member elect for East Peterborough, was filed at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, the legal firm of Laidlaw, Kappele & Bicknell acting for the petitioner, Marshall Weir. The usual charges of bribery and corruption are made, but a special one is also added, asking for Mr. Blezard's disqualification on the ground that he held an appointment from the Government at the time of his election. The EXAMINER does not know of any appointment held by Mr. Blezard that would disqualify him from becomluing a candidate. As to the charges of bribery and corruption, in connection with with the local Conservative solicitors do not seem to wish to be connected, there is reason to believe that they are not well founded, as from all that can be learned, the late election was conducted fairly and honourably on the part of Mr. Blezard. With such a large majority as 465, it does not seem probable that in case there has been irregularity, they will be sufficient to invalidate the election or cancel sufficient votes to change the result. Whatever may be the motives of the movers in the petition, the person in whose name it stands may be actuated by motives of gratitude to the Dominion Government, which, it is stated, pays him a pension of $240 per year on account of an illness contracted during the North West uprising and from the effects of which he has, it is said, fully recovered, although the pension still goes on.

THE STREET RAILWAY AND THE OUTFALL SEWER.

A point having been raised by a correspondent to the effect that the street railway company would have a case for damages against the town for the disturbance of their track by the construction of the proposed outfall sewer, the EXAMINER is requested to publish clause 14 of the agreement between the town and the street railway company, bearing upon the subject:

14. "That in case of laying down sewers or the grading, repairing or paving of the streets by the corporation if it shall, in the opinion of the town engineer, be necessary or convenient to remove the rails or ties, the same shall, upon the request of the town engineer, be removed by the company and relaid at its expense, but such requisition of the town engineer shall be so made as to cause as little as possible loss, injury or inconvenience to the company, having regard to the work to be done by the corporation."

YOUNG LAMONT'S CASE.

Neighbors Much Interested in the Story — Everyone Thought the Youngster Would Die but he's Very Much Alive Now.

DUNDALK, July 30.—Hugh Lamont, of McIntyre, has a young son who is an object of interest throughout this whole section of country. From infancy the boy had dropsy, and was bloated and swollen all over. It seemed to the parents that death could be the only release to one attacked so young by this disease. They heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and began giving them to the child. With the first box, the bloating and swelling began to disappear. Six boxes effected a perfect cure and the boy is now just as healthy a youngster as stirs up the dust on the high roads of Western Ontario.

SAD DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT.

Death by Drowning of Mr. Richard Sheehy, Sr.—He Falls Into the River From the C. P. R. Spur Line Trestle—An Inquiry Into the Cause of the Accident.

Saturday evening about 11:30 o'clock Mr. Wm. Logan, who was seated near a boat house at the foot of Sherbrooke street, close to the old steamboat wharf, awaiting the arrival of a number of canoeists, was startled by a loud splash as if some one had fallen of the first piece of trestle work on the C. P. R. spur line near the Bridge Works. He hurried to the place and discovered a person in the water. He shouted to the individual to try and get on his feet until he could find means to rescue him, but whoever it was disappeared. Mr. Logan at once hurried to the police station and Constable Stewart and others proceeded to the scene. A search for the body was instituted and the mystery was partly solved by the finding of a pair of mens boots under the trestle work among the logs, about a foot from the water's edge. Owing to the extreme darkness of the night, the search for the body was discontinued until morning.

Saturday afternoon, Mr. Richard Sheehy, Sr., a well known and highly respected resident of the town had purchased a pair of boots at Gough Bros., and had left them at an hotel for the time being. Mr. Sheehy started for home in the evening without the boots, returning after supper for the parcel. The place where they were left was closed and an employee, secured the key and procured the boots and handed them to Mr. Sheehy early in the evening. The unfortunate man did not leave for home at the time, but met with some friends and remained about town later than usual. Shortly after eleven o'clock, in company with Mr. Forbes, he started down George street, and when at the C. P. R. station he was lost sight of. It is supposed that he walked along the track and turned on to the loop line that passes north from the station to the Bridge Works, and on coming to the first stretch of trestle work he missed his footing and fell off the bridge into the water, his boots falling between the timbers. All this would explain the struggle in the water witnessed by Mr. Logan and the finding of the boots by P. C. Stewart.

Search for the body was kept up all day Sunday in the vicinity of the C.P.R. bridge by a large number of friends but it was not until seven o'clock in the evening that Messrs. J. O'Brien and T. Guerin discovered the body near Matthew's pork packing house and close to Mr. T. Guerin's residence. The body was floating at the time, part of the coat showing above the water. The body was brought to shore and taken to Mr. A. Comstock's. Dr. Bell was notified and after learning the particulars of the case deemed an inquest necessary.

Mr. Sheehy was an old and well esteemed resident of the town, who had reached the age of 72 years, and was highly thought of by his wide circle of friends for his geniality and large heartedness. He leaves behind him a wife and six children—three sons and three daughters—to whom the sympathy of the entire community will be extended in their particularly sad bereavement.

THE INQUEST.

At 10 o'clock Coroner R. W. Bell, M. D., empannelled a jury to inquire into the cause of the death by drowning of Mr. Sheehy. The following gentlemen composed the jury: Jos. McClelland, foreman; G. Patterson, R. McWhinnie, R. Nimmo, E. B. Wilson, W. Might, T. Hooper, jr., W. Hincheliffe, F. W. Millar, J. H. Ames, F. Knowles, Jas. Carey, T. C. Elliott, Thos. Timmins, J. A. Redner.

After the jury had viewed the remains, the following testimony was taken:

Alexander Forbes, cooper, testified that he resided in Peterborough, was acquainted with deceased. Saw his body in the water last night and identified it as that of Richard Sheehy. Witness last saw him alive about half past eleven Saturday night at C.P.R. station. Saw him in Guerin's barber shop about ten o'clock. Met him afterwards between ten and eleven on George street. Went with him to McCallum's restaurant and had some supper. Left there with him to C. P. R. station and sat with him on the platform. Witness said Alex. Forbes, about 10 years of age, was with them the whole time. Witness and others were watching the people at the train; while he was sitting watching the crowd Mr. Sheehy disappeared. The lad called attention to his absence. Witness called him by name, getting no answer and thinking he had gone home, followed down George and Perry streets to his own home. He did not seem to be the worse of liquor. He told witness that he had been drinking during the afternoon and did not feel very well. Witness did not see the deceased drinking any liquor that night, nor did the deceased tell him that he had had any. Was in no hotel or bar with deceased that night. Deceased was able to walk perfectly straight and natural. Witness himself had no drinks after seven o'clock. Had a few drinks in the afternoon. Witness was perfectly sure deceased was able to take care of himself when he left him Saturday evening. (To a juror,)—Deceased talked rationally and was sober. Witness could not account for deceased going up to the railway bridge, unless he was dulled and stupefied from the after effects of strong drink as witness had been told was the case. (To a juror.) Did not notice anything peculiar in the conduct of deceased while on the way to the station. Have known Mr. Sheehy three years—lived in his son's house. Was in no bar-room with deceased.

Alex. Forbes, jr., — aged about ten years—testified that he was up town with his father and Mr. Sheehy on Saturday night. Did not come up town with his father. Came up before dark and met his father. First saw Mr. Sheehy in a barber shop. Mr. Sheehy left the barber shop alone. Saw him next on George street. Went with him and his father into McCallum's restaurant. All had milk to drink, and nothing else. Went straight from McCallum's to the C.P.R. station. We sat on the platform. Did not see Mr. Sheehy leave the platform, but saw him "going 'round Hamilton's." He told his father and his father went and looked after him, and called, but did not find him. This was before the train came in. He and his father staid till after the train. Witness did not see his father or Mr. Sheehy getting any liquor that night. The deceased did not seem like a man who had been drinking, but he did not walk quite straight. Saw deceased in the afternoon and he was then in liquor. Witness was driving with Joe Ranger in Laplante's rig. Mr. Sheehy staggered some and sat down on the grass near the Catholic church. After he met his father on Charlotte street before dark, the witness stayed awhile at the market house while his father went somewhere for awhile. His father was not home to tea.

Wm. Logan testified that he knew deceased. Had not seen him for several days. Saw his body taken from the water on Sunday. Was at the old wharf at the foot of Sherbrooke street about 11.30, or at least after eleven Saturday night. Heard a splash about thirty feet away as of some heavy object striking the water. Was not looking in that direction, but had his attention attracted by the noise. He ran to the spot and saw a dark object in the water. He shouted "Stand on your feet!" "Stand on your feet!" There was no reply made. Witness saw the object, which he took to be a human being, rise and sink twice and then bubbles rising. He ran to the police station and gave the alarm, stating that he thought there was a man drowned. Police Constable Stewart returned with him and with a punt they searched for the body, but found nothing. Stewart told him that he had found a pair of boots under the trestle work. Saw nobody on the trestle work. Nobody passed upon the trestle work from the north or he would have seen him. The body was found on Sunday evening in rear of the packing house between six and seven o'clock about 35 feet from shore.

Wm. J. McCallum, restaurateur, testified that he was in his restaurant on Saturday night. Saw deceased about 11 p.m. He came into his restaurant accompanied by a man and a boy (Forbes and son). They had ice cream and froze afterwards. Could see that deceased was under the influence of liquor. Could not say that he was either intoxicated or sober. He appeared to be somewhat stupefied. He could walk all right. Forbes conducted himself all right, but appeared to be slightly in liquor. The party had no drink at witness' place other than milk, of which there was a jug on the table.

The inquest was adjourned till Monday night, Jan. 30th.

CHEMONG PARK POINTERS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Everything is now booming, both in the village and at the park, especially at the latter, every cottage being now occupied and the ladies, as no park or place is ever complete without them, are the most pleasant your correspondent has ever met and who with their presence and usual taste not only grace the park but keep their cottages so neat as would make the eyes of any person living outside this charming place gaze with covetous, if not, jealous eyes on them. I also notice since reading your last correspondent's letter, where the business of the village was spoken of that Mr. Dan. Rosborough has filled one more business want and opened up a butcher market and intends to carry every variety of fresh and salt meats and the best only and Mr. Rosborough's long experience in live stock and butchering will secure him a good and profitable trade, and fill a want felt by the residents of the Park and the neighbourhood in general, coupled with his genial smile and winning ways.

This is my first attempt at writing, but being tempted to try my hand after reading the news from here, and generally seeing and hearing anything of note, I have heard and thought a good deal of the licenses respecting or affecting American fishers, and believing that Mr. J. R. Stratton, our worthy M. P. P., for West Peterborough, has not only the interests of the county at heart, but that of the Dominion at large, the writer would like to see him use his influence in having the license removed altogether, as regards these who just come for the sport for two weeks and do not use it as a business for living, for the following reasons: Firstly, the Dominion government asks a license fee of $5, while the Provincial government charges a much more reasonable fee, viz: $1. Now, in my opinion they are both absurd — the first is exorbitant, the second can't pay expenses. Say 200 American gentlemen visit our province during the hot summer months for recreation and a little sport. The province receives $200. Now, that would not pay the printer, let alone the officers in granting the licenses. Then put on the high tariff and have no visitors, what would the result be? The writer knows of one gentleman who with his family has visited and fished in Canada for four years. Now, his hotel bill for room and board was $110, then he buys bait, hires guides and boats; the railway and steamboat get his money, and the store supplies him with tackle. All this money is circulated in Canada. I think the Dominion would be benefitted by encouraging such people here, and trust that the worthy members may see it in this light and be the means of having this law done away with, or that it may bring about a controversy such as to awaken a general interest, and show we welcome our friends across the border, rather than the reverse.

I also visited the hotel and found the house well filled and the visitors fully satisfied with the kindness and hospitality shown by Mr. Fobert and his staff, and glancing over his register I noticed the following recent arrivals: S. S. Hurne, Ogdensburg, N.Y.; Hon. H. Hoyt, Syracuse, N.Y.; A. B. Lee, Jr., Toronto; Dr. Jebb and wife, Orillia; A. W. Spooner and wife, Port Hope; D. Menzie, Toronto; Norman Smith, Peterborough; Thos. Donnelly, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Lewis, Chatham; H. Corey, Petrolea; Miss Mary Kearney, Chicago. In fact there are now 63 guests at the hotel and in speaking to one of the guests as to the bill of fare, I was told that it was all and far more than could ever be expected and it must be good, as no less than 117 partook of dinner Sunday, when roast duck was one of the articles served.

The park is now lighted in the front of the hotel by a large lamp erected immediately facing the hotel, a great improvement to those driving in after dark. A very large excursion is to arrive August 15th starting from Cannington under the joint auspices of the I.O.O.F. and C. O. F. of that town. They will be accompanied by the Cannington brass band which ranks very high as a band of repute and those wishing to hear sweet music should not fail to visit the park on that date and hear the sweet strains in store for them.

Mr. Waddell, who has been busy at the club house for two weeks past, has now got all the boats finished and the club already presents a lively appearance.

There are among the visitors at the hotel two of the finest banjo players in the Dominion and their sweet music adds greatly to the pleasure of the guests.

Mr. F. T. Turk, of Rochester, and his brother-in-law, Mr. F. E. Champency, on Thursday caught 106 black bass, all good size, and Mr. C. Burr in company with his wife, after tea returned with 17 and every one fishing has so far met with great success.

Light and Happiness Come to You

—if you're a suffering woman. The messenger in this case is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Maidenhood, Womanhood, Wifehood, Motherhood, —all need the best of care, proper regard for hygiene and —the "Prescription."

It's a tonic and nervine, a remedy prescribed by an eminent physician and specialist for all the peculiar ills and ailments of women.

Some dispositions are sunny even in pain. But, it was not meant that women should suffer so. She need not, while there's a remedy that regulates and promotes all the proper functions, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep and restores health and vigor. In the "complaints," weaknesses, and irregularities of womanhood, it's the only guaranteed remedy.

If it fails to benefit or cure, you get your money back.

is perfectly, permanently and positively cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. The proprietors of this medicine prove that by their offer. It's $500 cash for a case of Catarrh which they cannot cure. By all dealers in medicines; 50 cents.

THE TELEPONE SYSTEM.

A Small Army is Required to Keep it in Order and Operate It.

When we come to lines and central offices the complication is simply beyond description. Special construction of overhead lines, special types of underground and submarine cables different from any used in other electrical industries are required to transmit the delicate voice currents. The cost of these conductors is enormous. The telephone cables underground in Boston represent an outlay of hundreds of thousands. Those in New York over a million dollars, and the man who talks from Boston to Chicago sends his voice vibrating over a line that for the copper wire alone cost $150,000.

The untechnical mind simply quails in powerless incomprehension before the amazing complications of the telephone switchboard. There are central switchboards in this country that have cost $100,000 and upward, and one that has cost $400,000—and they look it. Each operator is supplied with a dozen sets of ingenious and intricate devices for connecting, for ringing, for listening, for talking, and so on. Each subscriber's line passes through a maze of wires and apparatus, lightning protectors, testing appliances, calling annunciators, answering switches and "ring off" annunciators.

Every subscriber must have a switch, not only opposite the particular operator who answers his calls, but also opposite every other operator, for any one of them may receive calls for him. So his line loops in and out all through the switchboard and he has a switch at every few feet along the board. It is just as if you had doors all around your house, so that people could come in from all parts without having to go to the front door.

There is lots of auxiliary apparatus in a big telephone exchange, dynamos for furnishing current for ringing, storage batteries for operating the transmitters, measuring instruments for testing the lines, motors for doing various kinds of work—every possible application of electricity as availed of in working a telephone system.

Are many people required to keep all this in order and to operate it? A small army. Engineers and electricians to devise new methods for saving time and to plan for extensions of the system; wiremen, instrument men and mechanics to build switchboards and place instruments, inspectors to overlook the apparatus and keep it in good order; linemen to build overhead wires and lay underground cable, operators to work the switchboards; in fact, a veritable army of employes made up of regiments trained in the different branches of the work.—New York Commercial.

Lemons in Summer.

In hot weather a lemon sherbet or water ice is refreshing and wholesome. The juice of an orange is a great addition to this ice and the proportions may be varied. Four large, juicy lemons make quite a quantity when an orange is used. Peel the yellow rind of the lemons very thin, and from the orange also, and put to boil in a porcelain saucepan with one and a quarter pounds of sugar and one quart of water. Boil five minutes, set away to cool; when cold strain into the lemon and orange juice; strain the whole into a freezer and freeze until stiff, then take out the beater, and the whites of three eggs beaten to a stiff froth, beat well together, cover closely or put into a mold, repack and set away to harden.

Did you ever hear of the Roman cure for malaria? I would advise a judicious preparation for anathema maranatha, when about to administer the dose; it will give the marble Venus a wry face, but is claimed to have cured stubborn cases. Allow one pint of water to one lemon—four lemons make sufficient for many a dose; cut up the lemons, rind, pulp and all, in the water and boil until the whole is reduced to one pint; a teaspoonful before each meal is the dose.

On hot mornings, when the appetite fails and the sight of food disgusts one, try sliced lemons for breakfast Peel carefully, remove every particle of pith, slice down instead of across into a deep glass saucer and strew liberally with sugar.—Philadelphia Record.

During the dog-day season, the drain of nervous and vital energy may be counteracted by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, it acts as a superb corrective and tonic, and enables the system to defy malarial and other climatic influences.

DEAR SIRS,—I was suffering very much from diarrhœa, and could get nothing to cure me. A friend told me of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and a few doses completely cured me.

The length of time that footprints will remain fresh-looking in the soil on the coast of Greenland is remarkable. Tracks that appear but a few hours old have frequently been made for weeks.

A human face clock is on view in the window of a St. Petersburg watchmaker. The hands are pivoted on the nose, and any message spoken into its ear repeated by a phonograph through its mouth. It is said to be the only clock of the kind at present in existence.

A Grand Rapids (Mich.) dentist has the hypnotic power so strongly that he can persuade patients that they are swinging in hammocks and eating ice cream while he is at work on their molars. It may be superfluous to add that his pull is increasing grandly and rapidly.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

WONDERS IN SCIENCE.

TESTING PERSPIRATION TO ASCERTAIN ONE'S MENTAL EMOTIONS.

Your Happiness, Your Good or Your Evil-Mindedness May be Accurately Discovered by the Psycho-Physicist—Mental Gymnastics for Misanthropes.

The Government of the United States, says the New York World, is about to start a psycho-physical laboratory. Prof. Elmer Gates has been engaged to take charge of it. His specialty may fairly be termed the newest of the sciences. It deals with matters which hitherto have been deemed beyond reach of investigation.

Among other things it has discovered that bad and unpleasant feelings create harmful chemical products in the body, which are physically injurious. Good, pleasant, benevolent and cheerful feelings create beneficial chemical products which are physically healthful. These products may be detected by chemical analysis in the perspiration and urine of the individual. Prof. Gates has discovered more than forty of the bad and as many of the good.

Suppose half a dozen men are in a room. One feels depressed, another remorseful, another ill-tempered, another jealous, another cheerful and another benevolent. It is a warm day; they perspire. Samples of their perspiration are placed in the hands of the psycho physicist. Under his examination they reveal all the emotional conditions distinctly and unmistakably.

Each unpleasant or bad emotion produces its own peculiar poison, which has an ill effect upon the individual physically. Every one knows that great grief will poison a mother's milk. In fact, it generates an injurious chemical product so intense in character as to sicken the infant.

When a man feels greatly depressed he cannot work. Bad ideas and memories kill energy. They affect the physical being immediately. On the other hand, happy feelings create energy and make one feel like exerting himself. Of all the chemical products of emotions, that of guilt is the worst. If a small quantity of the perspiration of a person suffering from feelings of that kind be placed in a glass tube and exposed to contact with selenic acid it will turn pink. None of the other poisons similarly generated exhibits the same phenomenon. Accordingly, pink would appear to be the characteristic color of wrong-doing. How appropriate, then, that the wicked person should blush for his evil acts. It is a question whether he does so very often, however.

Prof. Gates has identified his poisons and beneficial chemical products by exciting definite emotions in individuals and analyzing their perspiration, etc. Persons suffering from guilt will not be likely to send samples of their own to him for examination. Just here it may be as well to say that the ignorant will make a mistake if they imagine that this new science invades the domain of the visionary. Its conclusions are not based on theory, but on facts.

To sum up, it is found that for each bad emotion there is a corresponding chemical change in the tissues of the body which is life-depressing and poisonous. Contrariwise, every good emotion makes a life promoting change. Thus it follows that it pays to be good and do good for one's own sake.

Prof. Gates has made some very remarkable experiments with dogs. He took three puppies of the same litter. No. 1 he allowed the ordinary roving life of a young dog; No. 2 he kept in a dark room, covering its eyes with blinders, so that not a ray of light could enter them from birth; No. 3 he allowed all privileges good for puppies, and in addition devoted several hours a day to educating its sense of sight. The animal thus trained learned to discriminate colors unknown to ordinary dogs. He could distinguish fifteen different shades of any color, except purple and red. As to red and purple, it would appear that the canine race is hopelessly color blind.

After a while the three dogs were killed and examined. The parts of the brain which have to do with the function of sight were wholly undeveloped in the pup that had been blinded. In the educated pup they were twenty-five times better developed than in the ordinary dog, as represented by No. 1, being in fact nearly equal to the same portions of a man's brain. Those portions of the brain substance were more dense, were supplied by more blood vessels, contained more cells, and had more highly developed cells than the corresponding structures in the normal dog.

The important inference is, that what is accomplished for puppies and cats can be done with human beings. Just as the brain of the young dog is developed by such training as has been described, so the child's mind may be built up. This plan, adapted to teaching, produces results very different from those obtained by the hit-or-miss processes of common-school instruction.

Brain-building is, par excellence, the science of the future. How is man to get more mind? Upon the answer to that question the prospects of the race depend. Who can doubt that the human brain of 10,000 years hence will produce ideas far beyond the capacity of the best piece of thought-mechanism of to-day?

The psycho physicist states it is an axiom that the mind can only be educated through the senses. Let a child be blind from birth, and the part of the brain that records the impressions of vision will remain rudimentary. Suppose the same infant to have been born deaf, and the areas of hearing will be likewise undeveloped. If the baby were born without any senses whatever, and acquired none, it would have absolutely no mind. People think of the mind as if it were something purely spiritual. In truth, it is a piece of physical mechanism. Beginning with a child, it may be put together, bit by bit.

Every thought which enters the mind is registered in the brain by a change in the structure of its cells. The change is a physical change, more or less permanent. Bad thoughts build up structures of cells which engender evil ideas, and good thoughts contrariwise. Cheerful thinking makes a happy disposition, while indulgence in melancholy has an opposite effect.

The psycho-physicist can take a discouraged, ambitionless and melancholy person and within six weeks transform him. He will be put through a course of mental lessons. To begin with, he will be taught to rehearse for one hour each day all the pleasurable memories he can summon up. He will deliberately devote more time to cheerful and agreeable thoughts. By this means more blood and nourishment will be directed to those parts of the brain which produce such pleasant ideas. Correspondingly, the parts that give birth to unpleasant feelings and recollections will be deprived of nutrition, and at length will become atrophied. Following this plan, the man is transformed from a victim of melancholy and despair into a happy citizen, a joy to himself and to others.

Let the esoteric mind builder systematically devote an hour each day to calling up pleasant ideas and memories. Let him summon those finer feelings of benevolence and unselfishness which are called up in ordinary life only now and then. Let him make this a regular exercise, like swinging dumb bells. Let him gradually increase the time devoted to these psychical gymnastics, giving to them 60 or 90 minutes per diem. At the end of a month, the change will be apparent in his actions and thoughts. Morally speaking, the man will be a great improvement on his former self.

GERRYMANDERS IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Parliamentary Apportionments That Outdo Anything to Be Found Here.

"They order this matter better"—or worse—in Great Britain and Ireland; the matter under consideration being the gentle art of gerrymandering. We have had some pretty bad examples of it here, of late, but at our worst we must, according to figures given by the New York Tribune, yield the palm of badness to our "kin beyond the sea." The present apportionment of members of the House of Commons was made by what was called a reform bill. Either that nomenclature was a masterpiece of irony or else the former apportionment was bad beyond all reckoning, for it really is difficult to imagine anything more inequitable than the present system. The boroughs of Denbigh, Flint and Montgomery, for example, each elect one member and the total number of voters in all three is only 10,401; while Huddersfield, with 15,550 voters, elects only one. Again, Merthyr, with 16,572 voters, and Derby, with 16,271, each elect two, while Cardiff, with 17,833, elects only one. Ipswich's 9,444 voters and Devonport's 7,875 elect two members for each place, while Dudley's 15,855 and Wandsworth's 15,612 elect only one for each. There are not less than twenty-one English boroughs with fewer than 5,000 electors each. One of them is now represented by a liberal unionist, six by radicals and fourteen by conservatives. All parties, therefore, profit by this unequal distribution of members, and if the conservatives have now, on the whole, the advantage their tenure of it will probably not be long. The new registration bill seems designed to swing the pendulum far to the other side and to give to the radicals undue representation. Thus five Irish constituencies, with an aggregate poll of only 14,000, will send to Westminster one representative each, while Romford, with more than 19,000, will send only one; in the other, one to 19,000.

Broken Friendships.

It is about the time of year now when the college boys come home bubbling over with enthusiasm about their Greek-letter secret societies. Fresh from school, they actually believe that the friendships made in their school fraternities are going to follow them through life and serve as a powerful adjunct to success. Poor chaps! The years undeceive them bitterly. One of the hard things in this human life of ours is that if a man grows at all he is bound to grow away from friendships. Men do not keep pace with one another; some bound swifty forward and upward; others are more deliberate in their progress; too many advance not a step beyond the point where youth and college days quitted them.

A reader of books has a somewhat similar experience. As he becomes what Bacon calls a full man, he discovers that he no longer has a taste for the reading which was once his delight, and he wonders what particular enjoyment he could have found in the perusal of volumes which now almost repel him. We venture to say that in nine cases out of ten it is purely a sentimental regard for them as old chums that induce the reader to hold on to (we will say) half the books that cumber the shelves of his library.

So growing away from friendships, whether they be the friendships of humanity or the friendships of books, would seem to be one of the evidences, as well as one of the penalties, of intellectual growth.—Eugene Field.

As an after-dinner pill, to strengthen the stomach, assist digestion, and correct bilious tendencies, Ayer's Pills are considered the best. Being sugar-coated, they are as agreeable as any confection, and may be taken by the most delicate.

Skin Diseases are more or less occasioned by bad blood. B.B.B. cures the following skin diseases: Shingles, Erysipelas, Itching Rashes, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Eruptions, Pimples and Blotches, by removing all impurities from the blood from a common Pimple to the worst Scrofulous Sore.

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the sufferer becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—ulcers and tumors form, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly afflicted from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and trouble. These and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

SEVEN STEPS TO HEALTH.

A noted physician says if you want to be healthy and to live to a good old age you must climb up stairs and live at the top. The stairs consist of but seven steps, and you must make a pause on each step and follow his directions:

First Step—Eat wheat, oats, corn, fruits, beef and mutton, plainly cooked, in moderate quantity, and but two meals a day.

Second Step—Breathe good air day and night.

Third Step—Exercise freely in the open air.

Fourth Step—Retire early and rise early.

Fifth Step—Wear flannel next your skin every day in the year, and so dispose your dress that your limbs shall be kept warm. Bathe frequently.

Sixth Step—Live in the sunshine. Let your bedroom be one which receives a flood of light, and spend your days either out in the sunlight or in a room which is well lighted.

Seventh Step—Cultivate a cheerful temper. Seek the society of jolly folks. Don't be afraid to laugh.

Go up this flight of stairs. Live above. Catarrh cannot climb up there.

CYCLING PROVERBS.

Grit makes a man, but mars a bearing.

Neither men nor bicycles steer well with tight heads.

Like a friend in need, the handle-bar is only appreciated when the road is rough.

The world, like a bicycle, would soon come to a stop were it not for the cranks.

Ambition is like a bicycle saddle; though much sat upon, it generally manages to be on top.

Politeness is like a pneumatic tire; there isn't much in it, but it eases many a jolt in the journey of life.

A pleasant disposition, like oil in a bicycle bearing, reduces friction and prevents a world of wear and tear.

Like a link in a bicycle chain, we may not amount to much individually, but collectively we make the wheels go around.

Like balls in a bearing, the lives of many of us must be one continued grind that others may enjoy themselves.

Life is like a bicycle run; some worry, fret and scorch along, and soon reach the end, while others take it easy and enjoy themselves as they go.

PEOPLE ONE READS OF.

Mary Hamilton, an English female fraud of the eighteenth century, married fourteen of her own sex.

The crown princess of Denmark is a royal "highness" by nature as well as by birth—being six feet three inches tall.

Royalties have, as a body, defective eyesight. Princess Maud of Wales is the only royal lady who wears a single eyeglass.

Mrs. Adeline Knapp, who has been for several years race-track reporter for the San Francisco Call, rides man-fashion, in Turkish trousers, a cutaway coat, and a silk hat. She owns a number of fine horses.

It is well known the empress of Austria smokes innumerable cigarettes every day, but she does more then this. In the evening she not only lights a cigar, but she lights one from the other, and, moreover, they are strong.

COMMUNING WITH NATURE.

There are six hundred varieties of cotton.

In Stuttgart there is a rosebush which covers a space of two hundred and thirty square feet.

Out of one tree felled near Shelton, Wash., was taken thirty thousand feet of merchantable lumber.

A larch tree, one hundred and forty feet high, the tallest in the Inverary forest, Scotland, was blown down in one of the recent gales.

The Victoria lily of Guiana has a circular leaf from six to twelve feet in diameter. It is turned up at the edge like a tray and can support, according to its size, from one hundred to three hundred pounds.

CANADIAN IN CHICAGO.

IMPRESSIONS OF SOME THINGS HE SAW IN THE RIOT CITY.

Uncle Sam's Deputy Marshals Shown in Their True Light—The Tom Tiddler's Ground of the Rioters—A Scene in the Stock Yards.

E. W. Morrison, of the Hamilton Spectator, has been writing accounts from personal observation of the sights and scenes of the great railroad strike in Chicago. Here are some of his paragraphs which throw light on the situation as told in the papers:

While passing through Ontario there was no trace of the big strike apparent, but on the other side it began to make itself felt in an impalpable, indistinct sort of way. Nobody knew when any trains would surely move, and everybody seemed to imbibe a certain enjoyment from affording this lack of information. Here and there dirty white ribbons were visible in buttonholes, and here and there United States deputy marshals were loafing about. When you read about United States deputy marshal the name has an important, official sound, but I grieve to say the sight of the originals does much to obliterate the impression. In the press dispatches about fights and mob assaults, for Deputy United States Marshal read Dead Tough Mug with a cheap red badge and an ugly projection in the region of the hip pocket. If an innocent, unprotected citizen saw a Dangerous Character coming one way and a Deputy United States Marshal coming the other, it wouldn't take him more than the hundredth part of a second to decide to which he would fly for safety, and it would not be in the direction of the latter.

Neither are the deputy sheriffs very imposing. They are mostly insignificant, rusty little men, and wear white printed cotton badges like the gatekeepers at an agricultural show. Both types are the product of a political system that looks more to the claims than the qualifications of the individual making appointments. When you see them you don't wonder that they fail to inspire respect for the government. The deputy sheriffs are fairly respectable, but inefficient in the aggregate, and the deputies, hastily picked up in such an emergency, are positively dangerous. I am not surprised to see by the city papers to-night that the Chicago police accuse these same deputies of incendiarism and destruction of property which they are sworn in and paid to protect.

Tom Tiddler's Ground.

The stock yard district is a sort of Tom Tiddler's ground for the rioters, who inhabit the rabbit warren like tenement houses and squalid density of habitation in which the stock yards, or the yards of the great railway systems, form sort of open spaces. When we reached the scene of operations and saw some sections of the mob, it was easy to understand what makes it so difficult to cope with them effectively. The area to cover is immense, for one thing, and the mob circulates in bands among the long lines of cars and buildings with the ubiquity of quicksilver. You will see a great stretch of railway tracks, and not a soul in sight except here and there a few sentries or a knot of policemen. Suddenly men begin to swarm in from the adjacent, thickly populated quarters, and actually in two minutes there'll be thousands in sight. The police will telephone to the nearest military headquarters for troops, and when the troop train comes snorting up, the mob demerges out of sight as quickly as it appeared, and leaves only hooting kids and blousy viragoes of the petroleuse type, with perhaps a few hundred semi-respectable people whose curiosity has drawn them to the scene of the sudden excitement. It is a very trying duty on the soldiers.

A Memorable Scene.

When I saw my friend Lieut. Healey after lunch he regretfully informed me that the prospects of a big fight had failed to materialize. The stock yard management had got nervous about what the result of the proposed movement of trains might be, and had requested him not to make the attempt to day, as it might result in a heavy loss of property. However, wrecking trains were sent out to try to clear the tracks where cars had been overturned, and we went along. A company of infantry accompanied the wreckers, and the operations that ensued were typical of the state of affairs as they exist.

The train ran through the yards, the engine and forward cars bristling with rifles and every man on the alert. It stopped in the middle of the network of tracks, where a heap of cars lay across the rails, and the soldiers scrambled out and formed a cordon of sentries round the train and wreck. Every man opened his cartridge pouch (his rifle was already loaded) and prefared for trouble. There was no mob in sight, but a few hundred women and boys, and I thought the soldiers were unduly preparative. The wrecking crew got to work, and the women came along the line of sentries snarling like tigresses and shouting the most disgusting abuse at the railway men. The soldiers shoved them back with their rifles, and then the viragoes turned their fury on them. Some of them even grabbed at the bayonets and showed their teeth like animals, while their offspring squatted on their haunches a few hundred yards away and yelped like coyotes. There were no men visible except a few squads of loafers lying under cars several hundred yards away. The wrecking crew put a chain around one car, and the steam crane proceeded to turn it over; but just as the car was nearly on its wheels, something broke and it fell back with a tremendous crash. Immediately there was a storm of hoots, yells of derision and cat calls from concealed howlers in every direction, which showed conclusively that though no mob was visible, thousands of eyes were watching the operations. They did not make any active demonstration, as the soldiers had a fine, clear, open space for volley firing, but they were evidently wistful. This is what makes the soldiers leary of the mob and take so many precautions, because when they do come they come quick.

This sort of work continued all afternoon, a few shots being fired now and then, but no fighting of any account.

Robert Louis Stevenson's estate in Samoa includes four hundred acres of forest land and is situated at an elevation ranging from six hundred to fifteen hundred feet.

Mrs. Humphrey Ward has made eighty thousand dollars from "David Grieve," eighty thousand dollars from "Marcella," and forty thousand dollars from "Robert Elsmere."

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, through the consideration of the publishers, still receives royalty on the sales of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," though the copyright expired some time ago.

Few books were more familiar to the students of the last generation than Dale's Thucydides. It appeared in Bohn's Library. The translator has just died at Buleigh Salterton, in his eighty-second year. He was Rev. Henry Dale M.A., who graduated first-class at Oxford in 1834.

Mrs. Ward, in her latest book, "Marcella," makes Bettey say of the heroine: "I wouldn't make you fashionable for the world. No, that kind of thing wouldn't suit you. But distinguished you shall be if I sit up all night to think it out."

How Moody Made His Money.

"Mr. Moody's money. Where does it come from?" Some people have asked in connection with his mission work and his pushing of the Northfield schools.

Fabulous sums have been made by successful authors through the publication of their works, but the individual profits of the greatest writer or novelist who ever achieved fame and fortune would be insignificant to what has been derived from a little 6x4 book called "Gospel Hymns and Sacred Songs," by D. L. Moody, P. P. Bliss and Ira D. Sankey. Millions of hands have turned the pages of this little volume and millions of voices have rendered praise from it. Publishing firms, both in England and the United States, have made magnificent fortunes from the sale of the work, and the receipts grow larger every year.

The enormous sum of over $1,250,000 cash has been paid in royalties to the interests represented by Mr. Moody since the book was first published, twenty years ago. The sale of hymns is said to have reached the wonderful total of 20,000,000 volumes. The price of these books has ranged from five cents up to $1.25, but, whatever may be the selling price, Mr. Moody has received uniform royalty of 20 per cent.—Boston Record.

A Young Man Killed by a Kick From a Colt—Cleveland Boy Drowned at Port Stanley—Tales of Tragedy Told by Canadian Wires.

ST. JOHN, N.B., July 30.—Ernest S. Ruel, aged 21, youngest son of James R. Ruel, collector of customs of the port, was drowned on Kennebecassis river at Rothesay on Saturday evening. He had been taking part in races by the Rothesay Canoe Club and challenged a companion to an extra race. The challenge was accepted and the two young men started. Ruel fell behind and when some distance out his competitor on looking round was horrified to see Ruel's empty canoe drifting with the tide. From the position of the limbs and the fact that there was no water in his stomach, the physicians who viewed the body believe Ruel was stricken in his canoe from heart failure or brain affection, resulting from over-exertion, and that life was extinct ere he fell into the water.

An Aged Woman Severely Burned.

MONTREAL, July 30.—A very sad accident occurred at Three Rivers and may yet prove fatal to an old and much respected lady of that locality. Mrs. Philippe Pleau was sitting in one of her apartments, when suddenly a lamp which stood above her fell and in doing so was dashed to pieces. The oil was soon ablaze and first started in the room. In attempting to subdue the flames Mrs. Pleau's dress caught fire and she was soon enveloped in the flames and would undoubtedly have been roasted alive but for the prompt arrival of her husband and some of her neighbors. The firemen were also called out and subdning the flames. Mrs. Pleau was at once placed in bed and medical assistance summoned. Owing to her advanced age it is doubtful whether she will recover.

Killed on the Track Near Hamilton.

HAMILTON, July 30.—An express train on the G.T.R., coming from Toronto, ran down and killed a man who was walking between the tracks near the Desjardins canal bridge about two miles from the city. The body was brought to the city, but the identity of the man could not be learned. The body is that of a young man, 18 or 19 years of age, neatly dressed but with no money in any of the pockets. On the corner of a handkerchief found on his person the name "Whetmore" was discovered. The young man had evidently walked a considerable distance, as the soles of his shoes were worn thin. Coroner White has ordered an inquest to be held this evening.

Drowned in Humber Bay.

TORONTO, July 30.—A young man named Sheppard hired a rowboat on Saturday from Walter Dean's boathouse on the Humber Bay, taking with him two sisters, the Misses Johnston. They had not gone far before the boat upset and all were thrown into the water. A gentleman went to their rescue, but the elder Miss Johnston sank before he could reach them. The young man and the younger sister were brought safely to land. They had applied for a boat at one other boathouse, but on account of the roughness of the water the proprietor advised them not to go out and refused to hire his boat.

Fatal Accident at Penetang.

PENETANG, Ont., July 30.—A very sad accident happened on the railway track about four miles south of here on Saturday. Joseph Robins, a laborer, who is very deaf, was walking on the track when the engine of the mail train struck him, throwing him about forty feet and landing him in the ditch with one leg and both arms broken, and spine injured and the skull crushed in on one side. When struck he had a cat in his arms and a dog leading with a chain. Neither were injured. His injuries will prove fatal.

Drowning at Port Stanley.

PORT STANLEY, July 30.—A sad drowning accident took place here last evening when Mr. Samuel Walcott of Cleveland, Ohio, lost his life while bathing in Lake Erie. There was considerable sea on and the undertow seems to have carried him too far out and he became exhausted before he could get back to the shore. The young man with several others from Cleveland has been stopping at the Fraser house for the past ten days.

A Serious Quarrel Between Farm Hands.

CHATHAM, July 30.—On Friday two men named Joseph Landry, aged about 60, and Benjamin Snell, aged 25, while working for John Liddy, Harwich township, had a quarrel, when Snell knocked the old man down and kicked him in the abdomen and side inflicting injuries so serious that Landry is now lying at the point of death in Chatham general hospital. Snell, who has been arrested, claims that he was only "fooling" with Landry.

A Widow Attempts Suicide.

BELLEVILLE, July 30.—A well-to-do widow named Mrs. Thompson attempted to commit suicide at her residence on Maria street, this city, on Saturday. She locked herself in a room and fired a shot from a 22-calibre revolver, but it did not take effect. She was removed to the jail, where she will be examined as to her sanity.

Killed By a Kick From a Colt.

SEAFORTH, Ont., July 30.—While hitching up his horses on Friday a young man named Charles Murray of the township of Tuckersmith received a kick on the abdomen from a colt, which terminated fatally on Saturday night. His internal injuries were of such a nature that doctors were powerless to do anything.

Fatally Injured in a Runaway.

HASTINGS, Ont., July 30.—While Patrick O'Melia, aged 69 years, who lives three miles from here, was horse-raking on Thursday, the horse ran away throwing him from the rake. He was seriously injured internally and about the head, from the effects of which he died yesterday.

Three Boys Drowned.

THREE RIVERS, July 30.—Three lads named Vandeboncoeur, Verrette and Guilmette, aged twelve, were drowned here while bathing in the St. Maurice river. Their bodies were recovered yesterday.

An Aged Man Killed.

HAWKESBURY, Ont., July 30.—Laurent Harlick, aged 75, was killed on Saturday by a pile of lumber falling on top of him.

CHINA STAYS HER HAND

She Is Waiting to Equip Herself With Vessels and Ammunition.

SINKING OF THE KOW SHING

London Papers Hint That Japan Will Now Have to Answer to Great Britain for Firing on and Sinking a Vessel Under Her Protection.

SHANGHAI, July 31.—It is understood that China will not formally declare war until the vessels and ammunition which she has ordered abroad reach Chinese ports. The transports Mee Foo and Toonan, which the Chinese feared had been captured, have arrived at Chee Foo. Sixty torpedoes were sent up the Kian-Gyin channel of the Yang-Tse Kiang. The 41 survivors of the Kow Shing disaster who were picked up and landed at Chee Foo by the French gunboat Lion tell a story differing in a few details from previous accounts of the Kow Shing's end.

When the Japanese began the attack they say the Kow Shing bore away for safety. The Japanese warship drove her into the a bay so shallow that the Chinese captain bove to rather than run the risk of running aground. Several Japanese officers then came aboard to say that they had orders to sink the ship and to offer to take off the Chinese officers and crew. The captain, who was an Englishman, declined the offer. The Japanese repeated it, but the captain persisted in his refusal. The Japanese then left the ship, which went down a few moments after being struck with a torpedo.

The survivors, who are almost exclusively coolies, confirm the report that not an officer was saved.

Meagre News From the Seat of War.

LONDON, July 31.—The absence of official news from Great Britain's representatives in Pekin and Tokio has caused much complaint in the House of Commons. The foreign office therefore telegraphed orders to the British consuls and ministers in China and Japan that they must send more comprehensive despatches and not permit the Chinese or Japanese officials to delay forwarding them.

The foreign office received important despatches from British representatives in China. No definite statement was made, however, concerning the declaration of war. Soon after the despatches arrived the foreign office communicated by private cable with several British embassies abroad.

Was Flying the Union Jack.

The owners of the Kow Shing have made a claim through the government for compensation from Japan. They base their claim on the ground that the Kow Shing was flying the British flag and war had not been formally declared.

Japan Blamed for the Trouble.

Geo. Nathaniel Curzon, Conservative for Southwest Lancashire, pressed the Government in the House to give further information as to affairs in Corea. He denounced Japan and eulogized China at some length. Japan's anxiety to reform Corean affairs, he said, was a mere pretext. Her real object was to make her influence paramount in Corea, to prove that her army was superior to China's, and to subdue internal dissension by exciting the nation's patriotism. Naturally, China wished to defend her own interests in Corea, but she was in no way the aggressor. The Government ought to make every effort to prevent war which would be both needless and disastrous.

Sir Edward Grey replied that as long as war was not declared the hope of a settlement remained. From the beginning the Government had taken the view that it was desirable to maintain peace in the general interest. Russia and the other powers had fully agreed with this view and all had exerted themselves to persuade the Japanese and Chinese governments not to resort to arms.

Britain's Flag Was Insulted.

All the morning papers comment with great severity upon the action of the Japanese naval officers in attacking the Kow Shing while flying the British flag.

The Daily Chronicle says: If the telegraphed account of the sinking of the Kow Shing be true a more abominable and cold blooded butchery never was perpetrated. The proper place for the Japanese officers would not be the quarterdeck but the yardarm. England will have another demand to make for her slaughtered countrymen. Japan's victory, if correctly reported, is likely to cost her very dear. There will be no ground for surprise if she hears to-morrow of decisive British or even European intervention.

Effect of War on Trade.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Inquiry was made of the leading merchants doing business with China and Japan as to the possible effect on trade of the war between those countries. The merchants agreed that the war, as long as it was confined to the northern part of the Corean country would not be likely to affect the tea trade. A great deal of tea has already been imported this season, it was said, and the war is not likely to affect the transportation of the crop.

In the dry goods district it was said that if the war was continued it would have a more serious effect on the export trade in cotton goods to China than upon the import trade in teas and silks. Some curiosity was expressed in Wall street as to the possible effect on the silver market. The head of a well-known banking house which exports silver to China said that there was nothing in their telegraphic despatches from London up to to-day which indicated any special movement in silver. If the war continued, he said, and the Oriental nations had to make loans, these loans would probably be paid to them in silver and that would tend to increase the price of the commodity.

FIFTEEN DIE OF SUNSTROKE.

German Soldiers Suffer Terribly from the Heat—Lightning's Victims.

BERLIN, July 31.—Although tropical heat prevails throughout the empire the summer military drills have been carried on according to programme. The troops have suffered intensely. Fifteen soldiers have died of sunstroke at the garrison manœuvres round Bautzen, Kittau and Lebenig.

During a heavy thunderstorm in Essen lightning struck three electric cars. One person was killed and 12 others were stunned. Eight persons were killed by lightning yesterday in Almanfeld.

AFFAIRS IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

Two More Whitewayites Unseated, Making a Total of Fifteen.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., July 31.—Speaker Emerson, ex-chairman of the Board of Works, and McGrath, both members for Placentia, shared the fate of their colleagues yesterday, being unseated and disqualified by Chief Justice Carter on alleged grounds of corruption and bribery at the general election, but the principal grounds of alleged illegal expenditure of public moneys shortly before the election so as to influence voters on their behalf, and also for giving railway tickets to voters to convey them to polling places. This makes fifteen Whitewayites unseated, and two more are yet accused. The Whitewayites now only number ten in the Assembly and the Government thirteen. The Legislature meets on Thursday, but it will have only a short session. It will pass the money indemnity bills and adjourn. They will not attempt to deal with general legislation.

LONDON, July 31.—The Times discusses the Newfoundland scandal in a bantering leader upon the caption of "Colonial Comedy." It says: "One cannot but pause for a moment to gaze on the unique spectacle of a Chamber, in which the Speaker, Premier and all the other Ministers except one, and the whole government majority have been swept out of existence."

OVER THE EMBANKMENT.

Miraculous Escape of a Team of Horses at Niagara Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 31.—A sensational tumble and a miraculous escape from death, in which a team of horses figures, occurred yesterday where the new incline railway is being constructed.

George Clark, who is employed as a teamster by the Niagara Falls Park and River Railway, was backing a load of stone near the edge of the bank when the team suddenly became unmanageable and the unloaded wagon went over the edge, pulling the team after it. The wagon and team rolled down the slope at a terrific rate and went nearly to the bottom, where they lodged behind a small building above the Maid of the Mist dock.

Everybody expected that the team, which belonged to Clark, would be horribly mutilated, but strange to say, not even a limb was broken. When the horses were extracted from the harness they were led to the top of the bank apparently not much the worse for their perilous experience, except they had quite a large number of bruises upon their bodies. It was a most remarkable escape. The harness and the wagon were wrecked.

An Italian Peddler's Crime.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 31.—An Italian banana and lemon peddler named Salvador Rassio, who has been doing business for the past two years in town and vicinity with horse and wagon, enticed the 8-year-old boy of George Lundy, who lives at Drummondville, away with him in his wagon to assist him in disposing his goods around Chippewa. When the brute reached a lonely spot on the road back of Fallview he got the boy out of the wagon into the woods, and, holding him down, committed an unnamed crime and then drove off and left the lad in the woods. After the lad came to he made his way home as best he could and reported the affair to his people. The police were notified and Chief Young arrested the brute returning from Chippewa after disposing of his goods. The boy is lying at his father's home in a precarious condition.

Moy Foy Yen Will Go to China.

MONTREAL, July 31.—Moy Foy Yen, whose name figured so prominently in connection with the exposures of Chinese smuggling, arrived in Montreal from Boston yesterday. He indignantly denied that he had any connection with smuggling whatever. He would have had an investigation instituted, but grudged the time and expense it would involve. He had acted at Richford as an interpreter. Identity, he said, was the only thing to settle at Richford. When asked if he was going to remain in Montreal he said: "No, I intend paying a visit to my relations in China."

Barn and Contents Destroyed.

MOUNT FOREST, Ont., July 31.—Yesterday a fire broke out in the large frame barn owned by Mr. Daniel Murphy, of this town, and in a short time the building and its contents were entirely consumed. The building contained over 100 tons of hay, 25 head of fat cattle, six hogs, one driving horse, a steam thresher and a lot of farm implements, all of which were burned. The estimated total loss is over $7,000. The building was insured in the Western for $1,800 and $600 on the contents. No insurance on the stock, which was to have been shipped to-day. Cause of fire unknown.

Landry Dies of His Injuries.

CHATHAM, Ont., July 31.—Joseph Landry, who was injured in a scuffle with Benjamin Snell on a farm in Harwich on Friday, died yesterday. An inquest was held at the hospital. A jury was empannelled, viewed the body and the inquest was adjourned. The deceased was a man of fifty-seven years of age, and so far as known has no relatives in the neighborhood. The result of the post-mortem disclosed the fact that death was caused by inflammation, but whether the inflammation was caused by a bruise or from other causes has not yet been decided.

CANNOT FAVOR BRITAIN

Existing Treaties May Bar the Way to Commercial Federation.

THE VEXED CATTLE QUESTION

Henry Chaplin States That Nine-Tenths of British Agriculturists Favor the Continuation of the Restrictions on the Cattle From Canada.

LONDON, July 31.—In the House of Commons yesterday Sir Edward Grey, Secretary to the Foreign Office, in reply to a question from Sir Albert Rollet, the member for South Islington, said that the treaties made by Great Britain and Belgium, in July, 1862, and between Great Britain and the Zollverein, in May, 1865, were still honored by the authorities of each country.

These treaties did not prevent differential trade relations being accorded by Great Britain in favor of the colonies, whereby the colonies would be given exclusive commercial privileges of entry on British markets, but they did prevent differential treatment of tariff questions by the colonies of Great Britain in favor of the mother land.

This is a new discovery, and it is thought that it may place an obstacle in the way of accomplishing the idea of a grand commercial federation which was formulated and welded into shape at the recent intercolonial conference at Ottawa.

Restrictions on Canadian Cattle.

Henry Chaplin, formerly president of the Board of Agriculture, directed attention in the House in the evening to the Government's attitude towards the importation of Canadian cattle. Nine-tenths of Britain's agriculturists, he said, approved of the restrictions upon the cattle trade with Canada, believing that these were of the highest importance to their interests. Nevertheless the colonial office had brought pressure to bear upon the Board of Agriculture to get these restrictions removed. The Colonial Under Secretary had even insinuated that Canadian cattle had not been affected with the pleuro-pneumonia. This insinuation was entirely unwarranted in view of the reports made on the subject by experts.

Mr. Chaplin did not press the Government to reply to him and the matter was dropped.

GENERAL WOLFE'S SWORD.

Speculations as to the Mysterious Purchaser—Boy Drowned at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, July 31.—Hugh McDonald, a clerk, 23 years old, was drowned on Sunday in the Ottawa river while bathing.

The reported purchase of the alleged sword of Gen. Wolfe is each day adding to the mystery surrounding the "prominent gentleman" who is said to have bought the precious relic. The latest names mentioned are His Excellency the Governor-General and Sir Donald Smith.

The prize list for the annual matches of of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association was issued yesterday. The competitions, which are all to be with the Martini-Henry rifles, begin on 27th of August at Rideau ranges. There are 911 prizes, representing $7,000 in cash, exclusive of prizes in kind. All the provinces will be represented. About 500 marksmen will compete for the prizes.

A Prominent South Dumfries Man Dead.

PARIS, Ont., July 31.—Mr. Louis de la Pierre died suddenly at his residence in South Dumfries yesterday from heart trouble. The deceased has been unwell for some time, but no serious consequences were apprehended. The news of his death came as a shock to everybody. No man has been more promiuent in the public affairs of the county than Mr. La Pierre. He was an old member of the Masonic fraternity, also warden of the county of Brant for a number of years.

Four More Protests Filed.

TORONTO, July 31.—Four more protests were filed yesterday representing the constituencies of South Brant, represented by Hon. A. S. Hardy; North Lanark, won from the Reformers at the general election by R. J. Preston, Conservative; Center Simcoe, represented by Paton, Reformer; and Kingston, where Dr. Smythe defeated Hon. Wm. Harty by one vote. This makes fourteen protests in all, of which eight are against Liberal seats, five against Conservative, and one against a P.P.A. member.

A Ticket Agent Skips Out.

MONTREAL, July 31.—George Patch, a well known young ticket agent who was employed at the Windsor Hotel ticket stand in this city, has cleared out leaving considerable liabilities behind him. Patch had been leading a high life for some time and as he only received a moderate salary he was unable to stand the pace. It is supposed he has gone to the States. His indebtedness here will amount to over $5,000.

Twelve-Year-Old Girl Drowned.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., July 31.—Winnie McLean, aged 12, daughter of J. McLean, M.P., Souris, fell over a bridge at Hillsboro' river, Mount Stewart, and was drowned. She was visiting her aunt's, and crossed a bridge to the post-office with another little girl. It is supposed that on her return she leaned too far over the railing of the bridge.

Prince Galatzin Will Visit the Northwest.

MONTREAL, July 31.—Prince Galatzin, the Russian nobleman who is now on a visit to Canada, arrived here from Quebec, and in the afternoon he met ex-Lieut.-Governor Royal, of the Northwest, and Mr. Davis, M.P., and made arrangements for a tour of the Northwest. He will leave for there to-day.

Brakesman Killed at Little York.

TORONTO, July 31.—Thomas Kiely, a G. T. R. brakesman, who resided on Edward street, East Toronto, was killed by a fall from the top of a freight train at Little York yesterday. The train had just started for the city. Kiely had been a brakesman for three years. He leaves a wife and three children.

Daily Examiner.

TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1894.

THE London Free Press says that brigands are becoming more and more a power in Greek politics, that they have confederates in Parliament and that a Minister has succumbed to the pressure brought to bear upon him to withdraw an official who had been offensively severe against brigandage. If, remarks the Globe, the brigands have as much political influence at Athens as at Ottawa it is no wonder that King George wants to abdicate. Before pronouncing so harsh a judgment against the Greek politicians we should like to know the facts about the Corinth Canal. Was there a show of tremendous activity in connection with it before each election? Were the various small jobs connected with it sold for sums varying from 500 to 1,250 drachmæ each in order to raise an election fund far Tricoupis or Theotokos, or Kontosvaslos, or Eutaxias? Did the builders charge for labour that was never done and for materials of which there was no visible supply? Are there any points of resemblance between its history and that of the Tay Canal or the Sheik's Island dam? We want more particulars in regard to the combination of politics and brigandage in Greece before we can make a comparison with Canada. To build a canal or a bridge without giving anything to the brigands is a great test of practical statesmanship and the Ottawa Ministers would certainly be plucked in such an examination.

THE fight over the tariff in the United States Congress has ended for the time in the same Senate conferees being sent to meet the House of Representatives conferees under the same instructions as those which made it impossible for any agreement to be reached by the conferees of the two chambers. The Senate conferees will, however, it is generally believed, give way somewhat this time, and an agreement will be reached, but not without the House of Representatives conferees also yielding something. The iron, coal and sugar duties are in dispute, but it is the sugar duties only which stand in the way of an agreement, members of the Senate having been bought by the "Sugar Trust" to hold out for protection for it. It is probable that iron and coal will be replaced on the free list, and that a compromise on the sugar duties will be reached by which the Sugar Trust will gain something, but not all that is asked. And the House of Representatives will accept the compromise rather than sacrifice the whole tariff reform bill. It is just possible that positive evidence of the corruption of senators by the Sugar Trust may be obtained by the investigating committee, in which case the tariff reformers may yet utterly rout the traitor senators and the "trusts."

THE Montreal Star has been giving some more attention to the Curran bridge and finds that is not a public convenience, that it is not what the people of Point St. Charles expected, that travel is impeded by it, and they are worse off with it than they were without it. "For the money spent and the money stolen in building that wretched bridge," it argues, "a first-class tunnel could have been built and the road traffic between Point St. Charles and the rest of the city, as well as the canal traffic, could have gone on without interruption." But, "now we fear it will be some years before the government will dare to ask parliament for any more money for Point St. Charles, and we are a long ... ering people if we do not make som... ay for the imposition that has been practiced upon us." Has not Parliament looked into the case and commissioned Hon. John Haggart to ferret out the offenders, the persons defrauding the government out of thousands of dollars, and to lock them up? The farce has been appropriately cartooned by Bengough. Mr. Haggart, blindfold, starts out to catch the rascals, loaded with the boodle, they skip about him and elude his grasp.

In England and Europe the possibility of the fall of the French Republic is being discussed, and in America a good deal has lately been said regarding the prospects of the establishment of a military despotism, or dictatorship, in the United States. The words of Judge Story, in his able treatise on the American Constitution, are pertinent, and may be quoted: "Republics are created by the virtue, public spirit, and intelligence of the citizens. They fall when the wise are banished from the public councils, because they dare to be honest, and the profigate are rewarded because they flatter the people in order to betray them. The history of former Republics tell us that prosperity has enervated them, corruption has debased them, and a venal populace has consummated their destruction." But it is difficult to believe that democracy in the United States and France is on the verge of collapse. The alarmists can always command attention, but there is little doubt that unless war disturbs them, present conditions will obtain for many years yet to come.

WHEN a Congressman at Washington makes a speech, he generally takes great care that his constituents shall derive some edification from it, and as a consequence the printed speeches that have been mailed from the Capital since the tariff has been under consideration may be measured by tons. "Over 5,000,000 speeches have been franked by members this session. A Cleveland member has sent out 1,000,000 copies of his speech on the Income tax, and a Michigan member has mailed 200,000 copies of his tariff speech. The people have to pay for the transportation of this rubbish, though it represents the worst existing obstruction to a revival of business. Better a stone when bread is asked for than one of these wordy and wooden exhibitions of vanity and imbecility.

Sir Oliver Mowat's court of conciliation for the settlement of labour disputes is generally praised abroad. In England, says the Ottawa Free Press, his legislation has been to some extent copied by the establishment of a coal conciliation court, the miners and owners agreeing to be bound by its decisions. The Ontario premier has taken a step which in economic results will prove far reaching if his plan is generally adopted.

A GREAT deal has been written of the folly of Polar expeditions; but, with the thermometer at ninety-five for days at a stretch, its a wonder that more are not looking for the north pole.

Boodlers are said to be responsible for the deplorable condition of Corea. Every country, says the Mail, seems to have its Curran bridges.

An Infant of Five Months was Very Low from Cholera Infantum.

SAVED BY LACTATED FOOD.

A London, Ont., lady writes as follows: "Three weeks ago baby (Florence) was very ill indeed, and we did not expect her to live. We soon discovered that the child had cholera infantum. For over two days diarrhœa and vomiting were severe, and seemed useless to administer food of any kind. Just at the worst point my aunt advised me to send for Lactated Food, and to give it in small quantities to baby. This was done, and in from eight to ten hours we noted a happy change. We continued the use of the food at regular intervals when baby was awake, and I am glad to say that in four days our darling was almost quite well. As I write baby is in perfect health and getting stronger every day. Your Food is one of earth's best blessings for babies."

Dear mother, this is the most trying and most dangerous time of the year for baby; a perfect food is of the utmost importance in order that all fatal complaints may be avoided. Lactated Food certainly and surely "Saves Babies' Lives."

PETERBOROUGH CHEESE BOARD.

"The Best Board in the Country."

The Kingston Whig in reporting the dissensions that arouse between buyers and salesmen at the Kingston Cheese Board, over the trouble from selling off the board, says that Mr. Bartlett, of Napanee, said he wished to see adopted a set of rules that could not be gotten over. Peterborough, for instance, he said, had the best board in the country. A man boarding his cheese could not sell off the board and would have to wait for two weeks until the board met again. If this law was broken a fine of $15 was levied and the member suspended from the board. Peterborough has the best conducted board in Canada.

Beware of Green Fruit.

Now that the heated term is approaching, people should pay particular attention to their diet, above all things avoiding unripe fruit and stale vegetables, which invariably bring on Cramps, Cholera Morbus, or Diarrhœa. Children are particularly subject to complaints of this kind, and no mother can feel safe without having a bottle of Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER within easy reach. It is a safe, sure, and speedy cure for the disorders named, and no family medicine chest is complete without it. Ask for the Big 25c. bottle.

TARIFF'S FATE SEALED

There Will Be No Revision of the Tariff By This Congress.

DE BARRY'S BILL THROWN OUT

The Measure Drafted by the Inspector at Buffalo, Pointed Particularly Against Canadians, Killed in Committee—The Japanese Minister Recalled.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—All indications point to the defeat of the tariff bill. The President favors its defeat, and Speaker Crisp will bend his energies to that end. Were the House now to conform to the terms of the German compromise, it is certain the President would veto the bill. The President is said to express no preference as to which way the result is attained, that is, whether it is beaten in the House or sent to him for a veto. Either way the fate of the Senate bill is sealed, and there will be neither tariff revision nor income tax by this Congress

The Senate has rejected the nomination of Edward T. Taylor to be collector of customs for the district of Niagara Falls, N.Y.

The Lockwood immigration bill, which was designed primarily to protect the labor of the Canadian border from Canadian competition, and which would have prevented the employment of alien sailors on lake vessels, has been killed in committee. This is the bill drafted by Immigrant Inspector De Barry, of Buffalo, and was the most unneighborly of all likelegislation yet attempted.

The government has determined to establish a naval coaling station for the North Atlantic and Caribbean Sea fleet at Key West. The navy department looks upon this as a point of great importance. Any foreign naval power that could maintain itself at Key West in time of war would command the Gulf.

Mr. Taten, the Japanese minister, presented his letters of recall to the President yesterday. The speeches of the minister and the President were cordial, but purely formal.

A resolution recognizing the new republic of Hawaii, and directing the President to notify President Dole of the recognition, was offered in the House by Mr. Boutelle (Rep. Me.) as a matter of privileges. He asked its immediate consideration, but Speaker Crisp ruled that it was not privileged, and it was ruled to the committee on foreign affairs. Mr. Boutelle explained that the resolution was a copy of the one introduced by Mr. McCreay (Dem. Ky.) chairman of the committee, on foreign affairs on Jan. 27, 1895, recognizing the republic of Brazil, and he asked of the chairman, as the real author of the resolution, that prompt action which he said the House had a right to expect.

Aliens Must Not Own Lands.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Mr. Bowen (Pop., Minn.) introduced in the House yesterday a bill making it unlawful for aliens to own lands in the United States. Three years from the passage of the bill the Government is to seize and sell all lands owned by aliens, the proceeds of the sale to go to the alien owners.

ACRES OF LUMBER DESTROYED.

Twenty-Five Million Feet Go Up in Smoke —Railroad Property Also Burned.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 31.—Twenty acres of lumber piles, containing about 25,000,000 feet of lumber belonging to the Shevlin-Carpenter Lumber Co., situated on the west bank of the river, within a quarter mile of the centre of the city, were destroyed by fire yesterday, with a loss of fully $300,000. The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railroad round house was also burned, together with 21 freight cars and the valuable Pintsch gas plant. Carelessness on the part of the engineer and fireman of the Omaha switch engine, who neglected to close the dampers of their engine while passing the yards, is supposed to have been the cause of the fire.

Aftermath of the Great Strike.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Freight traffic on the roads has completely recovered from the effects of the strike and resumed normal conditions. Last week's shipments were as heavy as the weekly average before the strike began, amounting to 47,256 tons, against 29,146 tons for the previous week, and 49,881 tons for the corresponding week last year. The Chicago steel mills, which were closed during the strike, have started up with 2,500 men.

Arrest of a White Cap.

DENVER, July 31.—Joseph Wilson, who is believed to have been the leader of the party who tarred and feathered Adjutant-Gen. Ramsey at Colorado Springs, has been arrested near Nevada, Mo. It is reported he has made a confession.

Pugilist McAuliffe Married.

BROOKLYN, July 31.—Jack McAuliffe, the light-weight pugilist, and Catherine Rowe, one of the Inman sisters, actresses, were married here yesterday.

IT DOES CURE.

There is no Hearsay or Experiment About South American Nervine—It Cures at the Fountain Head and Therefore Cures Effectually and Lastingly—Thousands Say So.

Most people can say of sickness "'tis true, 'tis pity, and pity 'tis true." There's the fact, hundreds, nay thousands know little of the comforts of good health. The pity, however, is in not applying the remedy when it is so close at hand. The attraction and positive element of the South American Nervine Tonic is in its certain curing qualities. It does cure. It can not do else, because its composition is based on the simple but undeniable scientific fact that the basic origin of all sickness is in the nerve centres. All organs of the body are under control of these nerve centres. South American Nervine discarding the surface cause of the trouble goes immediately to the fountain head and common sense tells all of us that if we're right there we're right everywhere. Why suffer then? Why those headaches day in and day out? Why those mean and terrible woes that come from indigestion? Why an inactive liver and the train of troubles that follow it? 'Tis true you have those troubles, but "what fools ye mortals be" with South American Nervine ready, beyond any doubt, to give the desired relief. There is no experiment in the effort. Thousands throughout this broad Dominion have testified to its unfailing virtues. Sold by H. S. McDonald.

ENNISMORE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

While Mr. John Flood, a young man, accompanied by two young ladies, Miss A. Guiry and Miss O'Donohue, were out driving on Monday night on going down what is known as Cavanagh's Hill, one of the draw-irons of the pole broke and caused the whiffletrees to drop, striking the horses on the heels which caused them to make a furious dash for liberty. Mr. Flood managed to keep them on the road, although running at a fast rate of speed. Mr. C. O'Connor succeeded in stopping them not much the worse of the run. The young ladies were somewhat frightened.

While Martin Doran, a young son of Mr. Martin Doran, was watering some horses on Tuesday morning the banking of the well caved in, causing one of the animals, a valuable beast, to go head first into the water. It was, with much difficulty, extricated from its perilous position.

Harvest has commenced and the sound of binders heard on almost every farm. Crops in general are fairly good and will yield above the average, the wheat especially.

Mr. W. H. Crough, of Ennismore, can safely say he is the first to test the yield of this year's crop, as he threshed 600 lbs. of fall wheat on Wednesday last.

Mr. Patrick Galvin, one of the oldest men in Ennismore, had a narrow escape from drowning on Wednesday last. It appears Mr. Galvin was visiting his grandson, Mr. Peter Flood, and thinking he might catch some fish started out in a boat. When a short distance from the shore he ran upon a stump, causing the boat to upset. An Indian who was in sight hurried to the old gentleman's assistance and rescued him in an exhausted condition.

Mr. Daniel Welsh, of Toronto, is renewing old acquaintances in Ennismore.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please," an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Here's a Pointer.

Tea is an article about as much used as anything, yet very few understand the buying of it. Osh-K-Osh tea is about as well known as any tea on the market; regular price is 40 cents a pound and never been sold for less, but for the balance of this month Stroud Bros., 370 George street, are selling it at 28 cents a pound, five pounds for one dollar.

Fare for round trip only $1.75; good for two days on boat, three days on train. Trains leave G.T.R. station at 7 o'clock on day of excursion. Make a memo of it. 1d

Injured at the Electric Works.

Monday evening, about 6 o'clock, Mr. Jno. Bogan, Carlisle settlement, Ashburnham, met with a severe accident. He was engaged at work in the machine shop on a large iron plate. It seems that steam is used under it and the pressure was so great that the plate was forced to the ceiling, and in descending fell on Mr. Brogan's head, inflicting an ugly cut. A physician was summoned and a number of stitches put in the scalp. He was removed to his home in Ashburnham and it will be some time before he will be able to be around.

Live Stock Market Looking up.

A considerable number of cattle, sheep and hogs were weighed on the market this (Tuesday) morning, and shipped by C. P. R. to the Montreal market by Messrs. Watts and Fitzgerald, drovers and shippers; a number of hogs bought for Matthews' Packing House were also weighed for Messrs. Shaughnessy & Kennedy. The live stock market seems to be growing more brisk and prices are stiffening. The farmers will be pleased to know that Mr. John Walsh, of Asphodel, ex-Warden, has regained his health and is on the market once more looking after stock.

In Search of Tramps.

Chief Roszel, accompanied by Officer McGinity, took a stroll to the outskirts of the town to ascertain the truth of the report that tramps were loitering around the town. The result of their search was that only three knights of the road were spied—one in the vicinity of the C. P. R. bridge and two others at Burnham's Point. The chief ordered them to leave the vicinity as soon as possible or else suffer the consequences. A member of the trio said it would be impossible for him to get out at once, as he had "some business to transact," but when the chief mentioned something about the lock-up, he was very willing to "leave the country." Peterborough, it may be stated, is entirely free from these gentry and all rumours about tramps being seen by the dozens in the suburbs of the town are, the police say, greatly exaggerated.

The Estimates and the Rate.

A meeting of the Finance Committee was held last night. The estimates furnished by the town treasurer were considered and approved, and the rate based on the estimates will be 17 mills which, the committee thinks, will wipe out the deficit and provide for five payments on account of electric light and hydrants. This will be regarded as a pretty stiff rate, but, if it does what is asserted — furnish a new experience from the last two or three years in the shape of a clean sheet — it may be more or less philosophically accepted. Deficits are bad things and things to be avoided, and if large expenditure and insufficient taxation produce them, one way to avoid them is by putting up the rate. Reduction of expenditure is another way, but if the city fathers do not provide this, the inevitable is a high rate. If we can't have economical expenditure we must have a high rate, but we must keep clear of deficits.

Their Stay in Town was Short.

About noon to-day word was received at police headquarters from the vicinity of St. Peter's cathedral that a man "was murdering a woman." Chief Roszel and P. C. McGinty at once hurried to the scene, and the neighbours in the vicinity of Charlotte and Rubidge streets were greatly excited. The man and woman were found near the Protestant Home and taken to the cells. The man gave his name as Archibald Dancey, and claimed his home was in Holt, Ontario county, and that the woman in question was his wife. He claimed he came to Peterborough in search of his son. The complaints received by the police went to show that the couple were having a free fight and that the woman was getting hard usage. They had been in town since yesterday, being seen in the vicinity of the Driving Park. They promised if given their liberty to return to Ontario county. The chief released the couple and ordered them to take the five o'clock train for Lindsay.

Take It In.

The grand annual excursion of Court Little John, No. 92, C.O.F., which takes place regularly every year on the Civic Holiday, will be an unusually favorite and fascinating trip this year. The posters are now on the walls, and give only a partial conception of the attractiveness of the route, and the extraordinary cheapness of the tickets. The excursion is billed to go first to Toronto by C.P.R., then by steamers across to Queenston, then up along the Niagara River by the Electric Railway on the Canadian side to Niagara Falls and Chippewa, then by steamer to Buffalo. To give some idea how cheap the rates are which have been secured by the Foresters it may be mentioned that the regular return fare from Peterborough to Toronto is $4.20, and to Buffalo $9. On this trip, however, the fares have been pulled down to $1.75 to Toronto, and $2.75 to Buffalo. Children half fare, tickets good for 3 days. Take it in—if you don't you'll regret it.

An Evening With Burns.

Miss Jean Howison, of Perth, Scotland, will give an evening with Robert Burns, the poet, the immortal apostle of the brotherhood of man, in Bradburn's Opera House to-night July 31st, with readings and recitations from his poems. Miss Howison comes highly recommended by the press and eminent public men, and the following letter from Mr. Melville Millar, a former Peterborough citizen, whose commendation will be accepted as a reliable expression of opinion, is a valuable testimony to the excellency of the entertainment. Mr. Millar heard Miss Howison in Orillia:—

ORILLIA, Ont., July 7th, 1894.

R. M. Denniatoun, Esq., Peterborough.

DEAR SIR,—I suppose you are still president of the Peterborough St. Andrew's Society, and as such, take an interest in everything calculated to keep up a proper interest in Scottish affairs.

I take the liberty of introducing to you Miss Howison, who is lecturing on Burns, and having heard her here last evening, I can safely recommend her popular lecture as an entertainment, that no one, who cares anything for such things, can afford to miss. Should Miss H. arrange to give her lecture in Peterborough, I thought that possibly you would kindly interest yourself in the matter, and set such influences at work as would insure a good house. You may take my word for it that no one would regret spending an evening at Miss Howison's entertainment. With kind regards I am,

Yours truly,
MELVILLE MILLAR

PROVINCIAL ELECTION PROTESTS

Four More Entered at Osgoode Hall, On Monday—The Total Now Fourteen.

Four fresh Provincial petitions were filed with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal yesterday, making the number up to date, fourteen in all. In respect of the election in South Brant, Thomas Dowling, a carpenter, of Brantford, petitions against the return of Hon. A. S. Hardy. The petition sets forth the usual grounds, and in addition states that an election fund was levied from persons having dealings with the Departments of Crown Lands and Public Works, and from the holders of and applicants for liquor licenses, and employed in corrupting the electorate in that riding. The prayer of the petition is that "all proper accounts may be taken," and the election and return of Mr. Hardy declared null and void. The petition is filed by Messrs. Laidlaw, Kappele & Bicknell. Mr. Hardy's majority was over 600.

The same solicitors also filed the petition of Alfred M. Hunter, a Barrie merchant, against the return of Robert Paton as member for Centre Simcoe in the Provincial Legislature. The petition alleges that Mr. Paton is not eligible to sit by reason of his having and holding an office under Government or a contract with the Government and makes, in addition, the ordinary charges of bribery and corruption by the respondent and his agents.

The petition of Thomas Wilson, of the village of Lanark, shoemaker, complaining of the election of Richard F. Preston for North Lanark, was filed yesterday by Messrs. Kerr, Macdonald, Davidson & Patterson. This petition is in the common form.

So is the petition of Wm. McConnell, of the village of Portsmouth, against the return of Dr. Smythe, Q. C., for Kingston, which was filed yesterday by Messrs. Delamere & Co., Toronto agents for J. L. Whiting of Kingston. Dr. Smythe, it will be remembered, defeated Hon. Wm. Harty by one vote.

This make a total of fourteen protests. Of these eight are against Government supporters, five against Conservatives and one against a P. P. A. member. The protested Reformers are: Hon. A. S. Hardy, Hon. J. M. Gibson, Hon. R. Harcourt, and Messrs. Blezard, Farwell, German, Paton, and T. J. Middleton. The protested Conservatives are Messrs. Meredith, Smythe, Preston (N. Lanark), Ryerson and Magwood, and the protested P. P. A. is Mr. Gurd of West Lambton.

A GRAND TRUNKER.

The Knight's of the Rail Have a Day on the River—A Rattling Run on Schedule Time.

The steamer Daisy cut loose her ropes at 8.30 a.m. on the 29th inst., with a party of railroad men and other gentlemen of Lakefield and Bowmanville on board. The trip down stream was thoroughly enjoyed. Among those present were Mr. Harry Neill, manager, with Capt. Calcutt at his right; next came William Henry Morris, chairman, with "Last Chance" at his back, and Mr. Haskill, as master of ceremonies. Among the others were Messrs. R. Matthews, Ed. Barnes, W. R. Kelly, M. Nelson, E. Graham, W. M. Scott, and Mr. R. Nicholls as William Henry's acrobat. The boys were entertained en route by Mr. Geo. H. Adam with the banjo, and Mr. Killy as vocalist. The first stop was at Jubilee Point where a dinner was waiting, fit for a king, served by Mr. Jackson, who is worthy of all praise for the way he treated the boys. The table contained all the delicacies of the season and was nicely ornamented with ferns and flowers. After dinner we again embarked and steamed up Rice Lake to Gore's Landing thence to Harwood where we took on wood and water and surprised the natives. We made this stop of short duration, and we again steamed homeward, but got flagged at Jubilee where Mr. Bert Wallace was the first man to land, he being the hero of the day. Others followed and were not afraid; but Mr. R. Gibbs thought he would stay and fish awhile; he did so and got some very pretty ones. We steamed again at 5.30 for home and overtook and passed the Rob Roy and a barrel of other crafts, the Daisy winning on her "Last Chance" by one hour ahead of all others, finishing at the Peterborough wharf at 8.30. The crew deserve great credit for the able manner in which they handled their dandy little steamer Daisy. Hoping to again have the pleasure of another such runs in the near future, I am,

Yours truly,
ONE OF THE BOYS.

A BOLD BURGLAR.

Entered the Residence of Mr. William Fowler, 273 Rubidge Street, This Morning—He Was Baffled in his Attempt by a "Gentle Breeze."

The truth of the adage "It's an ill wind that don't blow somebody good," was fully verified in an attempted burglary this morning, in which a gust of wind spoiled the work of a "midnight marauder." About two o'clock this morning, a burglar entered the summer kitchen of Mr. Wm. Fowler, 273 Rubidge street, and attempted to gain an entrance into the lower portion of the house. Being foiled in his attempt by the apartment being securely locked, he ascended a ladder into the garret over the summer house, and going through a door into the bathroom, entered the hall upstairs. At this moment a slight breeze through the upstairs window caused the bathroom door to close with the result that it awoke Mrs. Fowler, who became alarmed and thought the noise was caused by a burglar. She called her husband, who immediately rose and went into the hall. He was surprised to find a man standing in the bathroom, a few feet from him. Mr. Fowler made an effort to gain an entrance into the bathroom, but the burglar forced himself against the door. Mr. Fowler then proceeded to get a lamp, and while he was gone, the scamp made his exit through the bathroom into the summer house, unfastened one of the doors and fled in the darkness. Upon examination it was found that there was nothing missing, and, but for the breeze through the window, it is probable that the thief would have made a haul.

THE CANADIAN PROVINCES.

British Columbia is the largest of the Provinces and embraces an area of 382,000 square miles.

Prince Edward Island is the smallest—2,000 square miles.

The smallest of the seven is the most densely populated, having a little over 54 people to the square mile, while the largest is the most sparsely peopled, with a little over three square miles to each person.

There is coal in four out of the seven Provinces, Nova Scotia being the greatest producer with an output of about two and a quarter million tons per annum.

British Columbia is the greatest gold producer, the produce of her mines for thirty years having been valued at forty-six and a half million dollars.

Nova Scotia has the most valuable fisheries, her annual catch averaging about seven million dollars in value.

Quebec takes the lead in the supply of timber, her output of saw logs amounting to 5,000,000,000 feet board measure, and of square timber to three and a quarter million cubic feet.

Ontario is the banner cheese Province, the production running up to about eight million dollars a year.

Combined, the whole seven have resources unequally by those of any other country in the world.

WORDS FROM THE SAGES.

For where we love is home, home that our feet may leave but not our hearts.—Jean Ingelow.

Do the duty which lies nearest to you. Every duty which is bidden to wait returns with seven fresh duties at its back. Kingsley.

It is an old proverb that he who aims at the sun, to be sure will not reach it, but his arrow will fly higher than if he aimed at an object on a level with himself.—Hawes.

Every vice and folly has a train of secret and necessary punishment. If we are lazy, we must expect to be poor; if intemperate, to be diseased; if luxurious, to die prematurely.—Varle.

It is the most momentous question a woman is ever called upon to decide—whether the faults of the man she loves are beyond remedy, and will drag her down, or whether she is competent to be his earthly redeemer and lift him to her own level.—O. W. Holmes.

There are people who understand one another at once. When one soul meets another it is not by pass word, nor by hailing sign, nor by mysterious grip that they recognize. The subtlest freemasonry in the world is this freemasonry of the spirit. —Edward Eggleston.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cresse and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

About 250 spectators witnessed the lacrosse match yesterday evening on the Riverside Park for the junior championship of the town between the Dukes and Granites, and a fine exhibition of the game it was. Great interest was manifested in this match as both teams were confident of success. When Manager "Ernie" Taylor, of the Dukes, lined his men up on the field it was noticed the Granites were the much smaller team of the two, and every one was sure that the Dukes would win easily, but the pretty combination play of the Granites told throughout the game. The teams lined up in the following order:

| Granites. | | Dukes. |
|---|---|---|
| W Knapp | goal | J Connors |
| W Sawers | point | J Mein |
| H Stenson | cover point | W. Clancy |
| H Laing | 1st defence | B Foy |
| J McCabe | 2nd " | P Butler |
| M Green | 3rd " | M McDonough |
| L Savigny | centre | G Bell |
| H Belleghem | 3rd home | W Moncrief |
| W Sawers | 2nd home | B Guy |
| E Sawers | 1st home | S Wainwright |
| D Costello | outside home | H Sanders |
| T Lannin | inside home | H. Melville |
| F Nesbitt | umpire | M McDonough |
| G Galley | field captain | Nelson Roddy |

In the face off there was a slight skirmish at centre but the ball travelled towards the Granite's goal, and was quickly sent up again to the Dukes' territory. In this game T. Lannin, D. Costello and L. Savigay, of the Granites, did good work, while McDonough, Bell and Butler, of the Dukes, did splendid work. After about fourteen minutes good play, W. Sawers secured the ball and scored for the Granites.

The ball was faced for the second game and at once went down the field to the Dukes' goal, where it lingered for a time, and was sent up the field by Butler. H. Laing, B. Belleghem, W. Sawers and W. Knapp showed up in fine form and very pretty play was witnessed. The Dukes did all in their power to score, but were out played by the Granites. At the end of twelve minutes Ed. Sawers, who played a star game, scored by a neat shot.

The third game only lasted about eight minutes, both teams showing up in good style. Wainwright, of the Dukes, played a good game on home, and he was ably backed up by Moncrief, and Melville. H. Stinson, M. Green, W. Sawers and J. McCabe did splendid work on the team, and after some pretty sharp play, Ed. Sawers again scored. Darkness coming on, the game was discontined, the Granites winning three straight games.

Both teams play good lacrosse, and will make a good showing in a few years.

There was a little rough playing during the game, confined principally to the older players.

The Granites will probably play Port Hope, Millbrook and Lindsay at an early date.

The Checkers of Beaverton will in all probability play here on Tuesday next.

A team calling themselves the Mongolians intend challenging the Granites for the junior championship of the town.

A report is in circulation throughout the province, (and which is without foundation) to the effect that Tansey of the Shamrocks played with the EXAMINER team in their celebrated struggle with our side-street contemporary. We want to give this an emphatic denial on behalf of the managers of the team. It must be admitted, however, that we received a large number of communications from well know players throughout the province offering their services for the contest free of cost. Our sense of justice and fair play would not permit us to play outsiders. This rumour has evidently been started by our enemies—but truth is mighty and will prevail.

Mr. T. McDonough, of the Shamrocks, is corresponding with the Belleville, Kingston and other teams endeavouring to arrange matches.

BASEBALL.

Peterborough and Oshawa are playing on the Driving Park this afternoon. The following members of the Oshawa team are registered at the Oriental: R. Davidson, manager; A. Stapleton, J. Miller, C. Stapleton, Burke, Griffin, Stapleton, Griffin, Burnett and Lafferty.

A SOCIAL EVENING SPENT.

Epworth League of Mark Street Church Hold a Successful Entertainment.

The Epworth League of Mark street Methodist church held a very successful and enjoyable entertainment in the church last evening which was attended by a large number. The president of the league, Miss M. Smith, opened the meeting, after which Rev. Mr. Beer, pastor, gave an interesting address. The programme of the evening was an excellent one and consisted of a well rendered duet by Messrs. H. S. Armstrong and T. Clithroe, a pleasing vocal solo by Miss Beer, after which Misses Truce, Minnie and Etta Kindred favoured the gathering with a well sung trio. A recitation was given with taste by Miss A. Dawson, followed by a trio well rendered by Misses Smith and Mr. H. S. Armstrong. Mr. H. S. Armstrong also contributed a well rendered solo. Then followed five minute speeches by several gentlemen which were very interesting and instructive. Mr. Wm. Johnston championed "Woman's Rights," in an able manner and was followed by Mr. W. Matchett in an address on "Enthusiasm," which was exceptionally well given; Mr. H. S. Armstrong handled "The Dude" in vigourous style and was followed by Mr. T. Clithroe on the question, "Why should not Ashburnham and Peterborough Unite?" which was handled in good style. Mr. H. Beer in his address, "Why do young ladies prefer going to church in the evening rather than in the morning?" proved that the fair sex in this practice were not impelled by pious motives only. Rev. Mr. Beer in speaking on "Whispering in church," dealt very strongly with this practice which was indulged in, not only in the pews but also in the choir loft.

Refreshments were then served by the members of the league, which were partaken of by the large gathering present.

The accompanistes of the evening were Misses T. Kindred, Wilson and Smith.

CHEMONG PARK AND CHEMONG LAKE.

(By a resident of Peterborough who with his family camps there regularly—Printed by special request.)

To Chemong Park we took our way,
It was a beautiful July day,
To fish for bass it was our will—
We drove right on to Kelly's mill.

Our party numbered exactly eight,
All full of cheer and spirits bright,
Our annual picnic a l the talk
Along the banks of Chemong Lake.

We landed there at half past nine,
And then each took his hook and line,
But the wind it blew so very strong
Across the lovely lake Chemong.

To walk across he might do worse,
Each walked the bridge, I led my horse,
The bridge in miles three-quarters long,
Across the lovely lake Chemong.

We then unhitched at end of bridge—
The lake was calm—under the ridge,
Our express wagon so snug along
The shore of lovely Lake Chemong.

And then we went to catch the frogs
Among the rushes and the logs,
For it is said by lad and lassa
That frogs are best for catching bass.

And then to fishing we did go,
Our hooks and lines we all did throw;
On the floating bridge we strung along
To fish for bass on Lake Chemong.

The day it seemed so very short,
Our fishing there it was fine sport;
We caught the bass, over one foot long,
On the floating bridge of Lake Chemong.

Sun rather hot, near six o'clock,
Our horse to wagon we did yoke;
We left Enniskmore's sloping hill,
And then re-crossed to Kelly's mill.

And then we drove to Chemong Park.
We could not leave till nearly dark,
Everything lovely, rich and rare,
Who would not want to live out there?

Oh, let me not forget one thing,
And that is Chemong mineral spring,
Crystal, clear water, good and sweet,
To drink it is the greatest treat.

The cottages all look so fine,
The Chemong hotel it makes a shine,
The great big trees to be among
In the lovely park of Lake Chemong.

And now just here let me declare
That Nature she has done her share,
For beauty she has made her mark,
Those lovely grounds of Chemong Park.

There is my friend Telford lives quite near,
Next to the Gilmour church I hear,
Well may he sing a good Scotch song
About the lovely park Chemong.

And when we get the street cars there,
We'll jump aboard and pay our fare,
And in the town remember long
A day of pleasure at Chemong.

IT FOLLOWS AFTER — a disordered liver — that you're subject to attacks of cold or chills on slight exposure. You get "tired" easily. A "tired" digestion fails to assimilate food. This often results in what we call Indigestion or Biliousness.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets rouse the liver to vigorous action, and this in turn starts the machinery of the body into activity. Liver, stomach and bowels feel the tonic effect, and in consequence the entire system is invigorated. The processes become self-regulating, and a reserve force is stored up against exposure to disease.

If you're too thin, too weak or nervous, it must be that food assimilation is wrong. This is the time to take Pleasant Pellets. They permanently cure Constipation, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Sick or Bilious Headache, Dizziness and Jaundice.

CARE OF THE MOUTH.

Fine Teeth and How to Preserve Them. Valuable Washes.

Dentistry has reached such perfection that though the shape of the individual tooth cannot be controlled, the general contour of the jaw may be regulated. The semi-circle of teeth can be flattened or arched as beauty requires.

The popular advice as to the care of the teeth is too indefinite. A general washing night and morning does not suffice to keep teeth brilliant and free from discoloration. A soft smallish brush should be used after each meal about the necks of the teeth. There the enamel is thinnest and least intact, so that bits of food are likely to be retained. A decidedly stiff brush should be used to cleanse the inner side of the teeth where tarter deposits itself, and on the double teeth with their many irregularities of conformation. But it is senseless to rub the smooth outer enamel of the front teeth with bristles, when a bit of chamois or soft linen with a little dry precipitated chalk will polish them effectually. The "bits" should be new each time.

Silk floss should be passed frequently between all the teeth but with little pressure. Even in the privacy of one's own room it is not desirable to use a toothpick. A wooden toothpick is clumsy, liable to inflame the gums. With the more delicate quill-pick there is danger of severing minute fibres of the gums. The toothpick process results in time in a loosened molar. If a shred of food gets obstinately wedged beneath the gum it is better not to worry at it oneself, but to go to a dentist and have him with his practiced manipulation and needle-like instruments remove the particle.

The greatest precaution should be taken not to loosen a tooth. A full mouth of teeth is a great beauty; spaces are not only unbeautiful but fruitful of trouble, the food continually pressing in keeps the gums inflamed, and on the health of the gums and mucus membrane of the mouth depends to a big extent the health of the teeth.

An aching tooth should never be borne with. I have known a woman to endure, without consulting a dentist, the repeated excruciating toothache that attends a dying nerve. The pain finally subsided, for good and all; but the tooth gradually became discolored, taking on a drabish tone. Then, for the first time this unlucky woman suspected what had happened. The pulp, the dead nerve, was removed, but the tooth never regained its clear pearly lustre.

If one is troubled with dyspepsia or any gastric disturbance, the teeth bear witness to the fact. They lose their brilliancy, often become stained a dark saffron about their necks. Every pretty dyspeptic should make a point of keeping by her bedside a wine-glass of water into which is stirred a teaspoonful of bicarbonate of soda to rinse her mouth as often as she wakes. The bicarbonate counteracts the effect of any acidity of the stomach on the teeth.

Pure castile soap may be used occasionally with benefit: the daily use of soap on the teeth is discouraged by the best dentists. Suds leave a deposit of soap beneath the gums that encourage their recession.

A few drops of listerine, or myrrh, or weak carbolic acid and water, make an excellent mouth-wash, antiseptic, healing and hardening to the gums. The myrrh leaves an aroma as of violets in the mouth. A handsome and fastidious woman of my acquaintance takes internally several times a week, a little pellet of rhubarb dissolved in bicarbonate of soda and water to sweeten her breath.

The beauty of the mouth is not made complete by the rosiness and smoothness of the lips and the perfection of the teeth between; also its size is a minor consideration. What we demand of it is that it shall please us, if it pleased us we are apt to call it a pretty mouth. It must have either positive beauty of outline, or an expression of geniality. Everybody dislikes equally a "prunes and prisms" month, or the lazily obtruding mouth which is the possession generally of stupid, heavy people who let their mouth pout out in pure inanity. Exact, nice, but easy enunciation moulds the mouth into dignity and beauty.

What do you take medicine for? Because you are sick and want to get well, of course. Then remember, Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.

DEAR SIRS,—I was suffering very much from diarrhœa, and could get nothing to cure me. A friend told me of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and a few doses completely cured me.
THOS. L. GRAHAM, Melita, Man.

A FLOATING EMBANKMENT.

How Engineers in India Overcome an Obstacle in Railroad Building.

On the Calcutta and Southeastern railroad of India an unusual construction has been successfully resorted to to carry the double tracked railway lines over very soft, wet ground, which was too unstable to support ordinary filling, says the Indian Engineer. At the point where the railway crosses the Pilallee the river flows in an artificial channel. It formerly made a bend at this point, which carried the stream about four hundred feet to the west of its present course, and it thus became necessary to carry the embankment which forms the western approach of the bridge across the old channel, the bottom of which was sixty feet below high-water mark and eighty-three feet below the level of the line. Accordingly the new cut having been excavated, and the lower end of the old bed bunded with sand bags to facilitate silting, the embankment was commenced by throwing in earth from the western bank.

The soil of the locality, like that of the Sunderbunds generally, however, is a soft loam, highly absorptive of water, so that the earth thrown in speedily formed a semi-fluid slush, which flowed out on both sides, filling up the old channel, and then flowing out at one or both ends into the river. No efforts could succeed in raising the embankment above the level of high water, and a quantity of bamboos which were laid down with a view to impede the lateral motion of the earth, after settling together with the embankment, reappeared after a few weeks some two hundred feet off on the line of outflow. At length the engineers, finding that there was no hope of the earth attaining sufficient solidity to bear the weight of the embankment as hitherto attempted, adopted the expedient of constructing a great float on the same elementary principle, although differently applied in construction, as that adopted with so much success by George Stephenson at the Chat Moss.

Valuable Horse Hints.

If we are to keep any horse at all, why not keep a good one? It costs no more (nor as much) to feed a valuable animal than it does to keep a poor one in condition. The trouble is, with the horse, that the country is inundated with a cheap grade of "plugs" that never can begin to pay breeders the cost of their raising. To be sure, the size and style of a horse must of course be influenced by the labor to which he is to be put, but there are some general points to be cultivated more or less perfectly in every horse; points that to the horseman at once distinguish the intelligent, blooded animal from the scrub. Choose as far as possible a horse with large, dilatable nostrils; a full, deer-like eye; broad forehead; neck of medium length, with gentle curve to form a well pronounced crest; chest deep to give room to lungs and heart; shoulder sloping; back short above, long below and well ribbed up; limbs with large, bony joints, loaded with hard muscles above knees and hocks but smooth and flat below these joints; also legs well let down at knees and hocks. Of course the surest way to find out a good horse is to try him; but attention to above points will aid one in making a good selection.

How dependent upon the shoeing is a horse's value and usefulness, and yet how little science is often shown in treating that most important organ, the hoof. "No hoof no horse" is certainly not to be denied. It is well to remember that the lighter the shoe consistent with size and work of a horse the better; also small nails, and let them be driven out and clinched before going far up the hoof. The wall alone needs paring; the sole will flake itself naturally. Never reduce the frog. Never file outside of hoof.—Ohio Farmer.

Water for Cows.

Milk is about 87 per cent. water. To produce a good yield of milk without plenty of water is impossible. The water of milk is taken from the blood. Diminishing the water in the blood creates thirst and fever. Profuse perspiration makes a person thirsty because the fluid perspired comes from the blood and not enough is left to answer physiological requirements. Cows need water in summer for the same reason that warm-blooded animals in general need it, and for the additional reason they are artificially developed as milk producers and milk production demands water. Water should be furnished in the pasture so they can drink during the heat of the day and at other times if they desire. Many pastures have no natural supply of water. Be sure and provide this want in all pastures, says the Orange Judd Farmer.

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

LIFE IN OTHER WORLDS

THE EVER-RECURRING QUESTION, ARE PLANETS HABITABLE?

Extracts From Advance Sheets of the Publications of the Astronomical Society of the Pacific—Prof. Holden Thinks the Question Will Soon Be Settled.

Percival Lowell has lately established an observatory near Flagstaff, Ar., at an elevation of 7,300 feet above the sea.

According to press telegrams, this station is connected with the Harvard College Observatory (director, Prof. Edward Pickering), and is to be under the charge of his brother, Prof. William Pickering of the Harvard Observatory, who has lately been director of the Harvard station in Arequipa, Peru.

I have just received a copy of the Boston Commonwealth of May 26, 1894, which contains a long account of a paper read by Mr. Lowell before the Boston Scientific Society on his new observatory and its plan for work. It is to be presumed that this abstract of Mr. Lowell's paper is authoritative; but as it is not signed by his name, he may not hold the views there expressed. I have quoted a few statements from this account because they seem to me to be very misleading and unfortunate, and all the more so because they are very well written, and in some respects quite true.

The Lowell Observatory, he says, is to be devoted to "an investigation into the condition of life in other worlds, including their habitability by beings like or unlike man." On this sentence I remark that any serious study of any planet by any means is, in its degree, a study of the conditions of life on that planet. A measurement of the angles of a crystal of fluorspar in a laboratory is part of a study of the conditions on earth. An accurate drawing of the planet Mars is, in its way, no doubt, a study of conditions of life on that planet. But I submit that the phrase, "the conditions of life," is very misleading. It holds out hopes that are very unlikely to be realized in the year of grace 1894, or during this century. What these hopes are is roughly indicated by the next phrase, "their habitability, by beings like or unlike man. This is not the chimerical search some may suppose." The foregoing words seem to me to be especially misleading. Does the writer intend to say that there is any probability whatever that either of the two following questions can be settled within the next decade.

First—Are Mars, Venus, etc., inhabited?

Second—Are their inhabitants like (or unlike) human beings?

The words I have quoted seem to me to imply that there is a probability that these questions will soon be settled. But I think that nearly every living astronomer will agree with me in saying, as I do, that there is no reasonable probability whatever of any such settlement at the present time. The problem is one for the considerably distant future.

The Canals of Mars.

It may be that "the most self evident explanation of the markings on Mars is probably the true one; namely, that in them we are looking upon the result of the work of some sort of intelligent beings." It just may possibly be true, though by no means "self-evident;" but I, for one, declare that I cannot find a scintilla of evidence in favor of that view. The writer is speaking of the so-called canals of Mars. These are long, dark, narrow markings on a reddish background, and they are sometimes many hundreds, even thousands of miles long, and seldom less than 50 miles wide. Sometimes they are visible, and sometimes they are not; they appear and disappear; sometimes they are double and sometimes they are single. Does the foregoing sound like a description of canals. If it were, should we think these waterways were built by intelligent beings like ourselves or by madmen? Will not a canal 50 miles wide accommodate the shipping on Mars? And if more water surface is required, why not widen the canal? And, in the name of sane engineering, why fill it up every now and then?

Again, how does the writer know that the dark markings on Mars are water, and the red markings land? It may be so, but has it been proved? For my part I only know a couple of arguments in favor of this hypothesis and they are not conclusive. Finally, is it true that the large objectives of modern telescopes are especially well fitted to deal with faint contrasts like those on the planet Venus so as to hold out a reasonable hode of new discoveries "of the most important character" regarding this planet? I doubt it, speaking for myself; and I can give at least one good reason for my conclusion.

With these few remarks, which could be carried much further, I leave the paragraphs in question. They seem to me to hold out hopes that are not likely to be quickly realized, and therefore to be suited to mislead rather than to lead the reader. They are all the more persuasive for being well written. But they tell only half truths; and the particular half truths that the whole human race would be delighted to have verified.

Mars as Seen From South America.

The very essence of the scientific habit of mind is conscientious caution; and this is especially necessary in referring to matters in which the whole intelligent world is interested—as the condition of the planet Mars, for example. I may take as an example the telegrams regarding Mars sent by cable from South Americ in 1892 by Prof. William Pickering who is to be the chief observer at the Lowell Observatory in Arizona. I quote two out of many such telegrams:

New York, Oct. 6, 1892.—The Herald correspondent at Valparaiso cables as follow: Prof. Pickering of the Harvard branch Observatory at Arequipa says that he has discovered 40 small lakes in "Mars."

How does he know the dark markings are lakes. And is he sure there are 40.

New York, Sept. 2, 1893.—Prof. Pickering of Harvard College sends the following to the Herald from Arequipa, Peru: Mars has two mountain ranges near the south pole. Melted snow has collected between them flowing northward. In the equatorial mountain range, to the north of the gray regions, snow fell on the two summits on August 5th and melted on August 7th. I have seen 11 lakes near Solis Lacus, varying in area from 80 by 100 miles to 40 by 40 miles. Branching dark lines connect them with two large dark areas like seas, but not blue. There has been much trouble since snow melted in the Arean clouds. These clouds are not white, but yellowish and partly transparent. They now seem to be breaking up, but they hang densely on the south side of the mountain range. The northern green spot has been photographed. Many of Schiaparelli's canals have been seen single.

These and similar telegrams from South America regarding the happenings on Mars in the year 1892 were received by the astronomers at the Lick Observatory with a kind of amazement. We were observing Mars at that time (and continuously during the whole of each night) with a 36-inch telescope under good conditions. We have considerably more than 100 drawings of the planet. Very many of Prof. Pickering's conclusions could not be derived from our Lick Observatory drawings which contained far more detail than his. Could they be justified by those he was making in Peru with a 12-inch telescope? This latter question could not possibly be settled in North America till we, also, saw the drawings on which Prof. Pickering's conclusions were founded, and accordingly we waited. When the Peruvian drawings were finally published it was at once obvious to all experts that they were not a sufficient proof of the reported discoveries. * * * They are still (June 1894) the only published evidence available regarding the observations made two years ago, in July, 1892. They do not agree with the conclusions so far reached at Mount Hamilton. For that reason we are justified in doubting them until convincing evidence is at hand, as it certainly is not now.

Regarding Jupiter's Satellites.

I may quote another telegram from Peru:

New York, Oct. 14.—The Herald received the following cable from Arequipa, Peru, to-day: Jupiter's fourth satellite is very dark now. The third satellite is girdled by a very dark belt in the northern hemisphere, inclined 20 degrees to the orbit. It can be best seen during the transit. The second satellite is probably not spherical. The first satellite is egg-shaped and revolves end over end, and nearly in the orbital plane. Its period is 12 hours and 55 minutes. Pickering.

In other places Prof. Pickering has given details regarding his observations of the behavior of the satellites of Jupiter. Many of the phenomena he has observed might be explained if it is true that the object glass of his 12-inch equatorial rolls in its cells as the telescope moves in hour angle.—Prof. Ed. S. Holden.

Mysteries of the HUMAN BRAIN!

The latest discovery in the scientific world is that nerve centres located in or near the base of the brain control all the organs of the body, and when these nerve centres are deranged the organs which they supply with nerve fluid, or nerve force, are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body below the injured point, because the nerve force is prevented by the injury from reaching the paralyzed portion, it will be understood how the derangement of the nerve centres will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force; that is, when a nerve centre is deranged or in any way diseased it is impossible for it to supply the same quantity of nerve force as when in a healthful condition; hence the organs which depend upon it for nerve force suffer, and are unable to properly perform their work, and as a result disease makes its appearance.

At least two-thirds of our chronic diseases and ailments are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centres at the base of the brain, and not from a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organs and not the nerve centres, which are the cause of the trouble.

The wonderful cures wrought by the Great South American Nervine Tonic are due alone to the fact that this remedy is based upon the foregoing principle. It cures by rebuilding and strengthening the nerve centres, and thereby increasing the supply of nerve force or nervous energy.

This remedy has been found of infinite value for the cure of Nervousness, Nervous Prostration, Nervous Paroxysms, Sleeplessness, Forgetfulness, Mental Despondency, Nervousness of Females, Hot Flashes, Sick Headache, Heart Disease. The first bottle will convince anyone that a cure is certain.

South American Nervine is without doubt the greatest remedy ever discovered for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and all Chronic Stomach Troubles, because it acts through the nerves. It gives relief in one day, and absolutely effects a permanent cure in every instance. Do not allow your prejudices, or the prejudices of others, to keep you from using this health-giving remedy. It is based on the result of years of scientific research and study. A single bottle will convince the most incredulous.

MARY HARTWELL CATHERWOOD.

How She Came to Write a Romance of French Canadian Life.

The home of Mrs. Mary Hartwell Catherwood, whose romances of early French Canadian life and French exploration have won an international reputation, is at Hoopeston, Ill., about ninety miles from Chicago—near enough to admit of frequent tastes of city life. But Mrs. Catherwood is too busy a woman to spend much time away from home, unless in quest of "local color" for a new story. Besides furnishing short stories and sketches to various periodicals, she personally supervises the affairs of her household, being an essentially domestic woman. She also finds time to instruct her little daughter Hazel. Hazel, who is the only child, is her mother's devoted companion, and usually accompanies her on her journeys from home. Last year their summer was passed in Europe, where Mrs. Catherwood was able to gratify her acknowledged weakness for two varieties of curios—old silver and fine, old prints. Her husband shares these enthusiasms with her, and they have some excellent examples of each in their Hoopeston home, although Mrs. Catherwood demurely insists that her particular fad is her typewriter.

Mrs. Catherwood believes that the artist who paints word-pictures is as often at a loss to clearly express his ideal as is the sculptor or painter. He must often try again and again, and, so far as circumstances permit, he must refuse to be content with anything short of perfect expression of his inspiration.

The finish of her own work attests how faithfully she lives up to her creed.

"The Romance of Dollard" is a case in point. In 1883 Mrs. Catherwood was passing the summer in Canada, and chanced to witness the midsummer fete of "Sain' John de Ba'ti"—as the village patois has it. Among the floats was one representing Adam Daulace (or "Dollard" as his countrymen have affectionately corrupted it) and his men in the stockade.

Mrs. Catherwood's imagination was fired at once, and she set about securing access to the old "Relations" and Canadian records, with the result that when she returned to Illinois she carried with her the nucleus of that dramatic story and a mass of information bearing on the early colonial history which enabled her, two or three years later, to bring vividly before the readers the stirring history of "Dollard."

As an after-dinner pill, to strengthen the stomach, assist digestion, and correct bilious tendencies, Ayer's Pills are considered the best. Being sugar-coated, they are as agreeable as any confection, and may be taken by the most delicate.

Skin Diseases are more or less occasioned by bad blood. B.B.B. cures the following skin diseases: Shingles, Erysipelas, Itching Rashes, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Eruptions, Pimples and Blotches, by removing all impurities from the blood from a common Pimple to the worst Scrofulous Sore.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, July 31, 1894.

The amount of wheat afloat to Europe is 32,944,000 bushels, an increase of 88,000 for the week. A year ago the amount afloat was 36,660,000 bushels.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Only one load of grain offered and that was oats, which sold at 39c. Wheat is quoted at 62c for white, at 61c for red, and at 58c for goose. Peas nominal at 66c and barley at 42 to 44c.

In spite of lower cables and other bearish news wheat advanced in Chicago in sympathy with corn, the net gain over Saturday's closing prices being ¼c. The strength of corn was the feature of the day, closing prices being 2¾ to 3¼c higher than Saturday. Oats shared the general advance, showing a gain for the day of 1¼c.

The Mark Lane Express in its weekly review of the British grain trade says: English wheats have fallen 6d, influenced by the prospect of large supplies of foreign wheats. Russian and Indian wheats are 6d lower and American red winter has declined 1s. California wheats have been steady. Barley dull and corn and oats steady.

Buffalo.—Cattle—260 cars; dull and lower; market overstocked; best heavy and export stock sold at $4.65 to $4.75 and light fair fat from $2.90 to $3.50, with good mediums $3.60 to $3.75. Sheep and lambs—30 cars; dull, lower; good to extra wethers, $3.50 to $4; good to extra lambs $3.40 to $4; choice generally $3.75 to $3.90 and not many wanted.

YOUNG LAMONT'S CASE.

Neighbors Much Interested in the Story Everyone Thought the Youngster Would Die but he's Very Much Alive Now.

DUNDALK, July 30.—Hugh Lamont, of McIntyre, has a young son who is an object of interest throughout this whole section of country. From infancy the boy had dropsy, and was bloated and swollen all over. It seemed to the parents that death could be the only release to one attacked so young by this disease. They heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and began giving them to the child. With the first box, the bloating and swelling began to disappear. Six boxes effected a perfect cure and the boy is now just as healthy a youngster as stirs up the dust on the high roads of Western Ontario.

REFUSE TO PAY THE TAX.

Inhabitants of the Island of Orleans Cause the Government Trouble.

QUEBEC, July 31.—There is a small revolt going on at St. Jean, or the Island of Orleans. Some time ago the Dominion Government bought a wharf from a private company, intending to charge the usual wharfage fees on the freight landed at the place from the line steamers and schooners.

The lighthouse keeper was instructed to collect the tax, but could not succeed, people refusing to pay. He made his report accordingly, and on Thursday last two of the Dominion police force arrived at St. Jean from Ottawa and took up their quarters in a boarding house at the wharf, and at once went on duty, levying the wharfage fees and seizing goods whenever payment was refused. Their action greatly incensed the populace, so much so that at the arrival of the Friday night boat a gang stood on the wharf waiting the opportunity of going for the police.

Several barrels of flour were seized by the officers, when a man named Dufour captured one of the barrels and nearly crushed one of the policemen with it whilst the crowd shouted "Let us throw them overboard." The crowd advanced on the Federal policeman, and were only kept back at the point of their revolvers. Meanwhile much of the goods were carried away.

On Saturday night a gang of about fifty men assembled at the door of the boarding-house where the policemen lodge, and summoned the landlord to put them out. Upon the man's refusal the crowd fired through the window. More trouble is feared when the boats arrive at St. Jean.

St. Jean is situated on the beautiful Island of Orleans. The population are enemies of taxation in any form, and are credited with having a large interest in the whiskey smuggling business, so large indeed that preventive officers have found it impossible to search for or seize contraband goods in that locality.

ARMS FOR CHINA.

A Large Consignment Leaves Montreal on the C. P. R. for Vancouver.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 31.—Information is obtained from a railroad official here that a large consignment of rifles ordered by the Chinese Government left Montreal on Sunday night via the Canadian Pacific and Soo roads for Vancouver. The consignments consist of four car loads, and the Chinese agents who placed this order have gone to Connecticut to order more. The number of rifles ordered for the Chinese army so far in this country is 25,000.

Britannia Beats the Satanita.

FALMOUTH, July 31.—The course was that of the Royal Cornwall Yacht Club, in the form of an equilateral triangle, and was sailed over three times, a distance of forty nautical miles. It was the Britannia's breeze, and she led from start to finish, beating the Satinita by sixteen minutes and two minutes actual time, and somewhat more by corrected time, as the Satanita gives the Prince of Wales' cutter an allowance. The Britannia captured the prize of $300. The Vigilant left for Cowes at noon under her own sail, and not in tow, as was expected. Her tender accompanies her, and, if she gets becalmed, will give her a line. Interest in the coming contests in the Solent is greater than ever manifested in any other yachting event in England.

Mr. Fitzgerald's Opinion of Canada.

LONDON, July 31.—Hon. Nicholas Fitzgerald, delegate from Victoria to the Ottawa conference, has arrived here on his way home. In an interview Mr. Fitzgerald expressed the opinion that the intercolonial conference had accomplished a great work. Even if its recommendations are not immediately carried out, they will bear fruit in the future. Canada's rapid development, her strong national sentiment and the benefit of federation under the Dominion, he thinks, have done much to engender in Canadians a feeling of pride in their country and faith in its future as a nation.

Forest Fires in Wisconsin Subside.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 31.—Advices received at the main offices of the Wisconsin Central railroad say the high winds have subsided in the northern part of the state, and the forest fires have gone down. Train service has been resumed, and all trains are running on time. Near Medford the enraged farmers surrounded the house of a man who had started a forest fire for the purpose of lynching him, but he had fled. Phillips will be rebuilt at once, and more brick and stone will be used than formerly in construction.

Smuggled Opium Seized.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—Custom-house inspectors have seized seventy-five cans of opium on the coasting steamer City of Puebla. No arrests were made. The smugglers are known to the authorities, however, and it is expected the band of whom they are part will be arrested. The City of Puebla runs between San Francisco and Puget Sound ports. The opium was found behind an iron plate supposed to support a heater in the boiler room.

Fatal Railway Collision.

CINCINNATI, July 31.—The New York limited over the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern from St. Louis went into an open switch at Cochran, Ind., 26 miles west of here. Engineer Little, of Washington, Ind., and Dudley E. Bell, a tramp, were, were killed, and M. Cadden, the fireman, of Washington, was injured. The train ploughed through five freight cars, but not a passenger was injured.

Fatally Shot His Employer.

BUFFALO, July 31.—Barney Murray, an employe of the Genesee Oil Works for several years, quarrelled yesterday with William H. Bright, proprietor of the works, over a matter of wages, and in a fit of anger shot Mr. Bright three times. Mr. Bright was taken to the emergency hospital and is pronounced to be fatally hurt.

Violated the Contract Labor Law.

BUFFALO, July 31.—W. B. Newsome, of Toronto, was arrested on Saturday on a warrant charging him with a violation of the Alien Contract Labor Law. It is claimed that Newsome engaged Miss Lily M. Flagan, of Quebec, to work in his Buffalo agency as a typewriter contrary to the labor law. Newsome was held in $1,000 bail to appear on Tuesday.

Pawnee Bill Stranded in Holland.

ANTWERP, July 31.—Pawnee Bill's wild west show, which has been here since the exhibition opened, was seized yesterday for debt. The cowboys were watching for the bailiffs and fled when the first officer appeared. Most of them took the first train that would carry them over the frontier.

CHINA'S BLOOD IS UP

Her Conciliatory Attitude Changed by the Loss of the Kow Shing.

ANOTHER BIG NAVAL FIGHT

The Largest Battleship But One in the Chinese Navy Sunk and Two Cruisers Destroyed—London Papers Strong in Denouncing Japan's Attitude.

SHANGHAI, August 1.—News has been received here of a desperate battle of the fleets of China and Japan, in which the Chinese were defeated and the Chen Yuen, the largest battleship but one in the Chinese service, was sunk and two other large Chinese vessels, said to be first-class cruisers, were captured or destroyed.

The battle was hotly contested, but the Japanese appear to have handled their guns, ships and torpedoes with more skill than the Chinese. The Chinese fleet engaged carried nearly a thousand men, and a large number of them are reported to have been killed or drowned.

Later despatches say that few, if any, of the Chinese engaged in the battle escaped. The German officers in command of the Chen Yuen are reported to have met death with the crew of that vessel.

London Papers Denounce Japan.

LONDON, August 1.—The Standard denounces the Japanese for sinking the Kow Shing. It says: "The pretexts for the war are flimsy as any ever advanced. If a further and more disastrous conflict cannot be prevented it will unquestionably be because the Japanese have resolved upon war, and that nothing shall divert them from that policy."

The Standard warns the Japanese that if in the earlier stages of the fighting they carry off the honors there is a patient and resourceful endurance about the Chinese that is likely to embarrass and tire even a more powerful foe than Japan. It advises the Japanese to awake to the probability that Europeans will interfere, ending that if the report about the Kow Shing be true Japan will also have to reckon with Great Britain, which has every reason to assert its position in the most uncompromising manner.

The Times says: Such an explanation as Japan has put forth are certainly not the sort that will diminish the indignation of China or gain the sympathies of other powers. The Japanese may have real excuses for the action of their sailors; if so, it is high time they produced them, as the world is getting anxious to know it.

China is Aroused.

A despatch to the Times from Pekin dated July 29 says: China's attitude, hitherto conciliatory, was completely changed after the sinking of the Kow Shing. The viceroy in an interview in Tien-Tsin declared that if war was once provoked China would fight to the bitter end.

The Kow Shing Was a British Vessel.

The managers of the Indo-Chinese Steam Navigation Company, which owned the steamer Kow Shing, stated to-day that there is no room for doubt that the vessel was in every respect a British steamer, though she was in the Chinese Government service. She was manned by British officers and carried the British flag. Besides the English captain the Kow Shing had four British officers, three of them engineers. The managers of the company say the action of the Japanese in attacking the vessel was most extraordinary, seeing that their own government was at that time negotiating for the charter of steamers.

On the other hand, the Japanese authorities claim the flying of the British flag by the Kow Shing was regarded by the Japanese authorities as a ruse. They maintain that the fullest and most impartial details of the affair ought to be known in advance of any condemnation for the act.

Lord Kimberly, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, has telegraphed to the British consul at Tien-Tsin for a detailed report of the sinking of the Kow Shing. The British government will probably ask the French government to get the commander of the French gunboat Lion to report on the affair.

The officials of the Japanese embassy here have telegraphed to Tokio for an explanation of the Chinese charges that an unresisting transport was blown up. The Chinese embassy has received no confirmation of the report of a naval engagement on Monday. Some of the reports of the engagement are dated from Tien-Tsin via Shanghai. The Embassy officials say that telegraphic communication with Tien-Tsin is interrupted.

The Legations at Washington.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—The news of the second naval engagement between the Chinese and Japanese ironclads, with its disastrous results to the Chinese navy as conveyed by press despatches, was read with much interest at the state and navy departments and at the foreign legations, but not one line of additional news was received here by cable from any source. The seventeen illustrious mandarins comprising the Chinese legation are still officially ignorant that any difference of opinion has arisen between the Celestial kingdom and Japan, but the Japanese legation is kept better informed, or, perhaps, is more communicative as to the information it receives. The Japanese legation has just received from the Japanese government full telegraphic reports of the first great naval fight off the Corean coast between Japan and Chinese men of war.

Japs Disbelieve the Shanghai Despatch.

It is positively stated that the Chinese gave first provocation, and that the Chinese ironclad, Sei Yen, which was one of the convoy and is the most powerful vessel in the northern squadron, fled after exchanging a few shots. One Chinese man-of-war was captured and one transport sunk, as has already been stated, but none of the Japanese vessels were injured, as reported in telegrams from Pekin and Shanghai. The Japanese minister expresses his emphatic disbelief in the statement contained in a Shanghai despatch of inhuman conduct on the part of the crews of the Japanese vessels. Such action is entirely foreign to Japanese methods, and the minister regards the report as another of the grossly distorted rumors which have come so frequently from Chinese sources at Shanghai and other places since the present trouble began.

Missionaries in Great Danger.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., August 1.—Advices from Hong Kong say it appears that the recent murderous attack upon two female missionaries at Honan was but the prelude of far more serious disturbances throughout South China. Ill-feeling engendered over the treatment of plague patients in Hong Kong has been taken advantage of by anti-foreign agitators to incite the ignorant and illiterate classes of Chinese against all Europeans. Unless strong measures are adopted by foreign ministers at Pekin it is not unlikely many lives will be lost and the progress of foreign trade with China seriously interfered with.

A correspondent of the Chinese Mail writes from Tung Kun that on June 20 the American Presbyterian Church at Shekiang was demolished by a mob, and a person, whether a foreigner or a native is not ascertained, was killed. The Roman Catholic Church there was well guarded by Chinese authorities, who had two disturbers arrested and sent to the magistrate for trial. The church at Tung Kun is now also in danger.

From Macao come reports of dangerous anti-foreign agitations.

CALLING IN THE MILITIA.

Pullman Still Garrisoned by Three Companies—Contempt Cases Adjourned.

CHICAGO, August 1.—As a result of the conference between Mayor Hopkins, Vice-President Wickes, of the Pullman Co., and the officers of the militia it was decided to call in eight of the twelve companies now doing duty between Fordham and Riverdale. This district includes the town of Pullman. Three of the four companies which remain will be stationed at Pullman. This will leave about 100 soldiers in charge of the town. Mr. Wickes does not expect any trouble.

The contempt cases against President Overton and the other officials of the stock yard branch of the American Railway Union came up yesterday before Judge Grosscup, but was continued to Friday morning. The information charges the officers of the union with issuing a strike circular in violation of the injunction, and the answer denies that the union had anything to do with the circular.

An American Lawyer's Crime.

LONDON, August 1.—A man who is described as Sidney Bennett, an American lawyer, yesterday attempted to murder Edith Andrews, a young lady of whom he be was deeply enamored, by shooting her with a revolver. The assassin's aim, however, was faulty, and his bullet failed to injure Miss Andrews, who fled from him. Bennett then turned his weapon upon himself, and though he did not succeed in killing himself outright, inflicted wounds of a dangerous character. The shooting occurred in a house in Kensington, a suburb of this city.

Strikers Sentenced to Jail.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., August 1.—John Murphy, an Atlantic and Pacific Railroad striker, has been sentenced to 60 days in jail for contempt of court for attempting to prevent men from working in the company's shops at Winslow. T. A. Brophy, an ex-conductor, and John L. Hones, a former engineer of the road, were given the alternative of 60 days in jail or giving a $500 bond to keep the peace and refrain from interfering with the company's employes.

Fatal Quarrel Between Society Men.

NEW ORLEANS, August 1.—W. G. Randolph, parish treasurer of East Baton Rouge, and one of the most prominent men in politics and society in that parish, was shot and mortally wounded by Dr. King Holt, city physician, who stands equally high in the business, political and social circles of the capital. Holt received a bullet through the leg. Randolph died in the morning. Bad blood had existed between the men for some time.

Strikers Become Bandits.

DENVER, August 1.—One result of the recent strike at Cripple Creek is the organization of a band of robbers who have terrorized the country in the immediate neighborhood of the mines. The members of the band were leaders in the strike, and committed various unlawful acts. Fearing punishment they determined to become full-fledged outlaws. A vigilance committee is being formed to operate against the band.

TALK AT THE CAPITAL

Professor Saunders' Report of Crops in the Northwest.

TAX TROUBLES AT ST. JEAN

Departmental Officials Reticent With Regard to the Revolt of the Inhabitants—Freight Rates of the C. P. R. Discussed by the Railway Committee.

OTTAWA, August 1.—Prof. Saunders, director of the government experimental farms has returned from the Northwest, where he has been inspecting the work in progress at the experimental farms at Brandon and Indian Head.

At the Brandon farm the professor tested 26 head of cattle for tuberculosis and 21 were found to be affected. Of these 19 were thoroughbreds and two grades. Nine of them were bred in Ontario and 18 in Manitoba.

At Indian Head 13 animals out of 38 proved to be diseased. Four were bred at Indian Head and 9 obtained in Ontario.

The diseases in many of the animals at both farms was in its earliest stages and could not, in such cases, have been detected by any physical symptoms.

With regard to the condition of the crops, Prof. Saunders is of opinion that in Manitoba they will average a little more than last year; but on account of the dry weather the straw is everywhere short.

In the Territories the rain fall has been less than in Manitoba and has been very irregular, some sections of the same district receiving much more than others. Crops at the experimental farm at Brandon are good, but those on the Indian Head farm are lighter than usual. The wheat is expected to average there about 20 bushels per acre.

At Indian Head, south of the experimental farm, the crops are much lighter—some of them scarcely worth cutting, while in the districts north more rain has fallen, and the wheat is expected to average about 25 to 30 bushels. West of Indian Head the crops are said to be very light. From the districts of Prince Albert and Edmonton the crops are reported to be very good.

The Trouble Over Wharfage Fees.

There is an evident reticence on the part of the heads of interested departments to impart any information concerning the collision between the Dominion police and the inhabitants of St. Jean, Isle of Orleans, over the exaction of wharfage fees. Chief Sherwood, of the Dominion police, admitted when seen that a large force of men had been sent to St. Jean, Que., last night, but further than that he declined to say.

C.P.R. Freight Rates.

The Railway Committee of the Privy Council yesterday was addressed by N. F. Davis, M.P., and Senator Boulton on behalf of the petition of the Northwest Patrons of Industry asking for Government interference to procure a reduction of the alleged excessive freight rates charged by the C.P.R. As no specific charges were made no action was taken.

Celestials Going Home.

Two carloads of Chinamen from New York passed through Ottawa via C.P.R. en route to China to fight for their native country against Japan. The party numbered over a hundred. They arrived by the Prescott train, having crossed the St. Lawrence at Ogdensburg.

Dominion Rifle Association.

The programme for the twenty-seventh annual prize meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association has been issued. In case the prizes aggregate $7,000 exclusive of prizes in kind, cups, medals, badges and other trophies. Among the more important changes adopted this year is the size of the rings on this 200-yard target; these will be bull's-eye 8 inches, inner 20 and magpie 32. The skirmishing target has also undergone a marked change, which, it is hoped, will remove the dissatisfaction which existed last year. The target will be three feet six inches high and six feet wide, divided into three belts, the lower, eleven inches wide, scoring five points; the middle, twenty inches wide, three points, and the upper, eleven inches, two points. The matches begin on Monday, August 27, and are timed to conclude on Friday evening.

The Governor-General at Halifax.

HALIFAX, Aug. 1.—Lord Aberdeen, Governor-General of Canada, accompanied by Lady Aberdeen, the dowager Duchess of Tweedmouth, family and party, arrived here last night. His Excellency was met at the station by Gen. Montgomery-Moore, who introduced him to Lieutenant-Governor Daly, who in turn introduced Premier Fielding. Attorney-General Longley and Mayor Keefe. The mayor then introduced the civic committee to his Excellency. The King's Regiment formed the guard of honor at the station and the regiment's band performed. The cannons from the citadel roared out a salute, and amidst rousing cheers from the multitude assembled all around the depot and into the adjoining blocks the vice-regal party drove off for Maplewood. The whole route from the railway through the city was crowded with people, who repeatedly cheered his Excellency, who continually acknowledged the enthusiasm.

Double Drowning at Sturgeon Point.

STURGEON POINT, Ont., August 1.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Carling, of the Steel Bros. Seed Company, were drowned here last evening, while returning from a fishing excursion. They were out in a canoe with which Mr. Carling was not accustomed. When found Mr. Carling had his coat half off and his legs were slightly entangled with a trolling line. The usual means of resuscitation were applied, although the bodies had been in the water upwards of two hours.

Two More Protests Filed.

TORONTO, August 1.—Two more protests were filed at Osgoode Hall yesterday. The elections protested are those of Mr. Senn, the Patron elected for Haldimand, and Mr. Field, the Reformer elected for West Northumberland. Mr. Senn's majority was 11 and Mr. Field's majority about 150.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1894.

THE Mail says: Along the proposed route of the Trent Valley Canal great things are expected from the undertaking. One of these is the employment it will afford to the men of the locality through which it passes. At Peterborough already it is declared that should any foreigners be employed there will be a strike at the ballot against Conservative candidates on the next occasion. This revival of interest in the canal is a sure indication that the politicians are preparing for a general election. It seems to be assumed that the Government has determined to push the work to a completion, but the commencement made during last session hardly will bear that construction. What Mr. Haggart said was that some further work is necessary to make what has already been done of local service. This is evidently what the Government has at present in view; not the larger scheme of a highway between the Upper Lakes and Lake Ontario.

LAST Saturday, a Toronto business man, who has an agency in Buffalo, was arrested in that city, charged with the heinous offence of employing a young lady of Quebec, as a typewriter. It is not stated that the young lady was so handsome that her associations with her employer would produce marital complications. Her only crime was that of being born in Quebec and her presence was a contravention of that barborous type of Mongolian exclusiveness, the Alien Labour law. Yet our paternal Dominion Government sits calmly by and sees a score or two of American-born workmen invade the Canadian labour market and go to work at Fenelon Falls and deprive as many Canadians of profitable employment. And the Dominion Government, not only is quiescent in the matter, but actually, in the person of the chief Toronto and chief local organs, justifies and glorifies in this phase of protection, which benefits the monopolist but ignores the claims of labour.

PROF. MACOUN, of the Geological Survey, who returned to Ottawa a few days ago from field explorations in the vicinity of Alberta, has had a brief but unusually successful season of explorations. He was absent scarcely seven weeks and during that time collected over one thousand eggs of more than fifty varieties; about three hundred bird skins, a varied selection of reptiles, and a great number of small mammals, the latter from the vicinity of the Cypress hills and Medicine Hat. He states that vegetation in the Alberta and Assiniboia districts was in a good condition when he left for home.

THE Empire on Saturday said: "Although supporters of the Mowat Government affect to make light of it, the political situation in this province is really unsatisfactory and unprecedented." Naturally "unsatisfactory" from an Empire view point, but not "unprecedented." Its a long time since the Contervatives have been in power in Ontario.

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The Council will hold a meeting next Monday evening.

The band gave an open air concert, last Friday evening.

Misses Alma and Maud Hammond, Orillia, are visiting their sister, Mrs. F. Fry.

Mrs. (Rev.) Wm. Peer, of Freelton, Ont., is renewing old acquaintances here.

Mrs. Geo. Young, and Master Arthur, are the guests of Mrs. D. Mahoney.

Mr. F. Perchard, of Hastings, is spending a few days in Norwood.

Mr. Weese's house, on Belmont street, is approaching completion.

J. Finlay's factory was shut down for repairs, on Monday. A number of the men spent the day fishing at the Narrows.

Mr. J. M. Honey, photographer, of Morristown, Tenn., passed through Norwood, on Tuesday. Some may remember Mr. Honey, who was a clerk in Mr. Foley's store a number of years ago. He left Norwood in 1864.

The Epworth League, of this district, will run an excursion to Trent Bridge, on 17th inst.

Tuesday, 14th inst., has been proclaimed a civic holiday. This will enable all the citizens to take in the excursion to Bobcaygeon, to be run by the band and I. O. O. F. lodge. The fare will be $1.10; children, half price.

Josh Pace's shooting gallery, on Colborne street, is doing a rushing trade.

While shooting at a loon, in the mill pond, on Tuesday evening, three boys upset in a canoe and got a ducking. All managed to reach the shore in safety.

Let The Women Speak.

Mrs. A. Sampson, 208 Bennington St., East Boston, writes: "I had been afflicted with dyspepsia for the last four years, was so bad that I did not dare to eat as it caused me terrible pain. Hearing of K. D. C. I procured a package. It gave me almost immediate relief. One package cured me. I have not been so well for a number of years. I cheerfully recommend it, and feel justified in saying that dyspeptics who can get this medicine have no excuse for suffering."

To remove worms of all kinds from children or adults Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is a safe and sure remedy.

THE PORK PACKING INDUSTRY.

Toronto World.

An industry that is developing rapidly in the province is that of pork packing. Farmers and packers are both satisfied with results so far and the industry promises well for the future. Some details in reference to the packing establishment at Peterborough will give an idea of the extent and probable growth of the industry. This concern killed thirty-two thousand hogs last year and will kill twice that number during the current year. The proprietors are also starting a factory at Hull, so satisfactory has been the business at Peterborough. The most of the output of the concern is shipped to London, where there is said to be an almost unlimited market for the Canadian product. The article produced at Peterborough and elsewhere in Canada is exactly suited to the wants of the British consumer, and there would be apparently no difficulty in disposing of all the pork that Ontario could produce. The farmers also find the industry profitable. They sell the pigs at from $4.00 to $4.75 live weight. Instead of disposing of their wheat and barley at present low prices, they are feeding the grain to their pigs and converting it into pork. The farmers claim they get one dollar a bushel for all the wheat they feed to their hogs. No wonder then that the industry is on the boom in whatever district a packing house is in operation. The raising of hogs is specially well suited for districts where they have cheese factories. The animals flourish admirably on the by products of the cheese factory, mixed with ground wheat and barley. A superior grade of pork is the result of this diet. There is, in fact, no finer article placed on the London market than is being produced in Ontario to-day. Neither in the cheese factory nor in the pork packing house is anything allowed to go to waste. The whey is all utilized and every part of the pig is turned into a merchantable commodity; just as is the case at the large packing houses of Chicago. The Peterborough concern gets its hogs principally from the Midland district. Every two weeks there is a cheese sale at Peterborough and on an average $40,000 is realized at each sale and distributed among the farmers. Between cheese and hogs the farmers of this district are pretty well satisfied, notwithstanding the low price of wheat. While wheat is away down in price, with no prospect of a return to old-time prices, it is satisfactory to note that cheese and pork bring as high prices as ever. The farmers have realized more for cheese so far this year than during the corresponding period of any preceding year. The tendency of the price of pork in England is not downward like that of wheat. It is pretty much stationary or if there is any change at all it is rather up than down.

Canada is getting in closer touch with England every day. It not frequently happens that the returns for a shipment of cheese are made known in Peterborough within fifteen days after the cheese has been shipped from that city. The inauguration of the propcsed fast ocean service would stimulate our cheese and butter industries, especially. With fast time and the coldstorage system Canada would be able to compete with Norway and Denmark in the supply of butter for the English market. Our farmers cannot too soon become aware of the fact that there is no money in growing wheat to sell at 60 cents a bushel. Wheat-growing seems destined to fall into the hands of a class of semi-civilized people who can live and bring up families on 50 cents a day. Our farmers ought to accept the situation and bend their energies to the production of a finished product that will bring five cents instead of one cent per pound. Ontario farmers should make cheese, butter, pork and dressed beef. They ought to pursue these industries systematically with the intention of making Canada's products in these lines excelled by no other in the world. This can be accomplished by the exercise of the intelligence that distinguishes Canadians from Russian serfs and the Hindoos of India.

EVICTED TENANTS BILL

Unionist Members in the Commons Will Offer No Obstruction.

TIME LIMIT FOR DISCUSSION

Final Closure of the Committee Stage Will Be Reached by the End of the Week—A Majority of Forty-three Rejects Balfour's Amendment.

LONDON, August 1.—In the House of Commons yesterday Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, moved a time limit for the discussion of each clause of the evicted tenants bill with a final closure of the committee stage on August 7.

Mr. Balfour said that never in the history of parliament had there been a proposal like this. No government had ever ventured to suggest after only two days debate of a measure in committee that the House be gagged. Such procedure would inevitably end in the abasement of the House as a legislative body in the eyes of the country. He moved an amendment of regret that the government should deprive the minority of their just rights and thereby make a fair debate impossible and bring the whole proceedings into deserved contempt.

John Morley twitted Mr. Balfour with having moved closure on the bill constituting the Parnell commission.

Mr. Chamberlain said that the bill had been supported by both sides of the House, and had only been obstructed by a small knot of Irish members.

Mr. Labouchere asked what was the use of discussing the present bill week after week. It was certain to be rejected by the House of Lords. It would be better to have the soonest possible appeal to the country to settle the question whether the House of Commons was the master of the situation, or whether its members were the subservient and humble servants of the hereditary legislators.

Mr. Balfour's amendment was rejected, 317 to 174.

The Unionist members of the House have decided to abstain from further action on the evicted tenants bill, and to refrain from moving the amendments standing in their names.

Thus the bill is likely to be virtually disposed of at the end of the week.

FATAL DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Three Men Killed and One Injured so Severely That He Will Die.

CHICAGO, August 1.—Three men were instantly killed, one fatally and one slightly injured by an explosion of dynamite at the quarries of Dolez & Shepard in Cicero, just outside the city limits yesterday.

The killed are: F. H. Corbin, J. Scott, C. Scott, father and son. Injured—G. H. Rudd, torn and lacerated, will die; a workman, an employe of Dolez & Shepard, name unknown, slightly injured.

The men killed and fatally injured were employes of the American Electric Lighting Company and were at the quarry experimenting with a new invention for setting off dynamite powder and other explosives by electricity when a quantity of dynamite prematurely exploded.

Intense Excitement Among Miners.

PHILLIPSBURG, Pa., August 1.—James Myers, a miner who with a number of others had been commissioned and armed as a deputy, while on his way to the Pardee mine yesterday, was approached by Jennie Jones, wife of a striker. The woman attempted to take his dinner pail from him when he turned and fired a ball which lodged in her shoulder. The engineer of a Beech Creek locomotive was shot yesterday, the ball grazing his head. There is great excitement here and further trouble is expected.

Whiskey Causes a Boy's Death.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., August 1.—Two young sons of Edward Monaghan, residing near Girardville, obtained possession of a quart bottle of whiskey and drank its contents. The mother found the two boys lying on the floor unconscious. James, aged 7 years, died a few hours later. Eddie, aged 5, is in a critical condition.

Increased Mortality in New York.

NEW YORK, August 1.—There was a big increase in the mortality in this city during the 24 hours ending at noon on account of the intense heat. The number of deaths reported at the bureau of vital statistics was 211, as against 147 Monday and 137 on Sunday.

Destructive Hailstorm in Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Conn., August 1.—A destructive hail, wind and rainstorm passed over the towns of Wethers field and Glastonbury yesterday, doing immense damage to the tobacco and onion seed crops. The loss is estimated at between $50,000 and $100,000.

The Butcher's Strike in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., August 1.—The striking cattle butchers at South Omaha remained out yesterday and the hog butchers in one house struck and asked others to follow. In spite of this the houses are operating and the live stock is excellent.

The Jumbo of Pikes.

A pike of monstrous size has been taken in Coleraine. An inland revenue official has written to vouch for its weight of 61 pounds, the length being given as 76½ inches, and the girth as 31½ inches. This amazing beast seems to have been basking in the Ogilvy river, and was too proud to get out of the way of a boat. Being hit on the back with an oar was too much for its dignity, and it seized the offensive implement in its teeth with the idea, no doubt, of confiscation. But it did not know that a more lethal weapon lay concealed within the boat. A boat-hook, armed like a gaff, pierced its side, and so it perished miserably. The worst part of its ignominious fate was the fact that no steps were taken to preserve it.—London Black and White.

Oldest Tune in the World.

Which is the oldest tune in the world? Most people would guess the Delphic hymn to Apollo, which was dug up the other day. But they would be wrong. It is the tune which is now wedded to the words "We won't go home till morning." Napoleon's soldiers played it in the shadow of the Pyramids in 1799, and the Bedouins who heard it wept for joy. It was found among the children of the desert by the Crusaders. I have no doubt that it was howled by Chaldæan chappies when they were merry with wine. It is—according to experts—the elemental, protoplasmic tune.—Pall Mall Gazette.

A modern departure in the way of advertising is to send out sheets of blotting paper stamped with the name and address of a firm.—London Journalist.

Coffee as a Deodorizer.

One of the best of deodorizers is burning coffee. Throw a teaspoon of ground coffee upon the cookstove to do away with any disagreeable odor in the kitchen and put a small quantity on a few coals upon a fire shovel to carry to any distant part of the house. It will remove any musty odors from closets or closed rooms.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please," an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

—The Y.P.S.C.E. excursionists from Bowmanville, Oshawa, Port Hope, and other towns, arrived in town from the lakes last night about 6.30, and the visitors took in the sights until 9 o'clock. The excursion was a large one, and all speak highly of our town and back lakes.

—A dry goods clerk from town had an exciting experience with a baulky horse last evening while driving to Chemong. When at the swamp near the village the horse became unmanageable and bolted away. The young man jumped from the buggy and the horse ran as far as the village. The buggy was slightly damaged.

—An Ashburnham carter Robert Baker, while unloading sawdust into a car at the C.P.R. yesterday, had a narrow escape from receiving serious injuries. He had drawn his wagon between two stretches of track and unhitched the horse while he was unloading. A train came along and ran into the wagon completely demolishing it. Mr. Baker escaped unhurt by jumping into the car.

—Some person or persons is allowing his mania for mineral bric-a-brac to overcome his honesty. The beautiful cairn of mineral specimens erected in front of the court house by Mr. County Councillor Aunger is being spoiled by curiosity hunters stealing the specimens. These were placed where they are to indicate the mineral resources of the northern part of the county and for the benefit of the public; therefore, when the specimens are diverted to private use the act becomes public robbery.

Altogether the book, in contents and typographical style alike, is a credit to both author and publisher. Copies may be had of the local booksellers.

"A Night wi' Burns."

A fair sized audience assembled at the the opera house last night to listen to a lecture on the poet, Robert Burns, by Miss Jean Howison, of Perth, Scotland. The speaker began by quoting Col. Ingersoll's ode to Burns and continuing, gave an interesting sketch of his life, including reference to his genius, and a tribute to the pathos and depth of his poems. The lecture, which was remarkably interesting and greeted with frequent applause, was illustrated by well rendered recitations of the Scottish bard's poems. The evening with Burns and Miss Howison was highly enjoyed by the audience.

BASEBALL.

Oshawa and Peterborough played ball at the driving park yesterday before a fair gathering. The game was a rather ragged exhibition as the score will show. Campbell, the new man, did excellent work in the catcher's box, and the field work of the home team was very good. Dolan in the last innings caugh a dandy fly. The work in the pitcher's box was not what it should have been, and was partly responsible for the loss of the game. The Oshawas play very good ball, and some splendid work was done by several of the team during the game.

The wine clerks' nine of Peterborough play the brewery nine of Port Hope on the Athletic grounds in that town on Saturday next.

LACROSSE.

The Granite lacrosse club will not play the Mongolians of the south end for the championship of the town. They will play all clubs of the average age of fifteen years.

The directors of the Toronto lacrosse club have decided to drop the Tansey protest. All the evidence available indicates that it is a case of mistaken identity. Hugh McConaghy is satisfied that the Peterborough player really was Tansey, but according to the testimony of the Port Hope players, the man who was called Tansey did not play well enough to justify suspicion that he had ever a place on a first-class team. Moreover, the original list of players is lost, and under all the circumstances the directors deem it inadvisable to push the protest.

Every member of the Peterboroughs is requested to turn out to practice on the P. A. A. A. grounds, this evening.

CANOEING.

A number of Peterborough people witnessed an exciting canoe race Friday at Orillia. The distance was seven and three-quarter miles. The contestants were Mr. Thos. Goffatt, (postmaster) and "Masquid de Bong-Sing," an Oka Indian, on the one side, and Mr. Scott, manager of the Dominion Bank, and Mr. Graham on the other. "Jake" Gaudaur acted as referee. Messrs. Scott and Graham came in the winners by one minute and a few seconds. Time: Scott and Graham, 1 hr. and 23 min.; Goffatt and partner, 1 hr. 24 min., 18 sec.

CRICKET.

The cricket club will go to Millbrook Tuesday to play the team of that village. They will probably go to Toronto on the 23rd and 24th of this month to play East Toronto and Rosedale. The secretary has also written to Cobourg, Campbellford and Lindsay for matches. The latter team will likely play here Civic Holiday.

CYCLING.

One of the most remarkable cycling events ever witnessed in Canada took place on the Rosedale track, Toronto, Monday afternoon. Mr. W. M. Carman travelled an unpaced mile in 2.15, just three and two-fifth seconds less than Sanger's world record ride. This stamps Carman as one of the best wheelmen in this or any other country. Carman will be in Peterborough along with many other noted cyclists, on August 16th, the date of the great bicycle meet in town.

SWIMMING VS. DROWNING

Why all Should Learn to Swim—Necessity of a Bathing Place.

This summer appears to have been particulary fruitful in drowning accidents. Peterborough has had a large share and Hamilton and Toronto have had a very large number of cases. In the latter city there have been fourteen drowning accidents in eight weeks. It is asserted that the great majority of drowning accidents are due to the inability of the victims to swim. In nine cases out of ten a capable swimmer is safe from drowning. Some of the papers are suggesting that children should be taught swimming by the state as they are taught their A, B, C. This is perhaps going too far, but there is no doubt that it is the duty of parents, who have children accustomed or allowed to go on or near the water, to see that they can swim before being exposed to the danger of drowning. What would be thought of a parent that would allow a child that could not walk to be on a street car track, exposed to the dangers of such a position. Yet scores of persons allow their children who cannot swim to go on the water, exposed to almost certain death in case of accident. It is going rather far to say that it is the duty of the state to teach children swimming, but when the circumstances are favourable it seems to be the duty of the state to provide facilities for learning, or at the least, bathing facilities. With abundance of water in Peterborough, there are no opportunities for bathing or swimming. If a boy goes into the water in any place in town, in puris naturalibus, as to covering, he is pounced upon by the police as a criminal, and with an odor of Puritancy the local police force even refuse to allow lads wearing trunks to indulge in a swim or bath. This seems to be rather hard lines. In hot weather a bath is a necessity, not only for the comfort it gives, but for purposes of personal cleanliness and to deprive boys of this pleasure is positive cruelty to animals, besides preventing the acquirement of a knowledge of swimming which might save valuable lives and prevent many a home from becoming desolate. To be practical; it may be pointed out to the local authorities that a citizen asserts that there is an excellent bathing ground at the foot of King street of sufficient depth and with a sloping bottom which is sufficiently secluded to defer to the prudery, which is shocked at the sight of a child in trunks, and which could be fitted up at a trifling expense. The chief expense required is a quantity of gravel spread over the sawdust and drift on the shore to make clean footing. A car load of gravel delivered by the C.P.R., along whose spur line the bathing ground in question is situated, would answer the purpose, and the C.P.R. would, if asked, probably deliver such gravel in lieu of rental of the portion of the public street it enjoys the use of. It is hoped the authorities, or some public-spirited citizen, will move in the matter and give the boys a chance to be "in the swim."

ELECTION PROTESTS.

Petitions Against the Return of Messrs. Senn and Field, Patron and Reformer Respectively.

Yesterday the number of Provincial election petitions filed was increased to sixteen by the lodging of two new ones.

Mr. C. W. Colter, of Cayuga, by his Toronto agent, Mr. Aylesworth, filed the petition of George Lishman, farmer, of Cayuga, against the election and return of John Senn, as member for Haldimand, in the Provincial Legislature. The first matter alleged against Mr. Senn is that he is ineligible to sit by reason of his being the holder of an office under the Government of Ontario, namely, that of issuer of marriage licenses. The petition further charges that ballot papers found in the boxes, but not supplied by the Deputy Returning Officers and spoiled ballot papers were counted in favour of Mr. Senn by the Returning Officer and by the County Judge on the recount. There is also the further allegation that the voters' list used was not the last revised list and that many persons properly entitled to vote were deprived of their votes in consequence. The usual charges of bribery, treating and personation are also made. The prayer of the petition is that the election of Mr. Senn may be declared null and void, but the seat is not claimed for Dr. Jacob Baxter, his opponent.

The seat of Mr. Corelli C. Field for West Northumberland is attacked by a petition filed by Messrs. Howland, Arnoldi & Bristol, Toronto, agents for Mr. J. Y. Cruickshank, of Cobourg, on behalf of Alexander Barr, of Cobourg, stage-driver. In addition to the stereotyped charges, this petition alleges in general terms that Mr. Field was the holder of an office under the Government, or interested in a contract with the Government, and that he is, therefore, ineligible to sit.

The protests filed now stand: Eight against Liberals by Conservatives, five against Conservatives by Liberals, and one against a P.P.A. member-elect by Liberals.

The time limit for the filing of protests has elapsed in the case of the following constituencies;—Brant North, Brockville, Bruce South, Bruce Centre, Bruce North, Frontenac, Grey North, Grey South, Grey Centre, Kent East, Kent West, Middlesex West, Norfolk North, Ottawa, Peel, Peterborough West, Renfrew South, Simcoe West, Simcoe Centre, Victoria West, Wellington South, Wentworth South, Cardwell, Carleton, Dundas, Elgin East, Elgin West, Essex North, Glengarry, Grenville, Hastings East, Huron East, Lambton East, Leeds, Nipissing, Ontario South, Oxford North, Oxford South, Prince Edward, Russell, Stormont, Toronto South, Waterloo North and York East.—Globe.

ANCIENT ORDER OF FORESTERS EXCURSION.

A Gay and Festive Day on Water and Land—Sports, Games, Races—Music, Dancing, Boating, etc.

Court Stanley and Court Marmion (Juvenile), A. O. F., held their third annual summer outing on Tuesday at Jubilee Point. About 150 excursionists left town on the steamer City of Peterborough at 8 o'clock and after a delightful three hours' trip the party reached Jubilee at 11.30. So far as the weather was concerned, the Foresters were in luck—no better could have been desired, even if the Foresters had arranged the "probs" themselves. The palace scow was taken on at the locks and was occupied all the way down by lithe and lively dancers to the animating strains of Messrs. Sherwood and Reynolds' music. Amusement, diversion, singing and dancing was kept up with the greatest spirit. Excursionists vied with each other in making the day pass off pleasantly and the whole party formed one of the most social and respectable excursions that has been carried by the City of Peterborough this season—and Capt. Ada did'nt go behind their backs to tell them so.

At Jubilee dinner was the first order of business. Quite a number partook of meals at Hotel Jubilee, where the vigilant, prudent and solicitous Robert Jackson keeps the wicket. The majority of the party had brought their well filled baskets, etc., along and made tempting spreads on the tables all over the grounds, out in the pure air which floated up from Rice Lake—spreads that permeated the woods with such an appetizing flavour as to startle the chipmonks and squirrels from their holes, and made them romp and jump with glee almost into the very hands of the hungry picnickers.

After dinner, the energetic committee of management commenced preparations at once for running off the extensive programme of sports, got up for the occasion. Thirty events were down on the list, for which prizes valued at $75, were contested, as follows:—

PRIZE LIST.

Tug of war, juvenile—Teams manned by W. Knapp and F. Lush—Won by Knapp's team.

Race between old men of the Court, 35 years and over—1st, H. Newton; 2nd, Richard Ringer.

The keenest interest was taken in the sports and each event was hotly contested. Notwithstanding the difficult duties of the sport committee, they left no room for dissatisfaction, and all concerned were pleased with their decisions.

While the sports were being run off, dancing in the pavilion and the swings were kept going in a lively manner, and nothing transpired to mar the harmony and good feeling which prevailed during the day.

Jubilee has been doing quite a business this summer, as it deserves to do. The grounds are well kept and the conveniences for pleasure parties are numerous. Mr. Jackson, the boniface of the summer resort, is unremitting in his attention to his visitors, and makes every one welcome. The house is comfortably furnished for summer holiday guests, and the accommodation suited to the various requirements of the public.

At 5 o'clock the excursionists boarded the steamer again, and after a rapid trip home reached her wharf shortly after 8 o'clock.

The committee of management was a strong and active one, composed of the following:—Chairman, Mr. W. H. Webb; secretary, Mr. Geo. Becord; treasurer, Mr. C. Westlake, and Messrs. H. Newton, Robt. Clinkscale, W. J. Craig, W. Fisher, R. Ringer, Geo. Tremaine, and R. Burleigh.

Juvenile Committee—W. Knapp, T. Rome, F. Lush, F. Hamilton and —. Tremaine.

The boys worked well and are the right kind of material to make good Foresters and manly men.

Mr. W. J. Craig acted as master of ceremonies and R. Burleigh, floor manager, and discharged their duties with satisfaction to all.

Capt. Ada and the crew were complimented for their obliging manner and the cheerfulness with which they complied with the requests of the committee. As the steamer neared the wharf a resolution was passed on motion of Mr. H. Newton, seconded by Mr. Westlake, thanking them for their uniform kindness and courtesy during the trip.

THE OUTFALL SEWER.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—The Review of yesterday has a leading article on the Sewerage By-law to be voted on to-morrow. One of its arguments in favour of the by-law is:—"The brick sewer is the one recommended by Mr. Allan MacDougall, C. E., in his report and plan on a system for the town, and while a little more expensive than the 18 inch pipe outfall afterwards proposed, it will afford accommodation for the whole system when it is completed."

I do not, of course, say the above statement has been made with the view to delude or deceive the ratepayers as to how they should vote to-morrow, but it is, to say the least of it, a misleading statement.

On page 11 of Mr. MacDougall's report referred to, it will be seen that his estimate of the outfall brick sewer is $4.50 per lineal ft. and for the 18 inch pipe outfall $1.40 per lineal ft. Yet this wide difference of $3.10 per lineal ft., equal to 321 per cent. in what the Review describes as only "a little more expense."

Mr. MacDougall's brick outfall was 4,400 ft. at $4.50—$19,800; his 18 inch pipe outfall, 4,400 at $1.40—$6,160—a difference of $13,640. This difference of $13,640, which applies to only a fragment of the "system," is "the little more expensive," trifle we are placidly told about.

Let the ratepayers deduct $19,800—the cost of "the brick outfall recommended by Mr. Macdougall"—from the $21,000 now asked for, and where will they be? Why, on the verge of another bylaw and another demand for more money.

Clause 14 of the town agreement with the street railway company has been quoted. It makes no matter. I assert that in the present condition of the track-layed portion of the streets, that, besides very great inconvenience to the public traffic, there must necessarily and unavoidably be waste-work and waste expenditure, and that in the end, as is always the case, the taxpayers foot the bill.

In the main south, central, west and north, the ratepayers can profit nothing from the money they are asked to vote away for expenditure under Spaulding's bay and the bank of the Little Lake.

Deficits in town estimates and finances have been the rule. The rate for next year will, I believe, be the highest it has ever reached, 17 mills, as stated in the EXAMINER yesterday. It behooves the ratepayers to look ahead. It is therefore their manifest duy and interest to vote this by-law down, and by doing so keep their taxes down.

Yours thankfully,
J. W. FITZGERALD.

Aug. 1st, 1894.

Y. P. S. C. E. NOTES.

ST. PAUL'S SOCIETY.

This society held their monthly consecration meeting on Monday night the attendance was good and the meeting throughout was interesting. The Rev. Mr. Goldsmith being present gave an interesting address to the society. And the following paper read by one of the members brought out some excellent points bearing on the topic, "True growth what it is and how to gain it." The Christian's growth compared to the growth of a flower. Have you watched closely the growth of a flower? First the seed is planted which represents the first step the Christian takes in giving his heart to Christ, and as the seed is watered and the warmth of the sun causes it to sprout, so with the young convert after his decision is made he becomes stronger through love to Christ and feels His guidance and presence with him as he never did before. Then after the little flower seed sprouts how carefully it is tended and watered, till it begins to bud and bring forth the flower, so with the Christian's growth; as he becomes filled with love for the Master he becomes anxious to enter into service for Him and to bring forth much good fruit. Then again, how carefully the weaker flowers are tended they requiring more attention and support than the stronger ones. So with the Christian, God supplies grace and strength for the weaker ones, while He fits the stronger for greater work in helping in His service, where the weakling would fail and just as the water, light and the warmth produce the growth of the flower, so does the study of God's word with prayer and consecration, produce the growth in grace in the Christian. The flower, when it blossoms, has a fragrance which draws the attention of the lover of flowers. So with the Christian; as he advances in Christian grace, he becomes so filled with the Holy Spirit that his life reflects Christ, commanding the admiration of Christians, as well as those who have not yet tasted of this spiritual fragrance. What can be more beautiful than to see a Christian character, whose very presence causes our thoughts to fly Heavenward? The life and influence of such Christians show us what constitutes true growth, and just as God sends the flower with its beauty and sweet fragrance for some purpose, so He has a use for the Christian in letting his light shine with such steadiness as to make his influence felt in drawing others into the joy of service of Christ. Let it be the prayer of each of us to-night that we may be found growing daily in Christian grace, and that we may at all times be ready to do what the Master would like us to do.

On next Monday night Miss Quinn and Mr. Simpson will give a report of the Cleveland convention, which will be very interesting to those connected with C. E. work. It will be an open meeting for all who can possibly attend.

IT FASTENS ITS HOLD —upon you before you know it. It is sure to be in the air we breathe, the water we drink. The germ of Consumption is everywhere present. The germ begins to grow as soon as it reaches a weak spot in the body. Catarrh, Bronchitis, and a scrofulous condition, furnish these weak spots. The way to fight these germs—begin early—render the liver active and purify the blood with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Besides, it builds up healthy flesh.

It's guaranteed in all bronchial, throat and lung affections; every form of scrofula, even Consumption in its earlier stages. If the "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Fortify yourself against disease by making the body germ-proof, then you will save yourself from grip, malaria, and many of the passing diseases.

It cures Catarrh in the Head — perfectly and permanently — Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

THE ORIGIN OF NAMES.

Harper, Pipe, Piper, Dancer, Luter, Crouther, Baird, Singer are all professional names.

Thrower was once the winder of silk threads: hence the Throwers and Throwsters.

Golightly, Lightfoot, Harefoot and Roefoot were nicknames having allusions to speed.

Crook, Crump, Cramp and Crimp are but changes rung on an old nickname for a cripple.

Pelter, Pelliper and Furrier recall the fur trade of the English with Norway and Sweden.

Blond, a complexion adjective, was the progenitor of Blund, blunt, Blount and Blondell.

Sanders, Saunders, Sanderson, are variations of Alexander, a favorite name in Scotland.

Hacker, Hecker, Hackman and Hackery are derived from the name of a woodman who prepared timber for building.

Ralph's sons spell their names Ralf, Ralphson, Rawes, Rawson, Rawlings, Rollins, Rollinson, Rapkins and Rapson.

Brailer and Bracer had progenitors who lived by making the leather braces that held the old fashioned breeks in place.

White, Black, Brown, Gray, Green, Reed or Red, Rud lie and a few more originated in peculiarities of dress or complexion.

Savage, Sharp, Smart, formerly Smert, Witty, Cute and Quick were once complimentary titles added to the first names.

Wool, Wooler, Woolman, Tarrier, Sacker, Staples, Stapler, Carder, Comber, Pinner, Towzer and Tozer, Spindler, Weber Weaver, Webster, Listor, Taintor, Dyer, Wooder, Madderman, Tucker, Fuller, Walker, Beater, Bater and Bates, Sherman, Draper, Spinner, Whiter, Bleaker, Blaker and Blackster are all names derived from various operations connected with the manufacture of wool into cloth.

HYMNS AND HYMN WRITERS.

"Awake my soul to joyful lays" was written by Samuel Medley in 1787.

"Come, thou Almighty King," was written by Charles Wesley in imitation of "God Save the King."

"How pleasant, how Divinely fair," was originally entitled by Watts the "Pleasures of Public Worship."

"Come, Ye Disconsolate," was by the famous Irish Poet, Thomas Moore, and appeared in his sacred songs in 1816.

"The Lord my pasture shall prepare" was by Joseph Addison, and was first printed in the Spectator in 1712.

"Joy to the World" was by Isaac Watts. It has been popularized by being set to a fragment of melody from Handel's Messiah.

"There is a fountain filled with blood" is the most popular of Cowper's hymns. It is one of the classic lyrics of the English language.

"O worship the King" was the work of Robert Grant. It, with a large number of his other hymns, was found in his desk and printed after his death.

"Lead, kindly light," was written by Cardinal Newman on June 16, 1833, while in the Mediterranean sea, and was first published in the British Magazine in 1836.

"Jesus, I my cross have taken," was from a book of short poems by Henry Francis Lyte, printed in 1833. The melody to which it is sung is from one of Mozart's operas.

THE WEALTH OF NATIONS.

Great Britain with all her possessions lays claim to $43,600,000,000.

France comes second in point of wealth with something like $40,300,000,000.

Germany has a bank account, or more correctly speaking, assets, of $31,600,000,000.

Russia has a small matter, you know, of $9,885,000,000 less than its German cousin, being accredited with $21,715,000,000.

Austria and Italy bring up the rear of those nations which have over $10,000,000,000 of possessions, with $18,065,000,000 and $11,755,000,000 respectively.

If you are at all inquisitive and care to foot up these amounts you will find that the wealth of the six richest nations of the world aggregate $167,035,000,000. Quite a comfortable sum, don't you think?

What do you take medicine for? Because you are sick and want to get well, of course. Then remember, Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.

DEAR SIRS,—I was suffering very much from diarrhœa, and could get nothing to cure me. A friend told me of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and a few doses completely cured me.

Epigrams of History.

The Leisure Hour offered prizes for wise sayings connected with historical events. The editor awards the first and second prizes, both of which are won by women.

He says: "A careful analysis proves beyond all doubt that the most popular instances of wise sayings connected with history are the following:

"Oliver Cromwell's—'Put your trust in God, but keep your powder dry.'

"Cardinal Wolsey's dying words—'Had I but served my God as diligently as I have served my king, he would not have given me over in my gray hairs!'

"Latimer to Ridley at the stake—'We shall this day light such a candle, by God's grace, in England as, I trust, shall never be put ont.'

"Sir Robert Walpole in the declaration of the war with Spain—'They may ring their bells now, but they will soon be wringing their hands.'

"Nelson's—'England expects every man to do his duty.'

"Wolfe at the Heights of Abraham, repeating the stanzas of Gray's Elegy—'I had rather be the author of that poem than take Quebec.'

"Sir Walter Raleigh at his execution 'What matter how the dead lie, so that the heart be right?'"

A Lawyer's Will.

Sir James Fitzjames Stephen was a great lawyer, but he has left a very little will. The exact text of it is this: "This is my last will. I give all my property to my wife, whom I appoint my sole executrix." How the family solicitor would have embellished this simple statement of a simple testamentary intention most of us can easily conjecture. "Will" would have become "will and testament;" property would have become "real and personal estate" at least; and there would have been a long rigmarole about revoking "all previous wills and codicils." It is gratifying to have such conclusive evidence of the true value of the elaborate legal phraseology which is engrossed at a charge of so much a folio to the lawyer's client.—London Daily Graphic.

The Advantages of Church-Going.

"I have found during my stay here," said a sojourner in the city, "great enjoyment in my church-going. They are all new to me, and I go to a different one every Sunday, and sometimes to two a day. I see a great variety of churches, many of those more recently built novel in architecture and beautiful, too. I hear a wide variety of discourses from all sorts of men, old and young. I find the music and singing almost always good, and sometimes of a high degree of excellence. I have found no feature of the city's life more interesting than its churches."—New York Sun.

How to Strike a Fair Average.

Expect every man to do his duty and with all your expectations expect to be disappointed.—Galveston News.

Mark Twain's Flea.

"When you come to gage a thing's speed by its size, where's your bird, and your man, and your railroad, alongside of a flea? The fastest man can't run more than about ten miles in an hour—not much over 10,000 times his own length. But all the books say any common, ordinary third-class flea can jump 150 times his own length; yes, and he can make five jumps a second, too, 750 times his own length in one little second; for he don't fool away any time stopping and starting—he does them both at the same time; you'll see, if you try to put your finger on him. Now, that's a common, ordinary third-class flea's gait; but if you take an Eyetalian first class, that's been the pet of the nobility all his life, and hasn't ever known what want, or sickness, or exposure was, and he can jump more than 300 times his own length. . . . It's ninety miles a minute; it's considerable more than 5,000 miles an hour. Where's your man now? Yes, and your bird, and your railroad, and your balloon? Laws! they don't amount to shucks 'longside of a flea. A flea is just a comet biled down small."—Mark Twain's Tom Sawyer Abroad.

Preserving Baby's First Shoes.

A recent fad among young mothers is to have baby's first shoes made objects of beauty and sentimental interest through the agency of some metal preparation that is poured over the little shoe, causing it to retain its shape and showing all those dear little spots and dents, so precious in the eyes of the fond parent. An enterprising firm has hit upon this plan, and from the success they are making the idea proves itself a very popular one.

That Bullet-Proof Coat.

Goslin—I've been weading of that gweat German invention—the bullet-pwoof coat. A numbah of shots failed even to dent the garment, aw.

Gilley—What an excellent matewial that would be for twousers, doncher know! They would nevah bag at the knees.

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

LAST OF AN OLD RACE.

THE COCOPAH INDIANS OF THE LOWER CALIFORNIA.

Evidences That What Is Now an Arid Region Was in the Dim Past a Magnificently Fertile Country—Ruins of a Temple Buried in Sand.

It's a strange, wild region, that strip of desert, 100 miles wide by 500 long, lying between the Sierre Madre Mountains on the west and the Colorado river and Gulf of California on the east, and locked in the granite bosoms of the sun baked hills or buried in its unfathomable sands is the history of a certain stage of civilization that flourished there before the Pilgrims gained a foothold on Plymouth Rock. Now it is nothing but a treeless, trackless, waterless waste of sand and barren mountains, a grewsome level of gray death, whose mysteries are being slowly solved by a few hardy prospectors.

Not many weeks since, two prospectors arrived in San Diego, Cal., from an isolated part of the Cocopah Desert, says a correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, and reported having found a ruined temple half buried in the sand. To support their story they brought in pieces of ancient pottery and stone carvings, on which the tracings followed no pattern known to man. According to their statement, the ruins above the sand consisted of immense cylindrical stone columns arranged in the form of a parallelogram, covering an area of 265 by 400 feet. On the east side was a group of columns, which they concluded must have been the entrance. Here they shoveled away the sand and uncovered a broad flight of stone steps. The columns at the entrance were in a modified form of a letter S, and carved to represent huge rattlesnakes. The entire inclosure was filled with drifting sand, only the ends of the columns showing above the surface. Near by was a huge stone image of a turtle. Two exploring parties have tried to reach the find, but each has been driven back; once by the intolerable heat and thirst, and again by a terrible sandstorm.

There arrived in San Diego recently three prospectors. Two were Mexicans—Jose Rodriguez and Juan Romero. The name of the third was not learned. He remained in the city but two days and then returned to the desert. His name is not known to his two companions, but they know that he is an American. From the two Mexicans, who are above the average of their class in intelligence, it was learned that he is a man with a history, conversant with the traditions of the Cocopah Indians, who are probably the remnants of the lost civilization which once inhabited that desolate region, and to which their descendants still cling, in preference to the fruitful country on this side of the mountains. The Mexicans knew that he had been with the Indians for years, but had not inquired into his history. He was not the first American with a past who was trying to forget it among the naked, unlettered children of the desert that they had known. On this trip they had been joined by the stranger, who volunteered to show them some valuable mineral property with the understanding that they were to share equally in the results, he to accompany them to this city, where they were to conduct negotiations for the sale of the property or enlist capital in its development. It was on this trip that he told them his history.

He said that he had lived among the Cocopah Indians for nearly thirty years. When a good-sized boy he crossed the plains with his parents in an immigrant train. While stopping at Fort Yuma he had gone bathing in the river and had been seized by the Indians, carried away and held captive by them for years. It was years before he learned why they held him. He was never ill-treated, and was always given the best in the camp, and on long marches his captors would deny themselves food and water in order that he might not suffer. As he grew to manhood, he learned that some tattoo marks, which had been pricked upon his breast and arms by his father, corresponded with a tradition of the Cocopahs that a great calamity would befall them if he was allowed to depart before a certain time. Finally, as he became reconciled, the surveillance was somewhat relaxed, though he always understood that any attempt on his part to leave the tribe would be met with violence. When he had grown to be a man he had no desire to go away: in fact he had become one of them in dress, manner and speech. The chief men were greatly pleased at this and chose for him a wife from one of the highest families in the tribe. It was from his wife's great grandmother, who had been nearly 100 years ago the wife of a renowned chief, that he learned more of the tradition.

She told him that many years ago, long before she or her father or her grandfather was born, there was a tradition that a man marked as he was had come from the south and visited them. Then they had fields, orchards, cattle and cities. This was long before the coming of the padres, ages before. The stranger, after learning all about them, had departed, but returned with a great many warriors, laid waste their fields, orchards and gardens, destroyed their cities, killed all the men who did not escape into the mountains and carried off the women and girls. Then one of the wisest old men cautioned the small remnant of the tribe to watch for a man with marks on his skin similar to those of the chief from the south, and when found he should be held captive for so many moons; then the dead Cocopahs would rest easy and the living prosper. If allowed to depart the lands of the tribe would again be invaded and no one left to tell the story. This tradition had been handed down for generations and when the little white boy, bathing in the yellow waters of the Colorado nearly thirty years before, was seen by several Cocopahs to bear the marks, for which they had been watching and waiting for centuries, they carried him to their desert fastnesses. The old squaw said there was a big stone turtle in the Santa Catarina Valley with the whole history of the invasion, massacre and the wise man's warning written on the rock on which the turtle rests. Less than a year ago old Jose, chief of the Cocopahs, told him that the period of danger had been passed and that he might go. But the white man had a family, and did not care to leave. Since that time he has been over the greater part of the desert prospecting.

The Mexicans brought in some very rich specimens of gold ore and various crystals, including topax, garnet and carnelian, which they claimed to have discovered, probably with the aid of their strange partner, about twenty miles below the American line, and evidently in the vicinity of the foothills of the Cocopah Mountains. In fact, all evidence tending to show an ancient civilization has been found in that locality. They also say that at or near where the gold rock was discovered they found several old tools of a very crude and ancient pattern concealed among the rocks. Near by were the ruins of an old adobe building and inside, underneath the rubbish, they unearthed an old, musty, Latin prayer book. In the opinion of the prospectors the old building is the remains of an early mission or a branch of the Santa Catarina Mission, posted in a section more accessible to the Indian settlements of that day and near the spot where the Indians mined gold for the padres. They also say that not far from the mines and ruined adobe, in a sheltered little valley, is a large spring surrounded by pomegranate and olive trees, grape vines and other fruits, growing wild, but evidently the growth of former planting. No one now living knows when the orchard was started, as the stranger said the Indians of his tribe, many of them over 100 years old, said that the trees had always been there and that their fathers before them had said the same.

Those who have heard the Mexicans' story generally believe it. They are two unlettered prospectors, incapable of romancing, except as to a possible gold find. A tale like that of the tattoo marks is beyond the scope of their imagination. Then, again, other prospectors have met the stranger and, while knowing he was a white man did not question him as to his strange life.

There is a stone image of a huge turtle in the Santa Catarina Valley. It weighs many tons, but whether carved by human hands or nature has never been fully established, though the preponderance of the testimony of those who have seen it is that it is the work of man. There is said to be another near the ruined temple, discovered by the two prospectors months ago. They say the latter must weigh several hundred tons, and is a finely carved image of the "genus chelonia." This, taken with the fact that the columns of the ruined temple were carved to represent rattlesnakes, would indicate that the lost race that once inhabited those now arid and sterile plains and mountains deified reptiles. Again, it is said that there are palm trees in the Canyada de las Palmas beside which the famous old mission palms of San Diego would appear as shrubs.

The Cocopah Indians have many traditions as to the origin of these orchards and stone images; too many, in fact, for newspaper story; but they have no records, nothing beyond legends, which are like old nursery tales. The Cocopahs may be descendants of that buried race. The few remaining are tall, clean-limbed, thin-flanked, deep-chested and broad-shouldered; as a rule, generous and superstitious to an unusual degree, but absolutely without physical fear of anything earthly. They have their rancherias and a few cattle. After the spring overflow of the Colorado into New River they follow the receding waters of the latter stream, planting corn and mesquite beans, and in six months their crop is fit for harvesting. This is practical evidence of the fertility of that soil and is additional confirmation of the belief that what is now a scene of desolation was once a magnificent reach of orchards and gardens densely populated. Scientists and archæologists have never penetrated that region. It is many weary, trackless miles off a palace car route and the only maps of the locality are seared on the brains of a few hardy prospectors, the videttes of modern civilization.

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and sometimes obstinate affection, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female, and the primary symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night, as the cold air makes the flesh become warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—ulcers and tumors form, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly affected from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and trouble. These and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet the effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

JUDGMENTS.

A platonic friendship may be possible—between women, or between men.

Originality is the ascendancy of the individual over the preconcerted ideas of the masses.

What the world gains in evenness of culture and smoothness of tone it is apt to lose in individuality and force.

It is well that kind seeks kind and finds beauty and enjoyment in it—well that the lowest cannot appreciate the refinement of the highest, else there would be many unmated creatures on the earth.—Judge.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, August 1, 1894.

Wheat was weak in Chicago and closed 1c lower. The reports of rains in the corn belt caused a drop of 1c to 1½c. Corn weak, closed 1c lower.

Bradstreet reports an increase in wheat of 2,975,000 bushels east of the Rockies, and an increase of 166,000 west. In Europe there is a decrease of 112,000 bushels.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The only grain on the street was 300 bushels of oats, which sold at 39c to 40c. Wheat is nominal at 62c for white, at 61c for red, and at 58c for goose. Barley is dull at 31c to 43c and peas at 66c.

A suspicion that something might, after all, be left of the season's corn crop induced a halt, followed by a steady recovery in the New York stock market prices. The greatest firmness in the Granger stocks was preceded by a downward reaction in the price of corn. Sugar stock, which of late has consistently advanced when everything else declined and vice versa, followed the usual rule.

Buffalo—Cattle—Six cars; quiet, 10c lower and about 35c below the opening prices of last week. Sheep and Lambs—There was a liberal supply on sale, about 45 cars held over and 5 cars of fresh sales stock. The market was very dull and prices the lowest that have as yet prevailed on this market. Good lambs sold down to $3.25 to $3.50 and fairly good ones only brought $2.75 to $3.10. There were no very choice sheep on sale.

THE ANTS OF FLORIDA.

The State Overrun With Insects Half an Inch Long.

There are more ants to the square mile in Florida than in any other country in the world. There are ants which will measure more than half an inch in length, and then there are ants so small that they can scarcely be seen to move with the unaided eye. There are red ants and black ants, and troublesome ants. But, as bad as they are, I have never heard of them eating out the seat of a man's trousers, as a missionary, the Rev. Mr. Wilson, once told the writer he saw the army ants do in India, while the man was sitting on the earth for a few minutes beside him.

But the Florida ant will take out the lettuce and other minute seed from the soil in which they are planted, and actually destroy the bed. They will suck the life out of acres of young cucumbers and melon plants, uproot strawberry plants, or cover the buds with earth to such an extent as to kill them. They will get into pie, pickle, sauce, sirup, sugar, on meat, in hash, will riddle a cake or fill a loaf of baker's bread until it is worthless.

All remedies failing, I took to baiting them near their nests with slices of meat, bones, apple and pear parings, and when I had from 50,000 to 100,000 out, turned a kettle of boiling water on them. I have killed during the past week over 1,000,000 in the space of a quarter-acre lot, and I have almost wiped them ont. I had to do this to secure any lettuce plants, and many observant farmers complain of seedsmen when they should attribute their troubles to insects.

It is very curious and instructive to see how promptly the ants which escape the scalding go to work taking out the dead, and, after pulling them outside first, then go to work excavating again and rebuilding their cells and runways. This being done very quickly, the next work on hand is the laying in of a supply of food, by hauling the dead bodies of the hot water victims into their storehouses.

You may see a small black ant hauling and tugging at the carcass of a red ant twenty times its own weight, and he always succeeds in the end in hauling it into the warehouse of the colony. Next you may see a sort of ambulance corps searching for the disabled. These are taken to the underground house, where the surgeons and nurses are in waiting. Then, too, you may see the timekeepers and bosses directing this one or turning another back on some errand or to some other duty.—Savannah News.

Japanese Rainy Weather Dress.

The rubbers of Japan are wooden stilts about three inches high, which are used like sandals, and the common people wear mackintoshes or rain coats made of straw, which makes them look for all the world like gigantic yellow birds with human faces. They have immense hats, sometimes shaped like butter bowls and again like parasols, and a group of country people would make the tortune of a Barnum if he could bring them to this country. With the new movement all sorts of foreign customes have come in, and I saw hundreds of the ugliest of our blankets and carriage robes used as shawls by both men and women. They are the only colors in Japan which swear at the rest of their surroundings and are a blot on the picturesqueness of the people. I note that most of the people walk about with their mouths open, and in the colder days many of them cover their mouths with a sort of pad and breathe behind this. They seem to care nothing for the exposure of the chest, and the gowns of both sexes are decidedly decollete.

How to Close the Jaws.

"Watch the way your children shut their teeth," says a dentist. "The lower jaw should close inside or at least even with the upper. Many do this naturally, many more must be taught, and the sooner the easier. There is no fact in artistic dentistry more important than this. To retain the true facial lines is one of the chief efforts of the profession in its present advancement, and this shutting under is a great art preservative. A forerunner of advancing age is the heavy lower jaw, which settles more and more as the muscles of the face weaken and relax with years—a tendency which is long deferred if the jaw is trained to be held back beneath the upper. Such will be the case if the teeth close together properly. Watch your children and yourselves, and if you have been shutting your teeth the wrony way for forty years, begin to day to reform."—Albany Express.

Aluminum in Lithography.

The latest application of aluminum is to lithography. The stone used for lithographing is found in Bavaria, and as the supply is diminishing its cost is increasing. Moreover, it is very brittle, and, being rigid, can only be used on flat surfaces. We read that, under a recently patented process, aluminum plates, weighing from 2 pounds to 10 pounds and costing from 20s. to 40s., do the work equally well, and that, being flexible, they can be moulded into forms for cylinder presses. It is also reported that aluminum plates are taking the place of steel for engraving purposes.—Invention.

A Popular Barometer.

Yet another occupation has been found for women—that of acting as barometers. Weather Prophet Dunn is quoted as saying that "one of the ways of telling whether the temperature was rising was to watch a girl's front hair. When it began to lose its curl and grew straight it would be a sure sign of a change of temperature,—Detroit Free Press.

YOUNG LAMONT'S CASE.

Neighbors Much Interested in the Story Everyone Thought the Youngster Would Die but he's Very Much Alive Now.

DUNDALK, July 30.—Hugh Lamont, of McIntyre, has a young son who is an object of interest throughout this whole section of country. From infancy the boy had dropsy, and was bloated and swollen all over. It seemed to the parents that death could be the only release to one attacked so young by this disease. They heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and began giving them to the child. With the first box, the bloating and swelling began to disappear. Six boxes effected a perfect cure and the boy is now just as healthy a youngster as stirs up the dust on the high roads of Western Ontario.

ART AND ARTISTS.

Teniers pictures of peasant life have never been excelled.

Quentin Massys was a blacksmith who determined to quit that trade for art.

Rubens was educated by his mother, to whom he attributed all his success in life.

Van Leyden painted his first great picture, that of St. Hubert, at the age of 12 years.

Turner's pictures were admitted to the Royal academy before the artist was 12 years old.

Craeger painted several of his best pictures after he had passed eighty years, and died at eighty-three.

Von Dyck has never been surpassed in ability to draw the features and hands of sitters. There is as much character in his hands as in his faces.

Raphael's pictures are often so thinly painted that the pen strokes on the canvas made for the guidance of the painter are visible through the layers of paint.

Parmigiano was at work on the "Vision of St. Jerome" when Rome was stormed by Constable Bourbon in 1527. The soldiers burst into his studio, but were so attracted by the picture that he was protected.

Salvator Rosa in his youth associated with brigands in lower Italy, and thus gained many subjects for his brush. Some of his paintings were introduced in evidence at the trials of the captured brigands many years later.

VARIOUSLY AIMED.

A girl, usually wears the expression on her face that is most becoming.

The men who go to church to please their wives are enjoying themselves.

There ought to be a law compelling every man to read a petition before singing it.

A woman's hard work is done in buying things, a man's hard work is to pay for them.

By the time a waste paper basket has been in use six months, it represents as many heartaches as a grave.

By fishing industriously in any of the lakes near town, a man may by a hard day's work land a fish two inches long.

A couple recently divorced at Atchison were engaged six years in order to get real well acquainted before marriage.

When a girl gets married and has a baby, she forgets that she ever knew anybody before the baby arrived. But after she has had two or three, and they come so close together they can wear each other's clothes, she begins to recall occasionally, while washing and ironing and mending, the friends she used to enjoy before she had so many cares.

MARRIAGE MAXIMS.

Never taunt with a pat mistake.

Never both be angry at the same time.

Never meet without a loving welcome.

Never allow a request to be repeated.

Let self-denial be the daily aim and practice of each.

Never let the sun go down upon any anger or grievance.

Never talk at one another, either alone or in company.

Neglect the whole world besides rather than one another.

Let each one strive to yield oftenest to the wishes of the other.

Never make a remark at the expense of the other—it is meanness.

Never sigh over what might have been, but make the best of what is.

Never part for the day without loving words to think of during absence.

Never find fault, unless it is perfectly certain that a fault has been committed and always speak lovingly.

The very nearest approach to domestic happiness on earth is in the cultivation on both sides of absolute unselfishness.

It is the perfection of the well matured plant properly cured by expert growers. Mild flavored, bright and of matchless quality; Mastiff Plug Cut pleases the most fastidious.

MAY RECIPROCATE IN COAL.

Otherwise the Senate Will Stand by its Bill—Sugar Bars Progress.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—Senator Jones was present yesterday for only a short time at the meeting of the tariff conferees, as he had another committee meeting to look after. But he was in touch with his associates, and after the conference, had numerous talks with the Senators who have had much to do with the construction of the Senate bill. Senator Jones, in common with other Senators, denied the accuracy of the story to the effect that the Senate was weakening.

It is known that the conferees have agreed on practically every item of disagreement in the bill save the three that have blocked their pathway to success. It is further said they have about settled the matter of iron ore and coal.

Iron ore will remain as fixed by the Senate. Coal will also be kept on the dutiable list without any change in the rate of duty, but it may be that the Senate will permit an amendment which will be in the line of reciprocity, admitting Canadian coal free if the Dominion admits the coal of this country free. It is within the range of possibility that the Senate may yield 5 per cent. on the duty on those two articles.

Sugar still continues the bone of contention, the House conferees maintaining that they must have some concessions there.

Ontario Rifle Association's Matches.

TORONTO, August 1.—A meeting of the match committee of the Ontario Rifle Association was held at the Canadian Military Institute yesterday afternoon. The secretary reported that by arrangement with the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Grand Trunk Railway competitors from all over the Dominion will be carried to and from Toronto at single fare. Competitors from west of Toronto desirous of also competing at the Dominion Rifle Association matches at Ottawa will be sold single tickets to Ottawa allowing stop over privileges at Toronto. The Grand Trunk Railway have arranged for a service from Toronto to the range of six trains a day each way. A special train will leave Toronto on Tuesday, August 31, only at 10.30 a.m., so as to connect with trains from the west and north.

Attempted Murder in Sandwich.

SANDWICH, August 1.—Some person entered the house of Isaac Buchanan, who is confined in the jail charged with committing a criminal assault on Maggie Patterson, and attempted to assassinate Richard Buchanan, brother of the accused. Buchanan was awakened in the night by hearing a sound in the room and, seeing someone moving, asked him his business. Four shots followed his query, none of them hitting him. Buchanan ran for a shot gun, but on his return the unknown had made his escape through a window. Considerable feeling exists in this vicinity over the alleged outrage committed by Isaac Buchanan, which evidently prompted the attempted assassination.

A Town Wrecked by a Cyclone.

LITCHFIELD, Ill., Aug. 1.—Yesterday a heavy wind, with the velocity of a cyclone, struck this village. It was accompanied by a downpour of rain and hail. The roof of the high school building was torn off and the building was badly damaged. Over twenty small buildings throughout the town were wrecked. No casualities are reported. The storm was southeast to northeast and it is feared considerable damage has been done in the adjacent country.

Hawaiian Royalists at Washington.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—The Hawaiian royalist commissioners, H. A. Wideman, Samuel Parker, J. A. Cummings and Major Seward arrived here last night. Mr. Wideman refused to state what plans they would pursue or with just what object they came. He denied however that any indemnity or damages would be asked. Mr. Wideman speaks lightly of the new provisional government and does not think it can stand long.

Two Brothers Drowned.

AYLMER, Que., Aug. 1.—It is reported that Judge Julien's two sons, Eugene and Louis, are drowned. The two young men started out for a sail on Monday afternoon and have not been heard of since. A searching party set to work to look for the bodies yesterday. Their hats and boots have been found, but not the bodies.

Fruit of Ida Well's Labors.

LONDON, August 1.—The Duke of Argyle, several clergymen and numerous members of the House of Commons, among them Sir J. E. Gorst and Justin McCarthy, have joined a new anti-lynch committee formed to act in concert with a similar committee in the United States. The Ida B. Wells campaign seems to have originated the movement.

A C. P. R. Steamer Aground.

CHRISTIANIA, August 1.—A British tourist steamer is aground near Askengold on the Norwegian coast. The passengers were landed on an uninhabited island. It is said the steamer is the Miowara. She belongs to the Canadian Pacific line and sailed from Shields July 9 for Odde, Norway. She is said to be seriously damaged.

Boy Drowned at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, August 1.—Eddie W. Hyde, aged 18, who lived with his parents at 18 Cheever street, was drowned while bathing near the Northern and Northwestern elevator. The young man got beyond his depth and being unable to swim went down before his companions could save him.

Coming Back in Instalments.

PHILADELPHIA, August 1.—A remnant of Pawnee Bill's Wild West show, which met with financial disaster at the Antwerp exhibition, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Illinois. The party consisted of nine Indians, two squaws and a papoose.

AN ATTACK AT YASHAN

Japan's Troops Repulsed by China With Great Loss.

FORMAL DECLARATION OF WAR

Japan Apologizes to Great Britain for the Loss of the Kow Shing—Eight Russian Warships Sail for the East — Ambassadors Called Home.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Exchange Telegraph Company declares that war between China and Japan has been formally declared by Japan.

Hugh Matheson, of Hugh Matheson & Co., and Jardine Matheson & Co., London and Shanghai, from whom the Chinese transport Kow Shing, sunk by a Japanese cruiser, was chartered, received a despatch to-day from Tien Tsin, dated August 1, saying Col. Von Hanneken, formerly aide-de-camp of Li Hung Chang, the Viceroy of China, who was on board the transport when she foundered, was saved.

The despatch adds that a court of inquiry has been opened at Tien Tsin, in order that the real facts in connection with the sinking of the Kow Shing may be known. Finally the despatch to Mr. Matheson says it is reported at Tien Tsin that war between China and Japan was formally declared yesterday.

The admiralty has ordered Vice-Admiral Fremantle, who commands the British squadron off the east Asiatic coast, to approach Chinese and Japanese ports, and while observing strict neutrality, to watch the progress of operations.

Private despatches say that Japan has closed her legation and recalled her minister and all her consuls from China.

Japan Apologizes to Britain.

TOKIO, Aug. 2.—The Japanese government has instructed its minister in London to apologize to Great Britain for firing upon and sinking the transport Kow Shing while she was flying the British flag, and to inform Great Britain that the commander of the Japanese cruiser did not know the Kow Shing was a British vessel until after the fight.

Captain Galeworthy, of the Kow Shing, and many other persons who were on board the transport, were rescued by the boats of the Japanese warship Naniwa.

The Japanese Were Beaten.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 2.—At 11 o'clock in the morning of July 27, the day after the attack on the Chinese transports which resulted in the sinking of the Kow Shing, the Japanese warships Takachio and Hiyei made an attack upon the Chinese Chen Yuen. After a long and desperate fight the Japanese vessels were beaten off, the Hiyei being disabled and rendered helpless. The Chen Yuen, though badly damaged, succeeded in reaching port in safety in company with two gunboats, which also took part in the engagement, and immediately went into dry dock for repairs after her two days' fighting. Advices from Yashan state that the Chinese are strongly entrenched there and that repeated attempts have been made by the Japanese troops to dislodge them. In every instance, however, the attacking forces, after hard fought engagements, were repulsed at all points by heavy losses. A portion of the Chinese soldiers engaged in these battles were the best troops of the northern army of Viceroy Li Hung Chang. The Chinese losses were small.

The damage to the Chen Yuen is so great that some time must elapse before it can be fully repaired and the vessel be sent to the scene of operations.

Six Chinese transports packed with troops sailed on Monday from Choo Foo. They were conveyed by three warships. The reports of fighting at Yashan is confirmed. The Japanese brought up for the attack every available man almost denuding Seoul of troops. The successful defence made by the Chinese was directed by European officers.

The Chinese minister will leave Tokio to-day. The Japanese flag was hauled down from the consulate yesterday. The light has been removed from the mouth of Ningpo river. Eight Russian warships are reported to be about to sail from Vladivostok. Fifteen hundred Japanese were killed at Yashan.

A letter from Han Kow says that the outbreak of hostilities has revived all the native fanaticism of the Chinese. Foreigners are openly insulted and violence is feared.

Ninety heavy guns have been added to the artillery at Taku harbor in the last three days, and submarine mines have been laid in expectation of an attack from the Japanese fleet. Great alarm is felt at Teku, as the people there believe that any day may bring several Japanese warships and a bombardment. The steam launches of the Chinese customs services are scouting along the coast to ascertain whether or not the Japanese are approaching. Their officers report that several Japanese cruisers have been seen in the Gulf of Pechili. The agility of the Taku forts to withstand a bombardment is doubted. The fort works were not built to resist the fire of modern guns.

Japan's Account of the Engagement.

YOKOHAMA, Aug. 2.—The Japanese Government has issued the following official account of the engagement between the Chinese and Japanese warships which resulted in the sinking of the transport Kow Shing:

"The Chinese cruisers the Chih-Yuen and the Kuwanii were observed steaming from Kasan and a transport carrying Chinese soldiers conveyed by the Chinese warship Tsao-Kiang was seen coming from Tokio towards Kasan. The Japanese cruisers Akitsusu, Yoshino and Naniwa met the Chinese warships near Pantao Island. The Chinese did not salute, but made warlike preparations.

"In order to get out of the narrow waters in which they were situated the Japanese cruisers put to sea, whereupon the Tsao-Kiang pursued the Naniwa. The Naniwa thereupon put about and steamed toward the two Chinese ships. The Chin-Yuen and the Kuwanii, however, retreated and the Chih-Yuen hoisted the white flag above the Japanese naval ensign. The Naniwa consequently delayed firing upon the warship and then the transport crossed the bow of the Naniwa. The latter fired a blank shot and signalled the transport to stop.

"In the meantime the Chin-Yuen had approached under the Naniwa's stern and when within a distance of about 300 metres she discharged a torpedo which missed the Japanese warship.

"The Naniva then opened fire upon the Chih-Yuen and the Yoshino joined in the action. The Chih-Yuen finally fled and was pursued. The Chinese ship however was not overtaken. The second Chinese warship, the Kuwanli had in the meantime been engaged with the Japanese cruiser Antisny, but like the Chih-Yuen she finally fled and took refuge between the shore and a shoal. The transport carried six guns and had 1,100 soldiers on board. The captain of the transport surrendered, but the soldiers on board of her refused to do so and resisted capture. The Naniwa was ultimately obliged to open fire upon the transport and eventually sank her. The captain and others was rescued by the boats of the Naniwa.

"It was afterwards discovered that the transport was a British steamer the Kow Shing. She had on board four chiefs of battalion and fifteen colonels of the Chinese army in addition to the soldiers referred to. The Japanese government, as soon as it was informed of the sinking of the British ship, expressed its regrets declaring to the British charge d'affaires that if, after an inquiry into the subject had been made, Japan was shown to be in the wrong the Japan government was prepared to make full reparation for the loss sustained."

The naval engagement of July 25 should not be confounded with the battle fought July 30, nor should the Chih Yuen, a Chinese unarmored ship of 2,300 tons, in the first encounter be confounded with the Chinese armored battleship, 7,500 tons, reported sunk in the second fight.

An Important Circular.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The Canadian commissioner of customs has forwarded to the United States a circular sent by him to collectors of customs in Canada to govern them in the collection of duties on goods purchased in bond in foreign countries. This instructs them to add to the value of goods purchased in bond the customs or internal revenue duty leviable in the country where the goods are purchased, and which is collected in all cases by the foreign government concerned before the goods are allowed to go into home consumption in such foreign country. This action is considered as having an important bearing on American importations into Canada.

Protests Entered at Toronto.

TORONTO, Aug. 2.—Two additional election protests were entered yesterday at Osgoode hall, the victims being A. Miscampbell, of East Simcoe, and W. R. Reed, of West Durham. The latter seat was a Conservative gain at the late election. This makes a total of eighteen protests entered in all.

HAMILTON, Aug. 2.—A protest against the return of John Ira Flatt as member of the legislature for North Wentworth has been sent to Toronto, accompanied by the necessary deposit. Matthew Gilmour, a Beverly farmer, is the petitioner, and he makes the usual charges.

A Battle With Bandits.

GUTHRIE, Ok., Aug. 2.—At Chandler, 50 miles east of here, five armed men rode in the town, went to the Lincoln County Bank and ordered the officers to open the safe. Citizens began firing, but the robbers grabbed $500 from the counter and fled, first killing J. B. Mitchell, a barber, who gave the alarm. A posse of citizens pursued them, giving battle and finally wounding and capturing one of the bandits, Elmer Lucas, a mere boy, who says the others were the notorious Cook gang.

A Galt Man Terribly Hurt.

GALT, Aug. 2.—While John Steel, a teamster for the Goldie-McCulloch Co., was taking a large purifier to the C.P.R. depot, sitting on top of it, a sudden jolt caused the machine to move, throwing Steel off. He fell behind the horses, who kicked him in the face, smashing it terribly. The two wheels of the heavy dray then passed over his chest, breaking all the ribs from the backbone over the heart. He is in a precarious condition. Steel is a married man and has one child.

A Wiarton Sailor Drowned.

PORT HURON, Mich., Aug. 2.—Edward Grant, of Wiarton, Ont., a sailor on the schooner Aurora, was drowned off that boat in Lake Huron. He went out on the main boom to get a pennant that had become entangled and lost his hold. All possible efforts were made to rescue him, but without success. He was 25 years of age and single.

Co-operative Colony in B. C.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 2.—A co-operative colony is to be established here at an early date by a large club, which intends to procure one of the many fertile islands up the coast and send up pioneers who will build houses and clear the land. The Government has promised assistance. The settlers will engage in farming and fishing.

DE BARRY'S NEXT MOVE

The Buffalo Inspector Determined to Harass Canada.

TO ENFORCE SEABOARD RULES

Canadians Going Into Buffalo Either on Business or Pleasure Will be Subjected to the Same Examination as Emigrants at New York.

BUFFALO, July 2.—Inspector De Barry, now that the Lockwood anti-Canadian bill is dead, has persuaded the immigration department to back him in another scheme for harrassing Canadians who do business in this city or come as casual visitors.

He has now begun to put in operation the provisions of the immigration laws relating to immigrants from abroad, and which have been in operation against European countries at the seaboard ports and has made them applicable to Canada.

Emigrants from that country will hereafter be subjected to the same examination as though they landed from a steamship at New York and the Michigan Central, the Grand Trunk and the lake steamers will be compelled to adopt the same methods of compliance with the law as are now enforced against European lines.

EMANCIPATION DAY.

How Canadian Sons of Ham Celebrated the Day at Various Places.

WINDSOR, Aug. 2.—Yesterday being the sixty-first anniversary of the emancipation of slaves of the British colonies celebrations of the event were held at Walker's Grove in Windsor and at the Mineral Springs in Sandwich. The demonstration at both places was a success, as either crowd was fully as large as on any former occasion, and the two combined made the biggest thing of the kind ever seen in this vicinity. At the grove they had games, speeches and dancing, while at Sandwich they had an additional attraction in the shape of a barbecue.

CHATHAM, Aug. 2.—Emancipation Day was celebrated here by the colored population by games and other amusements in the park, and a ball in the drill shed in the evening.

AMHERSTBURG, July 2.—The colored people in this section celebrated the day in Caldwell's Grove. The steamer Imperial brought a number from Windsor and Detroit. They had a brass band in attendance, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. Delos R. Davis, our colored barrister, was the orator of the day.

WATERLOO, Aug. 2.—Emancipation Day was celebrated here in a right hearty manner by hundreds of colored excursionists from Toronto and other points. A special train load of excursionists arrived here at 12 noon and another at 1 p. m. A procession, headed by a colored uniformed fife and drum band from Toronto, proceeded to Waterloo's beautiful pleasure resort and athletic grounds, Westside Park, where games and sports of various kinds were indulged in during the afternoon.

Colonel Denison Rebuked.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—President Johnson, president of the Suffolk College where 20 students are training for farm life in Canada, has in yesterday's newspapers a letter strongly denouncing Col. Denison's recent utterances against the United States, he says: "The results of stirring up ill-will between countries so situated as the United States and Canada must be lamentable in the extreme. The only right and prudent course is to foster the firm friendship which is steadily increasing among the English speaking people of the world."

Thieves at Work in Middlesex.

LONDON, Ont., Aug. 2.—Robberies in Middlesex have been more frequent of late than in many years past. Murray Smith, of concession 6, Dorchester, reports that during his absence on Sunday evening his house was broken into. A pocketbook in Mr. Smith's pants pocket was emptied of $9 and the wallet left behind. A pocketbook of Mrs. Smith's containing $5 has not been seen since. A young man working in the vicinity is suspected of having committed the theft.

A Bricklayer's Bad Fall.

HAMILTON, Aug. 2.—A portion of the wall of a building in course of reconstruction on Wellington street, fell yesterday, precipitating Isaac Reynolds, bricklayer, to the ground, a distance of 30 feet. No bones were broken, but it is feared Reynolds sustained internal injuries that may prove serious. This is the same building from which Patrick Hanley fell last week. He died from his injuries.

An Old Woman Attempts Suicide.

OTTAWA, Aug. 2.—Jane Crawley, an apple woman, 70 years old, yesterday attempted to commit suicide because she was five months behind in her rent, had no money and had nothing to live for. She drank a large dose of copper sulphate. The poison was removed with a stomach pump and the old woman is now at the Protestant hospital in a precarious condition.

An Unknown Body Found.

AMHERSTBURG, Aug. 2.—A drowned man was brought here by the tug Moss and Dave. It was found on the Canada shore, opposite Wyandotte. His height is 5 feet 8 inches and weighs about 150 pounds. He wore a checked calico shirt and a sack coat. He had a bad cut on the bridge of his nose and was clean shaven with a heavy head of hair.

To Confer With Sir Hibbert.

CLAYTON, N.Y., Aug. 2.—The annual meeting of the Anglers' Association of the St. Lawrence River was held here yesterday. A resolution was passed authorizing the president to appoint a committee to visit Ottawa, Ont., to confer with the Canadian Minister of Fisheries in the interest of fish protection.

FLETCHER, Ont., Aug. 2.—The Michigan Central train struck a carriage containing two colored women, Mrs. Simpson and daughter-in-law. The elder lady was killed instantly and the other woman died in a few hours. An inquest has been called.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 2, 1894.

THE political situation in the fishery isle of Newfoudland, in its intense ludricousness, excites the risibility of the grave and reverend Thunderer. While it is amusing it is also instructive. If Sir William Whiteway had been a member of the Dominion Cabinet he would have been Sir William Whitewash now, and in possession of his seat. But justice is swifter in Newfoundland than in Ottawa. Premier Whiteway to conciliate public opinion and make votes, just before the elections, passed a most stringent election law. He evidently succeeded in his estimate, for he swept the country, and the Opposition had hardly enough seats to form a quorum for a hot-weather prayer meeting. But the Opposition was of good stuff; they bided their time, and the Premier was "hoist with his own petard." The Opposition by shrewd dealing got their seats gazetted early and when the time limit for protests in their cases had expired, a hurricane of protests was entered against the government seats. The result was that the overwhelming government majority has been swept away, the government members being unseated right and left. What adds to the comicality of the situation is the judge who, through the medium of the election courts knifed Sir William Whiteway's majority, was appointed by Sir William in order to take him out of the Opposition ranks and out of political life. Such is life in Newfoundland.

IN connection with the chief events in the life of the late President Carnot the figure "7" frequently appears. The London Daily News says:—"He was born in 1837, was admitted to the Ecole Polytechnique in 1857, was elected by virtue of Article 7 of the Constitution to the office of President of the Republic in 1887, was assassinated at the age of fifty-seven years in the seventh year of his Presidency, in a carriage containing seven persons (four inside and three outside, a coachmen and two footmen), on the seventh day of the week, by an Italian (a word of seven letters), named Cesario (also formed of seven letters). Finally, he was borne in triumph to the Pantheon on the first day of the seventh month of the year, seven days after his death." Superstitious people have here some food for reflection.

THE opinion expressed in more than one newspaper leads to the conclusion that perhaps the proposed bribe of $10,000 for a reformatory in Glengary will not be sufficient to save the head of Mr. McLennan, M.P., at the next general election. The tremendous victory of the Glengarry Patrons at the local election indicates clearly enough says the Ottawa Free Press, the direction the wind is setting, and the very vague promises made as to the construction of the institution are hardly likely to carry much weight with them. Already Glengarry people are asking why if the reformatory is to become a reality the site cannot be fixed upon and work commenced.

THE province of Quebec proposes to institute the free grant land system. If it does so on equitable terms the province will probably draw back to its borders many of the families who have passed into the United States and are now suffering from the depression which exists there. There is already a backward flow and many French Canadians, from Vermont and Maine, have taken up land. It is worthy of note that the grant of a hundred acres to the happy possessor of twelve children has consumed 180,000 acres, no fewer than 1,742 parents having presented themselves as duly qualified.

THE annual meeting of the Hudson's Bay Company, held a few days ago, in London, does not seem to have afforded much satisfaction to the shareholders. The falling off in profits has been very heavy, some $20,000 as compared with last year. Sir Donald Smith attributed the deficit to the depressed state of business in the country, the smallness of the land sales and the unsettled position of the U. S. tariff. Sir Donald appears to be somewhat of a free trader when facing his company, though he supports monopoly in the House of Commons.

The Dimple Cheeked Village Maid may not retain her dimples and rosy cheeks "blooming with health," until she finds a good husband. A little neglect or accident may bring about some one of the many "female" diseases and "weaknesses," to which the sex is subject, and health may be forever impaired, and hopes and happiness be at an end. Thanks to Dr. Pierce, his Favorite Prescription, prepared by him for women, cures the worst cases of uterine diseases, nervousness, neuralgia, irregularities, and "weaknesses." It is a great invigorating tonic and nervine, and rapidly builds up the health and strength.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, for constipation, sick headache, billiousness, indigestion. Once taken, always in favour.

THE NEW SOUTH WALES ELECTIONS.

The full returns of the recent elections in New South Wales show that the free trade party under Sir Henry Parkes and Mr. Reid won a more signal victory than at first appeared. The new house will consist of of 125 members, the free traders numbering 65, the protectionists 40, and the labour representatives 20. The majority of the labour representatives now lean to free trade instead of protection, a mild form of which they assisted Sir George Dibbs in imposing on the colony a year or two ago. The labor element is much weaker in the new Legislature than in the old, its representatives numbering but 20, as against 34 in the last House. This new House was elected on a new basis, each member representing one electoral district, the average of voters aimed at in the district being 2,500, which is fairly maintained throughout the country. The election was held also on the one-man one-vote basis.

Sir Henry Parkes, the ex-Premier and titular leader of the free traders, is the veritable Gladstone of New South Wales, even in point of age. He carries his burden of four-score years less lightly than did the veteran English statesman, however, and the leadership of the Opposition since Sir Henry's overthrow a couple of years ago has been virtually entrusted to Mr. Reid, who, according to the cables, has been called on by the Governor to form a Cabinet, owing to the resignation of Sir George Dibbs. Sir George apparently had intended holding office until defeated in the House, that being the usual course of British Ministries of late years, but in the meantime seems to have got in to a complication with the Governor concerning the matter of appointments to the Executive Council, the precise nature of which is not explained, and decided to end his difficulties by resigning.

New South Wales is to be congratulated on its return to free trade principles and it is to be hoped that the colony will this time be able to steadily maintain them. Meantime it is worth bearing in mind that free trade is diametrically opposed to any scheme of preferential trade, which is of necessity based on the fallacy of protection; and the victory of the free traders of our sister colony of New South Wales is, therefore, but another proof of the hopelessness and futility of the vague, weak projects for imperial unity propounded at the intercolonial love feast at Ottawa. Not that free trade and imperial unity are necessarily opposed to each other. Free trade is opposed to nothing that is natural and for the good of nations, and there is no more ardent advocate of imperial unity in the British empire than the veteran free trade leader of New South Wales. Only he does not believe in seeking to rivet a protective system on the empire for the sake of calling it united.

YOUNG LAMONT'S CASE.

Neighbors Much Interested in the Story — Everyone Thought the Youngster Would Die but he's Very Much Alive Now.

DUNDALK, July 30.—Hugh Lamont, of McIntyre, has a young son who is an object of interest throughout this whole section of country. From infancy the boy had dropsy, and was bloated and swollen all over. It seemed to the parents that death could be the only release to one attacked so young by this disease. They heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and began giving them to the child. With the first box, the bloating and swelling began to disappear. Six boxes effected a perfect cure and the boy is now just as healthy a youngster as stirs up the dust on the high roads of Western Ontario.

To remove worms of all kinds from children or adults Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is a safe and sure remedy.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER.

I was attacked severely last winter with Diarrhœa, Cramps, and Colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I thank this excellent remedy for saving my life.

PROBLEMS IN ANIMAL LIFE.

Some of the Unaccountable Things Done by Birds, Fowls, Beasts and Insects.

The greyhound runs by sight only, says the Philadelphia Times. This is a fact. The carrier pigeon flies his hundreds of miles homeward by eyesight, noting from point to point objects that he has marked. This is only conjecture. The dragon fly, with 12,000 lenses in his eye, darts from angle to angle with the rapidity of a flashing sword, and as rapidly darts back, not turning in the air, but with a clash reversing the action of his fours wings and instantaneously calculating the distance of the objects or he would dash himself to pieces. But in what conformation of the eye does this power consist? No one can answer.

Ten thousand mosquitoes dance up and down in the sun, with the minutest interval between them, yet no one knocks another headlong on the grass or breaks a leg or a wing, long and delicate as they are. Suddenly a peculiar, high-shouldered, vicious creature, with long and pendant nose, darts out of the rising and falling cloud and, settling on your cheek, inserts a poisonous sting. What possessed the little wretch to do this? Did he smell your blood while he was dancing? No one knows.

A carriage comes suddenly upon some geese in a narrow road and drives straight through the flock. A goose was never yet fairly run over, nor a duck. They are under the very wheels and hoofs, and yet they contrive to flap and waddle safely off. Habitually stupid, heavy and indolent, they are, nevertheless, equal to any emergency.

Why does the lonely woodpecker, when he descends from his tree and goes to drink, stop several times on his way and listen and look around him before he takes his draught? No one knows. How is it that the species of ant which is taken in battle by other ants to be made slaves should be the black or negro ant? No one knows.

The power of judging actual danger and the free and easy boldness that results from it are by no means uncommon. Many birds seem to have a correct notion of a gun's range, and are scrupulously careful to keep beyond it. The most obvious resource would be to fly right away out of sight and hearing, but this they do not choose to do.

A naturalist of Brazil give an account of an expedition that he made to one of the islands of the Amazon to shoot spoonbills, ibises and other magnificient birds which are abundant there. His design was completely baffled, however, by a wretched little sand piper, which preceded him, continually uttering his tell-tale cry, which at once aroused all the birds within hearing. Throughout the day did this individual bird continue its self-imposed duty of sentinel to others, effectually preventing the approach of the hunter to the game and yet managing to keep out of the range of his gun.

Dairy Notes.

The best foods for blood are the best for milk production.

Neglecting to salt the cows regularly is often a cause of the butter not coming.

Take care of the young cows, that they may continue profitable when they are old.

Sour the milk and the sugar in it is all changed to acid; this has little or no feeding value.

The dairy farm must be reasonably fertile if the best quality of milk is produced at the lowest cost.

In the dairy, as in other lines of feeding, it is well to remember that it requires fully one half the food that an animal can consume to sustain it and that the profits must come from the last half.

While the calf is probably the most effective milking machine so far known, he is not a profitable one to operate. He doesn't milk clean and takes too heavy toll for the returns he makes. Yet thousands of him are in use every year. Isn't there a heavy loss here for some one?

The Power of Conscience.

The proverb, "A guilty conscience needs no accuser," has been discounted in one Maine village by the effects of a general accusation published in the local paper. A tradesman had missed articles from his stock from time to time, and at length the clerk saw a woman take things she did not buy and pay for. This furnished the desired opportunity. An advertisement in the paper over the merchant's signature said that he had positive proof that "some of the best ladies" of the town had taken articles from his store, and if matters were not fixed up there would be a rumpus. This was only last week, and so far four women have been in to "settle up," with possibly more to follow. One woman came from an adjoining town to admit that she took up an article one day with the thought of stealing it, but repented and put it back again. In these cases the guilty conscience alone was not enough to do business; the accuser was needed as well.—Boston Journal.

During the dog-day season, the drain of nervous and vital energy may be counteracted by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, it acts as a superb corrective and tonic, and enables the system to defy malarial and other climatic influences.

Dr. Low's Worm Syrup cures and removes worms of all kinds in children or adults. Price 25c. Sold by all dealers.

Her Picked-Up Luncheon.

An emotional little married woman gurgled her woes to me in this style recently:

"Sometimes the lack of appreciation that my husband demonstrates almost maddens me.

"The other day I set out to serve up a nice little summer luncheon for his benefit on a day when I knew he would come home early.

"He is very fond of lobster, so I got a couple of large crustaceans—no easy task nowadays—and cook and I prepared 'lobster a la Newburg.'

"Then I had fried chicken with cream, another one of his favorites; cold asparagus, with dressing; cups of puree of tomato and a fruit salad.

"All this sounds kind of 'hind side before,' I suppose, but you may be sure it wasn't served that way.

"Well, my demon ate everything and enjoyed it all immensely, if appetite is any criterion.

"Then, when he had reached his limit, he sighed with satisfaction, straightened up as well as he was able, and said:

"'Sallie, that was fine! D'ye know, I'd rather have one of these little picked-up luncheons than the most elaborate meal you could get!'"—New York Recorder.

Clever But Cynicle.

Walter Besant, the well-known novelist, gives the following maxims, which are at once as cynical as they are clever:

Out of ten men nine are born to work for the tenth. Resolve to be the tenth.

Without trampling, the cleverest cannot get rich.

The consolation of those who fail is to depreciate those who succeed.

The greatest things are done by the greatest fools.

Wise men never attempt anything.

When you lose a leg begin at once to practice with a wooden one.

Men's motives are mercifully hidden by their shirt front.

Observe moderation in all things—especially in virtues.

The best way to make a man honest is to make him ashamed of being found out.

There may be pride even in confessing mistakes.

Everybody says that gentle birth is an accident, and everybody treats it as an achievement.

The most charming attribute of friendship is the right of candor.

The Best Preventive of Lice.

The hen has but one method of getting rid of lice, and that is by rolling and dusting herself in fine dry dirt. When she can do this she will be able to keep lice away and also get rid of the vermin if they attack her.

Home and Abroad.

It is the duty of everyone, whether at home or travelling for pleasure or business, to equip himself with the remedy which will keep up strength and prevent illness, and cure such ills as are liable to come upon all in every day life. Hood's Sarsaparilla keeps the blood pure and lest liable to absorb the germs of disease.

Hood's Pills are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c. per box.

GENTLEMEN.—I have used your Yellow Oil and have found it unequalled for burns, sprains, scalds, rheumatism, croup and colds. All who use it recommend it. MRS. HIGHT, Montreal, Que.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please," an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

New Life Insurance Office.

Mr. R. M. Gifford, of Toronto, superintendent of the Metroplitan Life Insurance Company, Toronto, was here yesterday opening an office of the company in town. An office has been opened at 374 George street, and Mr. Wm. McMullen is in charge. The Metropolitan of New York is a very strong concern. It claims to be paying $10 a minute to policy holders. It is one of the oldest insurance companies in the United States and has been doing business more than a quarter of a century. Its great feature is its industrial plan of life insurance, by which five cents per week or upwards secures a policy. All ages from 2 years to 70 taken in. All policies are an immediate benefit. Males and females are insured at the same cost. There are many other excellent features of the Metropolitan, which space will not allow to be stated, but full information can be secured from agents. Attention is directed to the advertisement for agents in this issue.

It Comes But Once a Year.

Only once a year is the opportunity afforded the citizens of Peterborough to go to Niagara Falls and Buffalo at mere fractional fares. Thanks to the Executive Committee of Court Littlejohn Foresters, our civic holiday has been fixed as the day for this annual trip, so that our citizens may go without making any special sacrifice. The tickets are the same price as on previous years—$1.75 to Toronto, $2.25 to Niagara Falls and $2.75 to Buffalo and return. You have the privilege to go to either place you like for the sum named. But the trip is made even more attractive this year than before. The ride from Queenston, Niagara Falls and Buffalo and return is over the line of the wonderful electric railway, on the Canadian side of the river, which runs aloug the banks of the Niagara river, in observation cars, and in full view of all the many points of interest which abound along the route. Rock ballast, no dust, no smoke, no cinders. dtf.

A BRIDGENORTH BLAZE.

The Saw Mills of Mr. W. B. Kelly, Bridgenorth, Totally Consumed by Fire last Night—A Large Amount of Lumber Destroyed—Wm. Mann Barely Escapes with His Life.

Last night about twelve o'clock the saw mills of Mr. W. B. Kelly, Bridgenorth, situated on the lake shore, near the floating bridge, were discovered to be on fire, and in a few minutes the whole structure was a seething mass of flames. The fire is supposed to have broken out in the boiler room, and was noticed a quarter of a mile away by some residents of the town, who were occupying their summer cottages. In fifteen minutes afterwards the mills were doomed. The residents of the village worked like Trojans to save the property and it is through their herculean efforts that the grist mill opposite was saved from destruction. A telephone message was sent to Mayor Kendry, town, for assistance, and the fire brigade, with the Slisby engine and one hose wagon, left for the scene of the conflagration. The firemen made remarkably good time in reaching Bridgenorth, considering the condition of the roads and the means at their disposal. The work done by the firemen when on the scene is deserving of all praise, and they were doing excellent work when a flue of the engine broke and forced them to give up the fight. During the progress of the fire, Mr. William Mann, a resident of the village and one employee of the mill had a narrow escape from instant death. In going into the mill to save some belting, the flames enveloped him, burning him severely about the head and neck. He also received serious injuries by falling a distance of fourteen feet.

The fire burned brightly until three o'clock this morning and could be plainly seen on all sides. A large number of people from the surrounding district and summer residents at Chemong flocked to the conflagration and where once stood the fine saw mills of Mr. W. B. Kelly is this morning a smouldering pile of embers. The flames destroyed besides the saw mills and machinery, 60,000 feet of the choicest lumber and 8,000 railroad ties. The loss on the mill and machinery will be $5,000 and on the lumber about $8,000. Mr. Kelly employed a number of hands in the mill and the loss will not only fall heavily on him, but will be the means of depriving a good many villagers of employment during the season. It is not known whether Mr. Kelly will rebuild the mill.

Mr. Kelly had an insurance of $3,000 on the mill and machinery, in the Royal and Western—two sums of $1,500 each and on the machinery $3,000, in the Western, Cox & Davis agents.

Mr. A. Jones, a member of the fire brigade, had an exciting experience at the fire. While shovelling coal into the fire hole of the engine, he had occasion to look into the furnace, when, on the instant, one of the flues of the boiler burst and the steam escaped through the door in great volumes. The force of the steam lifted Mr. Jones some distance, although the scalding he received is not considered serious. It was a narrow escape.

THE RANGERS VICTORIOUS.

By a Well Directed Fire They Capture the Cup—The 57th Ahead in the Canadian Military Rifle League Series.

The following from the Ottawa Free Press gives the information that the 57th Battalion has made the highest score in the third match of the Canadian Military Rifle League series, making the score of 3,496. In view of the fact that last year the Fifty Seventh captured the challenge cup for being the best drilled corps in the third Military District, and that this year the Rangers supply the complement for military perfection—the best shooting, this battalion may fairly be called the crack battalion. Last year the Fifty-seventh did not score in the League competition, that is, in the prize list, and the fact of its having advanced to first place shows what improvement can be effected by steady and intelligent practice at the butts. It may be mentioned that a study of the scores reveals the probability that Staff-Sergt. Bartlett will be awarded the special badge for making the highest aggregate individual score—374—in the series of matches. This is a double honour to the battalion. The prizes are a costly silver cup and a special badge to every member of the winning team. It will be observed that the Snider team of the 57th, made creditable shooting also, standing in sixth place. The 57th need not fear parading with flying colours.

The Ottawa Free Prass says:—Sufficient reports have now been received by Capt. E. D. Sutherland, secretary of the Canadian Military Rifle League to place the winners of the top prizes in each series. Until the last shoot the Hespeler Rifle Association led the field of over one hundred teams, but the 57th Battalion passed them handily at the last shoot. Not that it made a great deal of difference for these being in separate series did not compete against each other.

The leaders then in the Martini Battalion series:—

|---|---|
| 57th Batt, 1st prize, score | 3,496 |
| 45th Batt, 2nd, score | 3,480 |
| 43rd Batt, 3rd, score | 3,442 |
| G G F G, 4th, score | 3,433 |
| 7th Fusiliers, score | 3,429 |
| Q O R, score | 3,372 |
| 12th Batt, score | 3,637 |
| 59th Batt | 3,319 |
| 63rd Batt | 3,307 |
| H G A, Halifax | 3,272 |
| 43rd Batt, 2nd team | 3,260 |

Scores yet to be received, if the teams completed the last shoot, may alter the places of the last two or three, but it is scarcely probable.

SNIDER BATTALION SERIES.

The 13th Batt. Hamilton takes the cream of this series, their first and second teams taking the first two prizes with 3,346 and 3,285 respectively. Next in order comes the 3rd team of the 30th Batt. with 3,081 points; 76th Batt., 2nd team, 3,058; 13th Batt., 3rd team, 3,051; and 57th Batt., 2nd team, 3,010.

In the association Martini series, the Hespeler, R. A., comes first with 3,406, the Ottawa club second with 3,242.

The winner of the individual aggregate cannot yet be determined—probably Staff-Sergt. Bartlett, 27th.

HIGHEST AGGREGATES.

Winners of badges for the highest aggregates in the local teams are: 43rd, 1st team, Capt. E. D. Sutherland, 358 points; 2nd, Pte. W. T. Mason, 345; 3rd, Sgt. S. Short, 331; 4th, Sgt. C. J. Mills, 331; 5th, Lieut. Delaronde, 304. G.G.F.G., 1st team, Corp. J. H. Ellis; 2nd team, Bugler. A. J. Cawdron. Ottawa Rifle Club, Lt.-Col. W. P. Anderson.

The 13th Battalion wins the twenty, thirty and forty men prizes in the Snider series.

The 43rd Battalion takes the twenty, thirty and forty men Martini prizes.

Oshawa base ball team defeated Peterborough, on Tuesday, by a score of 20 to 18. Peterborough sports are now endeavouring to find some little game they can play.—Port Hope Times. Port Hope sports in baseball tried to find "some little game," when they tried, it is said, to buy Cobourg's pitcher, in the recent match with that town. The Times should be "game" when a charge like that is laid against their team.

Cobourg will play Ottawa ball at the Capital on the 25th.

LACROSSE.

Here is a chance for the Peterborough Juniors. The Young Checker Lacrosse Club, of Beaverton, would like to arrange a match with any junior team in Ontario, Uxbridge juniors preferred, to play at Beaverton at an early date for silver cup, valued at $25. Senior league players barred. Address John Campbell, Beaverton, Ont.

The secretary of the Peterboroughs has received word that the Beaverton team will be here on Tuesday, Aug. 7th to play a game with the local club. The Checkers are a first class team and are a tie with Orillia in the championship of the Northern district. They are old-time rivals of Peterborough on the lacrosse field, and are first-class stick handlers. The Peterboroughs will put a first class team on the field, and a good match will be played. The game will commence at 2.30 p.m.

RANGE AND RIFLE.

The Dominion Rifle Association matches begin on Monday, Aug. 27th, at the Rideau Range, Ottawa, and are timed to conclude on Friday, Aug. 31st. In cash the prizes aggregate $7,000, exclusive of prizes in cups, medals, badges and other trophies. About 500 marksmen will compete for the prizes.

THE QUESTION OF LICENSE REDUCTION.

The License Commissioners of West Peterborough have dealt with the town by-law requiring a reduction of the number of licenses. The reduction required has been made and, as was inevitable, there is complaint over the withholding of licenses from some hotels. In any event, whatever licenses had been cut off, there would have been complaint on the part of those deprived of licenses and their friends. In one sense, the Commissioners were placed in a delicate position; on the one hand they were confronted with the reduction by-law of the town to which they were bound to give effect; on the other hand they were confronted with the unpleasant duty of making a selection which whatever or whoever it might be, was certain to result in a certain degree of hardship to the party interested in the business and to excite a certain amount of protest and complaint. This duty the Commissioners endeavoured to discharge with a regard to the interests concerned in the matter of leases of premises devoted to the hotel business; and the retention of some otherwise undesirable premises was due to the condition of the leases these premises enjoyed, and the striking off of others was due to the fact of the leases having expired, or being on the point of expiry. There has been some comment passed upon the fact of the Croft House having been one of the hotels whose license was not renewed. In this case the proprietor's lease of the building had expired, and as there was no obstacle in the matter of leasehold interests, as existed in other cases in the way of reduction, the reduction was made. In this particular case it was considered a favourable opportunity to give expression to a strongly felt public sentiment against the impropriety, to speak the most mildly, of a liquor selling establishment being conducted upon church leasehold property. It will be remembered that about two years ago there was no inconsiderable degree of public feeling expressed, both on the streets and in the public press as to the impropriety of permitting the existence of a business from which the Divine approval is withheld upon the same premises, as, and contributing to the revenue of, a church where the gospel of temperance and sobriety is preached. Public and temperance feeling was very strongly expressed and the reason why this sentiment was not deferred to at that time was the fact that the lease of the house in question had a currency of about two years, and the same disinclination on the part of the commissioners to interfere harshly with existing leases in the recent reduction, was what prevented the license being cancelled at that time. But now, the lease having expired there was nothing in the shape of a sacrifice of vested interests to prevent the commissioners, while giving effect to the reduction by-law, to, at the same time, give effect to strongly pronounced public feeling in reference to the incongruous relations of a hotel to a church. And notwithstanding all that may be said in certain quarters, there is no doubt that the better classes of citizens and the church authorities, will commend the commissioners for taking an action that removes the reproach of a church devoted to the promotion of pious living and morality, receiving directly or indirectly, a revenue to aid in the promotion of these objects, from a traffic which is universally regarded as the direst foe to the advancement of the work of the church. As to the consistent and active advocates of temperance, those who have been long in the work, know very well that in the proprietor of the Croft House, aside from the anti-temperance influence of his business, they have had to contend with one of the most out-spoken and bitter opponents of temperance, and the most bitter denouncer of temperance workers in this district. Thus from a temperance point of view his retirement from the business will not be considered, in any sense, as a calamity. Those who took an active part in the Dunkin Act and Scott Act campaigns and the reduction bylaw will appreciate the situation and concede that the commissioners, whether intending it or not, have in this case acted in the interest of temperance progress.

THE DARK SIDE OF MARRIED LIFE.

Pictured in the Police Court This Morning.

A sad case of domestic infelicity was ventilated in the police court this morning. An old lady, of the town, laid information against her married son, charging him with assault. The woman appeared in the box and told a sad story of abuse and injury at the hands of her son, who was keeping his father under his room and allowing her to starve. She swore that he had kicked her and injured one of her limbs, and forced her out of his house. The evidence of the son and his young wife contradicted her story, and went to show that she attempted to force her way into his house, and that he had ejected her as gently as possible. The magistrate dismissed this charge. The old lady then pressed a charge of non-support against her husband and in giving evidence pictured her unhappy life with her husband, who she accused of supporting his son and wife and allowing her to be buffeted about by the ever changing winds of fortune. The husband's evidence contradicted all she had said and the magistrate in summing up stated that he was disgusted with them all and would dismiss the case. As usual in such cases, there was a large gathering of curious spectators in court who seemed to enjoy the unfortunate and sad case of domestic unhappiness.

THE SAGE OF CHINA.

SKETCH OF THE LIFE AND TIMES OF CONFUCIUS.

From a Worldly Point of View His Life a Failure, Yet His Tomb is Venerated After the Lapse of Twenty-Three Centuries.

From a worldly point of view the life of Confucius was a failure. His father, after divorcing his first wife, at the age of seventy married a young lady who became the mother of Confucius, 550 B.C. Dying when the little boy was three years old, he left his family in straitened circumstances. Poverty is an excellent training-ground, and in later life Confucius was wont to admit that he owed much to his early experience; but as he married, according to the custom of his nation, before he was twenty, he was compelled to accept a post as keeper of stores and superintendent of pastures and herds. These uncongenial duties he conscientiously fulfilled for the support of his wife and child, and we may gather a hint of his character from the testimony of Mencius as to his efficiency in such work. Through all his teaching there runs a note of thoroughness. "Sincerity" is often on his lips; "hold faithfulness and sincerity as first principles" he taught. "Be reverent" was the refrain of the older Chinese books on which doubtless he was reared. "The superior man by his self-reverence maintains inward correctness." It is as though he said, "Realise the far-reaching quality of even the least thing; have a reverent regard for its importance, be true in the very smallest particular, be sincere even in thought." "The superior man even when he is not acting has a feeling of reverence; and when he does not speak he has the feeling of truthfulness." "Allow no self-deception; the superior man must be watchful over himself when he is alone."

When in your chamber, 'neath its light
Maintain your conscience pure and bright.

These are his teachings, and we have not grown beyond them even in the nineteenth century. The natural bent of his mind had been indicated by his childish games. When only five or six he played at sacrifices and practised the postures enjoined at ceremonies, for which the Chinese have a peculiarly elaborate ritual. As early as fifteen his mind was set upon learning, and it must have been a supreme joy to him in his twenty-second year to commence his work as a teacher. At this stage of his career he was full of enthusiasm and hope; he saw the evils of his day and set himself to remedy them.

It was a troublous time in Chinese history. State was warring against state, corruption and disorder reigned everywhere; it was a period of general degeneracy. Confucius believed that he had a mission from heaven to teach the true principles of human duty and of government. In this belief he never wavered, and during one of his administrations under the Marquis of Lu he had the satisfaction for two years of seeing the beneficent result of his principles. "Crime ceased," we are told; "dissoluteness and dishonesty hid their heads. Loyalty and good faith became the characteristics of men, chastity and docility those of women. He was the idol of the people, and flew in songs through their mouth." But it did not last. The other states grew jealous of the prosperity of Lu, and plotted for the overthrow of the reformer. When Confucius saw that they had fallen away from his teachings, he retired from his post, but to the suggestion of his disciples that his principles were too rigid and he should bate them a little he nobly replied: "A good husbandman can sow, but he cannot secure a harvest; an artisan may excel in handicraft, but he cannot provide a market for his goods; and in the same way a superior man can cultivate his principles, but he cannot make them acceptable."

Of the personal appearance of this great man some traditional details have survived, but it is hardly likely that they are very accurate after the lapse of twenty-three centuries. Of his characteristics we have more reliable evidence in his actions and words. His sincerity has been alluded to, he was also eminently courageous, morally and physically. A noble by descent, he never appears to have used this fact for his own advancement. In order to estimate the position of Confucius, we must try and understand the China to which he came. It was a time of long-continued anarchy, for five centuries there had been no settled ruler. Social conditions were bad; political and private morality were at their lowest, and to religion they were absolutely indifferent. Mencius tells us that "the world had fallen into decay and right principles had disappeared when Confucius undertook the work of reformation."

From times as far back as the Deluge the Chinese had written records. History and poetry, interspersed with philosophy and morality, had preserved religion in the past, and it was to these records that the sage addressed himself. In trying to estimate him truly, we must not compare his teachings with those of the New Testament, but with those of his contemporaries who wrote in the Old, and we must not forget that the Bible itself supplies us with illustrations of the same use of the word "Heaven" when Daniel says to Nebuchadnezzar, "Thou shalt know that the heavens do rule," and in the confession of the Prodigal, "I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight." In the Confucian system rewards and punishments are meted out in this life, not always to the individual but certainly to the family. "Good and evil do not wrongly befall men, but Heaven sends down misery or happiness according to their conduct." The only approach to a future reward is the prospect of having one's name recorded in the temple of the ancestors. "To retain a place in the temple of ancestors is a sufficient witness of virtue." The highest honor they could bestow upon their teacher is the veneration with which his tomb is regarded, even to the present day.—Mrs. Boyd Carpenter, in the Sunday Magazine.

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

SOME HOME REMEDIES.

For a bee sting, make a paste of earth and water. Cover the stung place with it, bind it on, and it will soon give relief.

When a felon first begins to appear cut off the end of a lemon, put the finger in it and keep it there as long as it can be borne.

For a sore throat, try a frequent gargle of salt and water. If a little is swallowed it will allay the irritation, cleanse the throat and do no harm.

For stains on the hands nothing is better than salt moistened with lemon juice. Rub the spots well with the mixture, then wash off in clean water.

It is said that a good remedy for strengthening and clearing the voice is to beat the white of an egg with the juice of a lemon and sweeten it well with sugar and use as needed.

To cure round shoulders, sleep perfectly horizontal—that is without any bolster or pillow. The habit can easily be acquired of sleeping thus, and the round shoulders will soon be straightened.

For a cough, boil an ounce of whole flaxseed in a pint of water, strain and add a little honey, the juice of two lemons and an ounce of rock candy. Stir together and boil a few minutes. Drink hot.

FOR MOTHER AND THE REST.

White spots upon tarnished furniture will disappear if a hot plate be held over them.

You can take out spots from wash goods by rubbing them with the yolk of eggs before washing.

The hair may be kept from falling out after illness by a frequent application of sage tea to the scalp.

When the finger nails are dry and break easily, vaseline rubbed on after the hands are washed will do a world of good.

When thin flannel under-garments irritate the skin of the baby in hot weather place between them and the skin a layer of soft linen or muslin.

A strip of oilcloth placed at each side of a bed will cure any case of somnambulism. It is said that the cold surface of the oilcloth will invariably awaken the sleeper.

Rubber gloves are a great saving of time and labor over the hands, as they keep them free from any grease and dirt likely to be absorbed when doing housework.

IT'S A SECRET

—that many women owe their beauty to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The reason—beauty of form and face, as well as grace, radiate from the common center—health. The best bodily condition results from good food, fresh air, and exercise, coupled with the judicious use of the "Prescription." In maidenhood, womanhood, and motherhood, it's a supporting tonic that's peculiarly adapted to her needs, regulating, strengthening, and curing, the derangements of the sex.

If there be headache, pain in the back, bearing-down sensations, or general debility, or if there be nervous prostration, and sleeplessness, the "Prescription" reaches the origin of the trouble and corrects it. It dispels aches and pains, corrects displacements and cures catarrhal inflammation of the lining membranes. It's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money paid for it is refunded.

Beware of Fruit Skins.

With regard to the eating of fruit an important caution must be given: Fruit skins carry germs and are no more intended for human sustenance than potato skins, melon rinds or pea pods. The bloom of the peach is a luxuriant growth of microbes, that of the grape only less so; and when these skins are taken into the stomach they find most favorable conditions for their lively and rapid development, which causes the decay of the fruit before it is possible to digest it. This is the reason that many persons think they cannot eat raw fruit. If they would in all cases discard the skin they could derive only good from the fruit itself. Nature provides the skin for the protection of the fruit from the multitude of germs which are ever ready to attack it, as is evidenced when the skin is bruised or broken in any way. The microbes at once begin their work of decay, and the fruit is unfit for food. Children are chief offenders in respect to this rule, and should be carefully watched and frequently cautioned. A daintiness as to the condition of fruit should also be cultivated, to prevent its being eaten unripe, or too old, on the verge of decay. Remember that it is sweet and ripe fruit, in prime condition only, that is recommended.

To Produce Frosted Gold.

In boiling pure gold plates and foil in hydrochloric acid, Professor A Liversidge, of Sidney, has produced on the surface a beautiful crystallization or frosting. The crystals are more or less regular and very small, giving an appearance somewhat resembling that familiar to us in tinplate and galvanized iron. It is suggested that the effect may be utilized for decorating jewelry and other articles.

One Way to Frame Photographs.

A cheap and easy way of framing two or more photogrrphs is to take four pieces of ribbon and stitch each two of them together at intervals just as wide as a cabinet photograph. Fringe the ends and slip the picture in between the ribbons at both top and bottom. By arranging the pictures at angles with each other they will stand upright.

AN ITEMIZED SUCCESS.

That a woman can succeed.

Peruse and ponder the following facts: Miss Mary E. Cutler lives in Hillistou, Mass.

After her father's death ten years ago she became sole manager of sixty-eight acres of land.

At that time a school teacher, she quit directing the shooting of young minds and then went to farming it.

Friends and neighbors shook their heads and said: "Don't you do it, Mary." But Mary said, with a plucky and decided air, that she would and she did.

Fruit and vegetables are the chief crops. She supervises all the work herself and sells the products of her skill and industry direct to consumers, the surplus going to canneries.

The peach orchard numbers fourteen hundred vigorous, bearing trees, and when it is stated that not a failure has this wide-awake woman scored in seven years in raising successful crops of peaches, you will admit it is not all chance.

ODD CORNERS OF THE EARTH.

In Japan they don't throw flowers or wreaths at an actor. They give him a drop-curtain.

Fashionable young ladies in Japan, when they desire to look very attractive, gild their lips.

In Australia it is the fashion to keep the bodies of the dead till Sunday in order to insure a large attendance at the funeral.

The Egyptians were hard drinkers. Their first dish at the table was boiled cabbage, served with salt meat to stimulate their thirst.

If an Egyptian desires a divorce all he has to do is to repeat three times the words "I put you from me," and the legal separation is complete.

A typical southern African household described by Oliver Shreiner has an English father, a half Dutch mother with a French name, a Scotch governess, a Zulu cook, a Hottentot housemaid and a Kaffir stable boy, while the little girl who waited on the table was a Basuto.

What do you take medicine for? Because you are sick and want to get well, of course. Then remember, Hood's SarsaparillaCURES.

DEAR SIRS,—I was suffering very much from diarrhœa, and could get nothing to cure me. A friend told me of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and a few doses completely cured me.

HERE'S A SNAKE STORY.

A BICYCLE RIDER'S WONDERFUL RIDE IN A RELAY RACE.

Two Big Ohio Reptiles Kept Him Company Up Hill and Down—One of Them Cut into Small Bits by the Spokes—A Live Bicycle Tyre.

A most peculiar and interesting snake story is told by a bicyclist who rode one of the relays in the race across Ohio from Sandusky to Portsmouth recently. It will be remembered, says the New York World, that the entire distance of 214 miles was covered in 12¼ hours, and from this it will be seen that at no time could the speed have been slow.

The rider declares that while wheeling at a good gait he reached the top of a long slope which gradually dropped to the bed of a stream. When near the bottom of the hill his speed must have been nearly a twenty-five-mile gait. While going at this speed he discovered what he took to be a limb lying across the road. As he came closer and when too late to turn out he discovered that the supposed limb was a snake about ten feet long, and just beyond a second reptile of nearly equal length.

His wheel struck the nearer snake and went over easily, but the reptile in some way gave warning to its companion, which raised its head and struck savagely at the shimmering spokes. The snake's head passed between the spokes near the hub, and the snake fastened its fangs on the spokes at the opposite side of the wheel.

The effect of this was to slacken the speed of the bicycle, and the rider was almost thrown from his wheel by the sudden stop, but maintained his seat and kept his machine going straight ahead. It was remarkable that the knifelike revolutions of the spokes did not cut the snake in two, but the long body of the snake was drawn within the wheel, and the centrifugal force threw it close to the felloe, where it lay curled around the circumference of the wheel and quite safe.

The rider dared not stop for fear of being bitten and was afraid of increasing his speed lest the snake should slip from the wheel and becoming entangled throw him to the ground. He noticed, however, that his speed was becoming gradually less, but attributed this to the fact that he was now going uphill and to the weight of the reptile. But as he reached the top of the hill he heard a scraping and hissing noise behind him and turned to ascertain the cause; he was horrified to see that the second and larger snake was also caught in his bicycle and was holding on by its tail.

The wheelman now decided to increase his speed, in order to shake his second enemy, and strained every muscle to attain a higher speed, but the dead weight of the snake dragging in the dust behind proved too much for his already tried muscles. With two miles to go before he met the next relay, he was in a quandary as to how he would escape, but, glancing back, he saw that the snake had twined its tail around the step by which a rider mounts a bicycle.

The step was of the pattern called the "rat trap," because of its sharp teeth on the upper side. The wheelman, taking in the situation, reached back with his left foot and brought the heel of his shoe down forcibly upon the snake's tail, completely severing it and causing the snake to drop off.

The reptile hissed and started in pursuit, but the bicycle was easily kept in the lead. A farmer came along and, being attacked by the snake, killed it. The bicyclist, a short distance further on, finished his run. Arming himself with a club, he examined his wheel, and found that the other snake was dead, and not only that, but it was literally cut into small bits. The centrifugal force had been so great that it had forced the body of the snake deeper and deeper into the apex of spokes, and the reptile was cut into chunks and had to be removed bit by bit.

A Commercial Success.

The Gray telautograph exchange in Lexington, Ky., is giving perfect satisfaction and, we understand, is commercially successful. This was the company's first experiment in a public telautograph exchange, as progress has been made continuously while the instrument has been reduced to still greater simplicity and perfection. Another shipment of instruments is being prepared for Syracuse, N.Y., where an exchange is about to organize, and a demand for them is being created in all parts of the world, including China.

A Parisian Sink.

The floor of the kitchen in a Paris apartment is of brick tiling, all the other floors of polished wood, generally oak. The sink in the kitchen is quite unlike anything known by the name in this country. It is usually a slab of limestone chiseled to a depth of about two inches, set upon a frame; the walls around it are tiled. The waste pipe passes through one corner of the block of stone.

MRS. LANGLEY'S CASE.

Despatches to American Papers From London Cause a Furore Among the Good People of Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., July 23.—A despatch to a local paper from London, Ont., concerning a former resident of this city, has created a furore among our people. Mrs. Wm. Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave., London South, was during the latter years of her residence here, constantly subject to fits, which doctors of this city and Detroit failed to cure. The despatch received here says that Mrs. Langley is now completely cured. Two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first she improved and now is perfectly well. The natural inference is that her fits were caused by diseased kidneys, for which there is no remedy equal to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. ## THE CHEMICAL POLICE.

HOW THE GREAT FOOD INSPECTION WORK IS DONE IN PARIS.

Analyzing Bread and Bombs—The Public is a Large Patron of the Institution Bringing Painted Toys, Cakes, Etc., for Tests.

"The Municipal Laboratory," said a physician to me in Paris," writes Ida M. Tarbell in McClure's Magazine, "is a chemical police service. Instead of a surveillance over men, it exercises one over compositions. It searches for poisons, microbes and adulterations, just as the ordinary police searches for assassins, thieves and embezzlers."

With this remark in mind when I went to see the Municipal Laboratory for myself, I was not surprised to find it installed, as a department of the police, in the Prefecture, a massive pile of building facing Notre Dame, and standin the very heart of Paris. Here it occupies some 17 rooms in the basement and ground floor. Its present organization dates from 1881, but it really began five years earlier in a station established to detect artificiality in the coloring of wine. The purpose expanded until now the end of the department is to give the people of Paris full information regarding the composition of the food and drink offered for their consumption, and of various other articles (including children's toys and anarchists' bombs) likely to do them harm.

The force employed to prosecute the manifold work of the department consists of a laboratory director, M. Charles Girard, who has been at the head of the institution since the beginning, and may be said, indeed, to have created it; an assistant chief, Monsieur M. Dupres, to whom some of the most ingenious and convenient contrivances peculiar to the laboratory are due; a body of chemists, who devote themselves to analysis, each having his specialty of wine, milk, water or other substance; and a body of expert inspectors, a sort of chemical patrol, which, armed with microscopes and endowed with full police power, is free to penetrate into the inner oven of the bakery, the bottom-most pit of the grocer's cellar, to take the top layer off every display and look behind every garnish, to confiscate and destroy if it deems best, and to bring back in any case samples of everything suspicious it sees.

The inspectors bring in the larger number of the samples analyzed in the laboratory. In 1889, out of 18,117 specimens analyzed 12,778 had been submitted by them. But the public is no indifferent patron. Is the coffee muddy, the milk blue, the wine sour, the meat tough, madame or monsieur appear forthwith at the desk where samples are received to demand an explanation. There is something highly picturesque in the group that gather in the obscure and rather dingy office. Often there is much that is amusing, so extraordinary are the specimens they submit, the theories they advance. And there, too, no little that is pathetic. They are not often rich, these people. Most of them wear blouses or black aprons, and rarely is there a woman whose head is covered. Probably there are few the combined wages of whose households average over 10 or 15 franks a day, though the wife, like the husband, has worked her 10 hours.
